

THE SELECTING OF M'KINLEY'S CABINET.

Judge Nathan Goff of West Virginia May be Attorney-General.

Thought He Will be Tendered and Accept the Portfolio.

New York Likely to be Overlooked Unless the Factional Pressure Becomes Less Fierce—Congressman Wilson of Brooklyn Suggested for the Secretary of the Navy.

CANTON (O.), Jan. 22.—Judge Nathan Goff of West Virginia left for home this evening. He said: "My visit has been a charming and satisfactory one. I had not seen Major McKinley for several years, and we had a good many things besides politics to talk about. In a political way our decision was pretty exhaustive concerning the Southern situation. Major McKinley is looking remarkably well, and is in the best of spirits."

A new Cabinet possibility was suggested to-day by C. L. Magee, who stated that the friends of P. C. Knox of Pittsburgh would suggest to Major McKinley the expediency of making him Attorney-General. Mr. Knox is a successful lawyer of large means, who is eminent in his profession. Mr. Magee said he did not come to Canton to discuss the Cabinet, and remarked that while he was personally friendly to Charles Emory Smith he would have to support Mr. Knox, the local Cabinet possibility.

There has been much speculation here to-day regarding the New York member of Major McKinley's Cabinet, and the suggestion has been made that the President-elect may decline to appoint any one from that State, if the factional pressure is too fierce. Congressman F. H. Wilson of Brooklyn was to-day suggested for the position of Secretary of the Navy.

Miss Helen McKimley, sister of the President-elect, fell from a step and walk this evening and broke her arm. GAGE UNDECEASED. CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Lyman J. Gage, President of the National Bank, to-day spoke in a different strain regarding Major McKinley's consideration of him as Secretary of the Treasury. He said: "I have been called on by some one from President-elect McKinley, and the offer was made to me informally. In no sense can the offer be regarded as formal. When I was visited it was to find out how I would consider the offer should there be one, and the inference was given to me that Mr. McKinley wished to know what my position would be. I am now debating in my mind the question should I accept the portfolio if it is formally tendered. Have I a public duty to consider, and are my personal obligations of greater importance than public duty? I have been in the banking business for thirty years, and have become rooted to it. When the question of separation presents itself to me it is much like a child parting from its mother."

Disastrous Fire. WHEELING, Jan. 22.—Shortly after midnight a fire started in Mingo Junction, O., twenty miles north of Wheeling, which wiped out nearly the entire business portion of the town. An overturned lamp at a card table is said to be the cause. At 2 o'clock this morning nine houses had been destroyed and the property loss is estimated at about $50,000.

COAST AND HARBOR DEFENSE. Proceedings of the Convention Held at Tampa, Florida.

TAMPA (Fla.), Jan. 22.—In the Coast and Harbor Defense and Improvement Convention to-day the Committee on Resolutions submitted its report, which was adopted without debate. The resolutions provide that the convention shall not submit any suggestions to the United States looking towards the appropriation of any specific sum of money for the nation's defense, leaving the matter entirely to the recommendation of the proper authority. The army re-organization or Lamont bill is formally indorsed, and early consideration of the same bill by Congress is urged as its passage recommended. An increase in the annual appropriation for the State militia of the United States and the distribution of Springfield rifles turned over by the United States army among the militia or National Guard of the various States is recommended. Congress is urged to enact such legislation as will give proper attention to the naval reserves of our country. The yearly addition of fighting ships and torpedo boats to the strength of the navy is recommended. The attention of Congress is called to the necessity of immediate protection to the seaboard of the country.

The convention closed its session to-day. The Committee on Resolutions further recommended the organization of a national defense organization, and that the following gentlemen constitute the officers of the permanent association for the first year: President, General Horace Porter of New York; Secretary, Colonel J. Frye of Massachusetts; First Vice-President, General J. B. Gordon of Georgia; Second Vice-President, General Lew Wallace of Indiana; Third Vice-President, Hon. A. K. McClure of Pennsylvania; Fourth Vice-President, General A. A. Miles of Michigan; Fifth Vice-President, M. H. De Young of California; Sixth Vice-President, General William Miller of Florida; Seventh Vice-President, John C. Shope of Massachusetts.

A national commission was suggested. It was also decided that the next convention be held at Washington, D. C.

SHERMAN'S SUCCESSOR. Stated on Good Authority That It Will Not be Mark Hanna.

COLUMBUS (O.), Jan. 22.—The interest in the selection of a successor to Senator Sherman brought nearly the whole membership of the Seventy-second General Assembly to the reunion to-day and banquet to-night, where Governor Bushnell presided and Chairman M. A. Hanna, among others, responded to a toast.

"I have merely come down for an outing," said Chairman Hanna this afternoon. "I have not been in the best of health for some time, and took advantage of the kind invitation to join in the reunion of members of the General Assembly with nearly all of whom I am personally acquainted. There is nothing political in my visit."

Governor Bushnell called upon Chairman Hanna at his quarters in the Chittenden this evening, and the two chatted for a short time. The report comes directly from State Chairman Kurtz, who is very close to Governor Bushnell and Senator Foraker, that Governor Bushnell will not appoint Mr. Hanna to the Senate. From this source also comes the statement that the Governor will not call a special session of the Legislature. From other sources it is reported that Bushnell will propose to Hanna that inasmuch as the workmen were appealed to in the late campaign to support the Republican ticket, and responded nobly, and there are plenty of rich men in the Senate and no representative of the laboring classes, one of the latter should be appointed to the vacancy. To meet this the Hanna advocates are using the statement made by John McBride, ex-President of the United Mine Workers, to the effect that Hanna was the fairest man in his dealings with his employees that he ever knew.

Two New Bishops. BALTIMORE (Md.), Jan. 22.—A special cablegram from Rome states that the Pope has selected the Very Rev. Felix Himmeyer of the Benedictine order, Vicar General of North Carolina, to be Bishop of Wilmington, Del. It is also stated that the Very Rev. Edward P. Allen, D. D., President of the Mount St. Mary's Seminary at Emmitsburg, Md., has been selected Bishop of Mobile.

RIVAL FACTIONS IN THE OREGON LEGISLATURE.

Bourne and Mitchell Adherents in the House Each Hold a Session.

A Clash of the Two Divisions Likely to Occur at Any Moment.

The Deadlock in the Idaho and Utah Legislatures for United States Senator Continues, With Little Prospect of an Early Election.

SALEM (Or.), Jan. 22.—The rival factions in the Assembly each held a session to-day. Speaker Davis called the House to order at 10 o'clock this morning, immediately after which adjournment was taken until 2 p. m. tomorrow. Speaker Benson, representing the Mitchell supporters, rapped his House to order a few minutes after the Bourne adherents had left the building. A motion to adjourn was put and carried before anything was accepted. The Mitchell party propose to go ahead regardless of the Bourne men, and a clash may be expected at any moment.

IN IDAHO. BOISE (Idaho), Jan. 22.—The Populists in the Legislature to-day switched back to Claggett for United States Senator, the ballot resulting as follows: Claggett (Pop.), 27; Dubois (Silver), 26; Nelson (Pop.), 15; Lewis (Pop.), 1; Parkinson 1. No choice. Nelson received his votes from the Democrats. It is predicted that to-morrow's ballot will show a change in favor of Dubois, upon the belief that the Claggett men will not consent to the election of any other Populist, and on the announced determination of the Democrats not to join in the election of the Populist favorite. One of the Populist leaders says, however, that a deadlock is on, and no telling when it will be broken, as he did not believe either Claggett or Dubois could draw enough Democratic votes to elect. The Democrats are sullen and silent, and if they have agreed on any plan of action they are keeping it to themselves.

IN UTAH. SALT LAKE (Utah), Jan. 22.—The legislative vote for United States Senators to-day was as follows: Thatcher (D.), 24; Henderson (D.), 21; Rawlins (D.), 13; Congressman Allen (R.), 3; Lawrence (Pop.), 1, scattering 2. This shows a gain of three for Thatcher and one for Henderson over yesterday's vote. Three of the four Populists voted for Thatcher, and one of the Republicans voted for Henderson. Rawlins is considered practically out of the race, and his withdrawal would be no surprise. It will be a close race between Thatcher and Henderson, with the possibility of a deadlock and the prize going to a dark horse. McCune, Powers, Harris and Thurman are most prominently mentioned in this connection.

The Mormon Church authorities are making a bitter fight on Thatcher, and the interesting point is that most of his supporters in the Legislature are Mormons, who oppose church interference.

IN WASHINGTON. OLYMPIA (Wash.), Jan. 22.—No gains were made by any of the Senatorial candidates to-day. Two ballots were taken, with no change from yesterday's results. Judge Turner's friends are making slow progress in the effort to secure a caucus.

D. O. MILLS. Soon to Come to California to Spend a Month or Two.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—D. O. Mills is arranging to come West from New York for a stay of a month or more in California. On his way here he will stop in Arizona to visit his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley. Right now he is wintering there on account of Mr. Reid's health. Some of Mr. Mills' friends here have for a few days past been quietly talking of the likelihood of his purchasing an interest in the Corral Hollow coal mines and the railroad leading to them from Stockton. They say it is their understanding that on the report of an engineer he sent here from the East several months ago to examine the mines he has made an offer to the owners of the property to take a controlling interest. President Henry Williams of the company which owns the mines denied to-day that there were any truth in the report that Mr. Mills had made an offer to buy an interest in the mines. He wanted it understood that the owners of the mines were not seeking to sell them.

WHERE IS FISHER? A San Francisco Real Estate Agent Leaves Many Creditors Behind.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Will E. Fisher, the well-known real estate agent, has been missing since Monday. His absence is supposed to be due to pecuniary difficulties. His wife was the widow of James Jennings, a wealthy merchant, and when she married Fisher, who was her junior, Mrs. Jennings had $500,000. After she had paid $400,000 to Fisher to help him out of various financial scrapes, she refused to advance him more money and Fisher fled. He owes about $30,000 in pressing debts, besides other liabilities of a general character. His fall is ascribed to the neglect of business, extravagance and dissipation.

POWDER AS A DISINFECTANT. A Butte County Rancher Who Will Probably Cease Experimenting.

BIGGS, Jan. 22.—Yesterday at Pleasant Jones Ranch, J. A. Lovellett attempted to use gunpowder for a disinfectant, by putting it on live coals in a stove from a can held in his hand. The powder exploded, driving the can through the roof and tearing the stove to pieces. Lovellett is badly burned and bruised. Miss Hattie Jones is also severely burned. They will both recover, but Lovellett will lose one eye.

EVENTS ON THE TURF. Four Out of Six Favorites Reach the Wire First at Oakland.

OAKLAND, Jan. 22.—The weather was fine and the track fast to-day.

PETALUMA CREEK. Captain Gillette Holds That It Is Not Worthy of Improvement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The report of Captain Cassius E. Gillette of the corps of engineers of the preliminary survey of Petaluma Creek, California, was transmitted to Congress to-day by Secretary Lamont. Captain Gillette holds that the creek is not worthy of improvement by the Government, and his opinion is concurred in by Colonel Suter and General Craighill.

Arrested on a Charge of Fraud. BUTTE (Mont.), Jan. 22.—S. M. Walker, who claims to be the owner of 1,000 acres of land in Solano County, Cal., was arrested here to-night on a charge of defrauding O. W. Welser and others by selling them land which they say does not belong to him. He has been selling his alleged California property in ten acre tracts at $100 each. Walker is also known as M. De Castro, and claims to be an officer in the employ of the Spanish Government.

Epidemic of Measles. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—The epidemic of measles in San Francisco is increasing at an alarming rate. Yesterday ten cases were reported to the Board of Health and this morning twenty-one more cases were reported. This makes eighty-three cases for the month, and two deaths have resulted. Five children in Norton family at 1139 1/2 Harrison street are down with the disorder.

Hatch's Assets and Liabilities. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—A. T. Hatch has filed a schedule of his liabilities and assets. Total liabilities is placed at $895,000 and the assets, consisting of real estate, are valued at $974,000. The real estate is said to be badly incumbered, but Hatch states that the valuation of the property is taken from figures paid by him for it.

Want Jesse Grant for Mayor. SAN DIEGO, Jan. 22.—Grand Army men are circulating a petition asking Jesse R. Grant of this city, a son of the late General Grant, to become a candidate for Mayor. Grant created a sensation last fall by leaving the Republican party and joining the Populists. The present movement is non-partisan.

A Murderer's Sentence Commuted. SALT LAKE (Utah), Jan. 22.—The execution of Harry Hayes for murdering his stepson did not take place to-day for the reason that the State Board of Pardons commuted his sentence to life imprisonment, on the ground that the evidence on which he was convicted was not entirely conclusive of his guilt.

Suicide at Portland. PORTLAND (Or.), Jan. 22.—At noon to-day A. T. Smith, a well-known young married man of this city, fired a shot through his head with suicidal intent. Deceased was the son of Captain Smith, the coast pilot. The latter ascribes the cause of the suicide to excessive cigarette smoking.

CAPTAIN-GENERAL WEYLER. Came Near Being Captured by a Band of Insurgents. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A dispatch to the "Herald" from Havana, via Key West, says: General Weyler has received his baptism of fire in the field. He may be as difficult for the greater part of the round, but just before the bell rang Billy landed a couple of scorching rights on the wind. Dixon kept up rushing in the sixth, and landed both hands on the neck and body, Murphy countering with the right on the body. The George came with a feint left hook that landed in the pit of Murphy's stomach. The Australian dropped on his hands and knees and writhed with pain. The referee counted the seconds, but Murphy was unable to rise, and was counted out. Murphy had to be helped to his corner, but revived quickly.

TWO LITTLE PARENTS HAPPY. WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.), Jan. 22.—Admiral Dot is a happy man. His wife gave birth yesterday to a son. The baby weighs seven pounds. This is the second child. The other, a girl, is 3 years old. Both parents are midwinters. Admiral Dot, whose real name is Leopold Kahn, is 48 1/2 inches in height. Mrs. Kahn was Lottie Swartwood, she being 49 inches in height. The couple were married in Victoria Hall in Lexington avenue, New York, in 1892. The Admiral was born in San Francisco in 1848. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kahn traveled for many years with circuses.

Gopaste was reached after nightfall, and a corps of guides was sent forward to reconnoiter. General Weyler, with the main Spanish column under Colonel Call, followed some distance outside the village. The insurgents, at the orders of their leaders, Aranguez and Arango, had concealed themselves in the houses in the town. Their plans were evidently well laid, and it is quite probable that they might have succeeded in capturing the desired prisoner, the Spanish commander himself. Unfortunately for the fulfillment of the design of the insurgent leaders, while the Spanish scouts were engaged in reconnaissance the guns of some of the concealed rebels were accidentally discharged, giving the alarm to the royal troops. Before the Spanish advance guard recovered from its surprise the rebels, seeing that their plan had partially failed, rushed from their places of concealment and attacked the enemy with great fury, inflicting severe loss in their resistless onslaught. Alfred Rodriguez Garcia and two other prisoners were shot; this morning at Santa Clara on the crime of rebellion. The Mayor of Havana has resigned. The "Diario de la Marina" suggests the appointment of a military officer to fill the vacancy. MADRID, Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Havana states that Captain-General Weyler has ordered the destruction within three days of all the plantations and buildings in the province of Havana that would be likely to prove useful to the rebels.

DIXON-MURPHY FIGHT. The Australian Knocked Out in the Sixth Round.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—George Dixon knocked out "Australian" Billy Murphy to-night in the sixth round of their twenty-round battle at the Broadway Athletic Club. The deciding blow was a left hook which landed full on the pit of the stomach with terrific force. Dixon showed an immense improvement over his recent form as shown against White. His attack was strong, and he rushed like the Dixon of old. He had all the best of the bout up to the knock-out, and did nearly all the fighting. Murphy countered well with his right hand, but was very often wild, and his blows lacked strength. The time of the round was two minutes and forty-three seconds. The opening bout was a ten-round affair between Frank O'Neil, the colored Chicago boxer, and Paddy Fenton of Boston. They weighed in at 138 pounds. Fenton knocked out his man with a left-hand uppercut on the jaw in the seventh round. Time—One minute and fifty seconds. There was very little delay in starting the star bout. Dixon, as usual, was the first to appear. The plucky champion looked in splendid condition. He was seconded by Tom O'Rourke, Joe Elms, Jimmy Barry and Jim De Forest. Murphy was looked after by Dan Cross, Mike Conroy and Ben Murphy. The betting was $100 to $50 on Dixon. Murphy had three inches advantage in height and a slightly longer reach than Dixon, and appeared to be well trained. Both weighed in at 129 pounds at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The shock hands at 9:30 o'clock. After a little sparring, Dixon opened with a right hand on the body. They exchanged lefts, and George put a good right on the body. As George rushed Murphy put a hard left on the wind. Dixon opened the second with two rights on the body and on the neck. Just as the bell rang Dixon rushed in with a light one on the jaw. Murphy came in with both hands on the body. A hot rally followed, both being in turn forced to the ropes, where Murphy swung right and left in succession hard on the jaw, but George only smiled.

Dixon showed some of his old-time attack in the fourth, and with a couple of left upper-cuts forced the Australian to the ropes. George started a series of hurricane rushes in the fifth, and Murphy was in difficulty for the greater part of the round, but just before the bell rang Billy landed a couple of scorching rights on the wind. Dixon kept up rushing in the sixth, and landed both hands on the neck and body, Murphy countering with the right on the body. The George came with a feint left hook that landed in the pit of Murphy's stomach. The Australian dropped on his hands and knees and writhed with pain. The referee counted the seconds, but Murphy was unable to rise, and was counted out. Murphy had to be helped to his corner, but revived quickly.

THE MINISTER IS ACCREDITED TO THE UNITED STATES. "In one sense, yes," said Morgan. "He has been presented at the door of the Government, has been bowed in and permitted to take a seat among the diplomats, but we know nothing beyond newspaper reports of the existence of the Government he is said to represent."

As the discussion proceeded Morgan referred to the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and particularly called the attention of the Senator from Ohio (Sherman), soon to be Secretary of State, that a report drawn up by the former Senator from Vermont (Edmunds), and approved by the Senator from Ohio (Sherman) had declared that this treaty was in no way obligatory upon the United States. Sherman interposed to remark that he hesitated to answer the remarks of his honorable friend because they seemed based upon matters which would be discussed in active session. Hoar (Rep.) of Massachusetts also expressed his opinion that the discussion was entrenching upon legislative business, to which Morgan replied that it was so he was not to be reproached for his recollection was that the seal of secrecy had been removed and everything relating to this Clayton-Bulwer report had been printed for the information of the Senate and the House.

Hale (Rep.) of Maine explained that until this afternoon neither he nor any of his associates had known anything about this complaint of the Government of Nicaragua. "Neither did I," said Morgan, with marked emphasis. He repeated his assertion that if this bill were recommended and the arbitration treaty were shut out, and he intimated that the delay asked by this Rodriguez protest was instigated by Great Britain, a country which never failed to push its way, but had one glorious characteristic in that it never failed to protect its subjects, whereas graves of Cuba were filled with those who had died simply because they were Americans, and the Government failed to protect them. Morgan concluded by saying that he wanted to hear the Senator who would move to recommit this bill.

Replying by indirection to this challenge, Hale (Rep. of Maine) suggested that the Senate should adjourn until Monday, so as to give an opportunity for obtaining further information before the motion to recommit was made. Morgan retorted that he hoped in such case the Senator from Maine (Hale) would make the application to Secretary Olney, for he (Morgan) had found by experience that he could get nothing from the State Department.

Vilas (Dem.) of Wisconsin briefly addressed the Senate against the Nicaraguan bill, speaking of it as being in articulo mortis, and of the company as a worthless and bankrupt corporation. The Senate at 4:45 p. m. adjourned until to-morrow, with the understanding that it would take up unopposed bills, and perhaps go through the formal motion of reading the bankruptcy bill, which Hale said would occupy an hour and a half at least.

Joke on Senator Hoar. Senator Hoar tells this story: He was riding in a train down on Cape Cod this summer, when he felt a tap on his shoulder, and, glancing back, he saw a benevolent old lady studying his face. "Excuse me," she said, "but aren't you Mr. Jefferson?"

The Senator thought at first he had been taken for Thomas Jefferson, and he was inclined to be piqued. Then it occurred to him that Joe Jefferson, the actor, inhabits that part of the country, so he replied benignly. "No, I am not Mr. Jefferson. Will you be kind enough to tell me which of his characters I reminded you of?" "Was it Bob Acres or Rip Van Winkle?" "A little of both," was the reply.—Washington Post.
