

SECOND WEEK OF THE STATE FAIR.

It Has Been Apparently a Great Success,

With an Excellent Outlook for the Last Week.

Unfortunate Accident to Jockey Cuddy in a Hurdle Race.

Great Throngs of People at Both Park and Pavilion—The Special Concert This Afternoon.

The largest crowd since the State Fair opened gathered at the Pavilion last evening to view the exhibits, listen to the music and study the fashions, and there was variety enough in all these to please the most fastidious.

The butter-making plant was in full swing, and the crowds that watched the process were larger than on the preceding evening.

To-morrow evening the dairy department will show the process of making cheese, and give practical illustrations of the same, and this, it is expected, will arouse considerable interest.

One of the most striking features in the building is to be seen in the booth set aside for the cooking of dried fruits. This is a purely educational matter, and underlying it is a principle which has for some time agitated the minds of the fruit growers on the coast.

The exhibit is in charge of the State Horticultural Society, which has secured the services of Mrs. C. H. La France to superintend all of the cooking. Mrs. La France has been a pupil of Professor Allen, and was his right-hand assistant for a number of years, and thoroughly understands each and every part of the subject.

Nor does the attempt to educate the public in the proper preparation of dried fruit for table use stop with the practical illustration given each evening.

Every person that tastes the fruit and admires the flavor is presented with a little pamphlet telling them precisely how the cooking is to be done in order to secure like results, and no housewife should be without one. Even Uncle Sam has realized the importance of the method of cooking it, usually takes the Government a long time to realize anything, and some of these same little pamphlets have been asked for and sent to the several masters of Government ships now on the coast.

Those who have tasted the cooked fruit say it is all that is claimed for it, and those who have not yet had a chance should be convinced at the earliest opportunity. Numbers of prominent local physicians have, since the fair opened, given Mrs. La France oral testimonials of the excellence of the method, and one young man, who is a confirmed dyspeptic, after partaking of the fruit one evening came around the next, and, like Oliver Twist, cried for more.

Mrs. La France has a happy faculty for imparting her knowledge, and she firmly believes that once the proper method of cooking the fruit is understood, the demand will be practically unlimited, and that the orchardist need never allow a pound of fruit to go to waste on his hands. The increased demand will insure better prices, and dried fruit will never become—as it has during the past few months—a glut in the market.

A grand concert will be given in the Pavilion to-day from 2 to 5 o'clock by Cassasa's peppy band. There are hundreds of visitors in the city who will doubtless be glad of this fine opportunity for passing away the time in an enjoyable manner, while all home admirers of choice music should improve the chance to hear these skilled artists at their best. The price of admission to the concert will be 25 cents. There will be no concert there in the evening.

Following is the programme selected by Cassasa for the concert: 1. Grand Overture, "Helen".....R. Wagner 2. "Marsena de Valere".....Desormes 3. Gems from the Most Admired Works of Bellini.....Grieg 4. "Phosphor".....Reveries 5. "Suite Per Gyn".....Grieg 6. "Morning".....Grieg 7. "The Fairy".....Grieg 8. "Overture to Rossini's 'Stabat Mater'".....Mercadante 9. "The Fairy".....Grieg 10. "The Fairy".....Grieg

Rupert Schmid, San Francisco, has six examples of sculpture in the center of the Art Gallery, the best being the portrait bust of General Grant. Flora Vivian has in the same place a portrait bust from life that is meritorious and indicates capacity in modeling of a good order. Minnie Smegeer has an example of modeling in the form of a vase with sea animals. It is a work of originality and has features that strike one as especially strong. Not without faults, this original vase impresses us with far more of counterbalancing merits which promise better work in the early future. One of the most interesting and artistic works in the gallery is a group of pen and ink drawings (443-444) by Nellie Stearns Goodloe. It consists of original drawings on a large scale for the "Rhymes and Chimes Calendar," and a cover for the same. The detail in these thirteen pieces, one for each month and the cover design, is remarkable, and the lettering something unique and very handsome. These pieces are the objects of a great deal of examination and the subjects of no end of criticism, and it is almost unanimously that of admiration and praise. The group is to be found on the west wall near the south end, and will well repay long study.

Lillian M. Candlin has two good portraits in the pastel group (465 and 467), and a superior figure piece in "The Violin Player" (466). Calthea Vivian's pastel portrait of her sister, Miss F. Vivian, is an exhibition of her rapid advance in the rapid advancement of Miss Calthea. At each exhibition of her work she proves that she has attained to better things.

While it is not strictly within the line of exhibits for an art gallery, it is so rich in merit that we do not restrain the desire to call attention to the large and beautiful exhibit of the Sacramento Free Night School in mechanical drawing. The works will be found at the end of the extreme east gallery of the Pavilion. It is an exhibition of what any school in the land might well be proud. In neatness, correctness and difficult subjects it is an exposition of unexpected and surprising capacity.

A superior example of water color work is Mr. Hutchinson's (285) "Woman With Umbrella." It is strong, well-finished, handled with care, and is distinguished by warmth of feeling, though the subject is so simple a one. Three wash sketches (400) by Mrs. J. L. Huber, and a pen and ink sketch (401) by Mrs. J. L. Huber, do her credit, and are indicative of steady advancement. With devotion to the necessity of finishing her work and concentrating her efforts, the work will lie open to her that leads to great success. In group 346 L. Lattimer has twenty water color sketches. Lattimer is an old contributor to the annual exhibition by the Agricultural Society, and he never hangs anything weak. There are among the sketches now shown some exceedingly good work. The artist, one of the leading water colorists of the coast. His 393 and 370, "Alameda" and "A Quiet Glade," are more pretentious works and are excellent examples of his skill. A water color still-life study (334) by Mrs. Fannie McClatchy Richardson is good.

For the California Annual Stake, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, the starters were Dolores 110, 6 to 1, Hohenzollern 115, and the Roman 113, as a handicap. The race was a close one, and the Roman was the victor, winning by a half-length from Hohenzollern. True Blue's nose at the latter's saddle.

Not One Out of the Six Got First Place Yesterday.

All Were Well Played—Sad Accident in the Hurdle Race.

The racing at Agricultural Park yesterday had a sorrowful ending. Fully 8,000 people saw Bow, Cuddy thrown in front of the stand during the hurdle race and jumped on by two horses.

Next came a selling race for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs. It brought out Torsion 103, 30 to 1, La Flecha 90, 20 to 1, Red Idle 100, 15 to 1, Tohey 100, 25 to 1, Favorly 100, 15 to 1, Trapdoor 105, 15 to 1, Warrago 105, 20 to 1, Charles A. 108, 6 to 1, Charles Bots 100, 10 to 1, Tonino 100, 25 to 1, Blanche Bates 104, 30 to 1, Silver State 106, 4 to 1.

It was a big field of horses to get off, but a good start was had with little delay. "Trapdoor" showed in front for a while and then the field became bunched, with several of them on about even terms. La Flecha, a 20 to 1 shot, pulled out of the crowd and won by a length from Silver State, Blanche Bates, 30 to 1, third. Time, 1:16 1/2.

The afternoon's sport concluded with a handicap hurdle race. The jumpers were J. O. C. 143, 2 to 1, Huntsman 140, 9 to 5, Gold Dust 135, 3 to 1, Onto Ora 133, 12 to 1, Robin Hood 125, 30 to 1, Baby Hill 125, 15 to 1, Uncle Sam 123, 25 to 1, Zaragosa 120, 8 to 1.

There were five hurdles to be jumped, and the horses all got over the first one all right, but at the second, right in front of the grand stand, Huntsman struck the hurdle and partly fell, throwing his rider, Cuddy, who fell in front of the horse. The latter struck him with his feet as he gathered himself, and the next horse hit the prostrate jockey squarely on the head with one of his hind feet. Cuddy lay insensible, and some men ran out and carried him off the track. The other horses went over the course without further accident, Zaragosa winning in 2:35, Baby Hill second and Gold Dust third.

State Fair meeting, Sacramento, September 12, 1896—Running, three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs. Starters: Torsion 103, 30 to 1, La Flecha 90, 20 to 1, Red Idle 100, 15 to 1, Tohey 100, 25 to 1, Favorly 100, 15 to 1, Trapdoor 105, 15 to 1, Warrago 105, 20 to 1, Charles A. 108, 6 to 1, Charles Bots 100, 10 to 1, Tonino 100, 25 to 1, Blanche Bates 104, 30 to 1, Silver State 106, 4 to 1.

and lifelong practice. It is to be hoped we have seen the last of this class of so-called "sport" here.

But for the accident to young Cuddy it would have been an afternoon of great sport. There were six races and all of them were well played, and other great day for Boots' Elmwood Stable. He won first money in the first race for two-year-old non-winners with Vincitor, then he pulled down second money in the third race with Hohenzollern, and got first and third moneys in the fourth race with Hohenzollern and Installer. In fact, Boots got more or less of every purse and stake for which his Brutus colts started.

And George Rose, the bookmaker whose smile and cheery tone never fail him even when fortune goes against his pool boys, had a gray day in the afternoon. He won second money in the first race with Miss Maggie M., by imported Midlothian, first money in the third race with Geyser, by Ben All (both bred at Haggin's farm in this county), and second money in the fourth race with Rulmar.

The Pueblo Stable came in for first money in the second race with Thelma. In the fifth race the Floodmore stable took first money with La Flecha, a 20 to 1 shot, William Thompson's Silver Star took second, and Lake View Stable's Blanche Bates, 30 to 1, took third. First honors in the hurdle race fell to Zaragosa, second to Baby Hill and third to Gold Dust.

No finer day for racing ever dawned than yesterday, and the splendid programme offered attracted to the park one of the largest crowds ever seen at the State Fair. A great portion of the crowd were ladies. The day passed off joyfully for everyone up to the closing event when the unfortunate accident to young Cuddy occurred in the hurdle race.

First RACE. The first race for two-year-olds that have not won more than one race, the distance six furlongs. The starters were Link Boy 105, 60 to 1, The Plunger 106, 30 to 1, P. F. 110, 7 to 1, Dolce 110, 8 to 1, Vincitor 105, 8 to 5, Billy Vee 100, 10 to 1, and Miss Maggie M. 105, 11 to 1. A good start was had, and P. F. led off, but all were in a bunch. At the half Dolce showed up second, and went to the front before the head of the stretch was reached. There Vincitor and Maggie M. came to Dolce, and they finished in that order, Vincitor was a length ahead of Maggie, and Dolce one length behind the latter. Time, 1:16.

Second RACE. The second race was a selling race for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs. The starters were Encino 104, 12 to 1, Ricardo 110, 6 to 1, Miss Polard 101, 6 to 1, Heartsease 101, 6 to 1, Hymn 110, 6 to 1, Thelma 103, 5 to 1, Gladiola 103, 4 to 1, Rose Clark 100, 15 to 1, Caliente 100, even money. Sea Spray 110, 20 to 1, Mainstay 114, 4 to 1. Thelma was the first to show in front, but by the time they had gone an eighth of a mile Mainstay went up and led the group into the stretch. There Caliente made a brush, but had to give way and Thelma came on and won by three-fourths of a length, Ricardo second and a half-length the better of Mainstay. Time, 1:15.

Third RACE. For the California Annual Stake, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, the starters were Dolores 110, 6 to 1, Hohenzollern 115, and the Roman 113, as a handicap. The race was a close one, and the Roman was the victor, winning by a half-length from Hohenzollern. True Blue's nose at the latter's saddle.

Fourth RACE. The starters in the Capital City Stake, a handicap for three-year-olds, one and one-eighth miles, were Dolores 115, 7 to 1, Wheel of Fortune 110, 3 to 1, Marcel 103, 8 to 1, Nebuchadnezzar 105, and Installer 116, 4 to 1 as a steeple. In some of the books Nebuchadnezzar sold singly at 10 to 1.

This was a grand race. The horses got away quickly, and passing the half-mile installer led, his stable companion, Nebuchadnezzar, second, Rulmar third, Marcel fourth and Wheel of Fortune last. The horses all ran in a group in this order around into the stretch. Whip and spur were used by the jockeys in the last quarter, and the finish was an exciting one. Nebuchadnezzar exchanged positions with Installer, and then Rulmar came on and passed Installer, finishing only a neck behind Nebuchadnezzar in 1:53 1/2. Installer lapped on him for third place.

Fifth RACE. Next came a selling race for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs. It brought out Torsion 103, 30 to 1, La Flecha 90, 20 to 1, Red Idle 100, 15 to 1, Tohey 100, 25 to 1, Favorly 100, 15 to 1, Trapdoor 105, 15 to 1, Warrago 105, 20 to 1, Charles A. 108, 6 to 1, Charles Bots 100, 10 to 1, Tonino 100, 25 to 1, Blanche Bates 104, 30 to 1, Silver State 106, 4 to 1.

A MATCH RACE. There will also be a match race to-morrow between the trotters Fitzsimmons and Chirivar, to be driven by their respective owners, W. P. Fuller and Charles A. Hug. This ought to prove an interesting race.

Horse vs. Bicycle. A special feature on Wednesday will be a race between the pacer Del Norte and W. A. Terrill, the speedy San Francisco pacer. Del Norte was a good second in a race won in 2:10 1/2 last week, and Terrill will have to "hump" himself in order to get away with the horse.

STOCK PARADE. Another Exhibition of Premium Horses and Cattle. The stock parade at Agricultural Park yesterday was not so well attended as the exhibition of California's best animal product merited. However, the parade did not reflect this lack of interest, and it showed off to even better advantage than on last Thursday, and there were also a number of recruits in the procession.

Chief among these was that of the beautiful carriage team, the property of Director J. E. Terry. The animals are by Monroe Chief and Blackbird, and show their breeding in their lofty carriage and gait. D. J. Tobin's promising two-year-old, Lovell, was at his best, and was singled out by critical horsemen as he proudly led William Murry's famous string. McKinney, the great trotting sire, came in for his share of admiration. This magnificent horse is the sire of Zombro, Jennie Mac and other famous ones.

Jessie C., dam of Circle, was one of the favorites in the parade. Walstein, by Director, and Albert W., sire of Lady Duff, the latter having a record of 2:15 and Humboldt Maid, record of 2:17, were stars which added dignity to the trotting brigade. True Briton came out, handsome as ever, followed by the property of Bel Handicos, who holds the coast record for two and one-fourth miles. The cattle exhibit was led by Helbron Bros.' herd of Shorthorns. The cattle yesterday showed the good effect of a two weeks' grooming, and they will appear at their best at the parades the coming week. No effort will be spared to make the stock parades of Thursday and Saturday the best in the history of the coast.
