

BRANDT PURJURY CASE ON TRIAL.

It Grew Out of the Palmer Murder Case.

The Point at Issue Is, Did Brandt Tell the Truth When He Testified Therein?

The trial of Ferdinand Brandt for perjury was commenced in the Department One of the Superior Court yesterday.

Brandt, it will be remembered, testified in the trial of H. J. Palmer for the murder of Charles Phleger, that before the shooting he met Phleger on the street in this city, and in the course of a conversation between them Phleger told him that he would kill Palmer the first time he met him, and exhibited a pistol at the time.

It was claimed on the part of the prosecution that that part of Brandt's testimony was false, and an information was filed against him for perjury.

Deputy District Attorney J. Charles Jones is conducting the prosecution, and Brandt is being defended by Charles M. Beckwith. The following jurors were selected to try the case: S. W. Haynes, F. H. Wing, Philip Wise, J. Gastman, James Smith, F. X. Williams, Henry Fair, J. D. Lockhart, William Gribble, C. Lester, H. Kennedy and A. Burnett.

E. P. Pfund, Clerk of Department Two of the Superior Court, in which Palmer was tried, testified as having administered the oath to Brandt in the trial of Palmer. The court reporter, testified to having reported the defendant's testimony, and read it from notes taken at the trial.

Mrs. Charles Jones testified that her husband never possessed a pistol, and of her own knowledge he was not in Sacramento during the month of February, 1892. In the Palmer trial Brandt testified that on a day in that month Phleger told him of his intention to kill Palmer.

William Kemro testified that he was in General A. L. Hart's office when Brandt made the statement that Phleger told him he would kill Palmer. The witness took Brandt's statement down in shorthand.

C. T. Jones, who testified in the trial of Brandt, testified to having sworn and testifying that Phleger told him he would kill Palmer as soon as he would meet him.

The prosecution here closed, and testimony for the defense was then introduced. Byron Pierce testified that Phleger and Brandt were acquainted before the former's death. This testimony was offered to offset the testimony on the part of the prosecution that Phleger and Brandt were not acquainted and that it was not probable that the former disclosed any intention of killing Palmer to the defendant.

H. E. Harrison of Knight's Landing testified that Brandt was working on the Fair ranch, of which Palmer was manager, and where Phleger was manager, some time before the shooting. He testified to seeing Phleger load two pistols in the rear of the Hyman Hotel in Woodland. He afterward saw Palmer in the front part of the hotel, and told him what he had seen. The witness said he is in the hack business in Woodland, and was on friendly terms with both Phleger and Palmer.

A recess was then taken until 10 o'clock this morning.

HIS ANKLE BROKEN.

Henry Wagner's unfortunate jump from a car.

Henry Wagner, who was arrested last week on suspicion of stealing grain from the cars, but released on proof of his innocence, had a narrow escape from death yesterday in Washington, getting off with a broken ankle.

HE JUMPED ON THE BRAKEBEAM OF THE EAST-BOUND OVERLAND TRAIN AT DAVISVILLE, BUT NOT WISHING TO BE SEEN RIDING INTO THIS CITY, HE WENT TO JUMP OFF AT THE WASHINGTON END OF THE BRIDGE.

His left foot caught in one of the rods, however, snapping the bone and dislocating the ankle. He managed to get one arm and a leg over the brakebeam and hung on for his life, being dragged clear across the bridge into the depot. When the train stopped he dropped to the ground and crawled out.

He was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where City Physician Fowler reduced the fracture, and he was taken to his home at 609 Fourth street.

ALLOWED TO GO.

Visack Says He Did Not Intend to Injure Taylor.

Henry Visack was charged in the Police Court yesterday with disturbing the peace at the Clunie Opera-house on Saturday night.

J. H. Todd testified that he had been informed that Visack was looking for Special Officer Taylor, and had been threatening him. He sent him away but he came back, even after two officers had taken him away.

Officer Douglas testified to sending him away and that he came back again. He said he was sent to put him in the patrol wagon and they had to handcuff him.

Visack said he had not intended to harm Taylor, and only resisted the officers because he did not know for what he was arrested.

He was found guilty, but as he had no money to pay the fine, he was committed to the county jail.

drink his sentence was continued till today.

THE ELECTION RETURNS.

It Will Take Until About Friday to Complete the Canvass.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday commenced the official canvass of the returns of the late election for State and county officers, as received from the precinct election boards. There was considerable time lost in getting the work under way because of the delay in receiving the blanks on which the returns were to be copied.

It was 2:30 p. m. when the canvass was begun, and at 4 o'clock the board took a recess until 9 o'clock this morning, having gone over the returns from the first and second precincts of the first supervisor District. Bert Kidder, A. Helms, H. C. Bryan and Ed. J. Kay were employed by the board to do the clerical work.

When everything was in readiness to proceed Supervisor Jenkins suggested that such persons as had been designated by the precinct election boards to represent them during the canvass of the returns should make themselves known and be recognized.

Mr. Jenkins said he had been selected by the Republican committee for that duty. Isadore Alexander said that himself, Thomas Fox and W. H. Devlin had been designated by the Democratic committee, and Messrs. Daily and Warner were recognized on behalf of the Populist committee.

The boardroom was crowded with candidates, precinct election officers, party workers and others. Some candidates who did not come within a thousand votes of being elected were on hand with notebooks and pencils to do a little "figuring" and to see that they got "a square deal."

The tally-sheets of the two precincts canvassed were found to be in good shape, and the count proceeded without a hitch or sensational feature. The first precinct gave David Reid and Estes 75 votes for governor, and the second 82 and 83, respectively.

These figures are exactly the same as those included in the Record-Union's published totals. At the rate of progress made yesterday, and allowing eight hours a day for the work, about sixteen per day will be canvassed, and the canvass will be completed in about ten days.

It may be worthy of note that the returns from the second precinct bore the signature of the late Governor, the late Governor, and the late Governor.

The prosecution here closed, and testimony for the defense was then introduced.

Byron Pierce testified that Phleger and Brandt were acquainted before the former's death. This testimony was offered to offset the testimony on the part of the prosecution that Phleger and Brandt were not acquainted and that it was not probable that the former disclosed any intention of killing Palmer to the defendant.

THE SCAFFOLDING FELL.

Hod-Carrier W. C. Jackson Narrowly Escapes Death.

A colored man named William C. Jackson met with a severe accident at the Golden Eagle Hotel yesterday.

A scaffold had been erected on the seventh-story side of the hotel on which brickmasons were standing while cutting an archway. In some manner a quantity of earth or other material fell from the arch upon the scaffolding, crushing it to the sidewalk.

Jackon, who is a hod-carrier, was on the walk, and as the falling timbers and bricks struck him on the head, he fell, and was carried to the hospital.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

Their Semi-Annual Pilgrimage to the North End of the Capitol.

The State Board of Examiners has made its semi-annual move to the north end of the Capitol building, to make way for the Justices of the Supreme Court.

The Secretary, Mr. Pratt, is overwhelmed with work at present, as all the biennial reports are in this fall, and all the business of the administration has to be attended to. His office is now in the north end of the Capitol building.

The manufacturers of Dr. Price's Baking Powder own the largest plant and the best machinery and use the purest material in making baking powder.

Chance for Bargains.

At 10 a. m. to-day Bell & Co. will commence the sale at auction, at 429 J street, of the large and miscellaneous bankrupt stock of hardware, crockery, etc., of R. A. Gains & Co., of Biggs, Butte County.

The stock embraces all sorts of tools and implements used by mechanics and other goods kept in a general supply store, including kitchen articles.

Train Derailed at Arno.

Train No. 110 struck a horse at Arno Station yesterday morning on the switch. The horse was thrown under the locomotive, which derailed the engine and eleven cars. Passengers were transferred around the wreck and the wrecking train was sent down, which cleared the track during the day. No one was hurt.

De Carlow Arraigned.

W. H. De Carlow, who was arrested on Saturday by Constable Brissel on a charge of having stolen a quantity of grain from box cars on I street, was arraigned in Justice Henry's court yesterday. His examination was set for Saturday and his bail was fixed at $2,000.

But He Had Lots of Fun.

The first statement of expenses of the election was filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. Henry Longin, an unsuccessful People's party candidate for Justice of the Peace of Sacramento Township, says in his statement that he only expended $14 25 toward his candidacy.

Dissolved Without Cost.

In Department Two of the Superior Court Judge Johnson yesterday entered a decree dissolving Reclamation District No. 10. The district was organized on an improved plan.

A Homestead Petition.

Matthew Rainey has petitioned the Superior Court to set aside as a homestead his property located in the block bounded by Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets.

WORDEN'S SENTENCE IS DELAYED.

It Will Not Be Pronounced Until Next Friday.

Hatch's Trial Begun—Hart and Gaddis Are Appointed to Defend Appelman, Alias "Texas."

Special to the Record-Union.

WOODLAND, Nov. 12.—At 1:30 to-day, the hour and time set for pronouncing the sentence of death upon S. D. Worden, for murder in the first degree, of the wrecking of the train and killing of Engineer Sam Clark and four soldiers on July 11th, the Courtroom was crowded with morbidly curious people.

Promptly at 1:30 Attorney Strong walked into Court, and the prisoner was sent for. Then came the dread question: "Have you anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed?"

A moment of fearful stillness followed, which was broken by Attorney Strong, Worden's counsel.

"I would like a continuance until next Monday in this case, your Honor. I have some authorities I wish to cite, and I have a statement I wish to make. I have not the time the authorities by me, nor can I prepare the statement until the evidence has been written up."

The Court suggested to Mr. Strong that Friday would be a good day, and it was so ordered.

A shade of disappointment passed over the faces of the curious throng in the Courtroom, and the other two defendants were called for. The statement until the evidence has been written up."

"I thought that no one but Attorney Strong and Worden's brother know what point is to be raised."

"Separately," said Attorney A. L. Hart, who sat beside Hatch and wore a yellow chrysanthemum in his coat lapel.

"Appelman, this is the time set for the trial of Hatch and Appelman," said Judge Grant a few moments after Worden had been led back to jail. "Shall they be tried separately or together?"

"I can appoint one," said Judge Grant. "I had hoped that he would not, Mr. Appelman, he said, was a poor man and had not been able to raise money with which to employ counsel."

The court—it is useless to argue that question any further. Appelman's case will be set for December 31, and Messrs. Hart and Gaddis are appointed attorneys for him.

Hart—I hope the court will not appoint a man from abroad. I am a native-born citizen of this State, and I will stand. Call the panel, Mr. Clerk.

General Hart subsided, and Carroll Cook protested. Appelman was led back to jail.

The trial of Melvin Hatch was then begun. While the witnesses were offering excuses for not wanting to be jurors, a demurrer was taken and the case was quietly all in black, slipped through the jury box, and the case was over.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Expressions of Interior California (Santa Cruz Herald).

Politically we can see no hope for the Populists after gaining and losing Oregon, Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska, being utterly routed after having secured control and opportunity to enrich themselves in power and favor.

The movement originally contained much of hope and promise for the betterment of political conditions but the outspiken anarchists and socialists who took advantage of its open freedom of expression to air their reactionary views have caused the conservative masses to regard the party with distrust, a distrust that can never be overcome.

DISBURSED.

(Riverside Press.) The treatment given Southern California's only candidate for the Supreme Court by the Northern Californians will not help to convince the people in this State of the wisdom of recommending a union that sacrifices everything to the interests of the politicians of San Francisco.

Domestic Disensions. (Woodland Democrat.) One of the factors that resulted in reducing the Democratic representation in the House of Representatives was the party in many districts. So much stupidity and incompetency in political management has never before witnessed in this country.

Some of the railway men who were thrown out of work by their actions during the strike, have organized a company which proposes to build a railway from San Diego across the continent. It is organized on a co-operative basis. The company will have control of the railway company, by the time that they have a section of road under operation, may change the views they had last summer about syndicate strikes.

We hope the Republican party of this State realizes that there is such a thing as too much bossism. (Red Bull News.) The New Beliefs that President Cleveland is primarily responsible for the party's overthrow. Hard times had been called for several years before his election. In 1890 the Democrats were as much of the fact and attributed it to the McKinley bill, which contained had the effect of making money scarce and driving down the value of the currency.

Attacked by a Vicious Brute. The bloodthirsty animal first attacked its mistress, but she managed to escape.

A Six-Year-Old Boy Nearly Killed by a Dog. The little six-year-old son of George Marinovich, who resides at 1209 Q street, was horribly bitten last evening by a big and vicious dog owned by a neighbor living a few doors away.

The dog had a bad reputation in the neighborhood, but up to last night he had contented himself with rushing at passers-by, barking and making himself generally annoying.

The brute had been acting ugly all day yesterday, and the wife of the dog-owner, whose name could not be learned, was herself afraid of it. She coaxed the dog into the house and fed him liberally in the hope that he would become more docile, but her efforts in that direction were wasted.

Last evening, while outside the house, the vicious brute flew at her and attempted to seize her by the back of the head or neck. The woman managed to shake him off, however, without injury. The little Marinovich boy was standing on the sidewalk in front of his home waiting to greet his father, who is a stone-cutter in the employ of Cavalry Brothers, on his return from his work. When the dog's mistress had shaken him off he looked about for some other and easier victim, and sprang the child into his arms. He leaped upon the little fellow, knocking him down, at the same time burying his teeth in the child's arm. He would doubtless have killed the child had not some neighbors hastened to the spot with clubs and beaten the brute until completely senseless. The child was bitten and mutilated about the head, his scalp being so badly torn that fifteen or twenty stitches were required to close the principal wound.

A policeman was called and the dangerous canine killed. If this had been done long ago the neighborhood would have rejoiced, and the poor child that was mangled last evening would not have been scarred for life.

WHAT YOU MOST NEED

Some Good Advice About What is Required in the Life.

Did you ever stop to think about the necessity for a stimulant? Nature supplies her own. It is astonishing what she will do if given a chance. In how short a time will she receive the over-tired brain by means of rest and sleep. A healthy man of woman re-ports readily to her treatment. But we are not all healthy. Doctors tell us that not two people in every hundred are perfectly sound in body and mind. Nature, for that reason, cannot keep us healthy or cure our ailments. We must gain stimulant from some other source, get fresh energy and life, or we break down. The blood must have new animation given to it, and sent rushing through the veins with renewed vitality, a spark given to the eyes, a flush of health to the cheeks. The whole system must be purified and strengthened. Men and women who neglect this are pale, puny and dependent. For them there is no charm, "but," you say, "how is this to be done?" There is but one way, and that is by the help of the best and purest stimulant that science has ever discovered. Doctors tell us that whisky, when administered pure, is the only thing that will answer this purpose. There is but one pure whisky known to the world, and that is the Pure Malt Scotch Whisky. It is the only whisky that has ever gained wide-spread popularity through its merits alone. It is highly recommended by all the doctors, endorsed by ministers, praised by lawyers, and taken by every man and woman who desires to keep his health, and who is to be borne carefully in mind, for some unscrupulous druggists or grocers, because they can make more money on inferior whisky, and that which is not medicinal, try to sell in place of J. & J. Pure Malt. Do not be deceived, but secure that which you know to be the best.
