

OLYMPICS WERE NOT LEFT.

MANAGER McGLYNN TELLS WHY THEY DIDN'T COME.

He Says the Gilt Edge Manager Failed to Put Up Railroad Fares.

Eds. "Record-Union": Permit me, through the columns of your valuable paper, to correct a statement which appeared in the San Francisco papers this morning, to the effect that the Olympic baseball team missed the 8 o'clock boat Sunday morning for Sacramento.

As a matter of fact this is not true. The Olympic team is too bright to miss a boat even though it is as early as 8 o'clock a. m. The only reason why the Sacramento public was deprived of witnessing the victory of the Olympic over the Gilt Edge team, was the inconsistency and mismanagement of H. L. Kripp.

It was on Thursday afternoon that I first received word from Mr. Kripp, through Mr. Hennessy here in Sacramento, that he was prepared to meet the Olympics Sunday afternoon. I immediately proceeded to make arrangements to go to Sacramento, sending Mr. Kripp the personnel of the Olympics in battling order, also asking him to make the customary arrangements with the ticket agent here for transportation.

Not having received any word up to late Saturday afternoon, I waited on our ticket agent here, Mr. Wade, asking Mr. Kripp had everything settled, he said he had heard nothing and advised me to telegraph Mr. Kripp, which I accordingly did, but received no immediate reply.

In the meantime I met Mr. Hennessy of the Gilt Edge team, and told him how indefinite everything was, that Mr. Kripp had given me no satisfaction, etc. He proposed that we should go to the ticket office under the Grand Hotel and find out if Mr. Kripp had made any arrangements at that office. George Lippman, who had charge of the office, said he had received no word from Mr. Kripp. I explained the situation to Mr. Lippman. He said since the "General Office" was closed it would be impossible to get any special rates, but for me to telephone Mr. Kripp to deposit sixty dollars with Mr. Ellis, the agent at Sacramento, and have Mr. Ellis telegraph Mr. Beach, the agent at the foot of Market street in this city, to that effect.

On our way to the telephone office at Market and Kearny streets, Mr. Hennessy remarked that since he had left Sacramento the team has been very poorly managed, inferring that Mr. Kripp is a poor manager, as has been subsequently shown.

On reaching the telephone office Mr. Hennessy called up Sacramento and got Mr. Kripp at the phone, telling him to act on Mr. Lippman's suggestion about depositing the ticket money. Mr. Hennessy then hurriedly left the place in order to catch the 8 p. m. train for Sacramento, leaving me under the impression that everything was all right.

At half-past 3 o'clock on Sunday morning I was rewarded for all my trouble and anxiety of mind by receiving, at the eleventh hour, when it was too late for any use, a telegram from Mr. Kripp stating that I would have to advance the $60 ticket money. This, however, I determined not to do, inasmuch as Mr. Kripp failed to carry out the usual custom of advancing the ticket money, which, by the way, is not charged to his personal account. This money is all refunded after the game.

Had Mr. Kripp any motive for deviating from the usual plan, he might at least have given me twenty-four hours' notice, instead of four. Then I might have been able to do something, and as it was, his actions in the matter handicapped me so much I was necessarily obliged to disappoint the Sacramento public, and always having enjoyed its appreciation and goodwill I regretted exceedingly being obliged to do so.

Now, Mr. Editor, I must depend on the fairness and justice which all ways characterized your esteemed paper, to give this statement, in justice to my side, space in its columns. Yours respectfully,

JACK F. M'GLYNN, Manager Olympic B. B. Team, S. F.

BABY'S SMOOTH, FAIR SKIN

A Grateful Mother Writes this Letter— Tells all about Her Troubles when Baby Broke out with Scrofula Sores.

"At the age of two months, my baby began to have sores break out on his right cheek. We used all the external applications that we could think of or hear of, to no avail. The sores spread all over one side of his face. We consulted a physician and tried his medicine, and in a week the sores were gone. But to my surprise in two weeks more another scrofula looking sore appeared on baby's arm. It grew worse and worse, and when he was three months old, I began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. I also took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before the first bottle was finished, the sores were well and have never returned. He is now four years old, but he has never had any sign of those scrofula sores since he was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, for which I feel very grateful. My boy owes his good health and smooth, fair skin to this great medicine." Mrs. S. S. WROTON, Farmington, Delaware. Get only Hood's.

THE TODD CONTEMPT CASE.

JUDGE HUGHES SUSTAINS THE COMMITMENT.

The Supreme Court Issues a New Writ and Will Hear the Case To-day.

Judge Hughes yesterday rendered his decision in the habeas corpus case of J. H. Todd, who was committed to jail for contempt of court. Todd had failed to pay a balance of some $200 due his divorced wife on her alimony. He denied the application for discharge, and remanded Todd to the custody of the Sheriff.

Judge Hughes took the ground that he could not go behind the commitment of Judge Hennessy, because he had failed to pay a balance of some $200 due his divorced wife on her alimony. He denied the application for discharge, and remanded Todd to the custody of the Sheriff.

When the case was argued before Judge Hughes both General Clinch and E. A. Bridgeford, Todd's attorneys, expressed the opinion that the court was not asked to go behind the commitment, but they held that the instrument itself showed all the facts necessary to entitle Todd to a discharge, namely, that he was utterly without means and unable to pay the amount due. As to his not seeking employment, counsel argued that there was a temporary lull in his business—that of theatrical manager—but that the season was about to open; that no court could order a citizen out to labor on the streets; that Todd had paid about two-thirds of the alimony due from him, and that he was willing to resume payments as soon as his business opened.

These arguments, however, could not move Judge Hughes to set aside the commitment and now the case will be carried to the Supreme Court, where a decision will be given that will set at rest the disputed issue as to whether or not a person is guilty of contempt of court for non-payment of alimony under circumstances such as apply to the Todd case.

When Judge Hughes rendered his decision General Clinch and Judge Bridgeford at once applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The court ordered the writ issued, returnable this morning at 10 o'clock, before the court in bank.

Pending the hearing to-day Todd was at once released on bail.

IN THE LAST DITCH.

Arguments Heard Yesterday on Durrant's Last Appeal.

Yesterday the Supreme Court heard arguments in the Durrant case, which was appealed after his second sentence in the Superior Court—from the order committing him to the State Prison at San Quentin, there to await his execution.

The contention of Durrant's counsel was: That in ordering Durrant to be kept by the Warden in close confinement the court inflicted a punishment on Durrant in addition to that which the law provided in the case of a convict for murder in the first degree, where the judgment was death. This additional punishment, it was pointed out, consisted not only of the close confinement, but the cropping of Durrant's hair and the garbing him in prison stripes.

The United States Supreme Court having dismissed the appeal to that body from the decision of the State Supreme Court affirming the judgment in Durrant's case, the only obstacle remaining in the way of again fixing a day for his execution is the point raised before the State Supreme Court now in session here and which was heard yesterday.

This point will no doubt be disposed of as soon as the remittitur from the Federal Supreme Court is received. Durrant was represented in the argument yesterday by Louis P. Boardman and Deputy Attorney-General C. N. Post appeared for the people.

A HOBO QUARTET.

One of the Gang Assaults and Cuts Albert Hellman.

While returning from a hunting trip last evening Albert Hellman, who resides at East Park, and another young man stopped at Mrs. Hartney's saloon, near Brighton, for refreshments.

After they entered the place, according to Mr. Hellman's story, four hobos slouched in and one of them accosted him with: "What h—l are you doing here?" This inquiry the hobo followed up by calling Hellman a vile name, whereupon the latter struck him in the face.

The hobo came back with a large knife, with which he slashed at Hellman. The blade caught him in the palm of the right hand, and going through the fleshy part came out at the back. Five stitches were taken to close the wound.

After the cutting had been done, the three other hobos hustled the knife-wielder out and away. Mrs. Hartney informed Hellman and his companion that she had been bothered with the four men all day, and that they had threatened to kill her. She said none of the four men—who had every appearance of being genuine hobos—were known to Brighton.

BENT ON SUICIDE.

Emma Doetcher's Hanking After Locomotive Wheels. Emma Doetcher was arrested by Officer Hayes yesterday morning while standing on the railroad bridge contemplating the waters below.

A short time before her arrest the woman had stepped before a moving street car on the railroad depot, but the motorman stopped his car before it struck her. She next went to the railroad depot and stepped on the track in front of an approaching locomotive, but was drawn back by a bystander. She then visited the bridge where she was arrested.

She had been drinking heavily for some time, and when arrested told the officer that if she could have met the locomotive "it would have been all off."
