

KERN COUNTY'S "AWFUL EXAMPLE"

Almost Bereft of Its Wild Game by a Few Men.

Fields That Once Teemed With Quail Now Barren—Supervisors Deaf to All Appeals.

Up to a few years ago Kern County was a veritable sportsman's paradise. It was one of the finest quail and duck-shooting districts in the State.

Now all this is changed. The ruthless slaughter of game by market hunters has well nigh exterminated the quail in the valley near Bakersfield.

So regardless of the market-shooters become of the rights of the people, that at least the latter demand some protection at the hands of the Supervisors of the county.

While the evidence taken before the board was such as would have opened the eyes of the Hip Van Winkle members, it seems to have had just the opposite effect, judging by the following report in the Bakersfield Californian.

"The Board of Supervisors disposed of a petition this morning that requested an ordinance passed prohibiting shipment of game outside of the county.

"Among the statements made was the astonishing one that $20,000 per year was probably received from game shipped from Bakersfield out of the county.

"An interesting question in this connection is, how long can the game of this county stand such a drain? It certainly looks very like killing the goose that lays the golden eggs."

"It will now be in order for some country editor to assert that the Kern County game was killed off by members of San Francisco gun clubs, and that the Supervisors of the county were right in jumping with both feet on the attempt to enact an 'odious English game law' on Kern County.

"Kern now has her McCutchen Brothers and their fruit farm as a consideration for the almost extinction of her game, and it does not require much 'figgering' to demonstrate whether she has made or lost by the bargain.

"Yes, she has her McCutchen brothers and their fruit farm—and some 'hayseed' officials.

"Patrick Kelly and Frank Kunsting have petitioned the Superior Court for the probate of the will of Timothy McEmery, deceased.

"The heirs-at-law are a brother, Thomas McEmery, living at Highland Park, and several nephews and nieces, the names and ages of whom are unknown to petitioners.

Beautiful Moonlight Effects Enjoyed Only by Early Risers. The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 53° and 41°, with fresh to brisk and variable winds and clear weather prevailing.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 52° and 47°, with a high of 51° and a low of 37° and a day-to-day 55° and 43°, with 16 of an inch, making for last season to date 3.08 inches, while the present season has received 2.97 inches.

The rains have so cleaned and purified the atmosphere that at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, from the tower of the Government observatory, the snow range could be plainly distinguished by the bright moonlight, something unusual so far from the mountains.

Judge Prewelt of Placer Bears the Contested Case. The motion to strike out parts of the complaint, and the demurrer in the contest of Almira J. Heichert and Saraf I. Wermuth, and their husbands, against John C. Scroggs and Mary Scroggs, his wife, and Alexander Scroggs, Jr., for the possession of the estate of Alexander Scroggs, Sr., deceased, was argued in Department One of the Superior Court yesterday before Judge J. E. Prewelt of Auburn, and taken under advisement until this morning.

In the matter of the estate of Alexander Scroggs, Sr., the opposition to the appointment of Alexander Scroggs, Jr., as administrator was withdrawn, and he was appointed as such, with bonds fixed at $5,000.

At Least This is What She Promised Justice Devine. Grace Cook was the sole cause of Justice Devine's holding a session of the Police Court yesterday morning. She pleaded not guilty to the charge of being a common drunk, and asked for a continuance, which was denied.

Office Talbot gave evidence that inclined the court to think she might possibly be guilty of the charge, but Justice Devine is always tempered with mercy. He hesitated to set the seal of condemnation on her, but promised to refrain from drinking he returned a verdict of not guilty, but she must not do so again, and she walked forth under the pure air of heaven a free woman.
