Close Finishes in the Trotting and Pacing Races at Fleetwood Park—Events at Ingleside.

GRAVESEND (N. Y.), June 4.—The first of the blue ribbon races of the turf season of 1896 was won to-day by the oneck stables' game horse Sir Walter, who defeated the favorite, Clifford, by a short head after a desperate and exciting finish.

Charming weather favored the opening of the spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club. The soft breeze which blew across the track was just sufficient to temper the sun, and it was an ideal handicap day.

Immediately after the third race was over there was a general rush to the paddock, where the horses of the equine battle were on view.

When the numbers went up there was a general rush to the stand to secure points of vantage in good time. Horn Pipe was the first to appear. The red, white and blue of Colonel Rupert was the next to show.

After a tiresome delay of forty minutes at the post, caused by the tractiousness of Counter Tenor, the flag dropped. Lake Shore immediately went to the front, and passing the stand in the order named were Lake Shore, Sir Walter, Horn Pipe, St. Maxim, Nanki Pooch, Clifford, Keenan and Counter Tenor.

At the five-furlong pole Taral took Sir Walter in front of Lake Shore, while St. Maxim took third place from Horn Pipe, and the favorite was half a length behind Nanki Pooch, who was running fifth.

PORTLAND, June 4.—Both Republican and Populist State Chairmen are claiming the election of their nominees for Congress in both districts.

SAN JOSE, June 4.—The report of Under Sheriff Mansfield of San Mateo County and Deputy Sheriff Haeden of this county, who returned to-night from the south, strengthens the belief that the trail upon which Sheriffs Lyndon and Deputy Sheriff Juan Edson and posse are working is correct.

Under Sheriff Mansfield left on Sunday for Bell's Station, and worked northeast across the mountains as far as San Joaquin County. They first struck the trail of Dunham at the Mountain House, in Pacheco Pass, where he was seen by vaqueros jumping out of a manger at 4 o'clock on Monday morning.

The officers followed the gulch for about twenty miles, but heard nothing of the murderer, returning by a circuitous route. They met Sheriff Lyndon and posse after traveling north for about twenty miles, and told them what they had heard, and the latter pushed on in that direction.

The times at which Dunham is alleged to have been seen correspond exactly to the time in which a pedestrian is liable to have taken to traverse the rough country in which he was, and strengthens the belief that the Sheriffs are on the right trail, and only a short distance behind the fugitive murderer.

The country through which the trail has passed it is said, affords an ample opportunity for securing food and water. Woodchoppers have cabins along the route, and these are fairly supplied with provisions and left open during the days when the men are at work some distance away. The territory east of the Pinchoe Valley is described as being principally rolling land, in which a pedestrian could make good time, but it is also accessible to a horseman.

A posse of four horsemen with blankets and provisions left here to-night for Tres Pinos, and will push on to the route supposed, to have been taken by the murderer. The posse consists of Ira Woods, William Walpey, J. D. Wieland and Seth Churchill.

SERN IN FRESNO COUNTY. SAN JOSE, June 4.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the Sheriff received a telephone message from Hayes Station, Fresno County, from Juan Edson, who is in pursuit of murderer Dunham, stating that the latter had passed there yesterday afternoon. He was dressed in the same suit of clothes he wore in San Jose, and the description given of him fitted him in every particular. Edson said he was hot on the fugitive's trail. The Sheriff immediately notified all officers in the vicinity to be on the lookout.

CONVICT WHEELER. The Supposed Escape Found Hidden Within the Prison Walls. SAN QUENTIN, June 4.—Frank Wheeler, alias "Ohio Fatty," the convict who was supposed to have escaped from the State Prison, has been found. At 4 o'clock this morning he was discovered fessing from a carder in disuse in the jute mill, and it appears that he never was outside the prison walls.

Last Tuesday at about 3 o'clock Wheeler's disappearance was noticed, and at once it was supposed that he had escaped the vigilance of the guards and climbed over the prison walls. Warden Hale, however, was of the opinion that the convict had merely hidden himself somewhere within the confines of the prison, and a close search was made for the absentee.

But every effort to locate his whereabouts proved futile and the search was abandoned. At an early hour this morning

The Nonpareil TO-DAY Remnant Day.

For several days past we have been busy marking and getting ready every short length in the store. For weeks past we have been cutting spring goods at a very low rate, and the result is that there has been a great accumulation of remnants in nearly all departments in the store.

Hundreds of ends of Wash Goods, from 3 to 10 yards. All kinds, from the Cheap Challies to the Finest Organadies, Gingham, Satens, White Goods and Dimities. Many desirable lengths in Bleached Muslin, Sheetings and Pillow Case Muslin, Bleached and Unbleached Linens, Crash, Toweling, Silkoline, Draperies, etc. In Woolen Dress Goods Remnants there are many desirable lengths for children's wear. There are also Plain and Figured Mohairs, Fancy Soles, Serges, Henriettas, Diagonal Chevots, etc.

OTHER REMNANTS. "A complete clearance of short lengths" is the order that has been given to the department heads, and the result is that stocks have been gone over and every small piece is ready for this clearance sale. Small lots of Laces of all kinds in black, white and butter color. Black Silk Insertions, Beaded Nets, Veilings, Trimmings, Silk Bands. Jets in small lengths suitable for dress trimming. In Embroideries there are hundreds of lengths, ranging from 1/2 to 4 1/2 yards, all desirable patterns. In Ribbons, short lengths for children's hair ribbon. Wheeler, who during all the time had been without food, was forced to leave his hiding place, was forced to leave his hiding place, and will undoubtedly serve a term in the dungeon or else wear a ball and chain for a few weeks. The only wonder is how he could have escaped discovery for so long as he did.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH A Shepherd's Desperate Encounter With a Grizzly Bear. BAKERSFIELD, June 4.—A report comes from a remote sheep camp in the Cuyamaca, over sixty miles southwest of here, that a Frenchman employed as a herder by one Richieux had an encounter with a grizzly the other night, in which he narrowly escaped with his life. As it was, he was badly injured.

It appears that the herder was asleep, but was aroused by some commotion among the sheep, and at once went to see the cause, thinking it was a lion or coyote, but having no suspicion that a bear was around. He was amazed, however, when he reached the corral to find himself face to face with a large female bear, which was standing on its hind legs, and was accompanied by a couple of cubs. Before he could realize what it was that confronted him in the dim light, the bear literally threw himself on the unfortunate man, pinning him to the ground, and then began chewing him up. His shrieks brought his dogs to the scene, however, and they at once attacked the bear with the utmost courage. This caused the brute to turn its attention from the man, who had just life enough to crawl away and get to his camp. His companions dressed his wounds, and then sent to town for another herder to take his place. They did not give the name of the injured man, but expressed the belief that he would recover, though painfully injured.

ACCIDENT TO A PAINTER. Horribly Burned by an Explosion of Turpentine. WOODLAND, June 4.—Robert Eastham, a painter of this city, met with an accident this morning that came near costing him his life. He was painting the interior of a large water tank, when an explosion occurred which burnt him horribly from his knees to the top of his head. Eastham lit a candle to see how the process of drying was getting along when the turpentine in the paint ignited, causing the explosion. The unfortunate man was lifted from the tank, and a couple of buckets of water were required to extinguish his burning clothing. He was carried to his home, and is now in a very precarious condition.

THE STRIKE LIST. President Huntington's Comment on the Action of the Men. SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—In issuing the order to the officers of the Southern Pacific Company to abrogate the discharged list of men who were placed on that list in consequence of participation in the strike of July, 1894, C. P. Huntington concludes his letter as follows: "I have not had a doubt from the first that the vast majority of our men were honestly sorry to be placed in a position so untenable as theirs was, and that they regret even more than we do the destruction of property that was so closely identified with their own livelihood. The time and passion of the strike are far behind us, and I am, as I have said, glad to see all those who were implicated restored to normal relations and their offense relegated to forgetfulness."

NO GREATER DISCOVERIES OF MODERN TIMES HAVE Been of Greater Benefit to Suffering Humanity Than the Extraordinarily Successful Methods of Treating the Sick of the Far-Famed and World-Renowned KARDE MEDICAL INSTITUTE.

That well-known sanitarium opposite the Postoffice, on K street, is the Mecca for the afflicted of both sexes and all ages. Time and time again—nay, in hundreds and hundreds of cases—have these experienced physicians brought back to life, hope and happiness those who, in the belief that their maladies were hopelessly incurable, have given themselves up to die. The indorsement of their claims of superiority of skill over all other physicians has been given by thousands of cases that have never met the public eye through the columns of newspapers, but which are to be seen on file by any one interested in probing to the bottom the truth of these assertions.

There is No Claim Made by the KARDE INSTITUTE Which They Cannot Substantiate. There is No Statement Made by the KARDE INSTITUTE Which They Cannot Prove. These Wondrously Skilled Physicians It Can Be Truthfully Said No Life Was Ever Spoken. Not Even the Suspicion of Exaggeration Can Be Cast on Anything They Have Ever Said or Done. They Have Given a Life-long Study to Chronic, Nervous, Blood and Skin Diseases, and Have Had Probably a Wider and More Practical Experience in These Diseases Than Any Other Physicians in America. They Have Proved That Ninety-seven Cases in a Hundred Which Come to Them Can Be Completely Cured. They Have Proved That the Methods of Treatment Relied on by Other Physicians Are Usually Worse Than Useless, and Frequently Do More Harm Than Good. Their patients are not of any particular grade of society; they number among them the most intelligent and wealthy people in the community, as well as the poorest of the poor. To all the KARDE MEDICAL INSTITUTE gives the same helping hand at the mere nominal assessment of
