

AMUSEMENTS.

The Shaw company packed the Metropolitan Theater last night. Not only were there no seats that were not occupied or reserved, but many people were turned away because nothing but standing room was obtainable.

PERSONAL MENTION.

August Svenson is home again, after a long visit at the Springs. Supervisor J. M. Morrison is back from a month's stay at his mine in Siskiyou County.

Free Government Road.

The Sacramento "Record-Union" has begun a crusade for something which will commend itself to the people of California generally, and that is a free Government road into the Yosemite.

SHOT IN THE GROIN.

Accident to a Shooting Gallery Proprietor Last Night.

John Henshel, proprietor of the shooting gallery at 502 K street, met with a serious accident last evening. Some persons had been shooting at targets in his gallery, and he was in the act of hanging a 22-caliber pistol on the wall when the weapon was discharged. The bullet entered just below the abdomen, on the right side, ranging downward and inflicting a very painful wound.
