

CAMPBELL AT THE HEAD.

Ohio Democrats Insist That He Again Run for Governor.

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION BY THE STATE CONVENTION.

Senator Brice Carries His Point of Having Only a Reaffirmation of the National Currency Plank Inserted in the Platform—The Senator Also Presides Over the Convention of Eight Hundred Delegates.

SPRINGFIELD (O.), Aug. 21.—In spite of James E. Campbell's earnest and repeated protests that his friends must not nominate him as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, as he could not make the race for various reasons, the ex-Governor was put at the head of the ticket by acclamation by the 800 delegates to the convention. The nomination was forced upon the Hamilton County man while he was in the midst of a speech, and in the act of presenting the name of Judge Peck...

Senator Brice won his point of having only a reaffirmation of the national currency plank inserted in the platform, "sound money," winning by a majority of 25, when the free silver amendment was put to the convention.

At 10:25 A. M. State Chairman Smalley called the convention to order. He has yelled so often to his predecessors to "cut it short" and "leave to rest" that he is framed from making a speech himself. Prayer was offered by Rev. S. F. Brockbridge, and then, amid more cheers, Senator Calvin S. Brice was presented as temporary chairman.

Senator Brice said that the great Democratic defeat of a year ago was not due to the fault of any one man or any single act of the party, but was the result of the world-wide financial panic prevailing at the time. He believed that a change had occurred, and that the next election would show the Democratic party to be stronger than ever. The three great promises made to the American people in 1892 have been nearly fulfilled and carried more nearly into execution than any three promises ever made by any party in any platform. They are home rule, sound money and free trade.

General Finley offered a resolution endorsing the Monroe doctrine, which was adopted almost unanimously, after ex-Governor Campbell had made a vigorous speech in its support. Just as soon as nominations were decided in order, ex-Governor Campbell was again on his chair. "Crisis of Campbell for Governor," drowned his voice for a couple of minutes. Finally securing silence, he said that there was a mistake in the Democratic platform of 1892. The State this fall—that of achieving a victory that should electrify the whole country.

Here the ex-Governor gave ex-State Chairman Norton of Tiffin permission to interrupt him, and Norton proposed to move that Campbell be nominated for Governor by acclamation. This was the cue for the convention to rise en masse, and give three cheers twice over, while the band played "The Campbells are Coming."

But the ex-Governor held his ground, and having once more secured silence, he proceeded to say that he made five races under unfavorable auspices in ten years, all calculated to deplete his condition, financially and physically. There were men in Ohio who could better afford to make the fight and make the sacrifice, and if the convention was composed of his friends it ought to respect his wishes and bestow the nomination elsewhere.

He concluded by nominating General Peck of Hamilton, but the convention would not have it so, and Campbell's nomination was made unanimous. Seeing that he could not do otherwise, the ex-Governor accepted the situation, and other nominations quickly followed in order.

J. B. Beasley of Cincinnati was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, William T. Mooney for Supreme Judge, William S. Trotter for State Treasurer, George A. Fairbanks for Attorney-General, Harry B. Keeler for member of the Board of Public Works and H. W. Cruikshank for Clerk of the Supreme Court.

The convention adjourned at 10:30 p. m. adjourned, the nominations having all been made in half an hour.

SEALING VESSEL WRECKED.

The Walter Earle Meets With Disaster in Northern Waters.

The Steamer Francis Cutting Picks the Vessel Up as She Was Drifting With the Tides and Swells Bottom Up—Bodies of Eleven Indians Found Heaped Together in the Forecastle—Seven or Eight White Men Also Believed to Have Been Lost.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Aug. 21.—Captain Higgins of the steamer Excelsior, which arrived to-day direct from St. Michaels and Unalaska, brings news of the wreck of the sealing schooner Walter Earle of Victoria. Eleven dead Indians were found heaped together in the fore-castle.

The wreck was sighted and picked up by the steamer Francis Cutting, from Seattle to Kodiak, about the middle of July. The Earle was capsized on or about April 14th during a terrific gale off Kodiak Island, and though a number of crew and steamer were reported to have found her until the Cutting ran across her drifting with the swells and tides. She was bottom up, and there was nothing about her to indicate that she had ever been sighted by passing vessels, or that any of the ill-fated crew had made any attempt to struggle to her upright position in hope of prolonging life after she went over. Her rudder was gone, and this, to the practiced eye of the mariner, told the story of the wreck as well as words could have done. Losing her rudder during a fearful blow that is known to have swept across that part of the ocean at that time, the vessel drifted helplessly in the raging sea until she had been swept over and carried all on board with her.

Not until the wreck was towed into Kodiak, and she was righted, did the full story of the catastrophe break on the finders. The fore-castle contained the corpses of eleven Indians. All were unrecognizable, distorted and grim. They were removed to shore and interred on the island. No white man's remains were found on the wreck, and the story of the struggle and drowning of Captain Louis Magnuson, her skipper, and seven or eight other white men will never be told. They occupied the cabin, and are believed to have been swept overboard from the deck of the schooner and drowned during the gale, while the Indians were helplessly huddled in the fore-castle until she went over. None of the schooner's boats were found, and almost everything had been stripped away and was gone when she was picked up.

The Earle was formerly the Sylvia Hands of San Francisco. She was a sealing schooner, Brenda of Victoria was wrecked on July 1st by striking a sunken rock on the coast of Shumshu Island, Alaska. The crew were picked up by the British steamer Excelsior, and the schooner's master arrived in Seattle to-day, accompanied by Charles Nelson, a sailor, and Arthur Cox, the cabin-boy.

SILVER CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Conference Held at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—The first speaker at the State Silver Convention to-day was G. W. Fox of Oakland. He said: "The men who were instrumental in demoralizing silver entered Congress poor men, and yet to-day they are millionaires. The party makes no difference. The result is the same. There is but one alternative to be taken—the organization of the party that has for its platform the free coinage of silver and the salvation of the people."

The next speaker was J. W. Barton of Sacramento, who said: "We have to elect an American Congress and an American President. We have to select from the great common people of the country and restore the nation to where Jefferson left it. We have to stand by our members of Congress and Legislators and see that they do not betray the trust reposed in them. We have to see that Congress gives us free silver coinage as we had it from 1837 to 1873."

By Guy McClellan of Berkeley said: "The American country should coin its silver as it did before and say that a silver dollar will exchange for a gold dollar the world over. Seeing our country bankrupt and ruined, we have to select our silver, we are here to stay and we are not to be deceived by any platform of the Democratic or Republican parties. We want the man who will come out and stand by us in the time of our need; he is the man we want for President. We are inspired by equality and justice. We are going to crush the head of the oligarchy of gold as we would crush the head of the oligarchy of silver. We must look forward to the future—the preservation of our country from the gold-bugs of Europe. We must restore to our country the status where she belongs."

The platform committee reported this afternoon, affirming the principles enunciated by the speakers at the convention and recommending the formation of bimetallic clubs in every county.

SLID OFF THE ROCKS.

The Steamer Kahului Receives But Little Injury. VICTORIA (B. C.), Aug. 21.—The steam collier Kahului, which grounded at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon on Trial Island, flies the Hawaiian flag, though owned in San Francisco. She is loaded with 1,225 tons of coal for departure Bay for Oakland.

There was a dense fog when the steamer struck. The tide was dead high and immediately began to turn. The Captain and pilot immediately left for Victoria for assistance, and before they started the crew had begun jettisoning the cargo in the forward compartments.

By 7 o'clock the steamer Rithet, with a large force of men, was on the way out. On reaching the steamer it was seen that the tide had shifted her broadside and close to the rocky shore line. She had a bad list to starboard, and the fresh-water tank directly forward contained salt water, showing that she was stove in.

At 1 o'clock it was noticed that she was upright again and in her original position of right-angles to the island. Her wheel was immediately started full speed astern, and she was safely and without help slid off the rocks and proceeded to Royal Roads. She proceeds on her voyage to-day, being practically uninjured except in her forward tank.

MULHNER ARRAIGNED.

For the Alleged Shooting of Jennie Lewis.

OAKLAND, Aug. 21.—The testimony against Louis Mulhner, under arrest on suspicion of being the murderer of Jennie Lewis, as brought out by the coroner's inquest was deemed so strong that there is a general feeling of surprise at

THE VERDICT FOUND LAST NIGHT TO THE EFFECT THAT DEATH WAS CAUSED BY SHOOTING.

The fact that he resembled a sailor, but as he had but a hasty glance at the stranger when he jumped from the ship his opinion is mainly a conjecture.

JUMPED INTO THE BAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—A mysterious case of suicide occurred at 6 o'clock this morning at Harrison-street wharf. A man whose identity is yet unknown went aboard of the ship Queen Margaret, lying at that pier, and plunged headlong into the bay.

The watchman on the vessel knew nothing of the man's appearance, but the fact that he resembled a sailor, but as he had but a hasty glance at the stranger when he jumped from the ship his opinion is mainly a conjecture. The body failed to rise to the surface, and all efforts to recover it by dragging have as yet been unsuccessful.

DEATH LIST KNOWN TO BE TWENTY.

AND OTHERS MISSING. No Foundation for the Report That Joseph McKenna's Appointment as Judge of the Circuit Court of California Was Illegal—Forest Fires Raging in the Neighborhood of Elwood, Indiana.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—A special dispatch to the Evening Express from Echo Mountain Observatory is as follows: "Last night at 2 o'clock I discovered a new comet in the constellation of Pisces. Its place was in the right ascension 10 hours 27 minutes 30 seconds, declination 5° 30'. It is very faint and has no tail. It is moving slowly northward parallel with the ecliptic comet. Nothing is known as to what comet it is or whether it has been seen before."

WAS NOT DURRANT'S KNIFE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—There is nothing sensational about the knife found at Walnut Creek. It was learned late this afternoon that instead of being the property of Durrant, as was supposed, it is the property of George L. Boardman, Jr., a member of the Signal Corps, who was one of the party which went to Mount Diablo when Durrant was arrested.

FELL FROM A HIGH CHAIR.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 21.—Grace Pinney fell from a hundred-foot cliff on Catalina Island yesterday when she was carrying a load of lumber. She was found this morning that her leg had been broken.

GOT BUT LITTLE MONEY.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE HOLD-UP IN NEBRASKA. Dynamite Used by the Robbers to Accomplish Their Ends—Only $130 Secured From the Safe.

OMAHA, Aug. 21.—The East-bound Union Pacific "flyer," due here at 10:15 o'clock this morning, which was held up by train robbers in a cut between Brady's Island and Gothenburg about 1 o'clock this morning, and the Pacific Express robbed of about $130, found in the small way station safe, arrived late this morning. The robbers flagged the train, and when it stopped they banded the engine. They then climbed on the front end of the train, and the robbers were carrying Brady Island. When the train reached the switch at the east end of the station the robbers clambered up on the tank and engine and covered engineer Austin and fireman Burke with their guns and ordered them to run the train ahead until commanded to stop. The robbers told the engineer and fireman to stop the train, and they were carrying Brady Island. The robbers told the engineer and fireman to stop the train, and they were carrying Brady Island.

While this scene was being enacted robber No. 2 was guarding the engine and the robbers and three trainmen walked a short distance away and laid down on the grass.

At this time the engineer asked the robbers to allow him to turn off the engine, and the robbers agreed to do so, and the engine was allowed to stop. The fireman turned off the steam and air pipes and bell cord, and the engine was allowed to stop. The robbers turned off the steam and air pipes and bell cord, and the engine was allowed to stop.

After the explosion the train crew entered the baggage car and put out the fire which was caused by the explosion. Several trunks and contents were demolished by the explosion. The big fire and burglar-proof safe was not seriously damaged. The fire-proof safe was not seriously damaged. The fire-proof safe was not seriously damaged.

They Will Meet in State Convention at Omaha To-Day. OMAHA, Aug. 21.—The Democratic State Convention will be held here to-morrow. Already a large number of delegates are here from all over the State. It is conceded on all sides that the platform will be the same as that of last year, and will contain a free coinage plank. The chief interest lies in the nomination of candidates for Supreme Court Judge. The fusion idea regarding the Populists is pretty well played out. There are also two nominations for Regents of the State University. The feature of the convention will be the mass in the evening by Hon. W. J. Bryan.

DENVER'S HOTEL TRAGEDY.

Seven More Bodies Found in the Ruins of the Building.

DEATH LIST KNOWN TO BE TWENTY.

NO FOUNDATION FOR THE REPORT THAT Joseph McKenna's Appointment as Judge of the Circuit Court of California Was Illegal—Forest Fires Raging in the Neighborhood of Elwood, Indiana.

DENVER, Aug. 21.—Seven more bodies were found to-day in the ruins of the Gurney Hotel. They were those of W. S. Blake, Pueblo, Col.; Peter Gurney, owner of the hotel, Denver; A. M. Monroe, Des Moines, Iowa; Lizzie Laeger, Louise Rheinhuber and Emma Mulhuthay, chambermaids, of Denver; and General Charles Adams of Denver.

This runs the list of known dead up to twenty, and five more are still missing, including the engineer. The bodies supposed to be those of Blake and Gurney were in a horrible state of decomposition, and the friends of both men are still doubtful as to their identity.

The ruins were fired to-day in hopes of reducing the dangerous walls to the ground, but the fire gained such headway that the entire department was called out to quench the flames. The work progressed slowly.

The stench at the scene is sickening. The coroner's jury, composed of prominent citizens, meet to-morrow to fasten the responsibility on some one. Several of the victims were buried to-day.

EX-CONSUL WALLER.

His Days of Confinement Believed to be Nearing an End. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The case of John L. Waller, ex-Consul of the United States at Tamatave, Madagascar, and now in a French prison, has assumed a phase that justifies the Government in the belief that Waller's days of confinement are nearly ended and that he will soon be restored to liberty. It can be stated on the highest authority that the only reason why Ambassador Eustis has not been instructed to demand Waller's immediate release is that such a course might weaken the claim for indemnity which the United States proposes to make for the confiscation of Waller's property.

It will be a matter of a very short time, a few weeks perhaps, before Secretary Olney will instruct Ambassador Eustis to secure Waller's release and make a claim for indemnity against the French Government on account of the confiscation of his rubber concession. The amount of indemnity to be asked will amount to $1,000,000.

The report that Waller is dying of consumption in prison is giving the State Department some uneasiness, but the information is not believed to be strictly accurate, as the latest letters from Waller said the chills and fever from which he suffered had left him, and that his health was much improved.

THE EX-CONSUL'S PLAN FOR LIBERTY. LEAVENWORTH (Kans.), Aug. 21.—Senator Baker to-day received an autograph letter from ex-Consul Waller of Tamatave, touching upon his imprisonment. Waller says: "I wish you to direct your attention to my case, of which you are already aware, and to ask you to use every honorable and available means at your disposal, both as Senator and friend, to secure to me, as an American citizen, the restoration of my liberty, which I am now utterly denied by our sister republic, France. As a Kansan, I am sure you will take great pride in doing all that lies in your power to accomplish that end."

"I will thank you if you will call at the State Department and carefully examine the copies of the letters which I wrote to my wife and George Tetuis. The latter is a British subject, and in business in Madagascar, and in no way connected with the Hova army. If Mr. Tetuis is an enemy in any way to France, it may be that he is considered as such from the fact that he is an energetic business rival of the late Governor of Madagascar, a French citizen in Madagascar, and as you are a lawyer of long experience, I ask you to carefully notice the testimony of Captain Latersol on this point, and note at the same time that he is a French citizen, and that the prosecution seems to have based their charge that I was guilty of corresponding with the enemy of France. I submit that the evidence for the prosecution utterly fails to sustain or support the charge under which I was convicted and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment."

JUDGE MCKENNA.

No Foundation for the Report That His Appointment Was Illegal. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The records of the Department of Justice show that the published reports placing Circuit Judge McKenna of the Northern District of California in the same category with ex-Senator Ransom—that of having been appointed while a member of Congress to an office created in the term for which he was elected—have no foundation whatever. He was appointed March 17, 1892, while serving as Representative from the San Francisco District, to succeed the late Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, who died September 7, 1891.

The report doubtless had its origin in the confusion of the appointment of Judge McKenna with that of Judge Gilchrist, who was appointed to the same office in the same category with ex-Senator Ransom—that of having been appointed while a member of Congress to an office created in the term for which he was elected—have no foundation whatever. He was appointed March 17, 1892, while serving as Representative from the San Francisco District, to succeed the late Judge Lorenzo Sawyer, who died September 7, 1891.

OUR NEW NAVY.

Measures Taken to Place More Warships in Service. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Measures were taken to-day by Acting Secretary McAdoo of the Navy Department to place in service shortly the gunboats now under construction at Newport News, Va., and also the cruiser Boston, and the old corvette Adams, now at Mare Island, Cal. A conference of bureau chiefs composing the Board of Construction was held in Mr. McAdoo's office this morning, and plans for hurrying up the work of preparing these vessels for sea was discussed. The feeling respecting the safety of American citizens in China and the likelihood of revolutions between South American and Central American States are reasons that actuate Mr. McAdoo in his desire to place the vessels in commission.

Work is also to be hurried on the plans for the two new battleships authorized by the last Congress, and it is understood that the contract for the construction will be let and their building will be begun in a few months.

KENTUCKY POLITICS.

Second Debate Between the Candidates for Governor. MAYFIELD (Ky.), Aug. 21.—The second debate between General P. Watt Hardin, the Democratic nominee, and Hon. W. O. Bradley, the Republican nominee for Governor, took place here this evening. General Hardin avoided the currency question until within ten minutes of the time he was to close. In response to Mr. Bradley's question, he said he would support to succeed both United States Senators, were either of them to die, a man who would be in favor of the coinage of both gold and silver upon exactly equal terms. He continued: "I hope to be able to appoint one good enough, and who will be able to preserve a perfect parity in all the money we have."

General Hardin touched less upon the question than he did at Louisville, although he takes precisely the same ground that he did there.

HIS ARTICLE QUEERED HIM.

Cause of the Removal of the Postmaster at Selma, Cal. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—One of the appointments of Presidential Postmasters yesterday was at Selma, Cal. In connection with this office there is a bit of history. The outgoing Postmaster was Walter T. Lyon, a Democrat, appointed a year ago. Mr. Lyon is the proprietor of a newspaper in that city called the Irrigator. There appeared in its editorial columns an article which reflected upon the administration of President Cleveland. Someone forwarded a copy of the issue to the Postoffice Department for the information of the Postmaster-General. The result was that the Postmaster was summarily dismissed for his article, and Mr. Staley appointed in his stead.

HANGED TO A TREE.

A Negro Murderer Lynched at New Richmond, Kentucky. NEW RICHMOND (Ky.), Aug. 21.—Immediately after Anderson, a negro who choked Franklin Friedman to death last night, was captured and taken to the city jail this morning, shouts of "hang him" aroused the community. By 3 o'clock the mob had quieted down and the Marshal tried to take the prisoner to the county jail at Batavia. A Deputy Sheriff arrived and an attempt was made to remove Anderson. At 4 A. M. he was taken from the jail. The mob wrested him from the officers, dragging him a square away and hanging him to a tree. The officers made all possible resistance, but were overpowered, as they thought the excitement had partly died out.

Wedded a Foreigner.

ALBANY, Aug. 21.—At noon to-day in the Cathedral of All Saints occurred the wedding of Miss Mary Elizabeth Manning, youngest daughter of the late Secretary of the Treasury, Daniel Manning, and Jules Cornelius Van Dor Ouder molen, son of the private Secretary of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland. The wedding was a quiet affair. The bride was attended by Miss Delahanty and the groom by Frederick C. Manning. The bride couple will sail Saturday for Holland. At the Hague the second wedding ceremony will be performed by the Burgomaster. The bride will then be introduced at court.

Treasury Balance.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The official figures issued to-day show that the General Treasury balance stands $181,534,897. This includes $2,376,277 disbursed on account of the bonds and in this month, which will not appear until the statement for August appears on September 1st. Deducting this the actual balance is $179,158,620. This is the lowest figure reached since last March, when the Treasury began to receive the proceeds of the sale of bonds at that time.

Remains of Ex-Justice Strong.

READING (Pa.), Aug. 21.—The body of ex-Justice Strong arrived here last night and was taken to the chapel in Charles Evans' cemetery. This morning a plaster cast was made of the face of the deceased. The funeral services, which were of a brief character, were held in the chapel this afternoon in the presence of the family. At the conclusion of the services the remains were interred in the family lot.

Result of a Domestic Quarrel.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—Alonzo Bemer, colored, aged 26, occupied in the United States postal service, shot his young wife and her aged mother, and also fired at his two-year-old baby, but missed him, at their home 902 Michigan avenue, to-day. Bemer was shot in the right shoulder and her mother received a bullet in her left cheek. Neither of the wounds will prove fatal. The shooting was the result of a domestic quarrel.

Released on Habeas Corpus.

ROME (N. Y.), Aug. 21.—Robert Lewis, the delegate to the Republican County Convention, who was committed to jail for contempt in refusing to divulge the name of the person whom he alleged had offered him a bribe, was released on a writ of habeas corpus to-day, it being decided that Judge Dunmore had no jurisdiction in the Act establishing the Circuit Court of Appeals. But if Judge McKenna had been named the additional Judge the appointment would not have been objectionable to the constitutional prohibition for the reason that the Court of Appeals Act was passed by the Fifty-first Congress, and he was a member of the Fifty-second Congress when the appointment was made.

ELWOOD (Ind.), Aug. 21.—Forest fires are raging and are beyond control and thousands of dollars' worth of farm property have been swept out of existence.

Eight Persons Drowned.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.—A passenger steamer on the Rhine came into collision with a string of barges in tow of a tug near Mehlum to-day, sinking one of the barges and drowning eight persons.
