

MONTEREY'S SEMI-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

Corner-Stone of the Sloat Monument Laid With Impressive Ceremonies.

Under the Auspices of the Grand Lodge of Masons.

A Good Sized Crowd Witnessed Splendid Sport at the Napa Races—A Farm Laborer Shot and Instantly Killed at Oakdale by a Planter With Whom He Formerly Worked.

MONTEREY, July 7.—It is thirty-six hours since Monterey has been sleeping. The festivities began at daylight yesterday morning, and have continued without intermission ever since.

The ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the Sloat monument at Fort Halleck began promptly at 9:30 a. m. when the soldiers and marines landed. They marched up Alvarado street to where the Grand Lodge of Masons was holding a morning session.

The parade was quite impressive and imposing. Major Sherman led on horseback. The position of honor was given to Lieutenant-Commander Ingersoll of the flagship Philadelphia, and he was accompanied by naval officers. The marine band was next in line.

The line of march was along Alvarado street to the old Custom-house, to DeCatur street, and thence along the Light-house road to the reservation. The veterans fell out at the Custom-house, and the sailors and marines halted at the reservation and marched back.

The monument site is immediately in front of the old Fort Halleck, on top of a hill overlooking the picturesque Bay of Monterey. It thus commands a view from all sides, and will form a prominent landmark of the historic city.

The Masons of the local lodge opened in two columns, and with heads uncovered saluted the Grand Lodge as it marched forward to the monument base.

Dr. Washington Ayet of San Francisco, President of the Sloat Monument Association, stepped into the open and delivered a short address in commencing the ceremonies.

E. M. Preston, Grand Master Mason, expressed his high appreciation of the honor extended to the Grand Lodge.

Dr. Church, acting Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge, then pronounced an eloquent prayer, at the close of which the Grand Lodge replied in unison, "So mote it be."

The Grand Master announced in the language of the Masonic liturgy that a casket was to be deposited in the corner-stone box. The Grand Treasurer replied that he had the box, whereupon the Grand Secretary read the following list of articles contained in the box:

Name of the President of the United States, names of the Secretaries of State, Navy and War Departments, a photograph of Sloat, roll of officers of the ships Philadelphia and Monadnock.

roll of veterans of the Mexican war, names of the Governors of California, names of United States Senators and Congressmen from California, printed papers of the last session of the Grand Lodge of Masons, list of Monterey County and city officials, piece of the staff on which Sloat's flag was hoisted, poem by Miss Ella Pittsinger, constitution and by-laws of the Mexican Veterans' Association, list of members and officers of the Sloat Monument Association.

Grand Treasurer Coleman was directed by the Grand Master to lay the box in the cavity prepared for its reception, and "may ages pass until it is again seen of men," continued the speaker.

The ceremony of depositing the casket was performed while all present sang "America."

Rabbi Voorsanger, Grand Orator of the Day, then delivered an eloquent address. The Grand Chaplain pronounced the President of the Day, Congressman James McLachlan of Pasadena, who delivered the oration.

At the conclusion of McLachlan's speech Mr. Tolson of Oakland, who hoisted the original flag fifty years ago, raised the stars and stripes on the Sloat flagpole amid a wild burst of applause.

The air was filled with a riot of sound, the crash of guns from the warships, the band playing national airs, and the cheering without restraint of the 15,000 people gathered about the historic spot.

The ceremony over, the concourse of visitors dispersed, and the event was a matter of California history.

MONTEREY, July 7.—It is thirty-six hours since Monterey has been sleeping. The festivities began at daylight yesterday morning, and have continued without intermission ever since.

The ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the Sloat monument at Fort Halleck began promptly at 9:30 a. m. when the soldiers and marines landed.

The parade was quite impressive and imposing. Major Sherman led on horseback. The position of honor was given to Lieutenant-Commander Ingersoll of the flagship Philadelphia.

The line of march was along Alvarado street to the old Custom-house, to DeCatur street, and thence along the Light-house road to the reservation.

The monument site is immediately in front of the old Fort Halleck, on top of a hill overlooking the picturesque Bay of Monterey.

The Masons of the local lodge opened in two columns, and with heads uncovered saluted the Grand Lodge as it marched forward to the monument base.

Dr. Washington Ayet of San Francisco, President of the Sloat Monument Association, stepped into the open and delivered a short address in commencing the ceremonies.

E. M. Preston, Grand Master Mason, expressed his high appreciation of the honor extended to the Grand Lodge.

Dr. Church, acting Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge, then pronounced an eloquent prayer, at the close of which the Grand Lodge replied in unison, "So mote it be."

The Grand Master announced in the language of the Masonic liturgy that a casket was to be deposited in the corner-stone box. The Grand Treasurer replied that he had the box, whereupon the Grand Secretary read the following list of articles contained in the box:

Name of the President of the United States, names of the Secretaries of State, Navy and War Departments, a photograph of Sloat, roll of officers of the ships Philadelphia and Monadnock.

roll of veterans of the Mexican war, names of the Governors of California, names of United States Senators and Congressmen from California, printed papers of the last session of the Grand Lodge of Masons, list of Monterey County and city officials, piece of the staff on which Sloat's flag was hoisted, poem by Miss Ella Pittsinger, constitution and by-laws of the Mexican Veterans' Association, list of members and officers of the Sloat Monument Association.

Grand Treasurer Coleman was directed by the Grand Master to lay the box in the cavity prepared for its reception, and "may ages pass until it is again seen of men," continued the speaker.

The ceremony of depositing the casket was performed while all present sang "America."

Rabbi Voorsanger, Grand Orator of the Day, then delivered an eloquent address. The Grand Chaplain pronounced the President of the Day, Congressman James McLachlan of Pasadena, who delivered the oration.

At the conclusion of McLachlan's speech Mr. Tolson of Oakland, who hoisted the original flag fifty years ago, raised the stars and stripes on the Sloat flagpole amid a wild burst of applause.

The air was filled with a riot of sound, the crash of guns from the warships, the band playing national airs, and the cheering without restraint of the 15,000 people gathered about the historic spot.

The ceremony over, the concourse of visitors dispersed, and the event was a matter of California history.

MONTEREY, July 7.—It is thirty-six hours since Monterey has been sleeping. The festivities began at daylight yesterday morning, and have continued without intermission ever since.

The ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the Sloat monument at Fort Halleck began promptly at 9:30 a. m. when the soldiers and marines landed.

The parade was quite impressive and imposing. Major Sherman led on horseback. The position of honor was given to Lieutenant-Commander Ingersoll of the flagship Philadelphia.

The line of march was along Alvarado street to the old Custom-house, to DeCatur street, and thence along the Light-house road to the reservation.

The monument site is immediately in front of the old Fort Halleck, on top of a hill overlooking the picturesque Bay of Monterey.

The Masons of the local lodge opened in two columns, and with heads uncovered saluted the Grand Lodge as it marched forward to the monument base.

Dr. Washington Ayet of San Francisco, President of the Sloat Monument Association, stepped into the open and delivered a short address in commencing the ceremonies.

E. M. Preston, Grand Master Mason, expressed his high appreciation of the honor extended to the Grand Lodge.

Dr. Church, acting Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge, then pronounced an eloquent prayer, at the close of which the Grand Lodge replied in unison, "So mote it be."

The Grand Master announced in the language of the Masonic liturgy that a casket was to be deposited in the corner-stone box. The Grand Treasurer replied that he had the box, whereupon the Grand Secretary read the following list of articles contained in the box:

Name of the President of the United States, names of the Secretaries of State, Navy and War Departments, a photograph of Sloat, roll of officers of the ships Philadelphia and Monadnock.

roll of veterans of the Mexican war, names of the Governors of California, names of United States Senators and Congressmen from California, printed papers of the last session of the Grand Lodge of Masons, list of Monterey County and city officials, piece of the staff on which Sloat's flag was hoisted, poem by Miss Ella Pittsinger, constitution and by-laws of the Mexican Veterans' Association, list of members and officers of the Sloat Monument Association.

Grand Treasurer Coleman was directed by the Grand Master to lay the box in the cavity prepared for its reception, and "may ages pass until it is again seen of men," continued the speaker.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

WAL Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

POSITION OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The St. Louis Convention Will Likely Nominate Teller for President.

No Democrat Can Secure the Populist Vote This Fall.

The Cuban Correspondent of a New York Newspaper Challenged by a Former Captain of the Spanish Army to Fight a Duel—British Troops Attack a Matabele Stronghold, Driving the Defenders Away.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.—"We have nothing against Mr. Bland personally, but if he is nominated he will not get the support of the People's party or of the silver party outside of the Democratic lines," said Sergeant-at-Arms McDowell of the People's party, in an interview to-day.

"I am positive that no Democrat can secure the Populist vote this fall, and that a large majority of our people will either endorse or nominate Senator Teller for the Presidency. As the independent silver men, including those who recently walked out of the Republican National Convention will already have nominated Senator Teller, he will become a powerful candidate, backed by the full strength of the People's party and the silver party."

"But," said the reporter, "it has been stated that Senators Dubois, Pettigrew and others favor Bland if they cannot get Teller and that Teller himself has declared his intention of taking the stump for Bland if the latter is nominated."

"Don't you believe a word of it," answered the Tennesseean. "Senator Teller sent no such intimation, and neither Dubois nor Cannon nor Pettigrew nor Mantle nor any other of the bolting Republican silver men will support Bland. How can they? They are honorable gentlemen and all have their positive pledge that the sole object of their mission to Chicago is to secure Teller's nomination. Failing that, they will come to St. Louis, and at the silver convention, which will be held on the 22d, at the same time as our own, but in a different building, they will nominate Teller by acclamation. Then they will, I presume, send a request for a conference. The result will be the endorsement of the nomination by us of Senator Teller."

"The agreement to this effect is as binding as any compact among honorable men could be. It was first discussed in Washington. It was actually made at the evening of the walk-out of Senator Teller and his fellow silver Republicans from the St. Louis Convention. At this meeting Senators Dubois, Pettigrew, Cannon, Mantle and others spoke for the silver men. The people's party was represented by National Chairman Tansiebeck, Mr. Davis of Texas, Mr. Patterson of Colorado, Dr. Taylor of Illinois and myself.

"For Vice-President we can nominate a straight-out Populist, and the only candidate spoken of at present seems to be A. L. Mims of Davidson county, Tenn., a young man and in every way eligible. With such a ticket we will carry, beyond all doubt, Texas, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, Tennessee and a number of Western States and Territories, besides making a big fight in many other States."

"There is every indication that the Populist Convention alone will bring 20,000 people to St. Louis."

GAVE HIMSELF UP. Captain Wiborg Surrenders to the Authorities.

PHILADELPHIA, July 7.—In the United States District Court, Captain W. S. J. Wiborg of the steamer Horsa surrendered himself to complete service of his sentence of one year and four months imposed by Judge Bittler for carrying on a military expedition to take men and arms to Cuba to aid the war against Spain.

There were but few people in court when Wiborg, accompanied by counsel, arrived. After some discussion the order was changed so it read: "Including to-day."

This took one day off the sentence, and Captain Wiborg's unexpired term is therefore one year, three months and twenty-seven days.

Found Dead in Front of His Home. BROOKLYN, July 7.—Nathan Skelton, who at one time was Treasurer of the Union Pacific Railway Company under Jay Gould, was found dead this morning in front of his home, No. 50 Livingston street. Death was due to a fractured skull. The deceased was 74 years of age, and a somnambulist. He was quite wealthy, and had an office at 44 Broadway, New York. He was President of the Omaha Midland Guarantee and Trust Company, and President of the Illinois Water Works.

Will Fight a Duel. HAVANA, July 7.—General Bradley Johnson, correspondent of a New York newspaper here, and formerly Brigadier-General of Cavalry in the service of the Confederate States, has accepted a challenge to fight a duel with Senor Manuel Ampudia, formerly Captain in the Spanish army. Both named their seconds to-day. The meeting takes place probably to-morrow.

The Matabele War. BUTLWAYO, July 7.—On Sunday last British troops made an attack upon the Matabele position at Theblamma, and were repulsed. They made another attack upon the position on Monday, and were still firing on the natives' stronghold and driving the defenders away. The Matabele loss was 100 killed and the British loss twenty-three killed or wounded.

High-class photos, Young, 421 J.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER.

(Continued from Sixth Page.)

tee familiar with parliamentary procedure. The ruling of the Chair was final, and by a vote of 36 ayes to 14 noes the previous question was put.

The motion to appoint the sub-committee as originally intended was then carried by a viva-voce vote.

The sub-committee consists of the following gentlemen: Senator Jones of Arkansas, Chairman; Senators Cockrell of Missouri, George of Mississippi, Gray of Delaware, Hill of New York, Tillman of South Carolina, Russell of Massachusetts, Worthington of Illinois and Owens of Indian Territory.

Senator Vilas of Wisconsin was the first named, but withdrew and suggested the substitution of Russell.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

This committee was instructed to report to the full committee to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and after some further discussion, at 11 o'clock, the full committee adjourned, and the sub-committee went into executive session.

The desire of the committee to shut off protracted debates would manifestly have been a motion to allow any member desiring to submit a platform plank five minutes in which to discuss the plank. It was promptly voted down, members being requested formally to leave their proposed plank with the Chairman.

THE NONPAREIL.

"The Nonpareil" Muslin Underwear Sale. THIS MORNING At 8:30.

Muslin Underwear Sale. THIS MORNING At 8:30.

Two thousand pieces of high grade Muslin Underwear will be placed on special sale this morning. This lot of Underwear was purchased from one of the largest and best manufacturers in this country, whose factory has the reputation of making only reliable undergarments, the workmanship and material used being the very best. No matter what price you pay, the garments are as well made as any you would make at home.

GOWNS. Over fifty different styles, in cambric and muslin. Most of them are neatly trimmed with Hamburg edging; others are elaborately trimmed with openwork embroideries and laces. The following are the prices of the different lots: 39c, 53c, 65c, 68c, 81c, $1, $1.45, $1.65, $2.45 and $2.95.

DRAWERS. Of good muslin and cambric. Finished with ruffles of embroideries and plaits. The price of the materials alone will amount to what we ask for the garments already made. 25c, 45c, 65c, 75c and 90c a pair.

CHEMISES. A variety of different kinds, made from the best materials, at 29c, 45c, 59c, 65c, 75c, 89c and $1.25.

CORSET COVERS. Daintily trimmed with narrow laces and embroidery edgings. Cut with round or square fronts and backs. Dozens of kinds to select from. 19c, 29c, 43c, 50c, 58c, 75c, 90c and $1.10.

Wasserman, Davis & Co., AGENTS FOR BUTTERICK PATTERNS, Corner Fifth and J Streets, Sacramento.

White French Chip Pokes TRIMMED WITH Tips, Roses, Silk, Mull or Chiffon.

The latest style Hat for the summer trade. You will find them at MRS. M. A. PEALER'S, 621-623 J street, Sacramento, Cal.

as those adopted by the last National Convention and those of the Fifty-Third Congress, so far as they apply.

The proposition of Scott was not agreed to. The silver men fought shy of it for the reason that it was proposed by a gold man, and they desired to be in a position to report further on the rules and order of business whenever their report would be deemed necessary.

Money's resolution was then adopted. The Chair appointed Messrs. White of Michigan, Maguire of California, Money of Mississippi, Hamilton of Massachusetts and Richardson of Tennessee as a sub-committee to draw up an order of business.

No action was taken regarding the two-thirds rule, but it is understood the question will come up to-morrow morning.

GATHERING OF SILVER MEN. Temporary Chairman Daniel Addresses the Meeting.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The Sherman House to-night was the scene of an enthusiastic gathering of silver men, with band accompaniments, and Temporary Chairman Daniel and ex-Congressman Bryan of Nebraska as the oratorical attractions.

General W. A. Clark, Chairman of the Montana delegation, introduced Senator Daniel from the parlor gallery.

The Senator said he had been one of the advocates of silver who had never deviated since he became a servant of the cause, and he was in it to stay twenty-five years if he lived to down the efforts of the autocrats of Europe to dictate to the United States.

The next speaker, W. J. Bryan, was loudly cheered. He intimated at the start that the gold delegates from Nebraska had more right in a Republican convention than in a Democratic one. There was no doubt as to the result of this campaign. It was no use considering details. It was the general issue whether this country could govern itself. It was the campaign of 1876 over again.

After others had spoken Senator Daniel held a handshaking reception, and the band played a serenade.

SOUND MONEY MEN. May Bolt and Nominate an Independent Ticket.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The sound money men met in the Auditorium Hotel this evening, after listening to a number of speeches, some of which squarely advised the gold men to bolt the convention, adopted a resolution, as follows:

That a committee of one or more be appointed from each State to confer with the people and report the temper concerning the organization of the sound-money old Democracy, and how far such organization shall go in the election next November.

Senator Gray was elected Chairman. There were over 400 gold men present, many of them representing silver States, where the unit rule has silenced them in the convention. Nearly every Southern State was represented.

During the meeting there was free exchange of views upon the situation, and speeches were made by W. C. Whittey, Frederick R. Condit of New York, ex-Governor Russell of Massachusetts, John P. Irish of California and others. Some of the speeches deliberately advocated the nomination of an independent gold Democracy ticket. Much enthusiasm was manifested during the session, and the speeches were frequently interrupted with cries of "Give

MISCELLANEOUS.

SHOES TO WEAR CAMPING. SHOES TO WEAR ON THE SEASHORE.

We have them in all the desirable styles, for men's, ladies' and children's wear, at prices that will prove a great saving to all.

Ladies' Tan Outing Shoes, kid or cloth tops, square or pointed toes, substantial soles. $2.25 and $2.50.

Men's Tan Outing Shoes, hook and lace fastening, square or pointed toes; very stylish and easy on the feet. Price, $2.

Children's Tan Outing Shoes, $1 and Up.

GEISER & KAUFMAN FOR SUMMER FOOTWEAR, 603 J St., Near Sixth, SACRAMENTO, CAL.

DID YOU WIN IT? NO. 347

Is the lucky HAM TAG. Present it to us and we will give you the BICYCLE.

At the urgent request of our many patrons we have decided to give away another "TRIBUNE BICYCLE" August 1, 1896, and will continue to attach to every "OUR TASTE" ham a numbered tag. Be sure and get one with every "Our Taste" ham you buy. It may entitle you to a Bicycle Free! HALL, LUHRS & CO., Wholesale Grocers.

C. Wallace, Arizona, Marcus A. Smith, New Mexico, not chosen; Oklahoma, Whit M. Grant; Indian Territory, Thos. Marcum; District of Columbia, not chosen; Alaska, Charles D. Rodgers.

YALE UNIVERSITY CREW FALL BY THE WAYSIDE.

(Continued from First Page.)

not the lead, but that two or three times they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.

The Leanders appeared perfectly fresh at the end of the race, and rowed they pulled themselves about even with the Leander. The concourse of opinion, however, is that Yale led slightly at the half mile, but Leander was a foot ahead at Fawley Court.