OAK PARKERS. The Sutter Republican Club Had a Lively Meeting.

There are two Republican clubs at Oak Park, and their promoters are attempting to have them joined, giving as a reason that the village is only large enough for one live, wideawake organization.

The meeting, high jinks and social dance given by the Sutter District Club at Steen's Hall last night, drew out a large and enthusiastic crowd, many of whom were women. Excellent music had been provided, and there were speakers galore, all of whom urged their auditors to stand by the old party and ratify the acts of President McKinley and his Administration.

The Kohler & Chase trio, mandolin and piano, composed of P. P. Johnston, G. A. Anderson and F. Kauffmann, rendered several charming selections, which were applauded to the echo.

Quite a number of Sacramento people were present as participators and spectators, and when the speeches had all been spoken and refreshments served the hall was closed and Republicans Democrats, and it is said, a few Populists danced until a late hour, and succeeded in having a good time.

Among the speakers of the evening were Frank T. Johnson, J. F. Calderwood, C. T. Jones, D. J. Dillon, Harry G. Soule, C. W. Baker and John E. Sullivan.

THE WEEKLY UNION—THE BEST weekly on the coast. Only $1 a year.

Sacramento, Sunday, 31 July, 1898. Beginning to-morrow (Monday) and lasting until Saturday, 6 p. m., we shall hold what we call, and what you will call, quite an odd event. We never have annual and semi-annual clearance sales; as soon as a line of goods becomes slightly passe we immediately put a quick good-by price upon them and out they go.

But August is generally a dull month, and to prevent its being so this year, we've decided to open with a sale—a big sale—a sale that will bring you from your homes in dozens—even with the thermometer at the boiling point. Of course the inducements must be great—and so they shall be; every department will make extraordinary price concessions to win a visit from you this week.

For lack of a better name we have called this bargain week "American Week"—but what better name could we have chosen? Peace negotiations are in progress and war is nearly at an end—America has won. What more fitting than that we should celebrate the national victory by a monster value giving sale of merchandise? Below are a few of the items; others there are, too numerous to mention here.
