

HONOR THE NATION'S HEROES

ARRANGEMENTS FOR MEMORIAL DAY PARADE.

Oration by G. W. Arbuckle—Exercises at the City Cemetery.

The flashing of flags and the mustering of troops to fight the nation's battles will add to the impressiveness of the Memorial Day exercises which will be held in this city to-morrow.

As has been the case ever since the close of the war, the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, assisted by the ladies' auxiliary organizations, will hold the usual impressive ceremonies in memory of those men who walked in the shadow of the flag during the days of the Civil War, and who have been called to their reward.

At a recent meeting of the Memorial Day Committee all arrangements were completed, and the veterans will line up and march to the cemetery as in years gone by, and there, after listening to an address appropriate to the occasion, they will bedeck the graves of the warriors who have laid down their arms and their lives with beautiful flowers.

The committee selected as Marshal J. C. Carroll, who has appointed the following aids: J. S. Jones (chief), W. H. H. Wiley, John Measure, Harry M. Carroll, W. L. Larkin, E. C. Jordan and George Burnett.

The parade will form on I street, the right resting on Seventh, and the start will be made at 1:30 p. m. The line of march will be on Seventh to J. down J to Third, on Third to K, up K to Tenth, and thence to the cemetery.

The entire police force will lead the procession, after which will ride the Grand Marshal and his aids. The first division will be led by Colonel J. W. Guthrie and staff of the Second Infantry, N. G. Co., and will consist of the Second Infantry Band, C. A. Neale leader, and Company G, Second Infantry, Captain John Zittinger, commanding. Company G will turn out its full force of over one hundred men.

The second division will be led by the Sacramento Institute Band, and will be composed of Sumner Post, No. 3, Grand Army of the Republic, Frank Miller, Commander; Warren Post, No. 54, Grand Army of the Republic, L. S. Geitner, Commander; President of the Day, H. Moore; Orator, G. W. Arbuckle; and Chaplain Rabbi Simon, in a carriage; Sumner Relief Corps; Fair Oaks Relief Corps, and Edward Roby Circle, No. 2. Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Uniformed Rank Knights of Pythias, city and county officials and invited guests will be in the third division.

The services will be held in Masonic Grove in the southern part of the cemetery, and the programme will be as follows: President of the Day, H. Moore; music by Second Regiment Band; prayer, Rabbi Simon; song, "Star-Spangled Banner," by chorus; recitation, "Our Heroes," Lillie Byrne; extracts from Lincoln's address at Gettysburg, by E. F. Lewis; music by band; oration by G. W. Arbuckle; song, "Decoration Day," by chorus; music by band; recitation of Lincoln's favorite poem, by Colonel C. Kellogg; song, "America."

The Ladies of the Grand Army and of the Relief Corps will lead in the Hall all day to-day, and request that all persons who have flowers for decoration purposes will send them in. In case persons have flowers to donate, but no way to get them to the hall, the ladies will, if notified, undertake to send for them.

The Orator of the Day, G. W. Arbuckle, is well and favorably known as an eloquent man. He is Past Post Commander of California, Cass Post, No. 46, San Francisco. He has held Eastern positions in the Grand Army of the Republic, and is an effective speaker, and has delivered Memorial Day addresses at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland, Soldiers' Home at Santa Monica, and in the East, and is thoroughly familiar with Grand Army work in all its branches, and is the commander-in-chief.

The aids to the Grand Marshal will meet at Foresters' Hall at 1:30 p. m. to-day, to make final arrangements for the big parade.

A CALIFORNIA GIRL.

One of the winners in a Massachusetts Elocutionary Contest.

The following, from the "Republican" of Everett, Mass., shows that our California girls are at the front and need fear nothing in competition with their Eastern sisters.

said that 42 per cent of the taxes of Everett went to the support of the public schools, and the work of the contestants on this occasion showed it to be the best investment we have. This was the last contest of the series; so for some time to come the Winslow School must be conceded to have the best speakers of the Ninth Grade in the city. Thursday morning the teachers and scholars celebrated their victory by forming in line, with the two victors at the head, preceded by a drum, and marched round the school house, saluting the flag, and a hollow square saluted the flag, and gave three cheers for the Winslow School. During the forenoon refreshments were served. Miss Elder, the Principal, is justly proud of her pupils. A note of congratulation was received from the Warren School.

CHESS NEWS.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.

Sacramento Grange Members Have a Picnic.

Sacramento Grange held its annual strawberry festival yesterday afternoon and conferred degrees on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lufkin, Grace Klotz and Nellie Miller.

A large attendance showed appreciation of the order, and notwithstanding "the farmer feeds them all" there were no sad faces and no reprimands, and the table was bountifully supplied with all the substantial, as well as strawberries, cakes, ice-cream, etc.

After an hour had been spent in renewing old acquaintances and welcoming the guests from sister granges, the following literary programme was presented:

Song by the Grange; address, Mr. Lewis of Elk Grove; piano solo, Mrs. Williams; address, "The Three Greatest Necessities of This Life—Sound, Equilibrium and Digestion," Daniel Flint; vocal solo, Miss G. Wilcox; recitation, Percy Grant; address, Brother Coriell of American River Grange; piano, Mr. Stuckey; reading, Miss Etta Cornell.

Then followed a conundrum contest in which Miss Effie Stillson and Julius Harris carried off the highest honors.

DESERVED PROMOTION.

Lieut. Martin Now a Captain in The Signal Service.

Lieutenant Fred L. Martin of the Sacramento Signal Corps has been appointed a Captain in the volunteer army by President McKinley.

This is an honor to a deserving officer, the more so as he is the only Captain selected so far from California in the Signal Service, and his many friends hereabouts will be glad to learn of his selection.

It is probable that Captain Martin will leave for Manila with the next expedition.

AMUSEMENTS.

The final performance of the Flying Ballet and the musical, humorous, gymnastic, acrobatic, terpsichorean and other variety performers, will be given at the Orpheum this afternoon at 2 and to-night at 8:15. The Orpheum will then close for a season.

Real Estate Transactions.

The following real estate transactions have been recorded since our last report:

M. J. Curtis et ux. to L. P. Dickson—Lot 26, Curtis and Bowley tract.

F. S. George to Frank Depolster—South half of lots 5 and 6 in block bounded by F. G. Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets. To correct error in former deed.

Estate of C. N. Hartwell to W. D. Stalker—Undivided one-third interest in firm of Hartwell, Hotchkiss & Stalker; undivided one-third of lot 4, P and Q and First and Second streets; lot 1, north 37 1/2 feet and south 22 feet of lot Q and R and First and Second streets; $1,000.

Cyrus Towle et ux. to J. J. Buckley—East half of southeast quarter of section 35, township 8 north, range 5 east. J. J. Buckley to Annie M. Towle—Same as above deed.

Visitors From Chattanooga. A. L. Ross, a prominent member of the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce and proprietor of a large hotel there, is visiting the city, accompanied by his wife, daughter and son. They are stopping at the Western Hotel.

Mr. Ross has been favorably impressed with this portion of California, and might not be averse to investing here if the good opinion he has formed should be sustained.

To-Day's Picnic.

At East Park to-day the Irish Nationalists will hold their fourteenth annual picnic, under the auspices of the Robert Emmet Club. Good weather is assured and plenty of enjoyment.

Hermann's-Sons' Excursion.

The excursion train for Woodland, where the Order of Hermann's-Sons is to hold a mammoth picnic to-day, leaves the city at 8:30 o'clock this morning. A fine time is promised.

To be Kept in Standing.

Capital Council, No. 11, Y. M. I., has voted to keep every member who enters the army to serve in the present Spanish-American war in good standing as long as the war lasts.

Concert at Oak Park.

Weather permitting, an open air concert will be given at Oak Park Sunday afternoon.

RED CROSS SOCIETY WORK.

SUBSCRIPTIONS COMING IN VERY FREELY.

Ladies of Baptist Church Will Keep the Metropolitan Booth Open To-Morrow.

The Red Cross Society directors held a meeting yesterday and transacted considerable business.

The ladies of the Entertainment Committee are very enthusiastic, and are planning and making arrangements for a fine entertainment to be given some time in the latter part of June, the date for which has not yet been set.

The Sewing Circle was busy at headquarters, and all the commodities are full of business. The badges have been delayed somewhat on account of the demand for them in the East and the orders that have precedence over those from here, but the society will soon be able to distribute them.

The ladies of the First Baptist Church opened their attractive booth in the vestibule of the Metropolitan Theatre yesterday and kept it open during the day and evening, furnishing coffee and sandwiches and ice cream and cake, the receipts going to the Red Cross Society. They were very successful, and while many came during the day, the tables were well filled all evening.

They received an unexpected addition to their exchequer yesterday afternoon. Two Japanese came in and said they did not wish for anything to eat, but wished to contribute some money. They informed the ladies that if some of them would call at their store on K street, near Ninth, at 4 o'clock they would be glad to make a donation to the fund.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

Marysville Delegates to the State League Convention.

The Marysville Republican Club has selected the following delegates to attend the State Convention of Republican Clubs: W. M. Cutter (at large), E. A. Forbes, Richard Belcher, M. E. Sanborn, A. H. Hewett, L. J. Cope, A. C. McLaughlin, H. B. P. Carden, Charles Hammond.

The headquarters of the Sacramento delegation will be at the Baldwin Hotel. Secretary C. H. Holmes will be in attendance after 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon to receive delegates from the Second Congressional District.

Delegates will meet at the headquarters at 11 a. m. on Tuesday.

WANTS TO FIGHT.

Ex-Congressman Caminetti Would Accept a Commission.

It is stated on good authority that ex-Congressman Caminetti will enter the volunteer service. He went to San Francisco yesterday and stated that while there would offer his services to the Governor, who, it is thought, make him a commissioned officer.

Mr. Caminetti speaks the Spanish language with remarkable fluency, and either in Cuba or Manila his services would probably be appreciated. He is at present one of the three State Code Commissioners.
