

'EXAMINER' CONTEMPT CASE

The Habeas Corpus Matter Will Be Heard To-day.

A Strong Effort Will be Made by the Defendants to Keep Out of Jail.

At half-past 1 o'clock this afternoon the habeas corpus cases of Andy Lawrence and L. L. Levings, the 'Examiner' men who were committed to the County Jail by the Senate for contempt, will come up for hearing before Superior Judge Hughes.

There seems to be a wide difference of opinion among lawyers as to the power of a Superior Judge to admit to bail persons committed by the Legislature for contempt in refusing to answer questions during an investigation. Several members of the Senate expressed surprise at Judge Hughes' action, and a prominent criminal lawyer of this city said yesterday he knew of no law under which the prisoners were entitled to bail pending hearing on habeas corpus.

On the other hand, Judge Hughes maintained that he knows of no law that would warrant him in refusing a hearing on habeas corpus to any person, on the proper showing, or to his release on bail in the meantime. The 'Examiner' men don't want to go to jail and they have determined on making a hard fight to keep out of it. Just what course they will pursue, should they be remanded to the custody of the Sheriff, is known only to themselves and their attorneys, but the statement has been published that they will appeal to the Supreme Court.

In such cases they will doubtless ask again to be released on bail. If the application be granted, the Legislature may adjourn before the point could be determined, and if they should be finally remanded to jail 'until they consent to answer the questions propounded then, they will be secured in the fix of a person who had been placed in a hypnotic state and left in that condition by the sudden departure or death of the hypnotist.

However, as the Senate is a continuous body, a committee could be appointed with power to deal with the prisoners during the two years' recess of that body. While this could be done, it is not obligatory on the Senate to take that course, and it might simply adjourn and leave the men in jail. It is said that in early days, when there were annual sessions of the Legislature, a recalcitrant and defiant witness was actually left in jail a whole year.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Clunie Opera-house this evening the Children's Troupe will present a very attractive and interesting play, 'The Fairy of the Forest.' It is very interesting to see these little ones in this wearing, enduring, sweet old tale of fairy land. The scenery is very fine, the costumes handsome, and the children very earnest and engaging in their work. It is quite a treat to hear the smallest of the lot, a mere four-year-old, sing a duet with the rest of the troupe.

Friday night and Saturday night we are to have at the Metropolitan Theater sparkling Fanny Rice and her troupe of fun and music-makers.

had been done. The simple fact is that in the work of Fanny Rice is one of a very few leaders. Only few inspire a play with their personality as does this handsome and merry little lady, who occupies for her sex just the same position in comedy that Nat Goodwin does for the male sex.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.

Under this heading the 'Record-Union' will publish short letters from correspondents on topics of interest to the general public. The matter in these communications will be understood to represent only the views of the writers. All communications must be accompanied by the name of the writer, and for publication unless so directed, but as a guarantee of good faith.—Eds.

The Franklin Cemetery.

Eds., 'Record-Union': We, the undersigned, notice in your issue of March 6, 1897, a statement made by Henry Ehrhardt before the Board of Supervisors of Sacramento County in the matter of the Franklin Cemetery. In reply we would say that such statements are false and unjust. The fact is that no spewwork was ever thought of either by the undersigned, and as far as the petition being kept secret, it is untrue.

The said petition was circulated for several weeks in an open manner. That it was not seen by Mr. Ehrhardt does not in the least signify that it was kept secret. He also states that he and several other parties erected a fence, etc., and kept the cemetery in order, and that the undersigned had not contributed or done anything toward keeping it in order.

Now, to the best of our knowledge, a petition was circulated and money subscribed for the purpose of erecting the said fence, etc., and converting the old schoolhouse into a church. Also, money has been derived from the sale of lots to numerous persons which should have been sufficient to keep the cemetery in good order.

Consequently, Messrs. Ehrhardt, Stephenson and Beckley were not the only ones who contributed or helped to put the cemetery in good order. To conclude, we refute and deny all of Mr. Ehrhardt's statements. R. A. BILBY, CHAS. T. FRYE, Franklin, March 9th.

A FATAL SHOCK.

Harry McCreary's untimely death in South Africa. The sad news was received yesterday by Robert C. McCreary of the accidental death of his brother Harry, in Johannesburg, South Africa, the result of coming in contact with an electric wire carrying a heavy voltage.

The accident occurred on the 24th of January last, but nobody had thought to telegraph the fact to his mother and brother. About two years ago Harry McCreary left this city for Johannesburg. He had taken a thorough course of study in electricity and was acknowledged to be an expert electrician.

He therefore had no difficulty in securing a position in South Africa as Superintendent of the electrical department of one of the large mines there at a good salary. The particulars of the accident have not yet been received.

Mr. McCreary was the younger son of the late Harry McCreary. He was a native of Sacramento and twenty years of age. He was a very bright and companionable young man, and very popular in this city and among his fellow students in the East.

Mrs. McCreary is at present sojourning in San Diego, and Mrs. R. C. McCreary for that place yesterday for the purpose of breaking to her the sad news.

A True Family Journal.

The Sacramento 'Record-Union' entered upon its ninety-third volume on Monday morning and its forty-seventh year. During all those years there has been no better paper published on the Pacific Slope, and it has at all times had the respect and esteem of the people. May it continue to maintain that purity that goes to make a true family journal.

THE BOODLE CHARGES.

An Inquiry by the Grand Jury is Now in Progress. The Grand Jury had a busy day yesterday inquiring into the matter of the alleged City Trustees boodle conspiracy.

All the members of the Trustees and many outsiders, including John A. Sheehan, George McMillan, members of the 'Boo' staff and a small army of sporting men were about the halls of the courthouse while waiting to be called before the jury.

FREE TO ALL.

Entertainment To-morrow by the Junior Epworth League.

In the Sixth street Methodist Church on Friday evening, the Junior Epworth League will give an entertainment to consist of the following exercises: Organ voluntary, Mrs. Frances Moeller; prayer by the pastor; song by the League; Scripture reading; recitation, 'Encourage the Children,' Lottie Grunwald; song by the League; recitation, 'My Mother's Face,' Laura Bruce; Catechism recitation; vocal solo, Miss Evelyn Reeves; song, 'Beautiful Little Hands,' the Apostles' Creed; song by the League; recitation, 'Retiring For the Night,' Annie Martin; vocal solo, Miss Emma Felter; declamation, 'The Battle of Life,' Grant Covell; drill in League colors; vocal solo, Mrs. Bessie Elliott; remarks by ex-President Roger Scott; song by the League; vocal solo, G. G. Hunt; Secretary's report, R. G. Elliott; song by the League; benediction.

The orchestra will be composed of pipe organ, cabinet organ, piano, flute, cornet and violin. The admission will be free, but a collection will be taken for benevolent purposes. Everybody is invited. Children are especially urged to attend.

TO-NIGHT'S MASQUERADE.

How the Turners Will Entertain Their Friends.

At Turner Hall to-night the Turnverein will give a masquerade social that promises to be one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind participated in in this section.

Those who have not yet procured their tickets may do so by applying at Sturmer's jewelry store, 504 K street; J. Lang's dyeing works, 909 K street, and Krebs & Co., 625 J street.

The committee having charge of the arrangements for the ball have adopted a rule that no person shall be admitted who had not applied in person for his or her ticket.

A San Francisco costumer will be found at the hall to-day with a full line of costumes.

DEFICIENCY ALLOWED.

The State Printing Office Will Get Thirty Thousand.

The State Board of Examiners held a meeting yesterday afternoon, all the members being present.

The bills for extra work in the Harbor Commissioners' jurisdiction were sent back.

The bill of the Alameda 'Daily Enquirer' for advertising constitutional amendments the last time was rejected. State Printer Johnston asked for the creation of a deficiency, there being $18,938 45 due on to-morrow night and probably the further expenses for legislative and other printing would make it all $30,000.

THEY LET HIM GO.

The Jury Acquitted George Jones of Assault on Hurdler.

George Jones was tried and acquitted in Judge Hart's court yesterday on a charge of assault on a woman. Jones is a colored youth who stabbed a man named Charles Thomas during the progress of the fire at Gait recently which consumed the Commercial Hotel. The parties were in a crowd of people looking at the fire when the altercation occurred. Jones was drunk at the time.

Assistant District Attorney Jones conducted the prosecution, and the prisoner's counsel were H. L. Buckley and B. Thomas.

TWO NEW DEPARTMENTS.

Crowds Visit the Shoe and Millinery Opening at the Nonpareil. All day yesterday and especially during the evening while the band played, were the aisles of the 'Nonpareil' thronged with visitors. Hundreds of ladies stopped at the handsome display windows to admire the tasteful exhibits of shoes at the right of the entrance and of millinery at the left.

Everything wore a holiday aspect. The fixtures of both the new departments are in exquisite taste and in harmony with the rest of the store. The work-room is of solid mahogany; the carpetings are of the highest grade and in the new shoe department comfortable leather upholstered opera chairs have been provided. Many were the expressions of delight and envy on the part of lady visitors at the dainty shapes and rich colorings in the millinery. The shoe department carries only footwear for ladies, but these are all of the very latest fashions that the Eastern market affords.
