

HIGH JINKS LAST NIGHT.

EIGHTH WARD REPUBLICAN CLUB.

A Very Large Attendance and Many Good Speakers Were Present.

The Eighth Ward Republican Club held a high jinks last night at Shear's Hall, at Twentieth and G streets, and the hall was packed, a general invitation having been issued and refreshments served free to all, besides the many good speakers and the musical entertainment given in the evening.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Thomas James, and W. A. Anderson was called on first, and made one of his old-time, characteristic addresses, waking up the audience, as a starter.

There, Mr. Johnson made a rattling speech, in which he recalled the fact that in former days that portion of the city gave a large Republican vote, and he appealed to them to take united action, and turning out on election day, give a rousing majority for the Republican ticket. If there were rivalries over the nominations in convention, he asked them after the primaries to take the sponge of forgetfulness and pass it over their memories and pull together for the success of the ticket.

Deputy Attorney General C. H. Jackson was called on next, and told the assembly what the people did not want for a Governor, a man of the type of wild-eyed theorist, who wants all the taxes laid on land. They do not want a man who for three years has misrepresented California and opposed the annexation of Hawaii. They do not want the product of the sand lot and Kearnism, which is next thing to anarchy. They had had inflicted on them the man who stole the election from Estee, and that was infliction enough. The Republican party is the one that will bring prosperity to the nation.

Archy Christopher then sang "Honey, You're the Warmest Girl in Town," amid great applause, and was encored. Emmet Phillips, being called on, made a humorous address, in which he pointed a moral with a funny story. He claimed that the Republican party is the greatest one of the day, and the party of the people. The Governor of this State occupies a most important office. The present one has displayed his anarchistic tendencies by closing one of the greatest of the State institutions and set men adrift on the streets. He has allied himself with the enemies of the late text-book system, and done great injury to the interests of the State.

The Quartet Club of '98 then gave a couple of excellent selections, being encored. Hon. J. C. Brusie spoke next, advertising to the success that must follow the organization of all the clubs in this city and the thorough preparation made before a primary or convention had been held or a man nominated for office. This work has been done for the purpose of indorsing the war policy of President McKinley. The rank and file of the party are the ones to win the victory, and the leaders should do nothing without them. There will be important issues, and the party will meet them. The acquisition of the Philippines means much to this coast, and the spirit of opposition to it must not be allowed to prevail. A message must be sent to McKinley that the people of California favor annexation, and it must also be sent to the nations of the world to let them know that we mean to have it.

C. W. Baker was the next speaker, and prophesied that the party would this fall redeem its defeat in the county two years ago. There are many Democrats here, he said, who are joining the clubs throughout the city. The Republican party is one of progress and will deal with the new issues that are springing up. This State should send up a large majority to show McKinley that his course is indorsed.

C. T. Jones said that the fact that the clubs all over the city are increasing shows that it is a Republican year. No such enthusiasm has ever been witnessed, and it is a good sign. The Democrats and Populists will fuse and endeavor to win the victory, but it will be of no use. If there ever was a time that men should be Republicans, it is this year. John E. Sullivan was called on next, and said the attendance on this hot night convinced him that the Eighth Ward was alive to the issues of the day. He pointed out the benefits that have been derived in the past by the organization of clubs, and hoped that all would unite, regardless of their political opinions, to indorse the course of President McKinley.

The Club of '98 then gave some good selections. Frank T. Johnson was called on next and congratulated the club for its success and the constant accession of members to its ranks. He felt certain that it would be one of the foremost in the ranks of battle.

Assessor Berkeley spoke of his efforts toward the organization of the club, but said that it was a hot night and getting late. He believed in organization, which is a great factor of success. All the parties of the State are working for what they consider the right, but he had no fear but that the Republican party would win the victory, for McKinley is its leader. Hicks made very brief remarks, on account of the lateness of the hour, and the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the party.

DEER PARK INN.

Notes From That Delightful Resort Near Tahoe.

"J. S. L." writing to the "Record-Union" from Deer Park Inn, between Truckee and Lake Tahoe, says: "If anything can be more beautiful than a day in June it is a day when summer is in the full tide of bloom and the soft clouds, borne on the wings of the gentle west wind, rise white and passionate to the zenith, diminishing and disappearing in the deep, friendly blue that seems to arch so near above the granite crests of the Sierras.

"Of such days this week been made at Deer Park Inn. Sometimes a patch of density has flung the cloud-gray, and we have asked of each other, 'Shall we have rain, think?' And once, after darkness had fallen from the wings of night, we heard the gentle music of the raindrops pattering softly on the dusty bosom of mother earth, and behold! in the morning the forest stood 'dressed in living green.' "Many guests are finding health, rest and pleasure at the picturesque inn, and many more are booked for future arrival.

"F. A. Pudan and his family are here. Mrs. E. B. Purnell is gathering a store of strength and inspiration for the instructive work of the winter.

"W. O. H. Martin, long-time resident of Reno, and a banker of that city, is at the inn with his large and charming family.

"Dr. and Mrs. John A. Lewis are enjoying their vacation greatly.

"Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morris of San Francisco are among the delightful (and delighted) guests. Miss Alzaida Morris is a young lady of many attractions and accomplishments.

"Judge R. H. F. Variel of Los Angeles and his charming wife and daughter are established favorites among the guests.

"Mrs. A. J. Harrell and family of Visalia are among the recent arrivals.

"C. L. Ruggles of the Stockton 'Independent' is at the inn for his fourth season. With him is George Okey of the Valley Road.

"Mrs. Sidney Newell and family of Stockton have been many weeks at the inn.

"Other guests are: D. D. Steele (leader of the orchestra at the Stockton Theater), C. H. Mann of San Francisco, E. R. Skelley, wife and son of Riverside, Miss Mansfield of Virginia City, Nev., Mr. and Miss O'Hara of San Jose, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Noyes, Mrs. J. F. Stewart, Professor J. Warner Phillips and Mrs. Francis Frey of Reno, Nev., Mrs. B. C. Crawford of Stockton, Miss Kate Herrick and Miss Rose Ryan of Sacramento, Walter Bates, Frank Byrne and Colonel W. E. Schwerin of San Francisco. Miss Lizzie Danforth and Miss Margaret Marzoff of Truckee, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McKenna of Oakland, Frank Laughton of Laughton's Springs, Miss Maud Woodward and Miss Carrie Cottrill of Sacramento.

PAVILION DECORATIONS.

Thousands of Yards of Bunting for the Conventions.

The State Exposition building will be in gala colors by Monday, so that when the Democrats arrive from all parts of the State they will feel that Sacramento welcomes them. A "Record-Union" reporter spent an hour with Decorator George Boyne yesterday afternoon, and a study of the emblems and bunting showed that great pains have been taken to make the large octagon hall a thing of beauty. It is partitioned by cheery walls of white canvas and made artistic by the display of coats-of-arms of every State in the Union, sprinkled here and there like stars in the vault of the sky.

"This decoration has already eaten up 15,000 yards of canvas," said Mr. Boyne, "and the hall bears anything of the kind. I've never seen since the Crystal Palace of London, and the Columbian Exposition of Chicago. See that bunting yonder, running in streams of red, white and blue? Why, man, there are five thousand yards of bunting, paid for by citizens of Sacramento, mind you, and a fair sized lot will be for delegates to come."

And Mr. Boyne mopped his brow as he plodded against the handicap of the Pavilion thermometer, which bubbled restlessly at 110 in the shade.

"We shall have ample seats for five thousand people," said he, "and the rest of the hall will be for a thousand or more, if the weather lets up. (And speaking of the weather just now reminds me of Fiji. Do you know, I was in Fiji, but it was never so hot there.) You see, the two State conventions will be held in the same hall this year, and the weather will be over-enthusiastic, because the decorations are rich and patriotic. All the doors will be opened this year, and the fresh air will be like unto the shadow of a great rock in a weary land. For all that, overcoats may be in demand by that time.

ALLEGED SHORTAGE.

Postmaster Phil Riehl of Freeport Has Been Indicted.

There is a misunderstanding between Postmaster Phil Riehl of Freeport and the Government regarding a matter of $400. The Postoffice Department claims that Mr. Riehl has applied to his own use that sum belonging to the Government, and Riehl denies the allegation. However, the United States Grand Jury has indicted the Freepost Postmaster, and he was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy United States Marshal Henry M. Moffitt of San Francisco.

Mr. Riehl was taken before Justice Henry and gave a bond for his appearance on trial, in the sum of $1,000, with David Reese and C. C. Brown as sureties. Mr. Riehl has been Postmaster at Freeport for many long years.

THEY ESCAPED.

But Justice Davis Will Fine Violators of the Ordinance.

E. F. Frazer and Mrs. Ward were arraigned in the City Justice's Court yesterday for violating the ordinance prohibiting the use of water for irrigation during fires. Mrs. Ward testified that she did not hear the alarm, and Mr. Frazer said he was in San Francisco at the time. Justice Davis dismissed both cases, after giving the parties a lecture, and stated that the first time a clear violation of the ordinance was brought to his notice he should fine the offender to the full extent of the law.

Cases Continued.

The case of Fred Burkhardt, charged with battery, was continued yesterday in the City Justice's Court till today.

The case of Mike Smith for maintaining a public nuisance was continued till today, while that of E. Harris, charged with the same offense, was continued one week.

STILL MISSING.

The Mystery of Samuel Duke Remains Unsolved.

A third day has passed without tidings of Samuel Duke, who dropped out of sight so strangely and unaccountably on Tuesday morning. What could have become of him is a mystery that no one has yet been able to fathom. Mr. Duke's eldest son, Sergeant Thomas S. Duke of the San Francisco police department, is here aiding in the search for his father. He said last night that it was one of the most puzzling cases that has come to his knowledge. His father's domestic relations were of the most tranquil kind, and nothing but a sudden affection of his mind could have induced him to wander off as he did.

Any one having knowledge of Mr. Duke's whereabouts will confer a lasting favor on his distressed family by sending word promptly to 424 N. street.

There is still much to be done, and more help is required. The public is invited to call at the Home, on Third, between K and L, and see the children. Since the last meeting, on July 31, 108 children have been cared for.

Testimonial.

I have lived in Sacramento City and Washington for the period of twenty-two years. During the past twelve months I had been troubled most severely by stomach and blood troubles; my blood was turned to water. I had along with it, been troubled with inflammatory rheumatism. I consulted and was treated by four well-known physicians of this city, but they failed to give me any relief whatever. Through the advice of some friends I consulted Dr. T. W. Hing, the Chinese doctor, 707 J street. After undergoing his treatment for ten days I was able to be out and around.

Since then I have gained forty-three pounds in three months. I am not taking his medicine now, for I have no present need for it, and I must confess that I am now in perfect health. I hereby certify that the above statement is absolutely correct and true.

(Being Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 2.)

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, amending article eleven, by adding the following article eleven, to be known as section number five, and county governments. The said proposed new section to read as follows: Section 5. The provisions of section four and five of this article shall not, nor shall any legislative act passed pursuant thereto, apply to any consolidated city and county government, now existing or hereafter formed, which shall have become, or shall become, organized under section seven, or secure a charter under section eight of this article.

Amendment Number One.

(Being Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 1.)

A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution, in relation to revenue and taxation, by which it is proposed to amend section two, to read as follows: Section 2. No county, city, town, township, board of education or school district shall incur any indebtedness or liability in any manner or for any purpose exceeding the amount provided for in the annual budget provided for it for such year, without the assent of two-thirds of the qualified electors of the county, city, town, township, board of education or school district, at the time of incurring such indebtedness or liability. The assent shall be expressed by the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such indebtedness, and also provision to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest on such indebtedness, which shall not exceed forty years from the time of contracting the same; provided, however, that the City and County of San Francisco may at any time pay the unpaid claims with interest thereon for materials furnished to and work done for said city and county during the forty-year period of such indebtedness, and the income and revenue of any succeeding year or years; provided, that any and all claims for materials furnished to and work done for any work done upon or for any material furnished for any street, lane, alley, or place, or for the construction of any sewer or sewers in said city and county, are hereby exempted from the provisions of this section, and terminating any claim permitted to be paid by this section, no statute of limitation shall apply in any manner provided further, that the City of Vallejo, in Solano County, may at any time pay the principal and interest on the construction of its water works, whenever two-thirds of the electors thereof, at an election called for that purpose shall so decide. Any indebtedness or liability incurred contrary to this provision, with the exception heretofore recited, shall be void.

Amendment Number Two.

(Being Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 10.)

A resolution proposing to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by adding a new section, to be known as and designated as Section Seven and one-half, Article Eleven, of the Constitution of the State, by the inhabitants of counties of local county government. Acts for their own government, and for the support of their schools, shall be subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a majority of the qualified electors of such county, to be at least five years, qualified electors of such county, to be elected by such county, to prepare and propose a county government Act for such county, which shall be presented for the approval of the members of such board, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy thereof to the Board of Supervisors of the county, and the other copy to be sent to the recorder of deeds of the county. Such proposed county government Act shall then be published in two papers of general circulation in such county, or if there be not two such papers, then in one only, for at least twenty days, and within that time the qualified electors of such county shall be notified by the recorder of deeds of the county, that the proposed county government Act shall be submitted to a majority of such qualified electors voting thereon shall ratify the same if they shall be so notified, and if approved by a majority of the members elected to each house, it shall be the law of the county, and all amendments and all amendments thereof, and all special laws inconsistent with such county government Act, shall be void. A copy of such county government Act, certified by the President of the Board of Supervisors or other legislative body of such county, and authenticated by the seal of such county, setting forth the substance of such county government Act to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of State, after being recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county, shall take judicial notice thereof. The county government Act so ratified may be amended, at intervals of not less than thirty days, and the amendments, therefor, submitted by the legislative authority of the county, to the qualified electors thereof, at a general election, or election held at least forty days after the publication of such proposals for twenty days, in a newspaper of general circulation in such county, and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting thereon, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of such county government Act, and admitting any such county government Act any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. It shall be competent in any county government Act framed under the authority given by this section to provide for the manner in which the time for the election of the members of the board of supervisors of the county shall be determined, and the terms for which the several townships and cities of the county shall be elected or appointed; for their compensation; for the number of officers to be elected for the consolidation or segregation of offices, for the number of deputies that each officer shall have, and for the compensation payable to each of such deputies, for the manner in which the time for the election of the boards of election shall be elected or appointed; for the compensation of such boards, and of their clerks and attendants; and for the manner in which the method by which all elections by the people shall be conducted; and may in addition provide for the manner in which the organization may participate in any primary election.
