COMMUTATION OF WORDEN.

GOVERNOR BUDD TAKES OFFICIAL ACTION.

His Reasons for His Action Fully Given in the Order Made Yesterday.

Governor Budd yesterday issued his formal commutation of the sentence of trainwrecker Salter D. Worden from death to life imprisonment.

On Wednesday last, the Governor made known the fact that the sentence would be commuted, and notified Warden Aull of the Folsom Prison to stop preparations for his execution. As a consequence Worden was on Thursday last given the freedom of the prison yard, in common with other convicts.

The Governor, in commuting Worden's sentence, shifts the responsibility to the shoulders of the medical experts appointed by him to investigate the sanity of the condemned man. The report of the experts and the recommendation that the sentence be commuted (all of which was published in the "Record-Union" early in the week) were appended to and made a part of the commutation proclamation.

The full text of the Governor's order and proclamation reads:

"Whereas, In the month of October, 1894, at a regular session of the Superior Court, held in Yolo County, S. D. Worden was tried and convicted of the crime of murder and sentenced to be executed on the 12th day of February, 1895; and

"Whereas, His said sentence has heretofore been fully reprieved until the 17th day of June, 1898; and

"Whereas, It has been claimed that the said S. D. Worden is and was mentally unsound and not fully responsible for his acts; and

"Whereas, On the 17th day of January, 1898, I did appoint Dr. A. M. Gardner, Dr. F. W. Hatch and Dr. Asa Clark, three of our ablest and most noted specialists in mental diseases, each having had many years' experience in the management and control of people of unsound mind, and each having been for years in control of a State hospital for the insane; and

"Whereas, The said specialists, Dr. A. M. Gardner, Dr. F. W. Hatch and Dr. Asa Clark, after a full and careful consideration thereof, report the facts and their conclusions, together with their recommendation to the Governor of this State for his action thereon; and

"Whereas, Said specialists did unanimously recommend that the sentence of said Worden be commuted to life imprisonment;

"Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in me vested by the Constitution and laws of this State, the report and recommendation of said specialists, which are hereto attached, hereby referred to and made a part hereof, and of other facts supporting the same, I, James H. Budd, Governor of the State of California, do hereby commute the sentence of said Salter D. Worden from death to imprisonment in the State Prison for the term of his natural life."
