THE DAY. Whatever the vicissitudes through which a people pass, they still have reason to be thankful for preservation as communities and a nation.

There is, on such a day and season as this, a duty and privilege conjoined with our thankfulness that we cannot neglect without injury to ourselves, namely, the taking into our sympathies more closely those less fortunate and whom poverty, sickness and misfortunes have afflicted.

DEATH OF DR. BONTE. The death of Rev. J. H. C. Bonte, M. A., D. D., in this city on Tuesday removes a man who was held in high esteem in Sacramento by all the people who enjoyed the privilege of acquaintance with him.

Yet Dr. Bonte had so many ties that bound him to this city, some of his children living here, and he having here also a wide circle of close friends, that he really never severed himself from us. His visits were frequent to us and they were always like home comings.

While he resided here the learned gentleman took a deep interest in public affairs outside of political activities, and was foremost in promoting public-spirited, scientific and literary matters. He believed that every man owes a debt to the community in which he lives that he cannot fully pay, no matter how actively he labors in its interest.

At the recent horse show in New York City over $1,000,000 were expended—and yet we are told that it is difficult to get money into circulation.

Rev. J. H. C. Bonte's Funeral. The funeral of the late Rev. John Harmon C. Bonte will take place from St. Paul's Church at 1:30 p. m. on Friday. Friends are invited to the services. The interment will be private.

and well, and left it to be said of him, "his death is a community loss."

A COMPLIMENT FROM ABROAD. The Cleveland "Leader," after reviewing the whole situation regarding the late election, comes to this conclusion:

All things considered, the most remarkable victory achieved by the sound money forces of any State was the carrying of California for McKinley. It is not yet too late to give the gallant Republicans of that State and the honest money Democrats who worked with them the credit which they deserve for a most extraordinary triumph in the face of great difficulties.

The Grand Jury filed its report yesterday in Judge Johnson's court through its foreman, Thomas McConnell, and the members were discharged after their labor on behalf of the county. The jury finds some acts to commend on the part of county officials, recommends changes in methods in a few instances, and advises that the Constitution be so amended that in criminal actions three-fourths of a jury may find a verdict.

INDICTMENTS FOUND. To the Hon. Matt. F. Johnson, Judge of Department Two of the Superior Court of Sacramento County: We, the Grand Jury, beg to submit herewith our final report. This jury was impaneled in your court June 1, 1896. Thomas McConnell was appointed Foreman and F. B. Adams Secretary.

Not Concluded. Trial of William Otto for Assault With a Deadly Weapon. William Otto was on trial in Judge Hinkson's court yesterday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The charge grew out of his trouble some time ago with Police Captain Ash and Officer Douglas on L street, when he drew a pistol while the officers were trying to arrest him.

AMUSEMENTS. "Fleur de Lis" is a brilliant spectacle, as given by Della Fox's Comic Opera Company—especially in the second act is there a fine spectacle, and the third act is full of laughter as any well could be. But musically it is not level with "The Little Trooper," which gives the baritone and the soprano far better opportunities, and, indeed, the whole opera is more musical.

HIGHER LICENSE. The jury finds there are 207 places in the county licensed to sell liquor, and recommend that the license be raised from $30 to $50 per quarter. There is one saloon to every thirty-seven voters in the county.

PUBLIC GAMING. On this subject the report says: "The sentiment of this city seems to be that during the State Fair weeks gambling should be permitted. It is therefore a more difficult matter to enforce laws here on that question as strictly as in other places where gambling is never permitted."

HOSPITALS, JAILS, ETC. The jury report having visited the County Hospital and found 257 patients there. The daily cost per capita of caring for the indigent sick is 15 7-10 cents, or about 54 cents per meal. The buildings and grounds are neatly kept, and the patients expressed satisfaction with their treatment. Superintendent G. A. White is regarded as a highly efficient and painstaking officer.

As to the City Jail, the building is old, the sewerage defective, and the location bad. Business in the Police Court is at times impossible, owing to its proximity to the railroad yard. As all the recommendations of former Grand Juries in regard to the jail have been ignored, the jury declined to repeat them.

Ott's Liver Pills, Once Tried, Always Used. BEST PILLS ON EARTH FOR torpidity of liver, sick headache, biliousness, constipation, gravel, etc. Nausea, grippe or stoken, nerves, indigestion, constipation, another good feature with this pill is that they will affect the same at all times; they contain no mercury in any form, but are easily taken. Gelatine coated and purely vegetable. Price, 25 cents per bottle.

GRAND JURY'S LABOR ENDED.

Nine Indictments Were Found and Five Charges Ignored.

Change Recommended in the Jury Law—City Jail Not Worthy of Comment.
