

HAMBURG AN EASY WINNER.

Carries Off the Realization Stakes at Sheephead Bay.

Comes Under the Wire in a Mere Gallop, With Plaudit Second.

Decapod First in the Grand National Steeplechase, but Disqualified, Trillion Taking First Money—Results at Latonia, St. Louis and Washington Park.

NEW YORK, July 4.—The usual large holiday crowd made its appearance at Sheephead Bay to-day, and although the thunderstorms followed each other somewhat too rapidly for comfort, they saw something in the sport. The chief event of the day was the Realization stakes for three-year-olds at a mile and a furlong. Hamburg was the favorite, while Plaudit, the winner of many Western races, was a strong second choice, and The Huguenot was third choice.

The race was run in a pouring rain, amid the crashes of thunder and almost constant lightning. They got away well, with The Huguenot in front. He maintained his lead through the first mile, and then Hamburg rushed past, and as they rounded the lower turn he was able to make as wide as he pleased. When they were straightened out on the backstretch Hamburg was five lengths in front, and going easily, while Plaudit and The Huguenot were struggling in the rear for the place.

After a mile and a quarter had been run it could be seen that the mighty son of Hanover was playing with the others. From that point on Sloan took a steady pull on Hamburg, and won easily by a length, merely galloping at the end. Plaudit was fifteen lengths ahead of George Boyd. Results:

Talk of War!

How does it find you? Are you prepared to face danger? Are your nerves strong enough to carry you through the perils of battle? These are times that try the nerves, and few men are prepared to meet the emergency. The results of early mistakes and excesses are evident in the relaxed state of the nerves. They need bracing; they lack the snap and vim of youth.

A GREAT BOOK FOR MEN.

Dr. Sanden, inventor of the famous nerve builder, Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt, has written a book, which he calls "Three Classes of Men," devoted to the weaknesses of men. If you would be a strong man you should read it. Dr. Sanden will send it free upon request. It gives proof of the great work Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt is doing. Your happiness depends upon your strength of nerve, so get this book at once. Direct DR. A. T. SANDEN, 702 Market Street, corner Kearny, San Francisco, Cal.
