

ALL THE ACCUSATIONS DISMISSED.

It Was On Motion of the District Attorney.

S. S. Hill Gives Up All Hope of Contesting the Supervisors Under the Court's Ruling.

When Judge Catlin's court convened yesterday morning R. T. Devlin, of counsel for Supervisors Morrison, Todd and Curtis, announced they were ready to proceed to trial on the other cases.

District Attorney Ryan said that he desired the presence of S. S. Hill, who was assisting in the prosecution, in order that he might consult with him as to the best course to pursue.

There were eight different accusations against each Supervisor, making thirty-two in all, and the accusations being made in such a manner that the effect of the Supervisor's vote for the payment of the claim set forth in the accusation, contrary to the form, force and effect of the statute in such case made and provided, and that by reason of such vote became guilty of a willful and corrupt violation of his official duty as Supervisor.

The claims allowed were those of Geo. D. Irvine, George Cutler, J. M. Stephenson and P. H. McGrath as Deputy Assessors, George M. Mott for H. S. Crocker & Co., and C. J. Ellis for the Southern Pacific Company, E. S. Wachob, Deputy County Clerk, and R. T. Cohn as Deputy Recorder.

He Will Sue the Members of the Grand Jury for Damages.

Supervisor Morrison said, in conversation with a Record-Union representative last night: "I never voted for the appointment of any deputies, and the records of the Board of Supervisors show the fact. Nor did I ever vote for any of their claims, having always refused to do so."

"When the Grand Jury called me before them in this matter, I told them that I had never voted either to employ deputies or to pay their claims, and that the claim book would show that I had always refused to sign their claims. I also told them that the other members of the board understood the matter and would corroborate my statement, but when they called they never asked them anything about it."

"They knew perfectly well then, when they found they had accused me, that I had not done what they charged. I would not sign the claim book, and I had authorized Supervisor Jenkins to sign the deputies' claims."

"I was notified the board that I did not want to have segregated the deputies' claims every time we passed on bills, but would refuse to do so, and that they would segregate the deputies' claims every time, and wanted to be understood as so voting, and they all understood perfectly that was my position and can corroborate me. This was all explained to the Grand Jury."

"What do I propose to do? Well, I propose to sue every member of the Grand Jury, and have redress for the injury they have done me. I told them if I had done anything wrong that they should indict me, but I did not propose to have scurrilous reports circulated about me, or to have my character blackened. I propose to see if a man can be vilified and persecuted in this way without law, and I propose to fight out, if possible, the matter that accused the members. I shall commence with the foreman first."

At the regular meeting of Capitol Lodge, No. 157, Knights of Pythias, on Wednesday night, an animated election took place to fill the vacancy in the office of Inner Guard, occasioned by the resignation of S. S. Spang.

Several candidates were nominated, but Knight Gilmore received a majority of the votes cast, and was declared elected. Following were: Inner Guard, J. A. Fenner, and J. W. Hughes, who was my personal attorney, and R. T. Devlin, who was counsel for the board, advised it was not to accept Judge Johnson's decision, but that the board must pay the salary of Assistant District Attorney J. Charles Jones, but to appeal from it; but the District Attorney advised the board to accept it and it did so.

"I declined to vote on the resolution giving Irvine power to appoint deputies and advised the board of Supervisors that the Board of Equalization ordered their appointment, but they said that if the State Board ordered it the deputies would get $8 a day under the law, and that if they authorized Irvine to appoint them they would only pay them $100 a month—a total saving of $300 a month."

"When Judge Johnson's decision was rendered I notified the board that I did not want to have segregated the deputies' claims every time we passed on bills, but would refuse to do so, and that they would segregate the deputies' claims every time, and wanted to be understood as so voting, and they all understood perfectly that was my position and can corroborate me. This was all explained to the Grand Jury."

"What do I propose to do? Well, I propose to sue every member of the Grand Jury, and have redress for the injury they have done me. I told them if I had done anything wrong that they should indict me, but I did not propose to have scurrilous reports circulated about me, or to have my character blackened. It Has Bounced the Faithful Larry Farrell.

He Was Last Night Locked Out From His Council—How the Vacancies Were Filled.

The Democratic City Central Committee probably killed one vote for its party last night, and Larry Farrell has the mortification of knowing that he is not considered good enough to associate with the members of the committee.

When the late and unlamented Armory Hall "Convention" concluded its labors it left a vacancy on the Central Committee to be filled by one from the First Ward. The delegates from that neck of the woods subsequently met and placed the committee in the hands of the members of the late Lawrence Farrell.
