Extracts From Editorial Expression of Journals Of the State and the Coast on Subjects of Living and News Interest.

Pasadena News: The Populists of the different parts of the country are claiming that fusion and confusion are synonymous and declare they are going to keep in the middle of the road hereafter.

WHEAT. Redley Export: There are twenty-two combined harvesters at work in the wheat fields of this section. It is estimated the average yield will be five sacks per acre, or a grand total of 231,000 sacks, nearly all of which will be shipped from Redley.

DEBS' LATEST SCHEME. Los Angeles Times: The "co-operative commonwealth" colony scheme launched, or about to be launched, by E. V. Debs, of unfragrant memory, has not, thus far, excited any widespread enthusiasm among those who are expected to furnish the moral support and the sinews of war, both of which are necessary to its success.

THE HAWAIIAN CABLE. San Diego Union: While the Senate is not likely to take any action on the Hawaiian annexation treaty before next winter, there is one matter that closely affects the island situation, that should receive attention at the present season.

something else, chooses to ship cherries with but one decent layer in a box. How can B, who lives in California and is above fraud, prevent him from doing it? Clearly he cannot; he must suffer but he is helpless in the matter.

HAWAII. Modesto News: Certainly it would be a serious misfortune if anything should occur to disturb the friendly feeling that has always existed between this country and Japan, yet if the Japanese believe the United States will look with concern upon the mistreatment of their warships in the harbor at Honolulu they are much mistaken.

THE DEBS PARTY. San Jose Mercury: Mr. Debs, who a year ago was shouting for Bryan and free silver, disgusted with the outcome of the campaign, has organized a political party of his own. It consists at present of himself and four other politicians, who may be Caucasian, Mongolian Stockton Mail: An Eastern paper which comes to this office makes a true assertion. It declares that times were never so good as now. It says that workmen not many years ago ate coarse food, wore coarse clothing, worked longer hours and were happy to enjoy as occasional luxuries many things which are now things of the poorest workman's every-day life.

wealth his toil makes? We know that he has not. Capital has taken a very disproportionate share of the increased product. Hence we see fortunes so colossal as to stagger the power of computation, and hence we see three hundred thousand idle, hungry, tramping men in this fertile land, highly favored above all lands by the goodness of the Creator.

DEBISM. Tulare Register: Those prophets of old were true prophets who prophesied evil, and yet to prophecy evil of a movement professedly made to unselfishly benefit mankind is a most ungracious thing to do, and therefore the "Register" dislikes to prophesy evil, and only evil, of the movement of Eugene V. Debs to swarm fifty or one hundred thousand malcontents into the devoted State of Washington to "run things."

It is not that co-operative commonwealth that is necessary to be established. It may be that the commonwealths of the earth will sometime become co-operative, but such things grow and are not made with hands outright and in accordance with a theory preconceived. If this thing ever comes to pass it will come by growth in slow processes, and not through organized invasions of Coxe's armies of unemployed. When co-operative communities have been successfully established and perpetuated co-operative commonwealths will arise from this annual formation as naturally as States grow out of town meetings.
