

HUNDRED-MILE RELAY RACE.

It Was Won Handily by the Sacramento Wheelmen.

The Time Was Five and One-Half Hours—Some Incidents of the Great Race.

The long postponed relay race from this city to Stockton and return, between the Capital City Wheelmen's Club and the Terminal City Club, took place yesterday, and resulted in a victory for the Sacramento wheelmen, who beat their adversaries out with eighteen minutes to spare.

The distance from the limits of one city to the other—or a little outside the limits—is just fifty miles, but the distance covered in yesterday's race was fifty-two miles, as the start was made from the State Capitol at this end, Sutter and Market streets in Stockton being the other end of the route.

From start to finish the time was just five hours and thirty minutes, or an average of nineteen miles per hour. The start was made at 11 a. m. and Tom Welch, the sixth rider rider for the Capital City, reached the Stockton end of the route at 2:45, or three hours and forty-five minutes. He was then six minutes ahead of T. R. McCuen of the Stockton team.

The return trip was made much faster, however, for the riders had the wind to favor them, while on the first half of the journey it blew strong in their faces.

On May 7, 1893, the Oak Leaf Club of Stockton and the Capital City ran a similar race, which was won by the former in six hours, eight and one-half minutes, the Capital City's time being 6h. 02 3/4 m. In March, 1894, C. A. Elliott of the Capital City Club made the run to Stockton in two hours and forty-four minutes, an hour faster than the same distance was covered yesterday by the six relays.

On the 1st of January of this year W. A. Hubert made the round trip to Stockton in eight hours and five minutes, leaving here at midnight. After eating a light breakfast here he again started for Stockton and completed the double century run of 200 miles and over in seventeen hours and twenty-eight minutes, riding time.

The riders on the third relay out from this city yesterday, which included the Cosumnes River bottom, had a hard time of it. About a quarter of a mile of the roadway between the river and Arno is more or less submerged, and the riders had to dismount and carry their wheels across the morass, wading in cold water and mud from ankle-deep to knee-deep. Louis Payen had this relay for the Capital City, and when he went into it his wheel flew to pieces and he received a hard fall. His trailer was soon up with him, however, with a sound wheel, and Payen being well in the lead of his adversary, Edward Fisher, won out handily on his relay.

Some fifteen minutes was lost by each side in crossing the bog, which made quite a difference in the time of the race.

The six minutes advantage which the Sacramento had secured between here and Stockton was increased to nine and one-half minutes when Readman carried the Capital City colors into Galt, which is about midway between the two cities.

A couple of miles this side of Galt Walter Hausel of the Stockton club punctured a tire and his trailer was so far behind him that he rode five miles with his tire flat on the rim. This of course threw him away behind.

Otto Salbach, who rode the first relay out from this city (and the last one) for the Stockton club met with an accident at Twenty-eighth and F streets. An immense crowd of people had gathered at that spot to witness the outcome, and they so encroached on the roadway that he was forced out upon rough ground and his wheel went over. Although considerably bruised he remounted and completed his run, arriving eighteen minutes behind Young.

L street, from Tenth eastward, was lined with people as far as one could see from the starting point, and it was estimated that at least eight thousand persons had collected along the route within the city limits to witness the outcome of the race.

RELAY TIME. First relay, nine miles—Young, C. C. W., 20:30; Salbach, T. C. W., 20:45. Second relay, eight miles—Hubert, C. C. W., 24:45; Healey, T. C. W., 25:15. Third relay, six and three-quarter miles—Payen, C. C. W., 25:23; Fisher, T. C. W., 26:07. Fourth relay, eight miles—Readman,

THE POPULISTS.

Their State Convention to Meet Here To-morrow.

The Populist State Convention will meet in this city to-morrow, but there does not appear to be any excitement over it. It will go through the form of electing delegates to the National Convention, adopting a platform, etc.

The old and well-worn Omaha platform will be brought out and made to do duty again, with perhaps the addition of some new resolutions of the usual sort.

The convention will meet at 10 o'clock a. m. in the Assembly Chamber in the Capitol building. It will be composed of 300 delegates, most of whom will arrive here to-day. Those from San Francisco will come up this evening.

E. M. Wardell of Monrovia, Los Angeles County, Chairman of the State Central Committee, and Secretary R. E. Bush of Alameda, are already here to make the necessary arrangements for the convention.

The San Francisco delegation consists of John C. Gore, T. H. Porter, J. D. Thompson, George D. Gillespie, C. H. Johnson, E. S. Barney, W. J. Greer, C. M. Harris, F. M. Tuley, W. A. Lewis, F. X. Holder, Thomas Howard, G. W. Daywalt, F. W. Schell, F. L. Brown, Theodore Pfund, J. A. Johnson, Joseph Fassler, W. N. Griswold, H. Huppert, W. E. Walker, A. W. Thompson, T. V. Cator, B. G. Haskell, U. S. Blair, H. W. Tobias, Hugo Hornlein, W. W. Sanderson, Mrs. T. V. Cator.

These delegates have announced a caucus at the State House Hotel at 9 o'clock in the morning.

Besides choosing delegates to the National Convention, the Populists will choose nine Presidential Electors, one from each Congressional District and two at large, and nominate a United States Senator and a Lieutenant-Governor.

The delegates from several of the Congressional Districts will meet in district conventions and nominate Congressmen. It is rumored, however, that no nomination will be made in the Fourth Congressional District, as the Populists feel that Maguire comes pretty well up to their idea of modern statesmanship.

No State Central Committee will be chosen by this convention, that duty having been shifted to the shoulders of the various county committees.

A LOADED WHIP.

County Game Warden Helms Charged With Beating J. S. Mott.

J. S. Mott, who lives across the American River, swore out a warrant on Saturday night for the arrest of Game Warden Robert Helms, and early yesterday morning he was arrested by Constable Alfred Spinks.

On last Thursday, according to Mott, he and Helms came together at a wayside near the American River, and after some warm words Helms seized a loaded buggy whip and beat him on the head until it was covered with ugly wounds. Mott says the assault was made without provocation.

The primary cause of the row is said to date back about two months, at which time Helms arrested a friend of Mott's, named Streng, for violating the game law, and he was fined $20. This was paid by Mott. The charge against Helms is assault with a deadly weapon.

Helms says that Mott was the aggressor in the matter throughout, and that in using the whip he only did so to protect himself. According to his statement Mott introduced the subject of Helms' arrest and said he had "had it in" for Helms ever since. The latter says he went to his buggy in order to avoid trouble, but Mott followed him up and was about to drag him out when he resorted to the use of the whip in self-defense.

A SAD MISSION.

John H. Miller Called to Placerville by His Father's Illness.

John H. Miller of the "Bee" was called to Placerville yesterday by the sudden and dangerous illness of his father, Samuel R. Miller, who was on Saturday stricken by paralysis.

Jim Donohue, who was arrested by Officer Bagley while engaged in a fight at Sixth and I streets yesterday morning, showed his viciousness by beating David Young, an old man who had applied for lodging at the police station, inflicting several severe scalp wounds, which had to be stitched up by the surgeon in charge. Donohue is a tough citizen.

Shoulder Dislocated.

W. F. Chappin and John Johnson met with an accident yesterday while driving a colt hitched to a buggy, in the vicinity of Twenty-sixth and Q streets. The colt became unmanageable and overturned the buggy, throwing both men violently to the ground. Johnson's shoulder was dislocated, and he was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were attended to.

HENRY BOLITHO'S CASE.

Rev. J. E. Denton Has Something to Say of It.

Concerning the case of Henry Bolitho, who was charged by A. Prince with embezzlement, but was promptly acquitted in the Police Court on Saturday, Rev. J. E. Denton, pastor of the Christian Church, writes to the "Record-Union": "In your issue of this morning containing an account of Henry Bolitho's acquittal there was a slight error in the alleged reason for non-payment. It was not true that Bolitho was 'unable to pay when the bill was presented.' Prince swore in the complaint that the accused had refused to pay because 'he needed the money for something else.' He made no attempt on the witness-stand to sustain that part of his sworn statement, but admitted that Bolitho had refused to pay because there was an outstanding account of his own against the complainant.

"I heard the proceedings in the court, and know the facts in the case. Furthermore, I am personally acquainted with Mr. Bolitho, and know that he used every honorable endeavor to reach an equitable settlement of the matter—simply refusing to turn over money collected by him until his claims were considered.

"Therefore, in justice to Mr. Bolitho, who has been persecuted, rather than prosecuted, I ask you to kindly insert this in your next issue."

Many Inquiries.

Have been made by my patients this week as to what is astigmatism. For the benefit of the public in general I wish to state here that astigmatism is the result of an imperfect formation of the refractive media of the eye, is common to both far-sight and near-sight. It causes great strain to the eye and produces sick headache, nervousness, cross-eyes, weak eyes, dizziness, sore eyes, blinking, watery lids, frowning, inflamed lids, pain in the back of head, granulated lids. The only remedy for this eye strain is glasses properly fitted to the eyes. If you have any of these troubles F. de Wolfe Henrich will give you examination and consultation free of cost at his office, the Normandie, Tenth and K.
