

FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEE.

It Had a Wrangle Over a Sub-Committee's Work.

High School Pupil or Graduate to be Selected as the Reader.

The Fourth of July Executive Committee met last night, pursuant to adjournment. Mayor Hubbard presided, and before the meeting ended there was a pretty full attendance, though small in the beginning.

When Secretary Henley read in his minutes of the last meeting that the Literary Committee had made a report naming the orator and others to whom various parts had been assigned, the trouble began.

Committeemen Scott, Coleman and several others insisted that no such report was made by Chairman Beckwith of the Literary Committee at the last meeting, while C. E. Spencer asserted that he heard Mr. Beckwith make the announcement.

Secretary Henley said he did not hear the report read, but that Mr. Beckwith handed him a list of the names of the orator, Chaplain, Reader of the Declaration of Independence, etc.

Mr. Beckwith, being asked if he would say that he did make the report, replied that he thought he did.

Then the fun began. The trouble was all over the committee's selection of D. J. Simmons as Reader of the Declaration of Independence. The debate was long and spirited, and at times it became somewhat personal.

Members of the Literary Committee contended that to make a change at that time would be to insult the committee, as well as Mr. Simmons. He might not be, they said, a competent a reader as could have been selected, but as they had selected him their action should stand.

After a long and heated discussion a motion offered by J. O. Coleman, that the Literary Committee be requested to select a pupil or graduate of the High School as Reader, was carried by a vote of 9 to 5, some not voting.

During the debate Committeemen Harrison and Ficks warmed up the newspapers for attempting, as they put it, to dictate to the Executive Committee what it should or should not do.

George McMullin of the Finance Committee reported that there was nothing new to add to the report made at the last meeting. It was understood that the Supervisors would appropriate a fair sum at their next meeting toward the fund.

C. W. Ficks reported that the Music Committee had selected the Artillery and Foresters' Bands and Drum Corps for the parade; the Militant Band for the afternoon literary exercises, and for the evening a band composed of members of the Militant and Artillery Bands.

In case the posters should already be printed, the Printing Committee was authorized to have corrected ones printed.

W. H. Sherburn, from the Invitation Committee, reported that invitations had been generally sent out, but as yet only a few responses had been received. Most of these had accepted, including prominent firms, manufacturers and dealers.

Several of the organizations invited have not yet held meetings. The Grand Marshal is making provision for four divisions in the procession.

On motion of J. O. Coleman, the Invitation Committee was instructed to endeavor to procure the use of vehicles for the organs to participate in the parade.

Mr. Cronkite reported that at least one carriage had been engaged from each hack owner in the city. If more were required every owner would have an equal chance.

After attending to a few minor matters, the committee adjourned till next Monday evening.

A FROST FOR SIL. Ike Johnson's Assault Was Found Guilty as Charged.

A young negro tough, known as "Sil" (Sylvester) Frost, was convicted in Judge Hart's court yesterday on a charge of assaulting Ike Johnson with intent to inflict great bodily harm.

The fact is, Frost not only intended to do up his victim, but he carried out that intent by nearly kicking the life out of him after he had got him down. Johnson's face was battered and kicked into a jelly, both eyes being tightly closed.

He also received several kicks in the ribs, and was found insensible. The trouble occurred on the night of May 2d, in the alley between L. M. Second and Third streets. It seems that Johnson overheard Frost insult a woman, and he resented it, with the result that Frost knocked him down and then danced a jig on his face and ribs.

District Attorney Ryan prosecuted Frost, and the jury that found the latter guilty was composed of J. Popert, Ben Bailey, Steve Butler, Jr., F. A. Meiss, Abe Duncan, Herman C. Fisher, W. E. Glick, L. R. Jordan, H. W. Foster, P. M. Boylan, J. Studarus, Jr., and Charles Barnes.

Weather Report. The Weather Bureau reports show the highest and lowest temperatures yesterday to have been 77 and 59 degrees, with fresh northerly, southerly and westerly winds and partly cloudy weather prevailing.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 94 and 73 degrees, and one year ago to-day 94 and 72 degrees.

The average temperature was 64 and the normal 70 degrees, showing yesterday to have been six degrees cooler than usual for the 23d day of June.

EL DORADO REACHING OUT.

Proposed Excursion of Christian Endeavorers There.

Chorus Rehearsal in This City This Evening—Other Local Notes.

The regular Thursday evening rehearsal of the Christian Endeavor Chorus will be held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 8 o'clock.

The choir is making very satisfactory progress and will give its services to the union meeting of Young People's Societies to be held at the Congregational Church on the evening of July 4th, when the services will partake of the nature of a sacred concert.

The lecture of Dr. Welles, illustrated with stereopticon views, on the life-saving work of the Christian Endeavor will take up the hour for evening services at the Congregational Church that evening after the union meeting.

As Miss Clinch leaves for the Sacramento Chorus, it is to have charge of the music at the woman's meeting of the great convention, it will give Sacramento singers a fine opportunity, and it is hoped all who have been practicing will be able to remain throughout the convention.

There will be another meeting of the Reception Committee at the Westminster Presbyterian Church next Monday evening.

The Placerville Christian Endeavor Society will try to secure the co-operation of the Southern Pacific Company in an effort to take a trainload of delegates and visitors to that place. The itinerary will include a few hours' stop at Sacramento, and they ask the co-operation of this city in the effort.

It is believed that few visitors will want to leave the State without visiting the spot where gold was first discovered, now marked by a grand monument to the memory of Marshall. Not only this, but Placerville (then known as Hangtown) was the first mining town in the State, and is yet a thriving city, largely dependent on its rich gold mines. It is believed that these mines will be quite a drawing card. Then, there is the great "chute" on the American River, one of the most wonderful sights imaginable.

The young people of Placerville met on Tuesday night and appointed a committee consisting of Rev. W. H. P. McDonald, Alvin R. Hawkins and Miss Susie Stewart. Mr. Hawkins is at the Western Hotel, en route to San Francisco to lay the matter fully before the railroad officials. The company, however, has already been estimated at a low rate, which will soon be announced.

El Dorado is one of the historic counties of the State and has many attractions, so it is probable many Endeavorers will be only too glad to enjoy the hospitality of her people. Of course, Sacramentoans will gladly assist the enterprise.

A GRAND OPENING. Breuner Brothers Throw Open Their Doors to the Public.

The southwest corner of Sixth and K streets was a blaze of light last night and a steady stream of people poured into the store of Breuner Bros. until nearly 10 o'clock.

Another evidence of the progress and improvement going on steadily in our city was in evidence and the people were there to bottom with palms and potted plants and the Second Infantry Band, under the direction of C. A. Neale, discoursed the sweetest of music, the following being the program:

March, "Under the Double Eagle." F. Wagner Popular overture, "In Gay New York" Miller of Broadway. Beyer Waltz, "Thousand and One Nights" Strauss Serenade, "Schubert's" Selection, "A Musical Tour of Europe" Conrad Mexican Song, "Paloma" Yradier Potpourri, Current Popular Airs. Olsson Waltzes, "El Capitan" Sousa Sousa's greatest march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever" Galop, "Grand Finale" Walters

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID. Fred Van Buren Commits Suicide Through Despondency.

Fred Van Buren, who lived at 314 Fourteenth street, committed suicide last night about 8 o'clock by taking carbolic acid.

Van Buren formerly worked in the railroad shops, but has been for some months out of employment and it is supposed that despondency was the cause of his rash act. The fact that he had swallowed the poison was not known until he was past all aid. The Coroner was notified and took charge of the body.

The deceased leaves a wife and two children in very distressing circumstances.

SAD TIDINGS. Death of George S. Schneider in New York City.

The many friends of George S. Schneider have been pained to learn of his death, which occurred recently in New York. Mr. Schneider was betrothed to a young lady of this city, and they were soon to be married, which fact adds an additional sad feature to the unpleasant news.

Mr. Schneider's father died five years ago and last month his mother died in New York.

Merchants and Manufacturers. An executive meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, which was announced as of special interest to property owners, was held last night at Pythian Castle for the purpose of forwarding the objects of the association and the interests of its members.
