WHEAT FAIRLY STEADY, BUT TRADING SLOW.

A Weaker Feeling in Barley, But Quotations Now Lower—Oats Steady.

San Francisco, Aug. 20th. Wheat is fairly steady, though trading is slow. There is a weaker feeling in Barley, but quotations are not actually lower.

Receipts of Oats liberal and prices steady. A slight improvement is noticeable in the demand for Hay, and the market is fairly steady. Market is steady on Middlings and an advance of 50c a ton on Bran.

Market on small White Beans dull and prices shaded to catch business. Weakness still prevails in Potato circles. Onions in large supply and prices weak.

Weather has a depressing effect on Watermelons and prices are lower. Plenty of Butter from northern counties, but demand is weak. Really fine Butter, none too plentiful. The Egg market is weak and prices easier. Poultry market is pretty good shape and prices steadier, but no higher.
