Cover All Properties Owned by the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Mangled Remains of an Oakland Citizen Found Strwn Along the Railroad Track in That City—The Dead Man's Head Filled With Buckshot, Indicating That He Had Been Murdered and the Body Thrown Upon the Track to Conceal the Crime.

SEATTLE (Wash.), Dec. 29.—Two mortgages, the largest ever filed in the State, were recorded in the Kings County Auditor's office yesterday.

First came a deed from the Northern Pacific Railroad conveying all its lands to the Northern Pacific Railway; then the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, as trustees of the Northern Pacific Railroad, all property of the Northern Pacific Railroad held in trust; then there was a deed from Master in Chancery Carey to the Northern Pacific Railway Company of all property of the Northern Pacific Railroad and lastly a deed from Receivers McHenry, Bigelow and Burleigh to the Northern Pacific Railway Company of all property of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company held by them.

Following these came record mortgages from the Northern Pacific Railway Company to the Mercantile Trust Company and to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York. The first of these was for $130,000,000 to the Mercantile Trust Company, covering all property in this country and other countries, to secure bonds bearing 4 per cent interest.

WHEAT BOOMING.

An Important Advance in the Cereal in All the Markets.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—Wheat had another and a more important advance to-day. There was much improvement in all the markets, and the whole situation is daily becoming stronger.

In England futures opened at an advance of 3/4d, and December option in Liverpool was quoted at 6s 9 1/2d. The advance was maintained up to the close. The cargo market was quiet and firm. Cargoes, prompt shipment, were quoted at 35s 10 1/2d.

The Chicago market was excited and higher. At the opening December wheat, which closed yesterday at 78 1/2c, sold at 79 1/2c, and May, which closed yesterday at 82c, brought 82 1/2c.

Spot wheat is firmly held at $1 52 1/2 per cental. Barley options were quiet. At 11:15 May barley sold at 91 1/2c, a decline.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

The Pacific Coast Association Meets in Annual Session.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—The Pacific Coast Commercial Travelers' Association held its sixth annual meeting to-day at Native Sons' Hall. About 122 delegates were in attendance.

The reports of the various officers showed that the organization was in a most flourishing condition. The membership is now 352, a gain of forty-six over last year. During the year just closing there was also an increase of $2,000 in the funds of association, so that now there is $10,000 on the right side of the ledger.

The delegates appropriated $115 to relieve the necessities of some of its members, and ratified the payment of two $500 death benefits to the families of two deceased members, A. D. Simpson and R. Porterfield.

sulted as follows: J. C. Eubanks, B. B. Galland, W. F. Peterson, A. C. Baldermann, H. Morgenthau, A. Hampel, H. L. Judell, C. B. Tamson, A. Well, and Nate Jacobs. The Directors then met and re-elected as President J. C. Eubanks and A. C. Baldermann as Secretary. W. F. Peterson was selected as Vice-President and B. B. Galland as Treasurer.

At night the delegates had a high jinx in the lower hall of the Native Sons' building.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Yesterday's Sessions Largely Attended—Officers Chosen.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 29.—The attendance at the State Teachers' Association this morning was very large.

Barr of Stockton; Secretary, Miss Annie M. Felker, San Jose; Assistant Secretaries, Franklin Barthall, Morgan Hill; Recording Secretary, J. W. McClimonds, Oakland; Treasurer, Bessie G. Haslam, Santa Cruz.

It was decided that the next session of the association should be held in San Francisco.

The work of the association was then resumed, a number of valuable papers being disposed of before adjournment was taken until to-morrow morning.

EVIDENCE OF MURDER.

Fragments of a Human Body Picked Up in Oakland.

OAKLAND, Dec. 29.—Fragments of a human body scattered along the railroad track from the foot of Peralta street in Oakland to the second tower on the land end of the mole were found yesterday morning, and every circumstance indicates that death was the result of murder. The remains were collected and identified as those of John Conlon, a laborer residing at 654 Linden street. A portion of the dead man's hand was riddled with bird shot, and from the way in which the body was mutilated the police believe that Conlon was first murdered and then thrown on the track.

MAIL CARRIER MISSING.

Believed to have Been Drowned While Crossing a River.

EUREKA, Dec. 29.—A letter received here from Garberville to-day brought news of the probable death of another mail carrier, E. S. Dammers, who has been missing since Thanksgiving. Dammers was employed by the mail contractor at Kenny to ferry mail across the south fork of E River during the high water. No mail has been lost, but it is supposed that he was drowned in attempting to cross the river. He was an old resident of southern Humboldt County.

NEVADA POLITICS.

An Editor Appointed Private Secretary to Governor Sadler.

RENO (Nev.), Dec. 29.—It is reported that Governor Sadler has appointed E. D. Kelley, editor of the "Nevada State Journal," as Private Secretary, vice J. R. Judge. The appointment was made several days ago, but was not to be made public until January 1st. Senator Jones passed through to Gold Hill this morning. The announcement of George Nixon as a Senatorial candidate probably makes it necessary for the Senator to look to his political fences.

Large Shipment of Coin to Hawaii.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—The steamship Australia, which sailed for Honolulu this evening, took away an unusually rich cargo. Among it was $100,000 in American gold coin, $10,000 American silver dollars, $1,000 in American dimes and $400 in American nickels. This is by far the largest shipment of American money ever sent to Hawaii at one time. From this it would appear as though the Hawaiian Government had decided upon adopting the coinage of the United States.

San Joaquin Valley Road.

OAKLAND, Dec. 29.—The San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railway Company filed a blanket mortgage on all its property in this county yesterday in favor of the Mercantile Trust Company of New York, to secure an issue of $6,000,000 worth of bonds. The filing of the deed is considered significant as showing that the company expects to do business in Alameda County in the future.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 29.—C. M. Black of Los Angeles registered at a hotel last night, and was found dead this morning. He left a letter to the Coroner, with $200 for his burial. He said that he was tired of life. He bequeathed his personal effects to the Salvation Army. Death was due to laudanum.

ANOTHER BOOM FOR THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

Is to Become the Headquarters of the Chinese Revolutionary Junta,

Which is Planning the Overthrow of the Manchu Dynasty.

A Cyclone Which Passed Over New South Wales Virtually Demolished the Town of Nevertire—Though Details Are Wanting, It is Reported That a Large Number of Casualties Occurred.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—A morning paper prints the following: According to versatile Wong Chin Foo, Chicago is to become headquarters for the Chinese revolutionary junta. This body plans the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty, now regnant in the Flowery Kingdom, by an armed invasion from a convenient South Sea island.

Rooms for the junta have been engaged at No. 323 North Clark street, and the Monzollans who dwell in that vicinity await the coming of Sung Yat Sen to set the machinery in motion which is to open China to Western civilization. Sung Yat Sen is the Celestial revolutionist who recently was kidnaped in the streets of London, and whose release was effected by Lord Salisbury. He is now collecting money and organizing his followers in England. He will sail for America within two or three weeks, where he will confer with Chin Foo of Chicago and other leaders of the Chinese reform party in this country. Wong Chin Foo at present is hard at work on magazine articles on Confucianism, and in the preparation of Confucian missionary lectures to be delivered in Illinois and adjoining States. Put he is not neglecting his duties as attorney for the revolutionists.

The revolutionary societies in this country and England number, it is said, thousands of Chinamen who have amassed wealth, which is to be used when the time ripens for the overthrow of the hated Manchu dynasty.

THE BOYCOTT ON 'LELECTEUR.'

Beginning of a Struggle to Death With the Government of Ottawa.

MONTREAL, Dec. 29.—The mandate, issued by the Roman Catholic Bishops of Quebec forbidding Catholic Catholics to "subscribe for, read, circulate or otherwise encourage the newspaper 'L'Electeur,' published in Quebec City, under pain of being deprived of the benefits of the church," has created intense excitement throughout the province, and is denounced in strong terms by the Liberal French and English papers.

Mr. Paquet, publisher of the condemned paper, will, it is understood, take an action for $5,000 damages against each of the Bishops who signed the mandate, and a number of prominent men here have expressed their willingness to subscribe towards carrying the case to the Privy Council if necessary.

"Le Patrie," a Liberal French paper published in this city, says: "It is Mr. Paquet who was struck, but it is Laurier which is assailed, but in the eyes that are the point of the dagger, after having killed Paquet, will strike the First Minister of Canada in a vital spot. The execution of 'L'Electeur' at Quebec is and can be only the beginning of a struggle to the death with the Government at Ottawa."

Mr. Paquet says he will cease the publication of his paper, and appeal to the Roman court.

The offense of "L'Electeur" consisted in printing a pamphlet written by Mr. David, upholding the doctrine of the supremacy of the State in State affairs, and denying the right of the church to dictate to electors how they shall vote upon such a question as that of the restoration of separate schools in Manitoba.

Colonel William Norris Dead.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 29.—Colonel William Norris died to-day at his home in Brooklandville. Colonel Norris was born seventy-six years ago. He was a graduate of Yale in the class of '40; practiced law in New Orleans and went to California in '49. While there he was appointed Judge-Advocate of the Pacific squadron. When the war broke out he returned to his native State and entered the Confederate service as Captain, and was subsequently made Chief of the Signal Service. In 1865 Colonel Norris was made Commissioner of Exchange.

Cyclone in New South Wales.

MELBOURNE, Dec. 29.—A cyclone that passed over a portion of New South Wales has virtually demolished the town of Nevertire. It is reported that there were a large number of casualties, but as the storm destroyed the telegraph wires it is impossible at present to get any details.

Civil Service.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The President to-day amended the civil service rules so as to include in this service all employees of Government penitentiaries in the United States who are subject to classification.

WANTS HEAVY DAMAGES.

Amount Elder Simmons Values His Name and Fame at.

SANTA ROSA, Dec. 29.—Elder T. J. Simmons declares in a complaint filed to-day that he has been damaged in name and fame to the extent of $50,000 by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCroskey; that the defendants caused his arrest on the 13th of last March at San Benito on a charge of forcibly abducting Annie McCroskey, and compelling her by duress and menace to marry him; that they had him sent to a common jail at San Jose for sixteen hours, thereby causing him great mental anguish and physical discomfort; also, that defendants had an account of his misfortunes published in the San Jose "Mercury" and other papers, and that they wrote to divers persons telling them of the affair, damaging his name and fame as a phrenologist and reader of character, and injuring him in the eyes of the Association of Baptist ministers, of which organization he is a member in good standing.

He alleges that the charge of abduction brought against him was dismissed the day after his arrest, and that $50,000 and costs will alone heal his wounded feelings.

SACRAMENTO BENCH SHOW.

The Kennel Club Allowed to Exhibit the Dogs on Sunday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—The Advisory Board of the Pacific Kennel Club met this evening in the office of "Field Sports," purposely to hear and pass upon a report from the Sacramento Kennel Club in reference to the holding of its bench show on a Sunday.

The American Kennel Club, which determines all questions of doubt relative to kennel matters throughout the country, decided to leave the matter in the hands of the Pacific Advisory Board, and that body decided to allow the Sacramento Kennel Club to exhibit their dogs on Sunday, January 10th.

The Sacramento Club claimed the dates January 9th to 11th for its show, and the Advisory Board adjudged that it would be doing an injustice to the sportsmen of the Capital City if it were to deny them the permission to hold the show on the days which have been so extensively advertised. The entries for the show will close with the Secretary, W. E. Ladd of Stockton, on January 1st, and from all accounts a large number of entries will be received.

HARVEY WINS HIS SUIT.

Indians to be Ejected From the Warner Hot Springs Property.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 29.—The long-standing case brought by ex-Governor John G. Downey, and after his death continued by his administrator, J. Downey Harvey, against several hundred Indians to recover possession of the famous Warner Hot Springs and a large portion of the Warner ranch, in this county, containing 27,000 acres, was decided to-day by Judge Pierce in favor of the plaintiff. This means that the Indians who have for generations held and cultivated portions of the ranch and derived large revenues from the Agua Caliente Hot Springs are to be forcibly ejected from the premises. The hot springs are visited annually by hundreds of tourists and health-seekers.

FATAL EXPLOSION.

Two Boilers in a Washington Insane Asylum Blow Up.

SPOKANE (Wash.), Dec. 29.—The inmates of the State Asylum for the Insane at Medical Lake were terrorized last night by the explosion of two boilers in the basement, which wrecked the boiler-house and partially destroyed the west side of the main building, besides breaking every window in the large institution. Three hundred patients made mad efforts to leap from the upper windows, and were only prevented from doing so by the iron bars which restrained them. Many were injured by flying glass and in fighting to escape. Fritz Thellman, a fireman on duty, was found in the ruins unconscious. He will die. The building was damaged to the extent of $25,000.

DAVIS SLOUGH.

U. S. Attorney Foote to Investigate the Charges of It Being Obstructed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—United States Attorney Foote has received instructions from Washington to investigate the charges brought by the Sportsmen's Protective Association that certain parties had placed obstructions in the Davis Slough, Suisun Marsh, thereby interfering with navigation. It is admitted by the lessees that piles have been placed in the stream at irregular intervals, with a view of keeping outside sportsmen off the marshes. It is also contended that these obstructions do not interfere with ordinary navigation. The instructions of the Attorney-General, in view of the evidence in his possession, is regarded as a defeat for the Sportsmen's Association.

J. ROSS JACKSON.

No Immediate Danger From the Operation Performed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—An operation was performed on J. Ross Jackson, the veteran journalist, to-day by Doctors Keeney and Morse at the Waldock Sanitarium. A rumor was published in one of the evening papers that he would die as a result of the operation, which was to remove a cancer. This was contradicted by Dr. Keeney this evening, who said that Mr. Jackson was rallying well from the operation, and the physician also expressed the opinion that Mr. Jackson was liable to live for a long time. In other words, there was no immediate danger of death.

Doubts the Truth of the Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—Vice-President C. E. Crocker of the Southern Pacific does not believe the report from Sioux City that the Pacific short line is to be pushed through to this city. He says he never heard of Donald McLean, and does not think he could command sufficient capital to build the road.

Incorporation Defeated.

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY.

A Lively Meeting and Large Additions to Membership.

The Relation of the Work of the Society to the Duty of the Police Authorities.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children had the largest and most interesting meeting since its foundation last night. At 7 o'clock the Board of Directors met, Mrs. C. H. Hubbard in the chair in the absence of President Herrick. The case of Roy Gould was brought up and the directors advised the society to move to have the child now in custody sent to the Preston School.

It was advised that the society pay the cost of having Dan Henly appointed guardian for Alice Hageman, the girl wishing that done to free her from authority of others not friendly to her well-being. She is a good girl and is under promise to repay the society as soon as she can earn the money.

Treasurer Erliewe reported total receipts $288 25, total disbursements $251 40, balance on hand $36 85. Mr. Herrick paid in $5 received from the county for money paid out for transportation to the hospital last summer.

At 8 o'clock the society met, Vice-President Mrs. Hubbard in the chair. Secretary Simon and a large attendance of members being ready for business. The recommendations of the directors were reported and approved and resolutions passed.

Secretary Simon reported three cases attended to by him. In one two children had been restored to their parents whom the society had taken charge of; in another guardianship was provided for a girl who needed it; in another a party was warned after investigation that took too much time. In another two small boys it was believed had been removed from influences leading them to shame.

Propositions for membership were then heard as follows: By Mrs. Beckwith, Mrs. V. S. McClatchey; by Mrs. Cushman, Mrs. A. W. Morrison; by Mrs. Hanly, Mrs. W. H. Leeman; by Mr. Simon, Mrs. Carl Kaufman, and they were elected.

By Mr. Beckwith—J. Zemansky, I. Zemansky, F. P. Thompson, Mrs. F. R. Thompson, Mrs. H. R. Thompson, F. R. Thompson, Judge A. C. Hinkson, District Attorney P. D. Ryan, Mrs. F. D. Ryan, F. E. Duden, George H. Clark, Mrs. G. H. Clark, E. J. Devlin, Harry Rogers, Miss J. C. Lyon, Mrs. Anna Phillips, W. J. McCarty, J. W. Higgins, R. C. Irvine, Private Secretary E. D. McCabe, Fred Rohrer, Controller E. P. Colgan, Secretary of State L. H. Brown, W. H. Govan, C. E. Duhan, Colonel R. L. Peler, Surveyor-General J. Wright, F. A. Wright, W. E. Doane, C. K. McClatchey, V. S. McClatchey, J. H. Watkins, V. J. Toland, Charles Schwilke, H. A. Kidder, Henry Bennett, Mrs. Henry Bennett, C. A. Root, R. T. Cohn, Mrs. Matt. F. Johnson, Miss Lottie Wilsey, W. W. Chapin, Sheriff F. T. Johnson, Frank Miller, Mrs. E. Twitchell, Rev. C. L. Miel, Mrs. E. M. Simpson, T. L. Enright, Mrs. T. L. Enright, Mrs. Carrie Turrell, Judge E. C. Hart, Dr. N. H. Haight, Mrs. Dr. Haight, Mrs. F. R. Dray, Dr. T. W. Huntington, George E. Dirrersen and Justice S. E. Gandy. They were all elected. The following were elected at the last prior meeting, but their names were not heretofore reported: Mrs. Governor Budd, Miss Bertie Groth, Miss Theodora Willis, P. F. McMorry.

Special Officer D. Healey then made his report. It included twelve distinct cases, and four or five less definite ones. Three had been reported by police officers whom the society believed should have acted on their own authority and not have waited to report. One of the cases are those of corrupting young girls; one of the practical abandonment of small children; one of a child deliberately placed in a house of prostitution by a parent; one of natural-born children exposed to shameless life; one of small children kept in vicious quarters; one of a feeble-minded child; one of an incorrigible child thief; one of a boy drifting rapidly into a criminal life; one of scandalous conduct toward children by adults; and several pitiful cases in which poverty and neglect combined operate distressing cruel treatment of children.

Several of these cases, in fact most of them cannot be described in decent print. In some of them rescues have been effected, in two the society will probably have the children on hand and all know what to do with them; in some children are in custody already, in others warnings have been given, in some investigations have resulted in correction and betterments. In all the cases the officer had the counsel of the Secretary and President who aided him in investigations.

The question of providing compensation to enable special officers to do work for the society taken up by the directors had no definite action at the society meeting.

At the close of the reports there ensued a discussion of a lively order that brought out some vigorous remarks and some exceedingly touching expressions. The question was what line shall be drawn to separate the work of the society in the matter of protecting children in their rights and cases of pursuit of crime, which should fall within the active duty of civil and especially police authorities.

On the one side it was held that it is not the purpose of the society to give its energies to scouring criminal haunts and doing work the police should do, and of which they have knowledge, since there is more work than the society can possibly handle in the line of protecting innocent children from contamination, in securing them food, shelter and clothing and safe homes, and removal from contaminating influences, and in making examples of adults who wrong them. That if the society is to seek out the haunts of vice and scour the gutters of low quarters to punish miserable creatures who abandon natural children, to drag out young girls and boys who are in many cases incorrigible, vicious and fit only for the criminal courts it will do what the community pays the police authorities to do, and who having full knowledge they ought to do, but fail to touch. It was reported that police officials had said to society officers, "We do not propose to go into the kindergarten business for your society." In other cases it was argued the reports showed that police officers had not only refused to act, having knowledge, but have reported cases to the society as if the laws committed all such to the special care of the association, when the stat-

Professor Munyon is honored to-day as the leading authority in the medical world. His new and humane methods of treatment have swept away all the old-fashioned ideas of doctoring with cases in the effort to get rid of one. He does not claim that he has one remedy that will cure all complaints, but that he has prepared a specific cure for nearly every disease. He does not claim that Munyon's Rheumatism Cure will cure consumption, dyspepsia or any other complaint, but he does assert that it will cure rheumatism. Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure is prepared expressly to cure dyspepsia; Munyon's Cough Cure to cure coughs; Munyon's Catarrh Remedies to cure catarrh; Munyon's Kidney Cure to cure kidney troubles. The same may be said of all Munyon's different remedies. They may be obtained at all drug stores, mostly at 25 cents a bottle.

utes are general and run to all peace officers.

This side contended that the society should notify police authorities of cases belonging to them and bend its energies mainly to work relating to unfortunate, abandoned, cruelly treated and neglected children. On the other hand, it was contended that the prime object of the society is to take cognizance of all cruelty that touches the soul and corrupts the individual. As one lady expressed it, who prefaced her speech by saying she is not a religionist, "the hurt of the body will heal; the wound to the soul may never be healed."

It was contended that others may be deterred; that the environment, what the circumstances, whenever a child is operated upon so as to wreck its life and make it a social dependent or a menace, it is the duty of the society to take jurisdiction and do all it can to prevent same. That while it must not interfere in family quarrels, must take extraordinary care not to become the instrument of jealousy and revenge on the part of others; while it must be lynx-eyed for imposture, it must stretch out its hand whenever the law against the rights of the child is violated, and whenever humanity appeals to it.

To this the other side vigorously replied that the work of the society on the criminal side should be confined to punishing adults who are guilty of cruelty to children that others may be deterred; that all other cases in the criminal list should be ignored in behalf of the police.

It was answered by the majority, which was large, that no such line could be drawn; that the work was too sacred to be cut by narrow definitions.

The debate which developed much spirit and a tender feeling, had a wholesome effect and resulted in an agreement that a memorial should be addressed to the authorities pointing out that the State law gives the society the right to expect and receive the assistance of peace officers and those over them. That in most cases the society has had of a criminal nature the civil authorities could have attended to them and knew all about them. That while the society does not complain, while its relations with the police are cordial, and while it has had their aid to some extent and their full countenance, it will ask and insist that because the society exists civil officers shall not neglect any duty regarding rescue of children and punishment of offenders against them, nor wait to report cases to the society.

That there is needed co-operation and kindly and hearty working together, if conditions are to be bettered and the crop for prisons, and almshouses, and reformatories, barbed coasts and dishonor is in any degree to be lessened. That the society is not on a mission to correct all social conditions, nor expecting to work miracles of reform, but will strive to lessen, so far as it can, human suffering, and prevent some children being driven into vicious ways, and rescue others while there is time, but for the incorrigible and those adults corrupting children and the notorious corrupters of young generally, it expects and solicits the active special aid of the civil authorities and original aid also under their duty as defined by the law. Messrs. Simon, Buck and Mrs. Tufts were appointed a committee to prepare and present the memorial on some such lines, and the society then adjourned for one month.
