SPRING DISEASES

One Remedy Cannot Correct All the Changes in the System.

SEPARATE SPECIFICS

Are Needed to Prevent the Development of Diseases at the End of Winter.

Breaks Up the Worst Form of a Cold at Once.

IMPOVERISHED BLOOD

And Deficient Circulation Call for Munyon's Blood Cure, the Best Blood Tonic on the Market—It Enriches and Purifies the Blood, Promotes Appetite and Gives Renewed Strength and Vitality.

Professor Munyon says: "The idea that one must take Spring Medicines is a great mistake. It is true that at this season of the year many changes take place in the human body that affect the blood, liver, kidneys and nerves, but in people these changes occur without the help of medicines. In fact, it is a natural process in the body to rid itself of the impurities which have accumulated into the body since the last winter. The so-called Spring Medicines for the blood also had because they pretend to cure all diseases with one combination of medicines.
If your stomach is out of order it is absurd to take rheumatism medicine; if you have a cold, a kidney remedy not only does you no good, but may do harm; if your liver is sluggish a nerve cure is useless. In fact, there is only one way to cure promptly and permanently, that is, by treating each phase of disease with the appropriate remedy. A separate cure for each disease is the grand and true principle on which the Munyon system of treatment has gained its marvelous success.

"If you have an April Cold, the first thing is to cure the cold, as this is the season when Grippe and Colds have a dangerous tendency to develop into lung diseases and catarrhs. The most effective colds yield in a few hours to Munyon's Cold Cure. Pneumonia, catarrhs of the throat and troubles are always prevented by this remedy. Where Colds are complicated by a Cough, the Cold Cure should be alternated with Munyon's Cough Cure.

"The debilitated condition which affects many people in the Spring season is Nature's warning that some organ is weak and in need of remedial attention. The most common condition which requires investigation, and which calls for treatment, not only with Spring Medicines, but with a remedy that will remove the cause. If the stomach is disordered, Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure will act promptly on the stomach and bowel regulator, assisting digestion, and curing such symptoms as pain or soreness in the stomach, indigestion or distress after eating, fullness in the stomach, shortness of breath, a coated tongue, or bitter raising from the stomach, heartburn, wind on the stomach, constipation, dizziness, faintness and lost energy.

"If the kidneys are affected, the languid, dragged-out feeling, accompanied by pain in the back, dark circles around the eyes, headache and dizziness, or trouble in the urine. Munyon's Kidney Cure is guaranteed to cure 95 per cent. of all cases of kidney disease.

"When the liver is disordered, the whole system feels the presence in the blood of the poisonous substances which are the defective action of this organ. In fact, the condition is one of general debility. There is depression of the spirits, tired, worn-out feeling all the time, bad taste in the mouth, aching in the joints, the right side, backache and aches and pains all over. Munyon's Liver Cure stimulates the liver to healthy action, makes a perfect cure by removing the cause.

"Impoverished, thin and impure blood is the foundation from which many diseases arise in the Spring months. The poor quality of the blood results in a general state of health, loss of energy and vitality.
The patient takes cold easily, and the colds are obstinate, leading to rheumatism and neuralgia. Munyon's Blood Cure not only purifies the blood, but makes new blood, rich in nourishment, which invigorates the whole system. It aids the beneficial action of all the organs, revitalizes all the tissues, promotes healthy color to the cheeks, clears the complexion and tones up the nerves, dispelling completely the dragged-out, tired feeling.

"No matter what the disease, there is a Munyon specific which you can depend on and cure yourself. Munyon's Remedies are sold by all druggists, and cost only a few cents a bottle. There is no guesswork, each remedy is plainly labeled with directions for home treatment, and the cure is absolutely certain. If you are in doubt as to the nature of your disease, a personal letter to Professor Munyon, 505 Arch Street, Philadelphia, will be answered with free medical advice.

SAYS HE NEVER GOT A CENT.

John Dierssen Relates His Tale of Woe.

His Version of a Recent Incident at Charles Quiggle's House in Galt.

The Stockton "Mail" a few days ago published the following statement:
"The examination of Charles Quiggle of Elliott, and formerly of Galt, on a charge of assaulting John Dierssen with a deadly weapon, was to take place at that town to-day, but it is thought that the complaint will be dismissed.

"The information furnished the District Attorney's office is that Dierssen and Quiggle had a dispute over some property, and that Dierssen went to the other's house and demanded a deed to the property, at the same time threatening to kill Quiggle if he did not comply with the demand. Mr. Quiggle refused to do so, and thereupon Dierssen reached for his hip pocket, as if to draw a pistol, Quiggle was too quick for him, and whipping out a revolver, thrust it in Dierssen's face. The latter was frightened out of his wits, and seizing Mrs. Quiggle, and holding her between himself and her husband, begged for mercy. Quiggle told Dierssen that he did not intend to harm him, but that he would not be run over.
Dierssen was allowed to leave, and he swore out a warrant for Quiggle's arrest.

"The accused, according to the information at the District Attorney's office, says that his pistol was not loaded at the time he drew it."
"Mr. Dierssen called at the "Record-Union" office yesterday to deny some statements of the above and explained the nature of his trouble with Charles Quiggle.

He said that in 1894 Quiggle purchased his grocery business at Twelfth and E streets for $4,846 47. His reason for selling was that Mrs. Dierssen desired to remove to San Francisco.
Quiggle was a large owner of land, and Quiggle's note for the amount, secured by mortgages on a ranch at Carbondale and residence property in Lodi.
Dierssen says he did not go out to see the Carbondale property, as he had been informed and led to believe that
and a man of considerable wealth and perfectly reliable. He says he was told by Quiggle that the Carbondale property was worth $5,000 and rented for $375 per year. He did, however, ride out to Lodi to see the property there, and he declares that Quiggle showed him the residence occupied by a lawyer named Green, and which is worth probably $2,500. But he since discovered that the house and grounds did not belong to Quiggle.
The mortgage, he says, covers a bit of property adjoining the Green residence, which shows on the map, which consist chiefly of a slough.

As time rolled by, said Dierssen, and the first interest money fell due and was not paid, he began to investigate the situation. He found that the store he had sold to Quiggle had been by the latter sold to his uncle, that the Carbondale property was tenantless, and that it was almost worthless, and that his mortgage did not cover the property pointed out to him in Lodi.

Failing to get any satisfaction, he says, and his wife went out to Galt recently at Quiggle's invitation to see the property there, and he was then the incident occurred. The most of Stockton paper referred. Dierssen says that after they had discussed the matter for some time he arose and un-braided Quiggle for having swindled him, as he alleged had been done, and that the latter did something for him. He (Dierssen) threw up his hands, and he did so on that occasion. He had no weapon, and never carries one.

All at once, he says, Quiggle leaped at his feet, jerked out a pistol and covered him with it, being but a few feet apart. He (Dierssen) threw up his hands and begged Quiggle not to kill him, and Mrs. Dierssen screamed and cried from fear that her husband would be shot. Quiggle then desisted, he says, and put away his pistol, and his wife quickly left the house.
He subsequently had Quiggle arrested.

TRANSCRIPT ON APPEAL

An Intervenor Raises an Interesting Point.

J. Hymah, Jr., has filed his transcript of appeal in the Superior Court as intervenor in the case of P. S. Driver against the State Agricultural Society.
The case will be of some interest to attorneys in involuntary cases. Mrs.
H. A. Hill exhibited dried, preserved and canned fruits, etc., at the State Fair in 1896, and was awarded a premium amounting to $123. Before the premiums were paid she assigned her premiums to S. Driver, her attorney, in insolvency, who sued the society in Justice Henry's court and secured a judgment for the amount, which the society paid to him.

J. Hymah, Jr., the assignee in insolvency of Mrs. Hill, filed his complaint in the Superior Court, claiming that the assignment of Driver's premium to him was void, and that the action she made her application in insolvency, and that on October 16th he was appointed assignee, and that the money should have been paid to him by the society, and that she made the assignment to Driver with the intent to prevent her property from coming into the hands of the assignee and being ratably distributed among the creditors. He also claimed that $36 would have been enough compensation for Driver as attorney and for costs and advertising, as the entire estate of Mrs. Hill consisted of the $133 in controversy.

Driver, on the other hand, claims that the assignment of the property is legal, and that the basis of a fee is that of all the work and attorney may be called on to perform in the case.

CODE COMMISSION.

It is Now Organized and Ready to Begin Its Work.

The Code Commission recently appointed by Governor Budd and composed of A. Caminetti, T. W. H. Shanahan and R. N. Buller, met in the Supreme Court room in the State Capitol yesterday morning, and organized by electing Mr. Caminetti Chairman, and ex-Senator Bart Burke of Santa Cruz, Secretary.

As it will be at least a week before the necessary arrangements can be made for the regular work of the Commissioners they adjourned to the call of the chair.

Yesterday morning's meeting was executive, but after it was concluded Commissioner Caminetti said it was the intention in the future to make all sittings entirely of a public nature. The commission would not, he said, at present offer suggestions as to new laws, but would confine its operations to the codification of the existing codes and statutes. It was the intention to eliminate obsolete laws, harmonize conflicting sections, and arrange all the laws in their regular order. On this order of business the commissioners were all agreed, and the first meeting was held, harmonious and successful.

The first work of the commission will be on the Political Code. It will be divided into sections, or parts, and to each Commissioner will be entrusted a part to put in shape. Before the regular meeting of the board each member will furnish a report to his colleagues concerning the part entrusted him and by this means it is hoped business will be greatly facilitated. The codes will be taken up in the regular order, and if, when they shall have been re-codified and the report on each prepared, the commission has time to submit its proposals to prepare an independent report containing suggestions as to new laws.

Chairman Caminetti is sincere in his belief that the work of the commission will be of incalculable advantage to the State, and is well pleased at the unity and purpose shown by the board as a whole.
