SPOT WHEAT QUIET-FUTURES FAIRLY ACTIVE.

Barley Steady at Previously Quoted Prices- Offerings Moderate and Demand Fair.

San Francisco, June 8th. Spot Wheat is still quiet; not much offering; futures are fairly active. Barley is quite steady at previously quoted prices; offerings are moderate and the demand is fair. Oats are quiet and firm; no changes. Corn continues dull at the old prices. Rye is weak and neglected. Potatoes of all kinds are quite firm; stocks on hand are moderate. Rhubarb moves very slowly; the amount held over from Saturday was larger than the fresh receipts of today. Some small Wax Beans do not sell at all. Strawberries are in moderate supply at about Saturday's prices. There is a wide range in Currants, owing to condition of the fruit; a great many are still in the market, some choice but many are not. There are not many Pringle Apricots here. Cherries are quite stiff and moved well; Blacks in crates for shipping brought $1. Astrakhan Apples sold for 75¢ per box. Butter remains about steady; cream is weak, and Eggs are likewise, except for strictly fancy ranch.

We Want to be In the Swim.

A stream that starts from the mountain high is supposed to enlarge in size as it travels, but the water to drink or use is better than from the larger streams. The above is to illustrate our position. We give matchless values. This week's big sale the low price remains until all sold. Our first two days' sales commencing
