

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

EXTRACTS FROM EDITORIAL EXPRESSION.

State and Coast Opinions on Subjects of Living News Interest.

Fresno Republican: War is appalling, it is expensive, but there are times when a nation must fight. It is not so much a question of defending its honor, either, as it is of defending its existence, for a nation that will not fight under just provocation invites insult, aggression and final extinction. War is indeed barbarous, and no one knows this better than the yellow newspaper proprietors, who would probably escape its banality by sending substitutes to the front; but what would be the penalty of national cowardice on our part? FRUIT OF "RECORD-UNION" EFFORT.

Oakland Tribune: It is good news that a favorable report has been made in the House Committee on the bill for a new road into the Yosemite. The highway is badly needed, there can be no question, and the good it will do will be State-wide rather than local, for it will encourage travel into the valley from all parts of the coast. The way things are now, the journey is so expensive and so difficult that the great mass of residents of the State are precluded from taking a glimpse at the wonderland that is in their midst. In point of fact, it is the exception rather than the rule to find a Californian who has made a trip to Yosemite.

San Bernardino Times-Index: Next time you have a pain anywhere try irrigation, says the "Post-Dispatch." Irrigation, according to Professor Elmer Gates of Washington, is "the power of the individual to confine his consciousness exclusively to the sensations of any selected part of the body and by practice to send more blood to that part and alter therein the lymphatic and thermic functions."

TAKE

A man whose hands tremble and whose voice is weak and you will find that he is but half a man as a rule. His knees shake, too, and he is but a weakling. He sees spots before his eyes and has no confidence in himself. He has in some way abused the privileges which are his by right. And he possessed them once. It is for cases of this sort that "Hudyan" is given by the grand doctors of the Hudson Institute. "Hudyan" brings to weak men full vitality and grand manly vigor. From being puny a man becomes full of fire and big and great manhood. Is that not worth the having? Why do you want to continue as you are? Your happiness is dependent on your ability to enjoy life. Then why not get back the vitality that has drained away from you? Write and ask what "Hudyan" has done for weak and erring mortals. Testimonials and circulars about it are quite free to you, and so is best medical advice. There is blood taint in some people when they are not aware of it. Ulcers in the throat, pimples on the body, copper-colored spots, the falling out of hair, show it. "30-day blood cure" removes all the taint at once. Circulars and testimonials of it are free to you. Write to-day.

more blood into it, or withdraw unnecessary blood, and also make it warmer or colder. This is a scientific man's attempt to explain the mind cure. It is ingenious. Perhaps it is true. Who knows how much the concentration of the thought upon the toothless gums has had to do with the growth of new sets of teeth in old people? The next time one of these cases is discovered let the inquisitive scientist put these questions: "How long have you been thinking about your jaws as tooth producers? Have you not been hoping and perhaps expecting that you might get a new tooth, or a whole set?"

SAVE BREATH. Mother Lode Mauden: It is useless to warn men with the Klondike fever against the perils of that forbidding land; they seem to care nothing for the fact that only seven per cent. of the people who went to the Alaska gold fields last year have been able to earn a living; they do not seem to regard it as important that they should have any knowledge of practical mining. They are willing to take "a gambler's chance" of being the one lucky man of a thousand.

AFTER THE CORPORATIONS. Oakland Enquirer: Bills affecting corporations unfavorably are pouring into the New York Legislature like the basketful and some of the newspapers are speaking of these things as "attacks on property" or "assaults on corporate investments." Probably the corporations have little to fear if they will only do what is expected of them. The majority of the bills of this class seem to be introduced by the Democratic Assembly and it is a fair presumption that Boss Croker intends to use them merely as whips, and that the attacks can be dismissed as soon as corporation managers attend to the usual preliminaries.

THE RAMPANT JINGOES. Los Angeles Express: The jingoes that are safely ensconced in this country to fight the newspaper battles of the insurgent Cubans would like to have it believed that they are the only lovers of liberty and possessors of patriotism. All citizens that do not agree with them, and the President and Congress, because they will not without delay plunge the United States into a war with Spain for the independence of Cuba, are, forsooth, sympathizers with monarchy, or cowards. The great body of conservative people, who are conducting the important businesses in every part of the country—the prudent and level-headed people—should, of course, get excited with the jingoes, foam at the mouth, and rush off to Washington to drive the Administration into war instantly. They should, of course; but they will not.

WE NEED IT NOW. Riverside Enterprise: We have need of the spirit of Washington to-day—the spirit that toils and thinks as a noble end, unhampered and unshaken by self-seeking. That we still possess such men, let no pessimist doubt, and the price was well paid, though the blood and tears of war were necessary to bring them to the front.

CORRECT. San Jose Mercury: The Los Angeles "Times" well says that the motto of the sensational evening newspapers should be: "To-day's news of things that did not happen to-day." The things in the way of news that are really of value are to be found in the morning papers, and the great American reading public is thoroughly familiar with the fact. Headlines in type an inch and a half deep do not make news.

THE MAINE DISASTER. Tulare Register: It would seem also that even if the Maine were sunk through the act of some Spanish fanatic Spain could not be held accountable for the loss of the ship. The crime and undertook in good faith to bring the guilty party to punishment for the offense. Men skilled in international law say that no nation is responsible to another nation for the unauthorized acts of irresponsible individuals, but individuals are responsible against nations only when they are personally responsible for crimes against individuals. If American dynamites blow up buildings in London, America is not responsible, but the dynamites, if caught, are responsible just as British dynamites would be.

A QUARANTINE. Stockton Independent: It begins to look as if the Government would have to establish a quarantine against quinine, yellow fever or a bureau of denials. It will take a large corps of officers to keep abreast of the legion of sensational writers who think truth is no more an essence of news than it is of poetry.

WILL HOLD THE BONNETS. Los Angeles Times: War to the knife is said to be on at Washington between the Daughters of the American Revolution. If the dear girls fight one half as well as did their sires, we are going to see something lurid and picturesque. We are ready to hold our hats to the girls' bonnets who desire to take part in the fray.

BUT TWO SIDES. Fresno Expositor: Chairman Marion Butler, in his address to the Populists on the pending campaign the tersely made the point that "There are but two sides to this mighty and portentous conflict. All of those of whatever party, who favor the conspiracy of gold and monopoly, who favor industrial slavery, widespread poverty and national degradation, should be on one side, and all of those of whatever party who oppose this deadly design, who love truth and right, who love their country, who love their homes and friends, and who believe in the sacred principle declared by Jefferson, and reasserted by Jackson and Lincoln, should be on the other side."

ACTIONED WISELY. Los Angeles Times: In the present overwrought condition of the popular mind the Administration has no doubt acted wisely in declining to make the investigation of the Maine a joint affair. As the case stands it is exclusively an American affair, and at the same time it is a Spanish affair. The waiver of extra-territorial jurisdiction, to the end that Spanish divers may view the hull of the vessel simultaneously, will remove any cause for complaint of unfair treatment or ground for suspicion of foul play.

THE DINGLEY LAW. Marysville Appeal: The manufacturers of the country have not only found a much larger market at home since the enactment of the Dingley law, but also been able to prove the inaccuracy of the Democratic assertion that the protective tariff would reduce their market in other parts of the world. The sales of American manufacturers to foreign purchasers in the five months' operation of the Dingley law, beginning August 1, 1897, and ending January 1, 1898, were in round numbers $13,000,000, which is a record in the sales of manufactured articles in the corresponding months of the preceding year under the Wilson law.

THE LATE MISS WILLARD.

Memorial Exercises Will be Held in Her Honor To-morrow.

Memorial exercises will be held in honor of the late Frances E. Willard on Sunday, at half-past 3, at the Sixth-street M. E. Church, by the White Ribbon women of Sacramento. Rev. Mr. Carroll will have charge of the meeting, and Revs. Banks, Hoskinson and Russell will make addresses. The sketches of the life of the distinguished temperance advocate will be read, and appropriate music will be rendered. The musical exercises will be held under the direction of Mrs. Frances Moeller, who was an intimate friend of Miss Willard. Among the selections will be the three favorite hymns of the lamented woman in whose honor the exercises are to be conducted. The people of the city are invited to attend the memorial and testify their respect for the character and career of Miss Willard.
