

TO SELL CALIFORNIA FRUITS.

Efforts Being Made by the State Board of Trade.

Sacramento to Help in Making a Dried Fruit Exhibit at Hamburg.

Hon. J. A. Fletcher, Manager of the State Board of Trade, appeared before the Supervisors yesterday and asked that the county give $250 toward the expense of an exhibit of California products that the State Board of Trade desired to make at the Hamburg Exposition in May next.

Two years ago, said Mr. Fletcher, not over two carloads of our dried and candied fruits were sold in that market, but last year, by good and efficient work, 150 carloads were disposed of. There is, he said, a population of sixty million people tributary to Hamburg, and if they knew how wholesome and cheap California dried fruits there would be a great market for them.

He said these sixty million people consumed but one pound each of our dried fruit, that alone would give a market for one-half of California's entire fruit production. The only way to get our fruit into their hands is to demonstrate to them that it can be had in abundance and at prices which they can afford to pay.

The State Board of Trade would need, said Mr. Fletcher, at least $5,000, and it was a business proposition that fruit-producing counties should agree to without hesitation.

Chairman Jenks informed Mr. Fletcher that he was satisfied the members of the board believed in using such means to open up markets for the farmers and orchardists, but he did not know of any fund from which the sum asked could be legally appropriated.

For one, he said, willing to finance his own district for private subscriptions for the object aimed at. He believed he could raise one-fifth of the sum asked, and thought his colleagues could do as well among their respective constituents.

Supervisor Morrison said the board would of course have to be governed by the advice of the District Attorney, so far as the use of public money was concerned, for however meritorious the proposition might be the members of the board did not relish the idea of having to employ lawyers to defend them against the unjust accusations of Grand Jurors.

"What you want to know, Mr. Fletcher," added Mr. Morrison, "is whether or not the State Board of Trade can get $250 from Sacramento to aid in making a proper exhibit at the Hamburg Exposition. Is that it?"

"That's the idea," responded Mr. Fletcher. "Well," said the Supervisor, "I think you may rely on the money. If we should find that we cannot appropriate it from any particular fund we will go out, as we have done in other cases, and collect it."

Mr. Fletcher thanked the members of the board for their expressed desire to help the work along and retired.

"A TRAITOR IN CAMP." A Large Audience to Hear Evangelist Dick Last Night.

Rev. J. M. Dick spoke last night to a large audience of men in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and as on the first night he held his hearers in rapt attention until he had concluded his discourse. Mr. Dick's methods are not those of the ordinary revivalist. He deals with the subjects on which he speaks more from the heroic standpoint, and his reasoning is intensely convincing.

Miss Pearl Noble sang and played several selections with unusually good effect. Already there is talk of the necessity of getting into a larger place for the meetings.

A very much larger number than the day before attended the special meeting for boys yesterday afternoon to hear Mr. Dick give his "Bicycle" talk. Mr. Dick is splendid among men, but is a master worker among boys.

This afternoon Mr. Dick will give his "Illustrated Watch Talk" to boys, and in the evening he will speak to men, drawing his lessons from "The Bicycle." Lovers of the wheel will enjoy this talk, especially as Mr. Dick is a wheelman.

The Y. M. C. A. quartet will sing again to-night.

BOARD OF HEALTH. A Meeting Last Night, With Only Routine Business.

All the members of the Board of Health were present last night when President Huntington called them to order, except Dr. Ross, who was out of town.

Dr. Nichols, Secretary of the board, reported that during the month of January there were 48 deaths as against 51 in December and 46 in the month of January, 1896.

The causes of death were in no case contagious diseases, and the largest death rate was due to pneumonia. Measles had been epidemic, but were now subsiding.

The death rate per 1,000, on a yearly basis, was 19.20, and the deaths were largely of children.

The births were 37, of whom 23 were native sons and 14 native daughters. The report of the Assistant City Physician showed that a total of 287 patients had been treated during the month, and 7 burial permits had been issued.

A communication from the Blue Canyon Water Company was received, requesting the board to pass on the quality of that water for drinking purposes. It was decided that the notices to be placed on buildings where there are infectious diseases should hereafter bear the date at which the placard could be taken down, and Dr. Parkinson was appointed a committee of one to prepare and present the necessary ordinance.

AMUSEMENTS.

There was a good house at the vaudeville company entertainment at the Clunio Opera-house last evening. The fine balancing ladder act of Payne, the ring performance of the female Sandow, Mlle. Charmion, the clay modeling by Professor Galindo and the globe walking by Kotto, especially pleased the audience. In the exhibition by Beach, the man fish, a profound interest was taken, out of pure curiosity, Beach last evening in the steep act remained under the water ninety seconds by some watches, eighty-nine by others. One scored him ninety-one seconds and one eighty-eight, but ninety was probably the correct time. The same bill to-night, with Miss Sternheim, the soprano with the trumpet-like voice, singing by Misses Marion and Wainwright, humorous musical olio by Fletcher, the knockabout act by Richards and Rand, and the gaudy dances by Healey and Stevens.

On the 5th instant Manager Todd will present at the Metropolitan Theater the spectacular extravaganza "Forever Devil's Auction." It is announced as a spectacle of many attractions, strange mechanical effects, new dancing scenes and a host of demons, fairies and sprites.

On the 27th instant Louis James, the tragedian, will appear at the Metropolitan. On the 12th instant "The Prodigious Father" company, now playing in San Francisco, will appear.

Tickets for Miss Carmichael's benefit Friday night, this week, at Turner Hall, are selling rapidly and a good audience is assured.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

It has been arranged that the wives of the members of the Sutter Club, assisted by the Saturday and Kingsley Clubs, will give a reception to visiting ladies at the Sutter Club rooms on the afternoon of Wednesday, the 11th inst. The wives of the Sutter Club directors and the officers of the Saturday and Kingsley Clubs will meet at the Sutter Club on Friday afternoon next, at 3 p. m., to perfect the arrangements.

The Sutter Club will give a "smoker" on Thursday evening, the 11th, to members of the Legislature.

The Native Daughters of California Parol gave last night one of those social evenings in the recollection of the Native Daughters and Native Sons for many years.

Turner Hall was decorated in a magnificent manner with flags and evergreens, and all the Native Sons had to show the stars and stripes in their button-holes before they were allowed to cross the threshold.

All acts played by the orchestra were National, and the daughters waltzed the sons around to the strains of "Marching Through Georgia," the "Star-Spangled Banner," "The Red, White and Blue," and old "Yankee Doodle," and they had not wearied at midnight.

Mr. Fletcher thanked the members of the board for their expressed desire to help the work along and retired.

While walking on one of these planks it turned and gave her a severe fall, by which one of her ankles was either sprained or broken. She was taken to her home in the city ambulance and a surgeon called in.

Passed Away.

The many friends of Hanorah O'Donnell, better known as "Narah," the old-time domestic in the service of the Sisters of Mercy here, died yesterday. The committee will deal with this bill and its provisions, and will incorporate into its proceedings the considerations of the measure. The fullest publicity is to be given to the investigation, and an open meeting has been arranged for Thursday afternoon. The City Engineer and other officials are to be invited to give information regarding the sewage. The Secretary of State and the Senate will be among those invited.
