

THE STATE INDUSTRIAL FAIR

IT OPENS TO-DAY AND WILL RUN TWO WEEKS.

Pavilion Exhibits Approaching Completion—This Afternoon's Racing.

To-day the State Fair opens in this city. The exhibits in the Pavilion are not yet completed, but it is expected that nearly all will be in place by to-night.

The city is rapidly filling up with visitors. Every train yesterday and last evening brought large numbers of strangers.

Superintendent Stanton of the art department has made rapid progress toward the placing of the most number of pictures he had selected for the art gallery.

Not the least among the prominent features of the Fair will be the music. Instead of sending abroad for a band to delight the visitors at Park and Pavilion, the Directors this year have recognized home talent.

There will be four grand parades of exhibition livestock. The first will take place on Thursday next, the 9th; the second on Saturday, the 11th; the third on Thursday, the 16th, and the fourth on Saturday, the 18th—the last day of the Fair.

STOCK PARADES AND JUDGING. There will be four grand parades of exhibition livestock. The first will take place on Thursday next, the 9th; the second on Saturday, the 11th; the third on Thursday, the 16th, and the fourth on Saturday, the 18th—the last day of the Fair.

Monday, September 13th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Roadsters, draft horses of all classes, mules, jacks and Jennies.

Tuesday, September 14th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Coach horses, carriage teams, roadster teams and saddle horses.

Wednesday, September 15th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Families.

Thursday, September 16th (after parade)—Gold medals.

Saturday, September 11th (after parade)—Durhams and Devons.

Monday, September 13th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Holsteins and fat stock.

Tuesday, September 14th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Hereford Jerseys, and Angus.

Wednesday, September 15th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Beef herds.

Saturday, September 11th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Sheep and goats.

Monday, September 13th (10 o'clock a. m.)—Swine.

Tuesday, September 14th (10 a. m., at Pavilion)—Poultry.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF. Costly Show Windows Sadly Defaced by W. H. Jennings.

A number of the finest plate-glass windows on the south side of K street, east of Sixth, were badly defaced at an early hour yesterday morning by a man named W. H. Jennings.

Jennings is a paper-hanger. At one time, several years ago, he was a member of the fire department of this city.

It was about 2 o'clock in the morning that Special Officer Almos' attention was attracted by Jennings' queer actions as he passed up K street.

Almos noticed that whenever he came to a large show-window he would dodge over and run his right hand along the glass the full extent of the window.

The officer investigated and found that Jennings had been scratching the windows along his route with a diamond, so he overhauled and arrested him, assisted by Officer Greene.

The prisoner was found to have on one of the fingers of his right hand a diamond ring with which he had cut and scratched the windows.

An inspection of the windows yesterday showed that every lower-pane of the fine plate-glass front of the Bruner block had been defaced, including those of Bruner's crockery and furniture stores and the Nonpareil department store.

Then follow the windows of the Capital Hotel building, Haul's furnishing store, the Delmonico Restaurant—in fact, every fine window from Sixth to Eighth street is scratched and defaced.

The damage amounts to many hundreds of dollars.

has given his personal attention to the work of preparation for the Fair, and no man, here or elsewhere, is better fitted for that duty.

The first race this afternoon will be the Occident stake for foals of 1894. Unless there should be scratches this morning the starters will be: M. S. Severance's Uncle James, Palo Alto's Nordson, Mrs. S. V. Barrow's Wilkes Direct, S. H. Hoy's McNally and Santa Rosa Stock Farm's Paccia. The value of the stake is $2,100.

The second race will be for the 2-40 trotting class, closed with these entries: Arthur Holt, De-De, Stamboulette, Bill Doty, Ludenia, Shelby, Diana, Stonewall, Our Jack, Etta, Wilkes, Peter Jackson, Dolly Madison, Mabel McKinney, Dexter P. Pacheco Wilkes, Mabel W. Zanita and Antecort.

The 2:17 pacing class closed with Joe Wheeler, Floracita, Dictatus, Rosemon, Primrose, Fitz Lee, Prince H., Irvington Belle, Betonica, Blue Bells, Roblet, Teddy the Roan, Lizzie E., De-De and Bessie Rankin.

THE GREAT TROT. The special purse of $1,000 offered for trotters in the 2:10 class, to come off on Wednesday, is attracting much attention.

It will bring together such high-class performers as Jasper Ayres, Zombro, Gallette, Iora, Mamie Griffin, Stead B. and Helena.

The belief is entertained that a very low mark will be reached. Such a race over one of the tracks in the East would prove a great attraction and would be witnessed by twenty thousand or more people.

GILT EDGES AGAIN VICTORS.

THEY DEFEAT THE RELIANCE SIX TO THREE.

Several Thousand Spectators Witnessed a Great Game of Baseball.

It was the game the populace had been waiting for, and the populace, that hydra-headed affair that usually carries a dissatisfied, disgruntled element with it, howled during the progress of the game, and grinned at the conclusion.

The game between the Union House team and the Clarksburgs yesterday resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 11 to 3, with one inning to spare.

NOTHING TO SAY. Secretary of State Brown Declines to Talk for Publication.

Secretary of State L. H. Brown was seen by a "Record-Union" representative yesterday and asked as to the truthfulness or falsity of a printed statement of the State Printing Office that no one else had been in the State Printing Office during the past few days.

The article referred to also stated that the Secretary of State said he could do nothing for the State Printing Office than anybody else, and that he controlled, owing to political connections he had made, 5,000 votes in Sacramento.

Secretary Brown declined to discuss that portion of the article relating to his alleged political combinations, except to say that much he is alleged to have said was inaccurate.
