

TOUGH CUSTOMER.

A Thief Who Fights and Depends on His "Razzer."

Special Officer Joseph Bailey, Jr., had a racket with a burly black thief yesterday forenoon, and not only displayed considerable prowess but great forbearance, for the fellow deserved to be clubbed within an inch of his life.

It seems the negro went into N. Zemansky's store at Third and J streets, and while there slipped a pair of trousers under his coat and was making off with them when Zemansky discovered what was going on. He went after the fellow, who dropped the pants and ran, followed by Zemansky.
