

COAST DEFENSE WORKS.

SECRETARY ALGER APPROVES GEN. MILES' REPORT.

Will Now be Submitted to Chairman Cannon of the House Appropriation Committee.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Secretary Alger has approved the estimates for the coast defense works submitted by General Miles, and they will be submitted to Chairman Cannon of the House Committee on Appropriation some days before the opening of the session. In accordance with law the expenditures at the different seaports are itemized, but the Secretary will ask for authority to spend the money in lump sums, so that work on any particular defense may be hurried on in the emergency. General Miles divides the fortification appropriation as follows: Mouth of Penobscot River, $175,000; Portland, Me., $1,173,000; Mouth of Kennebec, $1,285,000; Portsmouth, N. H., $377,000; Boston Harbor, $1,347,000; New Bedford, Mass., $934,000; Narragansett Bay, $823,000; Defense of Long Island Sound, $1,000,000; Eastern entrance to New York, $1,489,000; Approaches to Philadelphia, $499,000; Approaches to Washington, D. C., $694,000; Hampton Roads, $1,000,000; Approaches Wilmington, N. C., $57,000; Charleston Harbor, $150,000; Mouth of the Savannah, $1,000,000; Key West, Fla., $60,000; Pensacola Harbor, $250,000; Approaches to New Orleans, $318,000; Galveston, Tex., $420,000; San Diego, Cal., $1,200,000; San Francisco, $1,300,000; Columbia River, $1,000,000; Puget Sound, $1,000,000; Lake Champlain, $40,000.

In his report to the Secretary, General Miles makes no reference to possible complications with Spain, but says: "Although the general desire of our people is to maintain a condition of peace with all nations, and the policy of the Government is one of good will and peaceful relations with all others, yet nothing could be more injudicious than to remain in a condition of inactivity and permit the lives of millions and the accumulated wealth of many generations to be destroyed or endangered by any foreign power with which we are liable to come in contact, and the general plan for defense which has been adopted by the Government should be steadily pursued until the nation is in a condition of security and safety, which a due regard for self-preservation would demand."

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFF.

A Case in Which Two Promissory Notes Cut a Figure.

The case of H. H. Johnson against Harrison & Miller was heard in Judge Johnson's court yesterday. The case had some peculiar features. A. F. Welch was guardian for the Welch minors, and as such he had received for $2,176 given by Harrison & Miller for the lease of property belonging to the estate. He also held the power of attorney for one of the heirs who is not a minor. Welch borrowed $350 from Johnson, and as security therefor gave the Harrison & Miller note. The $350 note falling due, Johnson sued to recover on the Harrison & Miller note. Leave had been given the plaintiff to amend his complaint so as to cover only the sum due from Welch.

FOUND THE SPOONS.

But the Thieves Have Not Yet Been Located.

On Sunday night last the house of Rev. Frank M. Mitchell, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, was burglarized during the absence of the family, and a dozen teaspoons, four tablespoons, a sugarbowl, napkin ring and several other articles of solid silver taken, besides $2 in cash. Officers Funtish and Douglas were detailed to look into the matter, and were not long in locating the silverware at a pawn shop. Up to the present time, however, they have been unable to land the burglars.

THE MYSTIC NORTH.

Rev. A. C. Herrick's Illustrated Lecture on Alaska.

The illustrated lecture on "Alaska, the Land of the Midnight Sun," given by Rev. A. C. Herrick, at the Sixth street Methodist Church last evening, drew a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Herrick was at home with his subject and in his terse, graphic style added vivid word pictures as explanations to the work of the photographer as reproduced on the canvas. Mr. Herrick was for some time a missionary among the Indians of the frozen north, and his observations were given the most profound attention.

AMUSEMENTS.

There was a good house at the Metropolitan Theater last night, when the Elieff Company presented a triple bill. The evening's entertainment was a charming one and full of variety.

and schools, some of which are situated within the Arctic Circle, and the home life of the natives was pictured with all the truthfulness of the camera.

Next were shown several views of St. Michael, the port at the mouth of the Yukon River, and some excellent views of the flat-bottomed steamers that ply the river, and are pictured true to life. These were followed by many views along the valley of the great northern river, and finally the audience was set down in one of the mining camps of the Dawson diggings.

Views of Fort Yukon, Dawson and Circle City were shown, and these were followed by reindeer herds, dog teams, ice-packs, canoes, rapids and other features of which people know nothing until the rush for the Klondike set in.

After the gold fields had been explored a number of views of the great Fair Glacier were shown, and lifelike pictures of Alaska and the surrounding country were thrown on the canvas.

Throughout the lecture was interesting and instructive, and the next of the series, which will be given on the evening of the second Thursday of December, will be looked forward to as an event not to be missed.

THE KITTEN AND THE BEAR.

Pass Frightened Bruin Up a Tree and Kept Him There.

Chris Burns, the veteran First Sergeant of Troop D, had a kitten which, during the summer camping of the troop at the Lower Geysers Basin, made her home within the Sergeant's tent. Here, curled up on a pair of army blankets, she defied the world in general, and dogs in particular. When the latter approached, she would always every bristle on her brave little back, and her tail would glow like live coals, and her eyes would swell up threateningly. If dogs approached too near, she would hiss, and exhibit the usual signs of hostility, until the intruders had vanished from her neighborhood.
