

BLOOMBERG'S BLOOMING BOY

HE CARVES THE OLD MAN WITH A KNIFE.

The Father Declares He Will Send the Vicious Youth to the Penitentiary.

That Jacob Bloomberg, who conducts a second-hand store on K street, between Third and Fourth, is still alive is no fault of his nineteen-year-old son Joseph. Last evening he assaulted the old man with a pocket-knife, and before he could be disarmed he had inflicted several ugly though not serious wounds on his father's face and head.

Bloomberg visited the Receiving Hospital, where his injuries were attended to by Assistant City Physician Ogden, and while there told his story to Chief of Police Drew.

According to Bloomberg's story, his son Joe had been abusing and kicking his little sister, when the old man interfered and ordered him to desist.

"If I don't quit, what will you do?" his son asked in a sneering and insulting manner.

"If you don't let the child alone," replied the old man, "I'll break every bone in your body!"

The boy, according to his father's statement, immediately sprang at him and commenced stabbing and slashing with his knife, and it was some moments before Bloomberg could throw him to the floor and get possession of the knife.

The boy, Bloomberg stated, is a terror to the household, and only a few nights ago he knocked his mother down because she wanted to know why he came in at 1 o'clock in the morning and awoke everybody by cooking his supper. Bloomberg said he kept quiet and did not interfere, because the boy's mother always sided in with the children when he attempted to correct them.

Bloomberg has one long and rather deep cut along the base of the skull, a scratch over one temple, and a piece of his nose is missing. He says he is determined to prosecute the boy for assault with a deadly weapon, and insisted that he be arrested on sight.

Chief of Police Drew issued orders to the officers to bring the knife-wielder in as soon as found, and about 10 o'clock last night Captain Fisher corralled him in the alley between Sixth and Seventh, J and K streets, and landed him in jail.

The officers say the youth is one of the very toughest in the city. He has ridden a few horses at the fairs, and is generally known as "Jockey" Bloomberg. His father positively asserts that he will prosecute the case.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Clunie Opera-house this evening will begin the last engagement to be played in the building under that title. After this week it will become an Orpheum. Tonight Manager Clifton will introduce to the public a large company playing Harry Martell's realistic Southern drama, "The South Before the War." There will be between forty and fifty people upon the stage, introducing plantation revels, jubilee singers, cotton pickers, steamboat gals, dancers, clowns and solo singers; the whole illustrating the pleasanter conditions among the slaves of the South before the war. There will be many specialties before the footlights, especially in wing and buck dancing. A large amount of special scenery is carried by the company, and a carload of stage fitting. At noon there will be a parade of the company's plectanion band. In addition to the play, which is represented as spirited, full of fun, humor and wit, and alive with action, there will be shown in an interlude Lumier's cinematograph with ten new pictures added at each performance. A new scale of prices has been established for evenings and matinees, and these interesting goers should examine. Manager Clifton is very emphatic in saying that this is not, as has been represented, the company that was here a year or so ago in a Southern plantation production. This company is far superior to anything of the kind that has visited the coast, he says, and has met with pronounced success throughout the East.

At the Metropolitan Theater this evening Jules Grau's well-known operatic company in grand and comic opera will begin a week's engagement. The troupe when here last year was a decided favorite with lovers of song and the drama. Mr. Grau thinks his company stronger both as to soloists and chorus now than then. Among the additions to the company are Willie Kirst, the famous boy tenor, said to be phenomenal in all respects. Miss Eloise Mortimer is the new soprano in this company. She began her operatic career with Emma Abbott, and was later a strong attraction at the New York Casino. Besides being an accomplished singer with a pure and rich soprano voice she is an actress of unusual power. Miss Mary Carrington, the youngest prima donna of the country, is of this company. The contralto is Miss Fanny Myers, an artist of wide reputation; Martin Pache, tenor robusto, and the achievements of talented artists well-known artists in the Eastern musical circles, who have had much operatic experience. Gilbert Clayton, Robert Lett and Stanley Felch, are comedians of fine quality who add greatly in support of the leaders. The chorus has been specially trained by Mr. Grau, and he has for this season an augmented orchestra thoroughly rehearsed. Tonight the opera will be "The Mascot;" Tuesday, "Boccaccio;" Wednesday, "Martha;" Thursday, "Girofalo-Griofa;" Friday, "Il Trovatore;" Saturday matinee, "Fra Diavolo;" Saturday night, "The Grand Duchess." Mr. Grau has, it is represented, a new wardrobe for his company, and he asserts that it is the richest and completest ever brought to Sacramento. The prices for the engagement are elsewhere announced, and are exceedingly low.

ROBBERS' RAVINE.

A Hold-Up at the Historic Spot Near Folsom.

The Folsom "Telegraph" of Saturday has the following: "On last Monday evening, at about 7 o'clock, as Chris. Sorenson, the butcher, was returning from his delivery trip to the country, and when he had reached Robbers' Ravine, about a mile from Folsom, he was accosted by a highwayman and held up in the most approved style. The robber demanded what money Chris. had, and, in addition, helped himself liberally to meat from the wagon.

"On arriving here Sorenson reported the matter to the officers, and Constable Burke started in pursuit of the robber, who, however, he was not able to apprehend. This is the first robbery that has occurred in this vicinity for some time past. Sorenson's loss amounted to $25 in money and a quantity of meat."

H. R. Wilkinson Brought Back From Utah Yesterday.

Police Officer William J. Hardy yesterday returned from Ogden, Utah, having in charge H. R. Wilkinson, the young man charged with having embezzled $76 from Beesley & Sons, the J-street grocers.

Hardy was gone just three days, and before taking charge of his prisoner he was obliged to go to Salt Lake City to have a warrant issued on Governor Budd's requisition.

Wilkinson, who drove a delivery wagon for Beesley & Sons, is alleged to have appropriated to his own use collections made by him. He has nothing to say about the matter. He will probably be arraigned in the Police Court this morning.

ORANGE STEALING.

A Fruit Thief Driven Out of Orangevale Last Week.

The Folsom "Telegraph" states that a few days since a man was arrested by Deputy Sheriff F. S. Sandford for stealing oranges and other fruit from different tracts in Orangevale. It was discovered that he had sold nine boxes of oranges to J. B. Harris at Folsom, and a search warrant was obtained and his house searched.

Several boxes of oranges and a quantity of dried fruits were discovered, together with other evidence of his guilt. He was given forty-eight hours in which to make himself scarce in these parts. He lost no time in taking his departure.

THE GRIDLEYITES WIN OUT.

BUTTE'S BOYS TOO MUCH FOR THE DAVISVILLE.

They Played a Good Game, but It Was Not a Drawing Card.

Probably 250 people visited Snowflake Park yesterday afternoon, where the Gridley and Davisville baseball teams tried conclusions. The former won by a score of 7 to 1.

Good average ball was played, but the few people present sat listlessly through it all, and killed time by thinking of the great games they had witnessed in the past. That Sacramento baseball cranks are interested only in the achievements of their pets was exemplified by their staying away, and whether the Davisville, Gridley or Mills clubs claimed to be champions, cuts no ice with them. Thousands of people during the past season have yelled themselves hoarse over games between the Gilt Edges and others which were not one-half so closely contested as that played yesterday, but Gridley was not Gilt Edge, and the form time ran away down below chilliness.

Henry, the noted Gridley backstop—locally known as the slowest man in Gridley—put up a good game after he had settled down to business, and his pitchers, Sooy and Mills, did good though not brilliant work in the box. Manuel de Costa did the box work for the Davisvilles, and the Gridleyites touched him up for sixteen base hits, two of which were home runs.

The features of the game were the home run batted out by E. Young and Winters of the Gridleys, and by Bender of the Davisvilles. Bender played the game for his people, but could not win. "Pop" Rice, Devine and Surgeson of this city lined up in the Davisville ranks, but the Gridleyites were too speedily and in a matter, hands down. The score follows:

BENCH SHOW.

The Coming Exhibition of Dogs and Poultry.

"Field Sports" of San Francisco, referring to the coming dog and poultry show in this city, says:

"The fanciers of Sacramento are busy now arranging for the dog show of the State Poultry and Kennel Club, which will be held on January 27th to 30th next. This will be the first show on the coast under the class scheme lately adopted by the A. K. C. In order to be able to provide a 'winner's class,' it is the intention of the club to give 75 per cent. of the entry money to first and 25 per cent. to second in all classes. The classes provided will most likely be puppy, junior, senior and free-for-all, or possibly a novice class instead of the junior and senior classes. This latter we think would be the better, as it would give a class where previous winners could not be pitted against dogs of unknown quality.

The long list of classes are useless, and in fact will prove a detriment to the small shows. The rule requiring money prizes to be given in three classes in order to provide a 'winner's class' is certainly covered by giving as prizes a percentage of the entries, though it is hard to tell how the A. K. C. will construe the rule, as constructions with the A. K. C. have always been a matter of convenience instead of logic.

"The Sacramento show last year was well conducted, and it goes without saying that the coming show will be run on the same lines. Exhibitors should begin at once to get their dogs in condition and make it a point of special pride to see that the Capital City has a splendid entry. C. D. Nairn of Ballston, Or., will judge all classes."

When found by the officers the woman had crawled under the steps of the International Hotel, and was screaming at the top of her voice.

The highest and lowest temperatures one year ago yesterday were 60 and 46 degrees, with 0.25 inches of rain, and one year ago to-day 61 and 46 degrees, with 0.05 inches of rain.
