Only One Favorite Came in Ahead During the Afternoon's Racing.

A Hundred-to-One Shot, Wyoming, Won the First Event—Two Horses Go Down.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The Ingleside track was favored with beautiful weather for its opening day, and the occasion being "Ladies' Day," a big crowd was in attendance.

In the opening race Wyoming sauntered in with 100 to 1 about him in the first betting.

In the last race Collins, ridden by Barney Schrieber's light weight, Slaughter, was thrown as the horses got straightened away in the stretch, and Belle of Stonewall fell over him.

Six furlongs maiden three-year-olds, Wyoming (100 to 1) won, Clara Wilson (4 to 1) second, Pique (10 to 1) third.

Seven furlongs, selling, Unity (7 to 1) won, Kowalsky (8 to 5) second, Perhaps (4 to 1) third.

THE NEW BONDS.

Applications for Thom Coming In-Blank Forms of Bids.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Secretary Carlisle expressed the opinion to-day that the new bond issue will be a success. He did not intimate whence the gold would come, but he spoke with a full knowledge of the number of inquiries for blank forms for bids, and the informal offers already made.

These figures, of course, are withheld from publication. The bids are regarded as informal, and where possible those making them will be communicated with and blank forms will be sent, so that they may comply with all the requirements and make their bids in regular shape.

"The subscriber should state plainly the amount of bonds desired, the price which he proposes to pay, and the place where the bonds should be delivered, which may be the subscriber's home or any other place more convenient.

"He should, at the same time, state whether he desires to deposit the amount of his subscription at the Treasury Department in the city of Washington or at one of the Sub-Treasuries in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans or San Francisco.

Deposits at said places must be with exchange on New York. The bonds will be issued in the following denominations: Coupon bonds, $50, $100, $500, and $1,000; registered bonds, $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000.

"I hereby propose, under the terms of your circular of January 6, 1896, to purchase United States 4 per cent. thirty-year bonds described in said circular, of the face value of $100,000, and I agree to pay therefor at the rate of 100 and accrued interest per $100.

"I further agree, upon due notice of the acceptance of this subscription, to deposit the amount thereof in gold coin or gold certificates with the United States Assistant Treasurer at _____, in accordance with the terms of said circular.

"I desire (registered or coupon) bonds in denominations as stated below, and wish them to be delivered to me at _____.

MORGAN WANTS IT ALL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—From a subscribing member of I. Fierpont Morgan's bond syndicate, the following facts have been obtained:

The syndicate expects to secure the entire $100,000,000 4 per cent. bonds which are to be sold by the treasury on February 5th. Mr. Morgan will bid for the entire $100,000,000. It will take all or none. The reason for Mr. Morgan's confidence of entire success is that he will make an offer so advantageous that no other proposition can stand in his way.

This offer is to purchase the entire $100,000,000, paying principal and premium in gold, and in addition furnish an amount in gold equal to one-third of the issue, or $33,333,333 33, in exchange for greenbacks. The Government gold reserve will thus not only be brought up to the recognized limit, but will leave a large surplus for its protection.

The price which the syndicate will offer is not exactly known by anyone beside Mr. Morgan. It will be considerably more than the $1 04 1/2 paid last February. This low premium was paid because of the provision in the contract compelling the syndicate to protect the treasury reserves.

No such contract will be made this time. Therefore a higher price will be paid. The figure is believed to be $1 08. The syndicate is now accumulating gold from every available source. Members of the syndicate will be at liberty to make individual bids besides the syndicate bid.

This is the state of affairs to-day. The position will probably hold until February 5th without any change of important details. The President and Secretary of the Treasury have no agreement, private or public, with the syndicate. They know, however, what are Mr. Morgan's intentions, and knew it when the public call was issued.

The St. Louis Explosion.

ST. LOUIS (Mo.), Jan. 9.—The Coroner's jury examining the cause of the explosion in the building at 300 North Second street, on January 24, in which six persons lost their lives, to-day declared that the explosion was caused by the storage of unsafe and dangerous fireworks in the building. H. B. Grubbs, proprietor of the store, is censured for employing improper and insufficient help to care for the same.

COAST DEFENSE.

Millions of Dollars Needed to Make the System Effective.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—At a meeting to-day of the Senate Committee on Coast Defenses, of which Senator Squire is Chairman, it was shown by statements made before the committee by officers of the Bureau of Engineers that there is immediate need by the department of $2,500,000, to be expended for torpedoes and torpedo mines and for land defenses.

The discussion of the torpedo system by the committee demonstrated that the torpedoes are of little value unless they are defended by guns, as they can easily be removed by an enemy unless protected by artillery.

In case of a sudden emergency it would take at least a year, if the appropriation were made, to produce the material, manufacture the torpedoes and put them in place at the principal ports of the United States. The Chief of the Engineers advocated the expenditure of $12,000,000 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1897. This sum, it is said, would not provide the money necessary to be expended by the Ordnance Bureau for guns and gun-carriages, but would cover the cost for replacements for guns and of torpedoes.

The hearing is being conducted in regard to the bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Squires providing for the defense of the principal seaports of the country. The committee will resume its inquiry to-morrow.

COLORADO DIGGINGS.

Excitement Over the New Boulder Creek Gold Mines.

BOULDER (Colo.), Jan. 9.—Intense excitement prevails in this city over the new gold fields, situated between South Boulder Creek and Magnolia, and there are rumors of riches being uncovered by prospectors in holes not even five feet deep. The strike is alleged to be worth $100,000, and an offer of this amount is said to have been made and refused.

Frank D. Baker came down from Walker's ranch and reports that several sacks of quartz had been sent to the sampling works from the claim discovered by the White brothers. The gold was sticking out all over the quartz, and no accurate estimate could be formed of the value of the stuff, but it will be sold by the pound instead of the ton. The pannings made from the ore are said to be wonderful, as great riches of gold form around the pan from each test of washing. The prospectors are wild over the outlook for a great mining boom, and about 500 men are working night and day in search of veins.

The new discoveries are on the same mineral belt as the rich Telluride mines of Ballarat, Jamestown, Gold Hill, Sunshine and Magnolia. In each of these districts mineral has been uncovered at the grass roots.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

Mayor Sutro of San Francisco has decided to call a State Convention to take action on the railroad funding bill now before Congress.

It turns out that while President Cleveland was supposed to be duck-shooting he was studying Salisbury's answer and framing his celebrated message on the Venezuelan question.

William Young of Cuyahoga Falls and a man named Haymaker of Gallon, O., were killed near Bedford, O., yesterday by an electric car going through a bridge over Tinker Creek. Charles Gibb was badly injured.

The sub-committee of the House Appropriations Committee having charge of the pension bill has decided to increase the amount for the next fiscal year from $138,000,000 to $140,000,000, the amount asked for by Commissioner Lochren.

FAREWELL BANQUET.

Tendered to Richard D. Davis by His Sutter Club Bachelor Friends.

There are a number of choice spirits in the Sutter Club, who have never yet entered into the "holy bonds of wedlock," and although sad inroads have been made upon their number by recalcitrant individuals who have faltered in their allegiance under the witching smiles of beauty and have followed in the footsteps of Benedick, they still view with anxiety and distrust the wanderings of their comrades into that, to them, terra incognita.

It has been their custom, therefore, in such cases to bid farewell to their erstwhile comrade that he may bear with him on his journey over the shoals and rapids that may beset him on his future journey down the river of life an ever present remembrance of their condolences and warnings, as well as their wishes for his future prosperity and happiness.

Such an occurrence took place at the club last night, a dinner being tendered by them to Richard D. Davis of the well-known firm of Wasserman & Davis, they having become aware that on next Thursday he was to take to himself as a wife one of Solano's fairest daughters in the person of Miss Leila Stevenson of Vacaville.

Major W. R. Ormsby, who always engineers these affairs for the club, and always surprises his most intimate friends by the fertility of his imagination in decorations and other details, had transformed the dining-room into a bower of beauty. The prevailing colors were Nile green and pink, the room itself being ornamented with smilax, palms, pink roses and pink begonias, and the table and chandeliers with glasses of those colors also.

The guests marched in to the music of an orchestra brought from Paris especially for the occasion, but bearing the outward appearance of a music box, which discoursed the "Wedding March."

The banquet was given by Robert T. Devlin, W. C. Reith, F. T. Dwyer, J. A. Robie, W. R. Ormsby, G. H. Apple, A. Cheeseborough, F. L. Orunt, C. H. Bentley, R. C. McCreary, E. D. Adams, W. W. Chapin, F. de L. Carrington, W. M. Sims, G. H. Lavenson, W. W. Douglas, E. B. Oeler and E. J. Dwyer.

The menu was as follows: Oyster Cocktails, Consomme in Cups, Celery, Olives, Baked Striped Bass, Hollandaise, Terrapin, Maryland Style, French Peas, New Asparagus, Vermouth, Sauterne, Claret, Punch, Baked Chicken, Salad, Rum Omelet, Champagne, Creme de Menthe.

After the viands had been fully discussed, an informal session of toasts and responses was held and the party broke up at an early hour.

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES.

Grass Valley Citizens Will Intercede With the Governor.

When the people of Grass Valley learned that the military company at that place had been ordered consolidated with the company at Nevada City by the Board of Location and Organization of the National Guard a month ago, they became indignant and protested against the board's action. This was without avail, however, and to-day there is no company of the National Guard in Grass Valley.

The citizens, who took much pride in the organization, which was one of the best in the State, have not yet given up the fight and will endeavor to have the company reinstated. At the time of the action of the Board of Location and Organization it was known as Company H, Second Infantry. One thing that militated against it was that it was but four or five miles from Nevada City, where Company C is located.

It was said at the Capitol yesterday that a delegation from Grass Valley will arrive in this city to-day for the purpose of inducing Governor Budd to reinstate the company. Whether or not they will succeed remains to be seen.

The Second Infantry, to the Colony of which J. W. Guthrie of this city was recently elected, is at present composed of eight companies. If the Grass Valley company is reinstated this will increase the number to nine, and unless the regiment be composed of that number of companies, it is likely that one of the remaining companies will be mustered out in order that the number of companies in the regiment will not be increased. Two of the companies in the regiment are located in this city, and the rest in Woodland, Nevada City, Colusa, Chico, Redding and Marysville.

Governor Budd has not as yet signed the commissions of Colonel J. C. O'Connor of the late Third Infantry in San Francisco, Lieutenant Colonel of the new First Infantry in San Francisco, and Captain Charles Tilden, retired, of San Francisco, to be one of the Majors of the regiment. Colonel O'Connor and Captain Tilden were recommended to the Governor for appointment by their brother officers, but the question has arisen whether he has the power to appoint a Colonel on waiting orders to a lower grade and a retired officer to active duty in times of peace.

The Governor says he has no desire to make appointments that may turn out to be illegal ones, and will study the matter over thoroughly before taking decisive action.

Brigadier-General M. W. Muller, commanding the Third Brigade, has detailed Major A. L. Nichols to conduct an election for Captain and First Lieutenant of Company H, Second Infantry, at Redding, Vt. Captain Thomas B. Dozier and First Lieutenant Albert M. Irwin, their terms of office having expired.

General Muller has announced that he has appointed Jo P. Carroll Sergeant-Major and Staff Officer.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

Charles Lansing Was Released Yesterday, There Being No Charge.

On Tuesday night the Crystal Palace Saloon, on J street, between Ninth and Tenth, which is owned by Richard Freygang and Fred Schneider, was burglarized. As stated yesterday morning, Officers Taylor and Douglas arrested a young man named Charles Lansing on suspicion of committing the burglary, it having been learned by them that he had no money on the night of the burglary and had been seen to have some next day. He had $2 on him when arrested, but stated that he had borrowed $2 50 from a friend.

Another young man who had been seen with him at the saloon before it closed was also arrested, but was released on giving a satisfactory account of himself.

Freygang, one of the proprietors, signified his intention of swearing to a complaint charging Lansing with burglary, but changed his mind about it and did not do so, and as the only ground for suspicion against the young man was the possession of the $2, he was released from custody yesterday.

The trial of Frank Coomes was begun in Judge Hinkson's court yesterday morning.

Coomes is charged with committing a felonious assault on a weak-minded girl named Dora Allen, who lives near his parents' home on the Monte Vista Tract, just outside the city.

The jury is composed of William Bought, Julius Beach, Y. A. Krull, F. B. Adams, P. A. Miller, W. A. Caswell, E. B. Townsend, Charles Strong, Jacob Ginsberg, F. Biewener, George W. Russell and David Poorman.

A man was struck in the eye with a small bean hurled from one of the slingshots and came near losing the sight of it.

Restaurant Robbed.

W. J. Hogan has reported to the police that his restaurant on J street, between Third and Fourth, was robbed on Wednesday night of 100 pounds of sugar, ten rolls of creamery butter, ten pounds of coffee and a case of eggs. It is evident that some one has been laying in his winter supplies.

BULLARD CONVICTED.

The Story He Narrated to City Attorney Brown.

J. M. Bullard was tried in the Police Court yesterday for battery on William Rochon.

The complainant testified that as he was in the closet back of Fossati's saloon, at Twenty-first and O streets, Bullard came in and struck him without provocation, knocking him senseless. When he came to himself he found Bullard standing over him, and when he tried to get up Bullard struck him again. He did not know why Bullard attacked him. Bullard had been drinking.

Fossati testified that Bullard was annoying Rochon in the saloon and the latter wanted him to let him alone. Bullard was drunk.

Archde Patrick testified Rochon called for help and he and the other boys ran out and chased Bullard and Walter Covell threw some rocks at him.

Bullard swore that when he went to the closet Rochon called him a vile name and struck him, and he knocked him down. When the others came witness ran away and they chased him.

Covell, Patrick and Dooley each hit him with a rock, and Turner stabbed him on the arm.

City Attorney Brown asked him if when he came to him for a warrant for Covell and the rest he did not say that Covell, Patrick and Turner attacked him and Covell struck him with a brick, and that the others also struck him with rocks. He asked him also if he did not say that those were the only persons who were present at the time and also why he said nothing of any trouble with Rochon. Bullard denied making such statements and the City Attorney told him that the next time he (Bullard) applied for a warrant he would have a witness present to hear what he said.

The City Attorney took the stand and testified that when Bullard came to his office for a warrant for Covell and the rest, he told him he went into the saloon alone, drank alone and went out without speaking to Covell, Patrick or Turner, who were the only ones there. He also said that when he went outside one of them called him a vile name, and when he retorted that the party calling him so was a gentleman, Covell struck him in the head with a brick; that he knew no reason for the assault, except that the boys "had it in for him" on account of his having trouble with them about a year ago. He said nothing about any trouble with Rochon, and said the three mentioned were the only ones concerned.

Bullard was convicted and will be sentenced on Saturday.

ILLEGAL FISHERS CONVICTED.

They Plead Guilty and Will Pay $100 Each Into the Treasury.

S. Cardinall and R. Mercurio pleaded guilty in Justice Henry's court yesterday to illegal fishing, and were fined $100 each, which they will pay.

Considerable feeling has been engendered for some time by the fact that a number of foreigners, who are fishermen, persist in violating the State law by using nets of a smaller mesh than is prescribed, thus depleting the river of small fish, and eventually ruining the business.

Deputy Fish Commissioner J. H. Davis became aware of the fact, and, despite the fact that the violators of the law keep up a system of spies, who warn each other for miles along the river of the presence of an officer of the law, he succeeded, by undergoing considerable hardship, in capturing four men in the act, and also capturing their nets, which were only a five-inch mesh, and with which they were fishing for salmon, shad and striped bass, the law prohibiting less than a seven-and-a-half-inch mesh.

The four men captured were fishing at the head of Sherman Island, and in this county. Their names were S. Cardinall, R. Mercurio, V. Cardinall and V. Ballestrado. Although all were equally guilty, the two former offered to plead guilty if the charge against the other two was dismissed, and the District Attorney, having in mind the uncertainty of juries, consented, with the result before stated.

The conviction of these men is regarded as a decided victory over the foreigners who come here and defy the laws of the State. They belong to a class who go up to Alaska and fish during the summer using nets of different-sized mesh, so that nothing may escape their greed, and who have so depleted the once apparently inexhaustible waters of that Territory, that the United States Government has taken cognizance of the fact, and next season will establish a stringent patrol of its waters, to prevent the entire extermination of their finny tribes. What will the "poor devils of fishermen" do then?

BERKELEY GLEE CLUB.

Engaged for Monday Evening, January 13th.

The Sacramento Lecture Association announces the Berkeley Glee Club as the third number in its course. A rustle of expectancy follows the announcement of this organization in this city. The "boys" are dashing fellows and they give a dashing entertainment; healthy and inspiring, too.

The old folks smile when the Berkeley Glee Club is mentioned for an evening, and the young folks, especially the lovelier half, look oftener in their mirrors and go over afresh their pretty evening wardrobes. The auditorium on the glee club evenings is full of light for which no bill is rendered—the light of joyous and care-free faces, a light the sexton does not put out when the audience departs.

The club is said to grow stronger every year, and there can be no doubt that the Congregational Church will witness the regular glee club overflow next Monday evening.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. H. W. Harkness is in the city and will remain for a day or two longer.

John J. Curry of San Francisco, Democratic candidate for State Printer, has been here on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Levey will receive their friends on Sunday next, the 12th, at their home, 600 F street.

A most enjoyable party of the Deux Temps Club was given at Turner Hall Wednesday evening. The place was tastefully decorated, and for several hours seventy merry couples "tripped the light fantastic" to the cadence of music furnished by an excellent orchestra. The grand march commenced at 8:30 o'clock and was led by Charles Kelper and Miss Emma Readman. During the evening light refreshments were served. The following officers officiated: Floor Managers—Mark Ebel, George Artz, Frank O'Brien, James Harkins, Frank Quinn, Fred Van Walbeck, Cooney Dittmar; Floor Director, Charles Kelper; Reception Committee—Al. Readman, John Cippa, Ed. Coffey, Stephen Uren, Jr., Frank Artz.

In some Southern localities the colored people believe that if a crow croaks an odd number of times foul weather will follow; if even the day will be fine.

BUREAU OF HIGHWAYS.

The Rock-Crushing Plant Will Soon be Placed in Position.

They found that the site of the proposed plant had been cleared and graded, and is practically ready for the construction of the foundation on which the crusher will be placed. The machinery is on the way here, and in a very short time everything will be ready for the construction of the bunkers and the bringing together of the different parts of the plant, so that by all ready to go into operation.

The Commissioners are in receipt of an application from the County Surveyor of Yolo County, asking for material for a concrete bridge that is to be constructed in that county.

Preliminary to its final report on the information gained on its various trips throughout the State, the Commissioners have written to the Governors of all the other States and to the proper officials of a number of foreign countries, including France, Belgium, Japan and others, requesting that any information regarding road matters in their possession be sent here.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Clunie Opera-house this evening the Eldridge-Hallett Stock Company will repeat "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It will be the last night but two of the popular play.

The rush to reserve seats for the "1492" entertainment of Saturday night was great at the Metropolitan Theater yesterday. Nearly all the seats were taken for the evening performance, but some still remain. Seats for the matinee of Saturday are selling well, and should be secured to-day, for there will assuredly be a full house.

His Wrist Was Broken.

Conductor William Landis broke his wrist yesterday morning trying to eject from a P-street car two young men who are said to have been fouling the floor of the car with tobacco juice.

Among the children of many countries the idea is inculcated that toads can spit poison. Several allusions are made in English literature to the further notion that in the heads of toads may be found an antidote for the poison of its spittle.
