

SCHOOL DISTRICT LINES.

SUPERVISORS ALLOW THEM TO BE CHANGED.

Petition Heard for a Proposed New Road on Andrus Island.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday morning, Supervisors McLaughlin, Curtis and Dremann being present and Dremann in the chair.

The matter of the Golden Gate Dredging Company and Reclamation District No. 349 was set for hearing, and Messrs. Henry Elliott, and Harry Cook, Trustees of the District, W. J. Witter of the Dredging Company, and W. A. Galt, attorney, were subpoenaed to be present at 10 a. m. to-day and bring with them papers relating to the claim against the county.

County Superintendent Howard appeared before the board in relation to the petition of a number of citizens for a change of boundaries of Isleton and Andrus Island school districts. He recommended that the petition be granted. There being no remonstrance, the board granted the petition.

Superintendent Howard asked the board to set the time for hearing a petition for change of boundaries in the Natoma and Granite districts, as there is considerable controversy in the matter, and he thought the people from the districts would like to be heard. The board set the hearing for Friday, the 24th.

License Tax Collector Royster reported that he had collected $2,571 for licenses during the month of February. It being the day set for opening bids for 172 feet of trestle at Presbury crossing, over Dry Creek, six miles from Galt, the bidders were told to be: Lightfoot & Ormsby; E. E. Barry, $794; T. E. Clark, 698; G. R. Rhodes & Co., $729. The contract was awarded to Lightfoot & Ormsby, the lowest bidder.

ANDRUS ISLAND ROAD. A. L. Shinn appeared before the board to represent the petitioners for the opening of a road on Andrus Island, asked for by P. H. Gardner and others. The road is described as follows: Beginning at a point on the east side of a county road extending along and parallel to the Sacramento River at a point where the said road intersects the division line common to Swamp Land Surveys 322, 309 of Sacramento County surveys, and running thence from said point of beginning along the said division line common to said surveys and on the line between the lands of George A. Knott on the south and the lands of Mrs. J. Smith and J. S. Harbison on the north, south 87 degrees, 15 minutes, east 70.39 chains to the road now located on the right or west bank of Georgiana Slough—the same to be forty feet wide.

The report of the viewers was read, which said the route of the road asked for was unsuitable, and even if the petition were granted the petitioners would not be benefited until another road was opened along Knott's land. They therefore recommended that the petition be denied and that a road be opened along another line that they had examined, for which Mr. Knott asked $500 damages, which the viewers considered reasonable as it would necessitate moving fences, trees, etc. T. B. Knott testified to the value of the land, thinking that the valuation made of $75 an acre, was a very reasonable one. His father, he said, was interested in the road, as his land ran clear across the island, and he maintained a private road on it. He had allowed the public to use it for many years, but it had become a nuisance, as parties committed trespasses, and caused damage. He felt that his neighbors should have an outlet, however, from the back side of the island, and had asked only what he deemed a reasonable amount.

County Surveyor Boyd detailed the state of affairs of the island, and said that he thought the road indicated by them was the best route. Supervisor Curtis moved to continue the matter for the present, on account of the state of funds in the district, as he did not see any present possibility of expending such an amount of money, although he realized that the petitioners needed the road.

Supervisor Jenkins explained that under the law all the money that will be available for several months to come is already appropriated for existing contracts. The matter could be taken up at any time when the money becomes available.

Mr. Shinn thought the board could approve the report of the viewers and the money not be expended until approval of the not-consenting land owner accepts the award.

Supervisor Jenkins and the board did not agree with him, and the motion of Curtis was carried, with the understanding that it may come up again to-day.

County Surveyor Boyd presented the block book and maps for assessment roll ordered by the board, it being the first Monday in March, and asked that the board make a note of the matter, which was done, on motion of Supervisor Curtis.

The Assessor was requested, on motion of Supervisor McLaughlin, to inspect them and report to-day.

Acting Health Officer E. Springstead addressed the board, saying that he had three families at Sheldon and Elk Grove that are quarantined on account of diphtheria. In the family at Elk Grove, five members are down with the disease, and another nurse is needed, there being no money to employ one. The neighbors had requested him to bring the matter before the board.

On motion, the Supervisor for the district (Jenkins) was authorized to take the necessary action.

The other families, Mr. Springstead reported, are convalescent and will soon be out of quarantine.

PURIM FESTIVAL.

Entertainment for the Hebrew Sabbath-School Pupils.

Pythian Hall was crowded to its utmost seating capacity last night, the attraction being the annual Purim festival given to the children of the Hebrew Sabbath-school by the Ladies' Auxiliary Society.

The little people who took part in the exercises showed every evidence of careful training, and every number was creditably rendered and elicited rounds of applause.

The reproduction of the slow and stately minuet, as it was danced in 17th century days, caught the fancy of all present, and the costumes of 70 and the powdered wigs showed well under the calcium lights thrown on the stage.

The flag drill, kindergarten class; "Esther," a recitation, Fredricka Ross; piano solo, Albert L. Eikes; "The Spider and the Fly," Corinne Simmons; and Jeanette Berk; "Mortgaging the Farm," five children; "The Irish Washerwoman's Dance," Birdie Blum; "My Little Dutch Girl," Myrtle Nathan; "Aunt Sophronia at the Opera," Phoebe Litzberg; the "minuet," sixteen children; cake walk, Carrie Salomon and Esther Nathan; fancy dance, Blanche Nathan; scenes from Jewish life, six tableaux; fancy dance, Olga Nathan; "America," classes.

RELEASE REFUSED.

Pilkington's Habeas Corpus Effort Failed to Pan Out Well.

Howard Pilkington's petition for his release from jail was heard by Judge Johnson yesterday, under the writ of habeas corpus issued a few days since, with the result that Pilkington was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

The point on which Attorney C. C. Catlin and C. J. Newman relied to secure the release of their client was that he was not guilty of felony embezzlement, as charged. They contended that at no one time did he take a sum sufficient to constitute a felony, and that if guilty of anything it was misdemeanor embezzlement.

Judge Johnson held, however, that the evidence given at the preliminary examination warranted the higher charge. Pilkington was a collector, and was accused by George B. Stack of having fleeced him of a considerable sum.

THE OCCIDENTAL.

Another Building and Loan Association Gets Into Court.

It was thought that the Occidental Building and Loan Association would be able to avert the fate of the Union association and eventually pull out of the rather tight place in which it had found itself.

But the State Building and Loan Commissioners do not intend that it shall continue in business if they can prevent it. Yesterday the papers were filed in the Superior Court in an action brought by them, through the Attorney-General, to enjoin the Occidental association from continuing to do business, on the ground that it is insolvent.

Judge Johnson made an order citing the Trustees of the association to appear in court on the 20th of this month and show cause why the affairs of the association should not be wound up.

A DIXON MYSTERY.

An Old Man Named William Wetzel Found Dead.

William Wetzel, an elderly man, who made his living doing odd jobs of work at Dixon, Solano County, was found dead in his cabin in that town on Sunday.

He was sitting in a chair when found, and had been dead for several days. The average temperature was 58 and the normal 54, showing yesterday to have been four degrees warmer than usual for the 7th day of March.

A STOCKING IN THE RIVER.

WHERE CLEMENTS' CACHED McCRAVEY'S MONEY.

His Daughter Told Chief Dwyer, and Some of the Stolen Money Was Found.

On Tuesday last $250 belonging to Henry A. McCraeve, clerk in the office of the Supreme Court, was found in the vault of the building, was taken from the office vault. As stated in the "Record-Union," Mr. McCraeve notified Chief of Police Dwyer of his loss, and the latter caused the arrest of Tony Clements, a negro ex-convict, on suspicion of having committed the theft.

When arrested Clements had but 65 cents in his pocket, but Chief Dwyer nevertheless felt positive he had the right man, and went to work on the case with a determination to sift it to the bottom. The result of the matter is that $180 of the vanished coin has been recovered. Mr. McCraeve is smiling. Clements will probably do another turn behind the bars, and Chief Dwyer is modest.

Isiah Williams is porter in the Supreme Court clerk's office, and his wife is Clements' daughter, and while nobody really suspects Williams of having the money, he has an enviable reputation for honesty—Chief Dwyer allowed Mrs. Williams to believe that her husband was under suspicion and would be arrested if the money was not found. On the other hand, he allowed Clements to believe that he had committed the theft, and yesterday father and daughter expressed a desire to see one another.

Chief Dwyer accordingly brought them together in a cell and left them to talk matters over. When they were finally separated Mrs. Williams made a statement as coming from Clements which was taken down in full, and which proved to be correct.

Clements told his daughter that he stole the money. He was in the Supreme Court clerk's office when the vault was open, and seeing a tin box therein, opened it with a hatchet and appropriated the contents.

He told her that he had placed the money in an old cotton stocking, to which he had attached a wire, and had then sunk it in the river near the foot of M street, tying the end of the wire to a stake which he first drove just under the water line. He also told her that he had left an old boathook hanging in a tree near where the coin was deposited, and all these things the woman told to Chief Dwyer, showing that she had more love for her husband than for her worthless father.

After the story had been told Chief Dwyer detailed Officer Fisher to investigate the truth or falsity of Clements' statement, and accompanied by the woman, the officer went to the point indicated. After some search the boathook was found in the tree, and a few grapplings brought up the wire, to the end of which was attached the stocking which held McCraeve's money—not in silver, as might be expected, but in $20 gold pieces. A number of boys were fishing near the wire, and might at any time have caught a bigger fish than they expected. In drawing in the wire Fisher narrowly escaped a ducking.

And so it happens that, while Mr. McCraeve smiles, things look rather blue for Tony Clements, who will be charged with burglary.

ROBBED A WOMAN.

But the Thief Was Quickly Overhauled Near the Depot.

Frank Bennett, solicitor for the Sacramento County, who runs on the trains between the city and Davisville, aided by one of the car-cleavers at the depot landed in jail last evening a young fellow who had stolen the purse of a woman who came in on the 10 o'clock train from San Francisco.

The woman had the papers in her bag, and in her haste to leave the car on its arrival at the depot she left or dropped her purse on the seat. She had reached the platform of the car before she discovered her loss, and immediately returned to the car, but the thief had been seen.

Mr. Bennett's attention had been called to the matter and the car-cleaver pointed out to him a youth who was making his way rapidly from the depot as the person who had picked up something from the seat the woman had occupied.

Bennett and the car cleaner followed the man and soon overtook him, and Bennett asked him what he had done with the woman's purse. The fellow denied any knowledge of the purse, but his captors laid hold of him and took him back toward the depot. They were met by Special Officer Hickey, to whom the prisoner was turned over.

Bennett, who was watching him closely, saw him fumbling in his coat pocket and then make a motion as if throwing something away. He made a search near the nursery fence and found the purse where the prisoner had thrown it. The woman identified the purse as hers, but thought it had contained $3.25; only 21 cents was in it when found.

The prisoner said all the money he had was about $3 of his own. The woman described the contents of the purse as having consisted of $2.50 in half dollars, two quarters, two dimes and two pennies. The money in prisoner's pocket was just $3, and it fitted exactly with the pieces described by the woman. There was yet a penny unaccounted for, but that was found near where the purse had been thrown.

Looks Blue for Sports. District Attorney Hopkins of Yolo County has prepared a weekly submit to the Supervisors an anti-gaming ordinance of a very stringent character. And what is more, it is said the Supervisors will surely pass it, and that the Sheriff will enforce it.

OLD SOLDIERS. Official Recognition of Their Letter to the Governor. The communication recently sent to the Governor by the veterans of Warren Post, No. 58, Grand Army of the Republic, petitioning that fifty muskets, etc., be lent them in order that they might brush up on the manual of arms, in anticipation of trouble with Spain, was referred to Adjutant-General Barrett.

Governor, has been referred to this office for reply, and I will call the Adjutant-General's attention to the same, as also to your request for the loan of fifty muskets, cartridge-boxes, canteens and haversacks on his return to this city.

"The lofty expression of patriotism emanating from those in years and experience, and the inspiration to excite kindred sentiments in the minds of the young men of the nation, and generates in them a more loyal love of our country and flag. Very respectfully, "R. L. PEELER, "Assistant Adjutant-General."

ROUND-UP OF VAGRANTS.

Several of Them Sent to Jail for Seventy Days. James Black, Joseph McDonald, A. B. Davis, M. Breed, William Smith and Edwin Jones all stood up before Justice Davis yesterday morning and admitted that they were vagrants, and were sentenced to seventy days in the county jail, on condition that they make statements, but were informed by the Justice that such a proceeding was unnecessary, as he had known them personally for many moons.

There was no discrimination shown in the sentences imposed, and each of the six will have to do the county rock-crushing plant for the next seventy days.

The cases of John Green and "Kid" Flood, charged with vagrancy, were continued until this morning, as was also that of "Chick" Frost, the negro who a week ago was released from the Folsom Prison, where he had served a term for robbery committed in this city.

Jackson. The hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Fraser, and Miss Jennie Miller, served dainty refreshments, and all enjoyed a social time.

A very quiet wedding took place on Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Jefford, the contracting parties being John Laffer and Miss Jessie Holeman, both of this city. Rev. Mr. Fisher of Calvary Baptist Church officiated. Only relatives of the bride and groom were present.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N.Y.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Orpheum management has made a complete change this week—from Louisville it has gone clear over to farce comedy for a week's change. "Town Topics" was the play last night, and will be every evening this week, closing Saturday night. The audience last night was large and evidently well pleased, judging by the applause and laughter. In one instance the encores were so many that the specialists had to beg off, amidst great laughter. "Town Topics" is a rattling farce comedy of the most extravagant order. Its satire resides in its going to such extremes in burlesquing the country greenhorn taken in by the city sharpers. His adventures in the metropolis are absurd and ridiculous, and "no end funny." World is the most extravagant "Tramp" specialist on the stage, and Keller is the best natured greenhorn imaginable. Mack is a typical sharper, with the lines so extravagantly drawn that one laughs out of a sense of the absurdity of laughing at all. Miss Leslie is a clever bull and character singer, and Miss Phillips is both a singer and dancer. The women of the piece are comely and lively, and the Dutch character by Graham is an excellent burlesque. The farce is full of dancing, singing, high-kicking, novel specialty acts, burlesques on the Bowery drama,coon songs, choruses, jokes, witticisms, local hits and so on. The company is one of the best of its order, and its leading comedians, Mack, Keller and World, have few equals in their line. To-night the members of the Chamber of Commerce attend out of compliment to the Orpheum management. They have taken 300 seats already, but as the house holds 1,400 people there is room in plenty left, and choice seats in all parts of the house can be had.

Whistles Are Not the Thing.

A great many bicyclists in the city, instead of carrying bells, have police whistles, which they blow at street crossings. The practice, Chief Dwyer says, is confusing to the policeman, who are unable to tell whether or not their services are required. He suggests that wheelmen obey the law and procure bells or lamps.

Paralyzed at the Bay.

John Bryan, formerly employed in a liquor house in this city, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis in San Francisco.

An Officer Suspended.

The Coast Defenses.

One half the number of improved cannon, mortars and emplacements will be located and placed in suitable position on the expiration of 1898. The Artillery Board is constantly making practical surveys, as far as these relate to the necessity of the establishment of adequate military protection of our seaboard. Frequently urged upon the Government by the Chambers of Commerce of our maritime cities, is requiring a strong reinforcement from this source. Meanwhile there is a means of defense from greater physical calamity which no one officer should neglect, and that is the use of Hooper's Stomach Bitters, which by restoring the tone of the nerves and stomach invigorates the entire system. It also remedies and prevents malarial, kidney and rheumatic ailments, and cures biliousness and constipation. It is a capital appetizer and a sound restorative. Those who have been cured by it speak in unison of its effectiveness and its effectiveness as a medicinal stimulant.

We've mentioned them before—those new Axminster carpetings at $1.15, sewed and laid. They are close, high pile carpets with colorings that go clear through and the patterns will not leave them till the goods are entirely worn through. The tones are the very newest with five-eighths borders to match.
