

EFFECTS OF THE STORM IN THE NORTHWEST.

Situation as Described in the Dispatches Not Exaggerated in the Least.

Marrowing Tales of Suffering, Devastation and Destruction

Told by Parties Who Were Caught in the Storm in Washington—One Man a Raving Maniac as a Result of Hardships and Suffering Endured in His Efforts to Get Out of the Mountains.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Nov. 18.—Residents of Seattle and vicinity who by reason of the floods and snow have been virtually prisoners in the fastnesses of the Cascades Mountains since Friday last, are coming in, some on gravel trains, some afoot and others by boat.

The situation as described in these dispatches from day to day has not been exaggerated in the least, if, indeed, the fury and fierceness of the storm has been fully portrayed.

Four prospectors, headed by Joseph Nicholson, operating a claim on the Snoqualmie Pass, arrived this afternoon. One of the men is a raving maniac by reason of the suffering and hardships endured in their efforts to get out of the mountains.

At daybreak on Sunday the prospectors tore away the lashings and began their perilous journey out of the mountains. They followed Gold Creek to Lake Keechelus, tramping through snow four or five feet deep.

Two Seattle business men were caught at Index Thursday. They were three days walking thirty-five miles to Snohomish, crossing small streams by means of the driftwood and the larger ones in rowboats.

The gentlemen giving this information say that there are ten washouts on the Great Northern between Index and Sultan, a distance of fourteen miles; that on the upper falls of the Skykomish River two bridges are gone, together with 1,200 feet of track.

When the flood was at its height the Great Northern main line between Monroe and Skykomish, a distance of seven miles, was inundated to a depth of from six to fifteen feet.

There may be cheaper belts, but there are none as good.

at Snohomish. In the flats and bottoms water covered thousands of acres of rich farm land, leaving nothing but wreck and ruin behind.

The Great Northern is making no attempt to run trains save those on the coast line north to Stanwood.

The Eastern mails due here Saturday and Sunday were received to-day, but there has been none from San Francisco and the South since last Friday night.

GOSSIP CONCERNING MCKINLEY'S CABINET.

Said the President-Elect Has Settled Upon the Geographical Distribution.

Middle West to Get the Treasury, the East the State Department.

Chauncey M. Depew, According to the Gossipers, Will be Selected by Major McKinley as the Successor of Secretary of State Olney.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—A Washington special says: It is said here that Major McKinley has settled already upon the main geographical distribution of his Cabinet, and the work from now on will consist entirely of the selection and canvassing of names for the different places on the basis which has been outlined.

Under this supposed scheme it is said that the Secretary of the Treasury will certainly come from the territory between the Alleghenies and the Missouri River, and the Secretary of State will be chosen from some one of the States east of the mountains.

The Secretary of State under the present regime has very onerous social duties. He is expected to be present at the formal dinners at the various legations, and is almost obliged to entertain the diplomats at frequent dinners himself, besides being the direct representative of the administration at the state dinners held at the White House.

Chauncey M. Depew, according to the gossipers, will be selected by Major McKinley as the successor of Secretary of State Olney.

Under this supposed scheme it is said that the Secretary of the Treasury will certainly come from the territory between the Alleghenies and the Missouri River.

The early gossip naturally connected Mr. Depew with a foreign mission, where his talents as an after-dinner talker would have full scope, but later it has come to be more or less an accepted fact that New York is to have a good place in the Cabinet, particularly because geographical reasons will prevent Mr. Bliss from being put at the head of the treasury.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

Recommendations in Reports of General Officers Discussed.

ROCHESTER (N. Y.), Nov. 18.—The delegates to the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor gave up the morning session to a discussion of the recommendations embodied in the reports of the general officers and the Committee on the State of the Order.

The question of establishing a degree in the order known as "Mighty Men" was also discussed.

To-morrow the assembly will discuss the question that while monetary reform is fully provided for in the sixteenth and seventeenth planks of the preamble, the free coinage of gold and silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, regardless of the action of any other nation, is important, looking toward the ultimate success of the system we desire, and we therefore endorse the agitation in favor of free coinage as a means to the end we seek.

The Woman's Suffrage Convention sent an invitation to the Knights to attend one of their meetings after being refused admission to the convention of the Knights. The invitation will be accepted.

A resolution was introduced and adopted refusing admission into the Knights of Labor of any dual organization.

In his report tendered a few days ago, Secretary-Treasurer Hayes recommended that the General Executive Board be instructed to urge instead of a prohibitory tariff on glass, that the tariff be transferred to the immigrant glass-workers; that the industry be retained in the control of the national workmen and the foreign workers be kept out. A resolution to this effect was passed.

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

The Twenty-Eighth Annual Reunion Called to Order.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 18.—The clear and mellow notes of a bugle call resounded through the rotunda of the Southern Hotel at 10:30 o'clock this morning and summoned over three score of gray-haired and distinguished veterans to "fall in" for the twenty-eighth annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee, which is being held in St. Louis.

A. Jenkins, Captain W. D. Andrews and Captain A. C. Waterhouse, Chicago; Captain W. H. Sinclair, Galveston, Texas; Captain W. N. Baldwin, General A. J. Hickenloope and Major Hoyt Sherman, Cincinnati; Dr. D. C. Palmer, Rock Island, Ill.; General Smith D. Atkins of Freeport, Ill.; General John H. Sibbs, General John A. McArthur, General R. N. Pearson, Colonel James Sexton, Colonel W. B. Keeler, Chicago; Congressman W. P. Hepburn of Iowa, John A. Logan, Jr., of Ohio, ex-Governor R. J. Oglesby of Illinois; United States Senator Vilas of Wisconsin and Major William Warner of Kansas City.

General Dodge called the members to order in a brief address, in which he expressed gratification that so many members of the society were present.

The morning session was almost informal in character, and after calling the roll the members separated into groups and renewed old acquaintances.

Many of the visitors called upon Mrs. Jefferson Davis and her daughter Winnie, who are in the city to attend the annual ball of the Daughters of the Confederacy here to-morrow night.

This evening the society held public sessions. The business session will be held to-morrow, during which officers will be chosen.

He could not remove it with hand implements, so he put it in a blast and loosened it. A big piece weighing 150 pounds was removed and placed on exhibition.

MURDER OF MRS. GREENWOOD.

DEFENDANT PLACED ON THE WITNESS-STAND.

Says the Confession Made at Los Angeles Was Done While Suffering From Delirium Tremens.

NAPA, Nov. 18.—The defense began the introduction of testimony in the Roe murder trial this morning. The opening statement was made by Attorney York, who said that in defense of Roe's life for several years past would be followed, and that witnesses would testify to his good character.

The course of the defense was laid down in the opening statement. Several witnesses testified to Roe's good reputation.

Defendant then testified, stating that the confession made to Shaug in Los Angeles was done while he was suffering from delirium tremens.

Sheriff McKenzie has a theory about the murder of Deputy-Sheriff Malby of Woodland, and the theory involves the present prisoner. The Malby mystery has never been solved, and Roe is the first man who has claimed to know about it.

Under Sheriff John Malby was mysteriously killed in 1882, and there is no doubt but that Roe was in Woodland at the time. Roe told Sheriff McKenzie that he could clear up the Malby murder mystery.
