AN ATTRACTIVE WOMAN. If a woman is not attractive, there is something wrong. Any woman can be attractive if she will make the effort. It isn't altogether a question of beauty. It's largely a matter of health. The bloom and glow of health go far toward bringing beauty. A clear skin, bright eyes, red lips and the vivacity which bodily good feeling brings, will make even a homely woman handsome. Half of the women one meets are semi-invalids. Failure to heed the warnings of outraged nature—failure to give the help needed by the most delicate and sensitive organs—little troubles ignored until they have become dominant—disease allowed every chance to spread and gain a settled seat—these things bring about the sunken, circled eyes, the hollow cheeks, the pale and sallow skin, the flabby, strengthless flesh, which characterize the appearance of the woman who suffers from "female weakness."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has cured thousands of suffering women. It is a perfected specific for the troubles peculiar to them. It eradicates the disease, stops the dragging, life-sapping drain, and in a perfectly rational, natural way, builds up the wasted strength. It will bring buoyant health. It will put roses into pale faces—solid flesh in sunken places. It does away with the humiliating examinations and "local treatment" so much dreaded by modestly sensitive women. For thirty years, it has been successfully prescribed by Dr. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y.

About Our Concerts.

On no previous occasion in the history of our business were our stores so densely thronged with people as on last Saturday evening. At times it seemed as if it might be necessary to close the doors to avoid over-crowding. The liberal preparations made for seating visitors proved inadequate. To accommodate the increasing double we shall in future doubt the seating capacity and make use of the elevator at the rear end of the building to take visitors to and from the galleries, where a splendid view is afforded of the vast salesroom beneath, with its throngs of customers and promoters. The pleasure and satisfaction afforded by these Saturday evening concerts is such that we have decided to continue them until further notice. Next concert November 7th.
