

ZOLA NARROWLY ESCAPES LYNCHING.

A Mob Makes a Murderous Attack Upon the Novelist's Carriage.

Police Charge the Crowds, and Finally Succeed in Dispersing Them.

Riots Follow the Adjournment of the Court, Savage Assaults Being Made Upon Jewish Residents, the Streets Being Cleared Only After a Charge by the Republican Guards.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—There were riotous proceedings after the adjournment of the court to-day and M. Zola narrowly escaped being lynched by the mob outside.

On leaving the Palace of Justice, all the officers were acclaimed by the crowd outside the building and General Pellieux, who descended the steps bareheaded, was given a great reception.

Major Esterhazy was greeted with shouts of "Vive le Armee." The police were powerless to control the immense crowds and several Jews were the objects of insults and menaces.

There was a general fight. The mob threw itself on the Jews, yelling "Death to the Jews!" "Throw the Jews into the Seine!" Finally the Republican guards charged the rioters and cleared the square.

The crowd fell back after the charge of the army, shouting, "Spit on Zola!" M. Zola left the Palace of Justice at 5:30 p. m. and immediately after he had emerged he was greeted with a storm of hisses and jeers.

The authorities were obliged to protect his carriage with a double cordon of police. On reaching the St. Michael bridge the mob made a murderous rush for the carriage, but the police threw themselves between the vehicle and the mob and a series of miniature battles ensued.

Ultimately the police drove the mob back and M. Zola was enabled to proceed without further molestation. A number of arrests were made, but all those who were taken into custody were released later.

The approaches to the Assizes Court were crowded early to-day, and the police were reinforced. There was no demonstration when M. Zola, Colonel Picquart, Major Esterhazy and Mrs. De Boulangery reached the court.

On the other hand, there was a popular demonstration when General Pellieux, Boisdeffre, Gonze and others arrived at noon.

General Boisdeffre was the first witness. He confirmed the statements made yesterday by General Pellieux.

The presiding judge read the shorthand report of General Pellieux's statement and asked what he had to say, General Boisdeffre replied:

"I confirm fully the authenticity of General Pellieux's statement. I do not wish to add a word to it, but, gentlemen of the jury, you are the nation here, for you represent it. If the nation has not confidence in the chiefs of the army, let them say so, and we are ready to leave to others the burden of our responsibility."

"Put your questions immediately," exclaimed the judge, "or you will not put any." (Murmurs.)

"I can say nothing for the moment," replied M. Laborie, "but I protest against this attitude."

Here the presiding judge interrupted counsel, exclaiming, "What do you say?" Major Esterhazy, resume your seat."

There was prolonged cheering as Major Esterhazy left the witness stand.

"Call another witness," said the judge, but the usher informed the court that there were no witnesses in the room reserved for them.

The judge suspended the sitting in order to allow M. Laborie to complete his application.

Mons. Zola and Laborie, during the interval, conversed eagerly together. Their conversation was accompanied by lively gesticulations, raising their hands as though appealing to heaven, and evidently discussed the course to pursue in view of the evident determination of the judge to curtail the proceedings.

"The noise in court was deafening and almost indescribable, the prevailing opinion being that the case was being settled in military fashion.

When the session was resumed M. Laborie presented his exceptions, pointing out that the court had refused to allow him to question General Boisdeffre without hearing his question. Counsel protested against this "denial of justice," and concluded with demanding the recall of General Boisdeffre and Pellieux and Major Esterhazy.

The Advocate General reminded the court of his ruling that the Dreyfus affair should not be mentioned, otherwise, he added, he would leave the matter in the hands of the court.

Counsel for M. Zola retorted: "The Generals came into court in full uniform and wearing their decorations, in order to make speeches for the prosecution." (Uroar.)

"The defense," M. Laborie added, "is approached with attempting to secure a revision of the Dreyfus case, but the Generals have harangued against a revision of the trial of Major Esterhazy, who was acquitted. Let his judges bear the responsibility."

Proceeding, M. Laborie alluded to the "man suffering on Devil's Island," adding: "Though his suffering, his history, do not interest the men who are howling at the back of the courtroom.

"Gentlemen of the jury," M. Laborie said, "I entreat you most earnestly to rise above the emotions of the misled public, and to consider that we are perhaps at a turning point in our history, and that your decision will have consequences which no one to-day can measure."

The presiding judge announced that M. Laborie's demands for the recall of Generals Boisdeffre and Pellieux were refused, and that the Dreyfus case might be recalled, if counsel wished.

The Major was recalled, took the stand, turned his back on M. Zola and M. Laborie, and refused to answer their questions.

Colonel Picquart was then recalled, and said that the moment the Esterhazy inquiry began the suspected document, calculated to whitewash Esterhazy, arrived at the Ministry of War. This, he added, was the document to which General Pellieux referred to, and Colonel Picquart said: "It can be considered a forgery."

General Gonze was then recalled, affirmed that the document was authentic, but he refused to give any further particulars.

Major Esterhazy, when he was again recalled, refused to reply to M. Laborie's questions, and M. Clemenceau, counsel for the "Aurore," questioned him regarding his correspondence with Madame De Boulangery. The witness turned his back upon counsel and faced the jury, with his face livid, and evidently laboring under intense excitement.

M. Clemenceau asked him if he had relations with the German military attaché, but the presiding judge overruled the question, on the ground that it concerned foreign affairs.

The court then adjourned. There are yet five or six witnesses to be called.

MISS FRANCES WILLARD. Her Remains Will be Buried at Rosehill Cemetery, at Evanston.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Funeral services over the remains of Miss Frances E. Willard, President of the World's W. C. T. U., will be held in New York Sunday. The body will then be sent to Chicago.

Mrs. Katherine L. Stevenson, Corresponding Secretary of the W. C. T. U., said it was the present intention to commit the remains of Miss Willard to friends and co-workers in Chicago to meet the body between here and New York City, and act as an escort during the journey west.

The body will then be taken to Miss Willard's home in Evanston, where on Thursday the funeral will be held, probably from the First Methodist Church, which Miss Willard attended for years.

It is possible that this part of the programme may be changed, as the church is comparatively a small one, and would probably be totally inadequate to hold the crowds who would wish to attend the funeral of the dead temperance leader. For this reason the services will be held in Chicago. The interment will take place at Rosehill Cemetery, where Miss Willard's mother is buried.

Miss L. M. N. Stevens, National Vice-President of the W. C. T. U., will, according to the National Secretary, Mrs. Kate L. Stevenson, carry on Miss Willard's work for the present. "No election will take place until the next regular convention," said Mrs. Stevenson.

The body will lay in state in the women's temple building before being taken to Evanston.

Kansas Pacific Sale.

TOPEKA (Kas), Feb. 18.—A special to the "Capital" from Salina says: The Government will in the middle division of the Kansas Pacific Railroad in Kansas was sold this morning in this city. The road was bought by Alvin W. Kreh and Winslow S. Pierce, representing the Reorganization Committee, for $5,300,000. There was no competition at the sale. Mr. Kreh was the only bidder. W. D. Cornish acted as auctioneer.

Fierce Duel in Austria.

VIENNA, Feb. 18.—A fierce duel was fought between Prince Philip of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, husband of the Princess Louise, Marie of Belgium, and Lieutenant Mattheich. They fought first with pistols and then with swords. The Prince was wounded severely in the right arm.

General Booth at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 18.—General Booth, Commander-in-Chief of the Salvation Army, arrived here to-day. In an interview General Booth said that if there came a war between the United States and Spain he would order the Salvation Army in America to go to the front as nurses.

A Bill to Replace the Maine.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A bill appropriating $100,000 to provide for a battleship to replace the Maine was introduced in the House to-day by Foot of New York.

"Old Comparison."

The people around the little mountain town called him "Old Comparison," and I knew in a general way why the sobriquet had been given him, but I did not, during my month's stay, have an opportunity to test it, though I had a speaking acquaintance with him. One day I was passing his house and he was sitting on the steps of the little vine-clad porch in front.

"Good morning," I said. "It's a lovely day."

"Finer'n silk," he responded. "How are you this morning?" "Friskier'n a colt."

"How's your wife?" "Pearlier'n a pullet."

"The weather is very hot and dry for this season, don't you think?" "Hotter'n a run horse and drier'n a clean shirt."

"I suppose you went to the wedding last night in the meeting-house? A pretty bride, I thought."

"The young man is rich, I hear." "Richer'n fertilizer, a foot thick."

"By the way, are you willing to sell me those sawlogs Brown couldn't take off your hands?"

BIG SLASH IN PASSENGER RATES.

War on Between Northern Pacific and Canadian Pacific.

Overland Fares on Both Roads Are to be Cut in Half.

Three Chinese Arrested Near Gold Run, Placer County, Charged With Illegal Hydraulic Mining—A Laborer, While Intoxicated, Steps in Front of a Moving Train at Benicia, and is Almost Instantly Killed.

TACOMA, Feb. 18.—The Northern Pacific Railroad announces a big cut in passenger rates to become effective Saturday, February 19th. The rate from Tacoma to St. Paul, Duluth and points in Minnesota, Dakota and Manitoba will be cut in two. Heretofore the rates to the above points have been $50 first class and $40 second class. In effect next Saturday, the rates will be $25 first class and $20 second class.

The rates from Tacoma to Chicago will be $31 50 first class and $26 50 second class. To points in Ontario and Quebec, as far east as Montreal and south of the line of the Grand Trunk Railway, Port Huron to Montreal $40 first class and $30 second class.

The same rates will prevail from the East to Tacoma.

The Canadian Pacific announces that it will meet these rates one day later, Sunday, February 20th.

WHOLESALE REDUCTION.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—The Canadian Pacific road to-day exploded a bomb among the American competitors by announcing a wholesale reduction of rates. These cuts affect business in two directions. In the first place, the rates from all New England points to Minneapolis and St. Paul are slaughtered, and again New England points and points in the State of New York have had a blanket rate applied so far as all business to North Pacific Coast points is concerned. These transcontinental rates have been cut almost in two.

The present rates from the Atlantic seaboard to the North Pacific Coast are $70 35 first-class and $67 40 second-class. To-morrow the Canadian Pacific will make these rates from all points in New England and New York $40 first-class and $30 second-class.

Rates to St. Paul will be cut from $29 50 first-class and $28 50 second-class to $20 first-class and $19 second-class.

On learning the Canadian Pacific's intention in the matter, the Grand Trunk road at once invited the Chicago roads to join it in meeting these rates via Chicago. They have been importuning the Grand Trunk for months to join them in meeting Canadian Pacific rates, little thinking that as soon as such an agreement was effected the Canadian Pacific at one slash would work such havoc with their rates. If they agree to the Grand Trunk's request, it will mean the immediate reduction of the rates from Chicago to North Pacific points from $61 50 first-class and $51 50 second-class to $40 first-class and $30 second-class.

Doubtless the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern roads will be as anxious as the Grand Trunk that the Chicago roads should join in meeting the rates. Their refusal would simply mean that they had gone out of the business for the time being, and the word mean that the two roads named get little or none of the business, because they would have no Eastern connections to take it to them, and the Canadian Pacific is not likely to give them any.

A meeting of interested lines has been called for to-morrow to decide on some definite course of action, but it may have to be adjourned to the beginning of the week on account of the absence of many of the general passenger agents in the East. At a messenger held here to-day it was decided to ask the trunk lines to assist in fighting the Canadian Pacific.

THE GREAT NORTHERN'S CUT.

SEATTLE, Feb. 18.—The Great Northern to-day announced a cut in eastbound rates. The cut is the same as made by the Northern Pacific.

WILL OF THOS. D. STIMSON.

Disposes of an Estate Valued at Over a Million Dollars.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—The will of the late Thomas D. Stimson was filed for probate in Judge Clark's court to-day. The document, which disposes of an estate valued at $1,300,000, is dated April 4, 1895. To this is attached a codicil dated January 15, 1898.

The executors named are his sons, William H., Charles D., and Ezra T., and in case one dies or declines to act, a fourth son, Fred S., is named.

He bequeaths to Miss Mary F. Spencer of Los Angeles $20,000; Martha F. Kennedy of Ann Arbor, Mich., $5,000; Clarissa F. Edson of Duluth, Minn., $5,000; Olive J. Fay of Chicago, $100,000; James Roe of Seattle, $2,500; F. C. Devendorf, $2,500.

These legacies are to be paid only from the income from the estate.

The testator states he has heretofore conveyed to his wife, Achsah J. Stimson, the lot and building at Third and Spring streets.

The remainder of the estate is to be held and managed in trust until the youngest grandchild, at the time of testator's death reaches 21, then the estate is to be divided between testator's children and grandchildren, share and share alike.

The codicil provides for the payment of $4,000 to the testator's daughter, Mrs. Fay, as $20,000 of the $100,000 meant for her had been given her before testator died.

SHOT HIMSELF.

John Livernash Commits Suicide at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—John Livernash, a Deputy Wharfinger of this city, committed suicide to-night about 11 o'clock in a saloon on Mission street by shooting himself through the body.

Livernash, who is also a newspaper man, had been drinking during the early part of the evening, and had stopped at the saloon on his way home with a friend. The dead man was a brother of Edward J. Livernash, the well-known journalist. He was the founder of the Heraldship "Enterprise" and sold his interest in that paper but three weeks ago. Deceased was 35 years of age.

Dependancy is assigned as the reason for the suicide.

YUKON RELIEF EXPEDITION.

One Section Is Having All Kinds of Trouble.

SEATTLE, Feb. 18.—The Government pack train which left here on the ship Lucille to join the main body of the Alaska relief expedition at Dyea is having all kinds of trouble. The Lucille is now at Departure Bay, B. C., and can get no further, for lack of a tug. The tug Monarch towed the Lucille from this city to Departure Bay, but she would go no further, as the pilot was not familiar with the northern waters.

It was the expectation when the Lucille left here that the tug Sea Lion was to tow her from Departure Bay to Dyea. The Sea Lion, it is claimed, would be repaired, and cannot carry out the original plan. The matter has been placed in the hands of the United States Attorney, with the view of compelling the owners of the Lucille to carry out their contract with the Government. The long confinement of the animals would be forced to undergo by an ordinary voyage is lengthened by this unexpected delay, and meanwhile the season is advancing and the possibility of taking relief into Dawson is growing less.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

A Saloonkeeper Shoots a Woman and Then Commits Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Robert Brice, saloonkeeper, shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon shot and fatally wounded a woman named Mary Barum at the Dunlap lodging-house, 220 O'Farrell street. Believing that he had killed her, Brice turned the weapon on himself, and a moment later lay dead.

The Receiving Hospital surgeons have little hope for the recovery of the woman, as the bullet struck her in the right side of the abdomen and passed clear through her body.

The chief of police is supposed to have been the result of the man's jealous love for the woman.

SHERIFF BROCKLISS.

His Counsel Moves to Dismiss the Indictment.

GENOA (Nev.), Feb. 18.—Sheriff John Brockliss of Douglas County, who had been indicted by the Grand Jury for willful neglect of duty in permitting a mob, without resistance, to take from his custody Adam Uber, lynching the latter, was arraigned in the District Court to-day. The Sheriff's counsel moved to dismiss the indictment on the ground that charges set forth did not constitute the crime specified. Judge Mack took the matter under advisement, and it is now said that the Grand Jury will be recalled and the Brockliss indictment changed to that of murder.

Mary Garcia Held to Answer.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—The preliminary examination of Mary Ellen Garcia, charged with the murder of Charles Collins in Santa Monica last week, was held before Justice Guldinger in Santa Monica to-day. The defendant was not placed on the stand. She was held to answer before the Superior Court without bail. The preliminary examination of Peter Garcia was postponed till 2 p. m. to-morrow.

At 3 o'clock to-morrow a reception was held at the Chamber of Commerce, and the President left for San Francisco to-night.

The Navarro Arrives From Juneau.

SEATTLE, Feb. 18.—The steam schooner Navarro arrived this afternoon from Alaska. When she left Juneau no survivors of the Clara Nevada had been found. The Navarro encountered very stormy weather. W. E. Reeves, Walter Kerrin, J. E. Dyer, and L. E. Munson, from Dawson, were passengers on the Navarro. They brought no important news.

A Laborer Instantly Killed.

BENICIA, Feb. 18.—Tom Pike, a laborer, while intoxicated, stepped in front of a moving train here to-day, and was run over and almost instantly killed.

Firearms Are Not Toys.

Two more deaths have lately resulted from "didn't know it was loaded" accidents—a mother killing her babe and a boy smothering his head blown off. Revolvers and guns are dangerous under all circumstances. Firearms are not toys. It is also unsafe to trade with what are termed minor ailments. Insignificant though they seem at first, they are likely to be precautions against their further development are neglected, or they are unsafely treated, to the detriment of the patient or continuous heedlessness of her warnings. Independently of its sterling efficacy as a remedy for chronic maladies, the latter is a superb tonic and promoter of appetite and sleep.

Cuba.

Oh! wretched land of the tropical seas, Baptized with the blood of thy murdered dear ones, And pierced by fair bosom with many a wound— With the lone, shallow graves of thy fallen brave sons.

Lives there a man who, for Freedom's just cause, Hath shouldered in fact, or in spirit, his gun, Whose soul is withheld from uplifting a prayer For success to thine arms? Nay, never a one!

Unconquered the fires which have kindled thy breast, With belief of our fathers that all should be free; With the faith of thy leaders, undaunted and firm, That the banner of freedom shall wave over thee!

Take thy courage from this: that all history shall prove, That the victory is seldom, if e'er, with the strong; That the right shall prevail though it swim through red seas In its bravely fought battle with cowardly wrong!

Thy spirit of freedom will never be crushed, For the God of all battles shall nerve thy good arm, To avenge the scant quarter, the pillage, rapine, Of the "don's" cruel warfare, its far-reaching harm!

All hail to thee, Cuba, munitions and stores Shall flow to thy succor in aid of thy need, For there is but one Power, and that's on thy side; So success to thine arms is most surely thy meed!

O'er thy valleys laid waste, o'er thy desolate hills Shall come, soon again, all their fruits, as of yore, For the hand of oppression shall yield its rude grasp, And the flag of thy choosing shall float vermilion— Samuel Thomas Shaw, in Cleveland Leader.
