

A NOTABLE REUNION.

REMINISCENCE OF THE OLD SACRAMENTO SEMINARY.

Reception to Mrs. Hermon Perry of Chicago by Her Former Pupils.

In 1863 Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Perry established in the city of Sacramento an institution of learning for young ladies, entitled the Sacramento Young Ladies' Seminary. This was one of the pioneer educational institutions of the State. A settlement of the State may be said to date from 1850, and at the time of the founding of the Sacramento Young Ladies' Seminary there were but few institutions of its kind west of the Rocky Mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Perry were people of high educational attainment. The school they founded is the alma mater of some of the brightest women of California.

About four hundred of the former pupils of this institution will give Mrs. Perry a reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mills, San Francisco, on the 7th inst. Mrs. Mills was a member of the first graduating class. Her colleagues were Mrs. R. C. Woodworth and Mrs. Anna Smith of this city. Each succeeding year during the continuation of the school had its graduating class. Graduates and sub-graduates are anxious to do honor to their former teacher. The large school building on the south side of I street, between Tenth and Eleventh, was built by Mr. and Mrs. Perry and the Young Ladies' Seminary occupied it for many years.

The choice of the place for the reception to Mrs. Perry, who now resides in Chicago, was the result of accident rather than design. The lady decided to visit her old home in California and the scenes of her former labors, as the guest of Mrs. Mills. The former pupils of the school learned of her coming. It was the suggestion of affection and respectful regard that her return to the State after an absence of many years should be signified by some demonstration which would carry joy to the heart of the venerable educator. Communicating with each other, committees were formed in this vicinity and from the vicinity of Dixon, Woodland and other portions of the interior of the State will attend. It was ascertained that more than forty ladies, who as young ladies received their education at the Sacramento Young Ladies' Seminary, are residents of Oakland and San Francisco. These have constituted themselves a general central committee and have opened correspondence with their former schoolmates. They are found to be distributed throughout the Pacific Coast. Many of them are advanced in years, and many of them rejoice in the appellation of grandmother. The high estimation in which the venerable educator is held is attested by the fact that every pupil who at any time enjoyed the educational advantages of the Young Ladies' Seminary and came within the refined, intellectual, moral and religious influence of its venerable principal has manifested the warmest regard for Mrs. Perry and will be present either by congratulatory letter or in person.

The occasion promises to be a very unusual, even unique, affair. Those who reside at a distance convenient for attendance upon the reception will be accompanied by their husbands and children. Already over seventy families have signified their intention of paying their respects to their former principal. The hours of the reception are from 1 to 6 o'clock Saturday, May 7th. As this occasion is reminiscent of a local institution of Sacramento, the names of those who have signified their pleasure at the prospect of a reunion with their former teacher are given below. The middle name is the name of the young lady before marriage:

TWO SACRAMENTANS.

They Were on the Olympia During the Manila Fight.

Sacramento was represented in the naval battle in Manila harbor on Sunday between Admiral Dewey's squadron and the Spanish war vessels and shore batteries. Arthur Tyler and Peter Morgan, members of the crew of Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, formerly played in the First Artillery Band of this city (now the Second Infantry Band), of which C. A. Neale is leader. They were then in the railroad company's employ, but went out on the disastrous strike of June, 1894. They "stood pat," under the advice of Knox and other leaders, and had to seek employment elsewhere. Tyler and Morgan finally secured positions in the band on board the warship Baltimore, but were transferred to the Olympia just before the latter left the coast to join the Asiatic squadron. Tyler has a wife and daughter still residing here.

Letters received from the men recently stated that they were expecting to soon take a leave to the impending struggle between the United States and Spain, and that they were looking for a hot time in the Philippine Islands. It was probably a little hotter there on Sunday than even the more enthusiastic of Dewey's men had anticipated, and in the years to come they will have most interesting and thrilling tales to tell of the liveliest naval battle of recent years.

Sacramento also has a representative on board the battleship Oregon, now nearing Key West after a remarkable voyage from San Francisco around "the Horn," in the person of Cyrus Miller, son of Frank Miller of the D. O. Mills & Co.'s Bank. Young Miller is a recent graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, where he stood very high in his class. It is only a few weeks since he visited his relatives here, just prior to the Oregon's departure. If another naval battle should be necessary to thoroughly convince the Spaniards that they are not in the same class with the United States, the Oregon will be in the midst of the fray.

SNAP-SHOTS.

Interesting Batch of Photographs Taken in Alaska.

T. N. Koenig of this city is in receipt of a dozen photographs of Lake Bennett and vicinity, taken by his friend, Samuel Phillips, who left for the northern gold fields in February last. The lake lies just over the Chilkoot Pass, and that Mr. Phillips had an eye for effect is proven by the interesting subjects he has reproduced. One scene represents a stack of provisions—not a large stack, either—and on the back of the card is this legend: "It cost $4,000 to get this grub to the lake."

Others of the pictures represent scenes on the lake and in the back of the entire lot are both interesting and valuable as mementoes.

AN L-STREET QUARTET.

Three Women and One Man Taken in For Vagrancy.

Officers Penning and Bailey yesterday took Laura Haver, May Miles, Miss Gaynor and John D. Lee away from the blandishments and temptations of lower L street and landed them in the city prison, and they will be called on to answer to charges of vagrancy. The Miles woman has been under police surveillance for some time, and twice within the past week has been accused of relieving white men who called on her of their ready change.

On March 28th J. C. Tovey, an old gentleman whose home is at Red Bluff, complained to the police that the woman took $70 from his pocket, and on Sunday last John Thomas reported that he had been relieved of $26. Thomas' story, however, was slightly mixed, and the amount of his loss ran the gamut from $6 to $26.

The Gaynor woman is said by the police to have been the bosom friend of May Miles. Laura Haver is well known to the police. All the women are negroes. Lee was, it is said, living with the Miles woman. The police department evidently believes that six months in jail for each of the parties named would benefit the community.

Don Ray has petitioned the Superior Court for letters of administration on the estate of Ephraim Ray, deceased. The estate consists of lots in Galt valued at $2,150; 200 acres of land in San Joaquin County, valued at $1,000; money, checks, notes, etc., amounting to $12,703.

International Arbitration.

At the Geneva Conference to arrange international disputes, there was strenuous advocacy on the part of the United States of the "Power" favor of the settlement of national differences as to boundaries, port charges, duties, fisheries and other matters not by an international court and not by the bloody arbitrament of war. The "Power" has died out of men's minds, but there is a theme of comment, and that always of a favorable nature, which is being talked about, and that is the incomparably fine effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in cases of dyspepsia. Nor does the world and his wife comment less favorably upon the excellent effects of the Bitters in cases of cholera and fever, rheumatism, nervous and kidney complaints and constipation.
