

JAMES HART'S EXAMINATION.

Witnesses Tell How He Was Caught in Sweeney's House.

He Acknowledged Enough to Prove Him Guilty of Other Burglaries.

James Hart was examined in the Police Court yesterday on the charge of burglarizing the house of G. H. McLaughlin. There is a complaint also pending against him for burglarizing the house of Frank Sweeney, where he was caught by Officers Plunkett and Fitzgerald.

McLaughlin testified that his house had been burglarized and he identified two razors found under the carpet in the Sweeney house, where Hart was captured.

Officer Plunkett and Acting Police Captain Ash testified that after Hart's arrest they asked him to tell them what he had done with a watch taken from the house of a man named Brennan, whose house was burglarized about the same time as the other two. He denied at first knowing anything about it, but afterward told them where to find it, on a shelf in a closet in Sweeney's house, and they went there and found it.

Officer Fitzgerald testified that on last Tuesday a telephone message came to the station that a man had been seen to go into 1706 H street. He and Officer Plunkett went out in the patrol wagon and were told that the man was still in the house.

He went to the front door and Plunkett to the back door, but both were locked. They procured a key and searched the house and found Hart crouching down behind a bureau and arrested him. The next day witness went up to Sweeney's house and found the razors identified by McLaughlin hidden under the carpet behind the bureau where Hart was captured.

The charge of burglarizing the house of Thomas J. Brennan was then taken up, and Brennan testified to the burglary of his house and that the money in his wife's purse, his watch, a gold thimble and a child's savings bank had been taken.

The testimony of the officers was the same as in the McLaughlin case, and in addition Officer Fitzgerald testified to finding the thimble in Sweeney's house, and Acting Captain Ash to finding the watch in a closet in Sweeney's house.

The evidence on the charge of burglarizing Sweeney's residence was substantially the same, but Sweeney was absent, and as his testimony was needed, the case was continued till this morning.

THE CAMELS ARE COMING.

"Shriners" from Islam Temple Coming This Evening.

A caravan of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine from the "oasis" of Islam Temple, San Francisco, will leave for this city this afternoon at 3 o'clock. As all the camels have been turned out to pasture on the dry sands the caravan will be transported to this city by a special train, arriving here at 6:10 p. m. The "sons of the desert" will be met at the depot by the local members of the order and escorted to the Golden Eagle Hotel, where they will dine, after which the trouble will begin, as degrees are to be conferred upon a large class of candidates at Masonic Temple during the night.

The local "Shriners" will assemble at Masonic Temple at 5:30 p. m., and, headed by the Second Infantry Band, will march to the depot to receive the visitors. The route to the depot will be down K street to Second, and returning will be up J street to Seventh, thence to the Golden Eagle Hotel, corner of Seventh and K streets.

Weather Notes.

The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 75 and 51 degrees, with gentle to fresh and brisk southerly winds and clear weather prevailing.

The barometrical readings at 5 a. m. and 5 p. m. were 30.05 and 29.85 inches, respectively.

The rapid fall in the barometer during the twelve hours ending 5 p. m. bodes no good for settled weather, although it may be nothing but wind, high velocities of which are likely to occur.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 54 and 40 degrees, with a trace of rain, and one year ago to-day 55 and 34 degrees, with no rain.

SHOT HIMSELF IN THE HEAD.

Despondency Drives Nino Boitano to Commit Suicide.

He Told a Friend That He Was Going to Get Married, But Chose Another Fate.

Shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning some boys living in Washington, Yolo County, found the body of a young man near an old Japanese cabin which is near the junction made by the tracks from the new and old bridges.

The body was in a sitting position, leaning against the fence, and the blood was trickling from the right ear. A new 38-caliber revolver by his side, with one shell exploded, told the story of how he had taken his own life. He was well dressed, having on a new suit of black diagonal cloth, a colored shirt, white standing collar and imitation ruby pin, but there was nothing on the body to show his identity.

Justice Gill was notified, and he in turn notified Coroner Clark, who went over and brought the body to the Morgue. It was there identified as that of Nino Boitano, who has been running a bootblack stand in front of the Crystal Palace Saloon, opposite the Plaza. It was also ascertained that on Friday afternoon he told one of the proprietors that he was tired of living and was going to kill himself. To the other proprietor he said that he was going to take the 3 o'clock train to San Francisco, and meet there the girl whom he was going to marry in the evening. He gave the proprietor a silk handkerchief and was given in return three bottles of champagne for the occasion. The bottles were found in his room after his death.

The one whom he told he was going to kill himself jokingly suggested that he jump into the river, but he said that he did not like the water, and had some poison that would do the job all right. Nothing was thought of his threat, however, until after the announcement of his death. He was a member of Wall-halla Grove, No. 6, U. A. O. D.

Boitano some time ago invested his savings in a share in the street-sweeping machine. There has been some trouble among the owners of it and he has been trying to get his money out, but the matter has been taken into court. It is supposed that despondency over his troubles has induced him to commit the rash act.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

(Readers of the "Record-Union" are requested to send persons to weddings, engagements, society notes and home gatherings of every kind. Write in one side of the paper, and give your name and address, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.)

The Spoon Whist Club held its regular meeting in the parlors of Mrs. Ed. R. Hamilton yesterday afternoon. It was an exceedingly pleasant afternoon, and was enlivened by Mr. Hamilton, who had provided a photograph for the occasion. Much amusement and pleasure was caused by the machine and a good part of the afternoon was devoted to it by the ladies. The winners of prizes were: Mrs. Yardley first, Mrs. Dunlap second, Mrs. Mouser third and Mrs. Van Voorhies fourth.

Miss Alice Root entertained a number of her friends last evening at her lovely home, 302 O street. The two parlors were artistically trimmed and decorated with a profusion of flowers and other ornaments, and each had a distinctive color. That of the front parlor was pink, while the back parlor was all in yellow with copies and marigolds furnishing the required effect. The early part of the evening was spent in whist, after which a delicious repast was served and highly enjoyed. Games, singing and instrumental music also afforded pleasure for the happy throng, and the jollity was ceaseless till the party broke up. Those present were: Misses Bianche Hawk, Mabel Crandal, Mollie Titherington, Amanda Thimington, Maude Wood, Ada Keber, Clara Keber, Lottie Keber, Jennie Fay, Addie Clark, Hattie Bell, Alice Root, — Dender and Tillie Lang, and Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Weldon, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crouch, Captain and Mrs. Forsman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root and Messrs. — Milne, Frank Ruhstaller, Jr., Monteverder, Robert Sullivan, Dr. Hart, De Ligne, Harry Root, Mittan, Dr. Cartright, Frank Krebs, Charles Boyce and McAuliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Irvine celebrated their crystal wedding last night by entertaining the M. and P. Whist Club and a few invited friends. It was a very happy event and one that will be held in remembrance for a long time. The charming parlors being exquisitely decorated with pear blossoms and large beautiful pink beads placed in different places, gave them a cheerful air. A few pleasant hours were spent at whist, and with a very inviting repast was enjoyed, and during the festivities toys appropriate to the occasion were given and responded to. Several handsome presents in cut glassware were received, and after wishing the host and hostess many such happy occasions the guests departed.

Last night at Turner Hall the Sons of Veterans held their regular dance. The hall was handsomely decorated and thronged with various kinds of plants and vines, producing a very cheerful effect. There were about fifty couples in the grand march, which was led by Stephen Hopkins as Floor Director. The club has given quite a number of fine dances this season, and this one was no exception. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and the musicians were kept busy with encores. The next dance given will be the last for this season, and the members intend exerting themselves and wind up the series in fine style. The following assisted in the capacity of Floor Managers: William Larkin, John Lindner, William Matlock and George Larkin.

AERONAUT WESTON.

The Daring Aerial Gymnast Promises Something Startling.

For several Sundays past George Weston, the aeronaut, has been making ascensions at Oak Park in the presence of thousands of people. The feats that he performs on the trapeze while shooting up into the sky would be regarded as hazardous even in a hall, with a net spread below to catch him in case he should fall, but Weston does these things when thousands of feet in the air.

He will make another ascension and parachute jump to-morrow afternoon, and announces that he "will give a new and thrilling addition to his regular dare-devil performances." He does not say what it will be, but it will doubtless be worth seeing.

My

Nerves are weak, many people say, and yet they do not seem to know that they are literally starving their nerves. Weak, pale, thin blood cannot give proper sustenance—that is why you are nervous, tired, exhausted. The cure for this condition is to purify, vitalize and enrich your blood. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla fairly and faithfully, and the rich, red blood, which it makes, will soon feed the nerves the elements of true strength they require; they will cease their agitation and will resume their proper place—being under the control instead of controlling the brain and body. Read Miss Bartley's letter:

"I want to express my gratitude for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. My health has been very poor for three years, due to trouble with my

Kidneys

I was nervous, had pains in my back. I cannot tell what I suffered. My eyesight became affected and I was so despondent I did not have any interest in life. I had two physicians, but my complaints became worse. I was told that I was affected with Bright's disease. A relative urged me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and in a short time I began to notice a change in my condition. Things began to appear brighter, my eyes improved and did not trouble me so severely. My appetite returned and I gained strength every day. I am now able to do my own work, and feel perfectly well. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me and I gladly recommend it." Miss ELLA BARTLEY, 213 1/2 S. Grant Ave., Columbus, Ohio.
