

NOBLES OF THE MYSTIC SHRINE.

Islam Temple Makes a Pilgrimage to Sacramento.

A Large Number of Candidates Initiated Into the Mysteries of the Order.

The Caravan of Islam Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of San Francisco, to the number of more than a hundred, made a pilgrimage to this city on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of conferring the degrees of the order on a class of candidates numbering from twenty to thirty.

The train left San Francisco at 3 P. M. and arrived here after a lively run of two hours and fifty-five minutes. It was met at the depot by the Sacramento members of Islam Temple, who were in attendance, accompanied by the Second Infantry Band. They formed in procession and were escorted to the Golden Eagle Hotel, where they partook of dinner and afterward adjourned to the Masonic Temple, where the degrees were conferred.

The caravan was under the direction of Illustrious Potentate Charles L. Patten of Islam Temple, and was accompanied by Charles L. Field, Imperial Potentate of America. Clad in dress suits and wearing the red fez, embellished with the emblem of the order, the procession drew a large concourse of people to witness its passage along the streets.

Many of the visitors passed their time yesterday in driving around the city and noting its beauties and improvements, and at 3 P. M. yesterday they returned to San Francisco, having passed through a thoroughly enjoyable pilgrimage.

An Attack of Hysteria. At Seventh and K streets, on Saturday night, as two ladies were returning from the performance at the Clunie Opera-house, one of them was seized with a fit of hysteria. She fell to the sidewalk screaming, and was taken to the Capital Hotel, followed by a great crowd of people, many of whom supposed she had been run over by a street car.

HEALTH OF THE STATE.

February's Mortality Was at the Annual Rate of Fifteen Per Thousand.

Reports from 49 cities, towns and villages and sanitary districts, aggregating a population of 722,470, show a mortality of 910—a death rate of 1.25 per 1,000 for February, or 15 per 1,000 per annum.

Reports from 27 localities outside of the larger cities and towns give 48 cases of pneumonia, 49 of bronchitis, 40 of pleurisy, 24 of congestion of the lungs, 10 of diarrhea, 1 of dysentery, 4 of cholera infantum, 3 of cholera morbus, 19 of diphtheria, 10 of croup, 7 of scarlatina, 28 of measles, 11 of whooping cough, 148 of influenza, 7 of typhoid fever, 76 of malarial fevers, 3 of cerebro-spinal fevers, 11 of erysipelas, 85 of rheumatism, 81 of neuralgia, 131 of tonsillitis and 167 of pharyngitis.

Measles were reported epidemic at Calico and Pasadena. There has been no increase in small-pox in Southern California, and it may be regarded as stamped out. One case was reported from Napa County, about five miles south of Napa City. Due precautions, such as isolation and vaccination, were the means adopted to limit its spread.

The fourth annual Sanitary Convention will be held at Los Angeles at 1 P. M. on April 20, 1896, under the auspices of the State Board of Health. Short papers on sanitary subjects are desired. There will be an afternoon and an evening session, and the transactions will be printed. All persons, in and out of the medical profession, who take an interest in public health matters, are invited to take part. The interest manifested in what California has done in this direction up to the present time justifies an increased confidence in the value of these conventions.

SMASHED THE FURNITURE. Two Young Men Play Havoc in an L-Street Crib. James Haggerty and John Cummings, alias the "Irish Kid," distinguished themselves last night by destroying the furniture of the L-street bagnio of Hazel Edwards, between Second and Third.

They had been drinking some and, having some trouble with the woman, attacked the furniture with a couple of sticks of stove wood, smashing chairs, tables, bureau, etc., and destroying the carpet. When they got through the house looked as if it had been struck by a cyclone and there was not a whole piece of furniture left in it. Officers Fisher and Hayes pursued them and captured them under a house at Third and L streets.

COUNTY TEACHERS. Certificates Renewed and Recommendations Granted. The County Board of Education held a special meeting Saturday, all the members being present.

Recommendations for educational diplomas were granted Alice M. Smith and Lulu E. Kaerth. Recommendations for life diplomas were granted to Emma R. Kleinsorge and Minnie Marsh Kiefer.

S. H. Cohn was granted a recommendation for a normal diploma. Harr Wagner's "Patriotic Quotations" was added to the library list. Considerable routine business was transacted.

After receiving presents from their friends an hour was spent in music, recitations and social conversation. The party then adjourned to the dining-room, where refreshments were served. AMUSEMENTS. Milton and Dollie Nobles and the Hallett Stock Company enter upon their last week at the Clunie Opera-house this evening. The play will be Mr. Nobles' best comedy, "For Revenue Only." It is a "roarer," but it is the humor of good sense, with the wit of reason. It will be the first piece Mr. Nobles will present in his Portland engagement with the Hallett-Brewer Company. This is some evidence of the value of the author-actor places upon it as a drawing card.

The box-office of the Metropolitan Theater is now open for the Katie Putnam and Materna and Ondrick engagements. Next Odd Fellows' Picnic. Delegates from the various Odd Fellows' lodges met yesterday and organized by the election of C. W. Baker as Chairman, J. L. Robinette as Secretary and W. H. Wright as Treasurer. It was resolved to hold a picnic in honor of the seventy-seventh anniversary of the order on Saturday, the 25th of April. A committee was appointed to look over grounds, consider the transportation question, etc., and report at the next meeting. All branches of the order were represented at the meeting yesterday.

A Herd of Elks. Quite a party of members of the local lodge of Elks went to Oakland yesterday to participate in the ceremony of unveiling a monument there. Among those composing the delegation were: L. H. Brown, C. H. Holmes, J. N. Larimer, C. K. Lynch, A. L. Lyman, J. H. Mills, Dr. F. D. Tyrrell, Emil Steinman, General A. W. Barrett, William Beckman, H. Wolf, Dr. J. A. Nelson, E. C. Roeder, J. J. Dwyer, F. W. Kiesel, E. D. McCabe, J. H. Batcher, Frank Gray, J. H. Todd and I. Joseph.

Got a soaking. A lad named Scully crossed the river from Washington yesterday in a duck-boat, and just before reaching this side the skiff overturned with him. He clung to it until he was rescued. Coursing Next Sunday. The Sacramento Coursing Club will give an open meeting next Sunday.

Any San Francisco couriers who desire to enter their dogs for this meeting can do so by sending on $5 to the Secretary of the club. The drawing will be held on Friday evening next. John Grace will judge, and James Wren will slip.

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Expressions From the Newspapers of Interior California.

Crescent City Record: The Sacramento "Record-Union" is doing the taxpayers a service by exposing the extravagance of the last session of the State Legislature. It says at least $50,000 was paid out in salaries for positions held by people that had a "political pull." That the legislative halls were overrun by useless clerks, watchmen and other appointees, who were in the way of each other. The assertion of the "Record-Union" bears out our contention at the time the Legislature was in session that unnecessary attaches were being appointed by that body. As legislative officers are to be elected this fall, we would suggest that candidates for the office of Assemblyman and State Senator from this district be pledged to work for the economical running of the State Legislature while in session. The people are not averse to allowing their representatives the necessary means, but when it comes to allowing them to appoint a lot of politicians to do nothing but draw their salaries, it is time to register a kick.

HIGH HATS AND ALL.

Grass Valley Tidings: Of course high hats in theaters and other entertainments are a great nuisance, and they ought to be sat down upon. But we are very much shocked at a suggestion made by that very conservative, that very proper journal, the Sacramento "Record-Union," which advised the women who were going to attend a certain popular entertainment at the Capital City, to "leave their big hats, plumes and all at home." The hats and plumes might well be left at home, but for a woman to appear in public with "all" left at home wouldn't be proper at all.

THE REAL TROUBLE.

Bakersfield Californian: Commenting on the "California's" criticism of the usual attitude of the press and the people of this State toward fellow-citizens who aspire to or are offered high positions, the Fresno "Republican" says: "The trouble with the people out here appears to be that there is not enough of them. We know one another too well, our social back yards are too close together. As a consequence, we lose that fine haze of distance which is needed to make heroes of mortals. Our relations to one another are too much those of the valet who will not have it that his master may be a hero. Is anybody named for place? Straightaway we say: 'Oh, I know him. He is the man who said or did so and so, and he deserves no preference.' Of course it is wrong, but it is rather natural, too. California is too much of a province, and it has too many of the provincial ways. The condition should be changed, but how are you going to do it?"

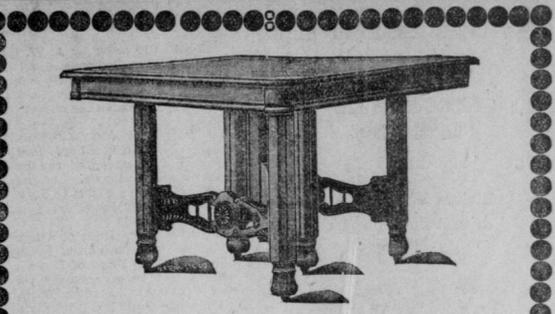

DIVISION OF RESPONSIBILITY.

Riverside Press: Responsibility is so divided among public officials in this State that it is often difficult to know upon whom to lay the blame for extravagance or mismanagement. Writing upon this subject, with especial reference to the Presidential office, General Harrison recently said: "Executive direction should always be single. When anything is wrongly done we must be able to put a hand on the man who did it. The sense of responsibility begets carelessness, and that sense is never so perfect as when, after full consultation, the officer must go alone into the chamber of decision. In all of the recent reform city charters this principle is made prominent—by giving the Mayor the power to appoint the city boards and officers, and so making him responsible for the efficiency of the city government."

Medicinal value in a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other preparation. More skill is required, more care taken, more expense incurred in its manufacture. It costs the proprietor and the dealer more than it costs the consumer, as he gets more doses for his money. More curative power is secured by its peculiar combination, proportion and process, which make it peculiar to itself. More people are employed and more space occupied in its Laboratory than any other. More wonderful cures effected and more testimonials received than by any other.
