

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Expressions of Coast Newspapers in Brief.

On All Shades of Political Belief and Upon Leading Topics of the Day.

San Jose Mercury: This is a campaign of business. Hard times will disappear with the disappearance of power from the party that caused them. And to make Republican success emphatic and effectual, the fusion ticket should be defeated from Bryan down.

THE POSITION OF THE FARMER. Santa Cruz (Santa Cruz) Daily, Secretary Farmers' National Congress of the United States, has contributed lately two notable articles on the uppermost questions of the hour—one in the "North American," entitled "Are the Farmers Populists?" and the other in "Free Coinage and Farmers" in the October "Forum." Mr. Stahl reviews the situation and concludes that farmers will in the present, as in the past, think out the problem with intelligence and integrity, and vote for the greatest good to the greatest number, and against "the free and unlimited coinage of both silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1."

AN UNTRUTH. Visalia Delta: The statement of C. H. Castle, Democratic and Populist candidate for Congress in this district, that plutocracy means a standing army to reduce the tariff to uniformity, and that they begin by organizing a National Guard in each State, indicates dense ignorance or something worse in Dr. Castle. The United States statute providing for the organization of the militia (for which provision is made in the Federal Constitution) was passed in 1790 and has not been materially altered, if at all, to this day. That was before the word plutocrat had been coined. This "system" does not increase the "standing army" over 200,000 men, as he says. At the time he wrote his letter the strength of the National Guard of all the States was about 110,000. No change has since been ever issued placing the militia, in times of domestic disturbance, under the command of regular army officers. He has no other authority for such a statement than his own imagination. Cleveland gave no instruction to army officers in the strike of 1894, "ordering the whole army to march against the rioters." It is not a difficult matter to get these orders and quote them correctly.

The statement that the National Guard (in some States called militia, State guards or State troops) has been gradually and quietly increased as part of a scheme to reduce the tariff to uniformity is absurd and untrue. At the time our Government was founded the militia (organized and unorganized) was calculated, as now, to embrace all the able-bodied citizens of military age.

WE CAN'T AFFORD IT. Tulare Register: The natural position of California is one of extreme opposition to Populism and to the Populist stand for the State. There is no legitimate interest in the rainbow chasing which just now stands exemplified in the person of William Jennings Bryan. Democracy does not appear in interest in this State as it is a contest between Republicanism and Populism, and the warfare of our State for years to come is at stake. Free trade and "cheap money," the twin abominations fostered and petted by the oral orator of the Platte, are utterly at variance with all the essential interests of California, past, present and future.

"Cheap money" will not pay existing debts in California because every man who has placed his name to the business end of any obligation has obligated himself to pay in money which is not cheap. The kind that the high priests of the free silver crusade require from their debtors. "Cheap money" will not go against contracts to the contrary. We have not a sufficient portion of the silver coinage that this country ever produced to conceal this fact. McKinley is the kind that the high priests of the free silver crusade require from their debtors. "Cheap money" will not go against contracts to the contrary. We have not a sufficient portion of the silver coinage that this country ever produced to conceal this fact. McKinley is the kind that the high priests of the free silver crusade require from their debtors. "Cheap money" will not go against contracts to the contrary. We have not a sufficient portion of the silver coinage that this country ever produced to conceal this fact. McKinley is the kind that the high priests of the free silver crusade require from their debtors.

AN ANGRY LOT. Santa Rosa Republican: The political manners of high and low degree are squealing because McKinley has so thoroughly demolished the free silver scheme as now they find fault with him for not talking about some other things—trusts, for instance. Well, the people will not take them on trust or any other way. They are working for the silver coinage—the biggest trust this country ever knew, and they cannot say or do anything to conceal this fact. McKinley is for the country, the whole country, and its legitimate interests.

"KIN ALL BE RICH." Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "I am a poor man, but I have a little home that I can raise $100 on and just as soon as Mr. O'Brien is elected and free silver is assured, I am going to buy 125 Mexican dollars for my $100 and then I will send them to the nearest mint and have 'em melted and coined into American dollars. Then I will buy 242 Mexican dollars with my 125 American dollars and have 'em coined free as before; then, with my 242 Mexican dollars I will buy 475 Mexican dollars again, and so on, until I become a bloated millionaire like Mr. Sewall, or the supply of Mexican dollars gives out. Say, what do you think of me, skeem? I know O'Brien is nothing, but a darn fool boy, but all we want is free silver, and a darn lot of it. So keep a shoutin', my fellow-workmen, till November, and we kin all be rich and won't have to work no more."

A GOOD STORY ABOUT MCKINLEY. Oakland Enquirer: In this connection the "Enquirer" will repeat a true story which it first printed some months ago, and which shows McKinley's attitude toward organized labor. Twenty years ago, during a miners' strike, the Warrington colliery was blown up, causing loss of life and property; the strike leaders were arrested and charged with complicity; public feeling was so strong that the prisoners who were appealed to by the lawyers thought it prudent not to take their cases, and at last the miners' committee of safety implored McKinley to defend them; he said he would do so if satisfied that none of them had any thing to do with the crime; the upshot was that he appeared for the prisoners, and after a hard fight lasting several months, he cleared them all but one.

THE OHIO MINERS' STRIKE.

The Ohio miners had no money to pay him, but offered him a check for $1,000 which had been sent to them from Pennsylvania. He took it and turned it into the relief fund established for the miners' families. Undoubtedly this was pure kindness of heart, but if it had been mere politics it would have been the acme of shrewdness.

To Offer a Reward of 100 Dollars. For a case of catarrh that cannot be cured, creates the suspicion that the article so advertised is a humbug. Do you know of any such reward being paid? Ely Bros. do not promise rewards in order to sell their well-known "Cream Balm." They offer the most effective medicaments, prepared in convenient form to use, which is absolutely free from mercurials or other harmful drugs.
