

DISASTROUS FIRE AT WHEATLAND.

The Whole Business Portion of the Town Burned.

Resulting in a Loss of Nearly Two Thousand Dollars.

A Chinaman Burned to Death—One of the Business Houses Only One Small Grocery Saved—Disgraceful Scenes Witnessed During the Progress of the Fire, the Lower Element of Hop Pickers Plundering Stores While Pretending to Save Goods.

WHEATLAND, Aug. 12.—The whole business portion of this town was burned to a cinder this morning. The fire started shortly before 1 o'clock in a barn back of Neineyer's store, and several large warehouses were soon in flames. Thousands of hop-pickers from adjoining fields joined the citizens in fighting the flames, but without avail. Of the business houses, only one small grocery was saved.

Disgraceful scenes were witnessed during the fire. The lower element among the hop-pickers were plundering stores, while pretending to save goods. Men were seen filling their sacks with plunder. Marshal Waddell appointed two dozen deputies and armed them with shotguns just in time to disperse a mob of 600 men who were fighting among themselves. Eight roughs were placed under arrest and locked in box cars. What goods were left are now under guard.

To-night two attempts were made to burn other portions of the town, leading to the belief that the first fire was incendiary.

One Chinaman was burned to death, one horse perished and a number of persons were overcome by the smoke. The total loss is $185,000, of which $40,000 is on grain. Insurance about one-half.

Smugglers Released From Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—George N. Thomas and George Wickham, members of the Emerald smuggling gang, sentenced in 1894 to San Quentin to six years' imprisonment and fines amounting to $6,000 each, were released to-day by Judge De Haven in the United States District Court on writs of habeas corpus. The ruling was similar to the one made in the case of Louis Greenwald, who was set at liberty a few days ago, that imprisonment in lieu of non-payment of fines could not be enforced.

ORIENTAL ADVICES.

Inhabitants of Wuchow, China, in a State of Terror. TACOMA, Aug. 12.—The Oriental steamer Victoria, arriving here to-day, brings the following Oriental advices: The inhabitants of Wuchow are in a state of terror over the uprising in Southern China and are sending their women away with valuables. The rebels have defeated the imperial troops, inflicting heavy losses, placed in some quarters as high as 1,500. The chiefs of the rebellion proclaim that they are freeing the people from the Manchu dynasty, which has ruled over them for upward of 250 years. The rebels expect to form an alliance with the Black Flag chief.

Several versions of the trouble are given. A Chinese version being that in one of the villages of the Tung district, where one-third of the population were Catholics and the others pagans, the Catholics attempted to convert the ancestral hall of the village into a Catholic church. The pagans objected, and a fight ensued, in which the Christians were victorious. The native magistrate, named Kom, sided with the Catholics to avoid foreign complications. He was seized by the opposition, carried into the mountains and murdered. This was the signal for a general outbreak.

Another version gives the cause as an attempt by an official to make a philanthropist who had donated supplies to the poor. The official's action enraged the people. All accounts agree that the trouble is very serious.

COMSTOCK LODE.

Action Taken Regarding Pumping Out the Mines.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—The Comstock mining companies to-day took action regarding the project of pumping out the mines and resuming operations. A committee representing twenty-four companies met and took steps to compile preliminary data. The Superintendents of all the mines were ordered to report to the committee by September 14th the condition of the mines below the Suto tunnel level when those levels were abandoned, six to ten years ago. The Secretary of the different companies were directed to compile all the similar information in the past reports of Superintendents now on file. This getting together all that is really known about the flooded depths will form a starting point and clear the way for further action.

Three natives, one of whom was recently in prison for murder, did the deed. He was showing them his valuables when he was attacked and killed. It is said that the murderers got nothing, but that the diamonds, etc., were afterward missed. Goods worth $15,000 were recovered.

ACKNOWLEDGES THE RECEIPT OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—At 11 o'clock to-night Adjutant General Corbin received from General Shafter an acknowledgment of the receipt by him of the proclamation of the President. Up to midnight no reply has been received from General Miles, it having been impossible to get into communication with him.

CRITICISMS OF SHAFTER.

General Joe Wheeler Says They Are Very Unjust. NASHVILLE (Tenn.), Aug. 12.—Postmaster A. W. Willis received a letter from General Joe Wheeler to-day, dated Santiago de Cuba, July 27, 1898, in which General Wheeler says, referring to newspaper reports concerning General Shafter: "I think the criticisms upon General Shafter were very unjust. He has had a hard task and he performed it successfully and well. He is a man of more than ordinary brain power and administrative ability. The criticism that he did not place himself on the firing line, is ridiculous, as on July 1st he was carrying on two fights at one time—one at Caney and one at San Juan. He had some reserves, and had to place himself where he could see both fights and manage the whole affair, which he did effectively. With very high regards, truly, your friend, 'JOSEPH WHEELER.'"

DESPERATE BATTLE.

BETWEEN OFFICERS AND ROBBERS NEAR KOKOMO, COLORADO. DENVER, Aug. 12.—A special to the "Republican" from Breckenridge, Col., says: A well-planned hold-up took place here in the Denver Hotel, but owing to the alarm caused by the accidental discharge of a shotgun held by one of the three robbers, their movements were so hurried that they did not go through the safe or cash register, and only secured about $50 in money from a till, several gold watches and other jewelry. This afternoon Sheriff Detweiler and a posse encountered the robbers near Kokomo, and a running fight took place. One of the robbers, Steve Ryan, is reported killed and another, Dick Manley, badly wounded. Charles Riley was captured by the posse, and another man by the name of Ryan, suspected of being implicated in the robbery, is still at large, but is being pursued by the posse.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff M. E. Conrad, one of the posse, was killed in the fight, and Sumner Whitney, another member, was seriously wounded. Conrad formerly resided in Pennsylvania, where his parents are now. The probabilities are that there will be a lynching at Kokomo to-night.

SPANIARDS DEFEATED.

Americans Drive a Large Force Ahead of Them. PONCE (Porto Rico), Aug. 11.—(Evening.)—The contemplated flank movement against the enemy entrenched at Alibonito by the Second Wisconsin has been abandoned by order of General Miles. The officers here are inclined to believe that the war is ended, owing to the peace news.

It has developed that eleven Spaniards were killed and sixty wounded in the fight at Coamo. General Schwan yesterday encountered two or three thousand near Hermigueros. The latter made a stubborn resistance. All the American forces engaged fought well, and drove the Spaniards ahead of them.

Private Fernberg and one other were killed and Lieutenant Bryon, with fourteen others, wounded. The Spanish loss is believed to have been heavy. General Schwan is proceeding for Mayaguez. Reinforcements of six companies of the First Kentucky have been sent here by boat.

Health of Shafter's Troops.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—At 1:30 o'clock to-night General Shafter's report of the health conditions of his troops at Santiago was received at the War Department. It reads as follows: Sanitary report for August 11th—Total number of sick, 3,010; total number of fever cases, 2,340; total number of new cases, 221; total number of fever cases returned to duty, 279; deaths, August 10th and 11th, 14.

NATIONAL PARKS.

Stock Will No Longer be Allowed to Graze Upon Them.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—The Secretary of the Interior has received a report from Acting Superintendent Sevilly, stationed in California, to protect the national parks from trespassing sheep. Mr. Sevilly has been so long in Yosemite Park that nearly all the grass and other forage had been destroyed.

Some confusion exists in California in regard to the action, and it is the intention of the Interior Department that it be cleared up. The Secretary has no animal in any case will be permitted to graze upon the public reservations, and that all measures necessary will be taken to keep the parks free from them. Only those persons who have patented lands will be permitted to graze cattle, and before this is allowed the metes and bounds of the patented lands must be definitely ascertained and marked.

This rule has been made necessary by the fact that a number of persons own or lease a small tract of patented land in the vicinity of the parks, and while pretending to graze their sheep and cattle upon it, they have been guilty of whatever to prevent them from trespassing upon the reservations. No action has been taken against the persons ejected, but Mr. Sevilly says that he will be ready to supply witnesses if it is decided to prosecute them.

BURLINGTON HOLD-UP.

All the Parties to the Robbery Under Arrest.

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.), Aug. 12.—All the parties to the Burlington hold-up, which occurred two miles north of this city last night are under arrest, and a weeping, crestfallen gang of bandits they are. His pals are Charley Cook, Oscar O'Connell, William Hathaway, brother of James, and Herbert Doniphan, ranging in ages from 16 to 20. They are sons of respectable people. All are readers of dime novels.

The leader of the gang lost a pocket dictionary with his name written on the fly leaf at the scene of the hold-up, fuses by wire, and today a detective. He was arrested and confessed, giving the names of the others.

REAR-ADMIRAL KIRKLAND DEAD.

EXPIRED PEACEFULLY LAST EVENING AT MARE ISLAND.

Had Served Over Forty Years in the Navy, Entering the Service in July, 1850.

VALLEJO, Aug. 12.—Rear Admiral Kirkland, U. S. N., died at 7 o'clock this evening. He expired peacefully, his wife and son being in the death chamber at the time. Dr. Hibbetts of the U. S. S. Independence and Dr. Waggoner, Navy Yard Surgeon, were also present. Father Reginald of St. Vincent's Church was with the Admiral three hours before he breathed his last. The Admiral had rallied from the effects of an operation for acute constriction of the bowels, which was performed on Tuesday by Dr. W. E. Taylor of San Francisco, assisted by several other surgeons, and last night it was stated that he had a fighting chance for life. This morning he seemed somewhat better, and during the day his family and friends were hopeful that his life might be spared. At 5 o'clock p. m., however, he began to sink, and as darkness came on grew gradually weaker until two hours later he ceased to breathe, dying without evidence of pain.

The funeral will take place from St. Vincent's Catholic Church of Vallejo on Sunday. The remains have been embalmed and will be placed temporarily in the vault at St. Vincent's Cemetery.

He Knew His Witness.

"Take the stand, Mr. Potts," said the young lawyer from town with an air of triumph. Judge Bloom of the Blue Gizzard District scowled at the witness as he took his place, and the attorney said: "Mr. Potts, you were present at the shooting scrape, were you not?" "Yes."

"You saw the defendant take a pistol from his pocket?" "Yes."

"You saw him fire at this man?" "Yes."

"You saw him return the weapon to his pocket?" "I shore did."

"Come down, Mr. Potts," said the lawyer. "For me to say anything after such direct testimony of this man's intelligence, I hope your honor will make his bond very heavy, for his offense is very grave."

"I find the prisoner not guilty," said Judge Bloom with considerable vehemence. "May it please your honor," said the young attorney in amazement, "how can you render such a verdict in direct conflict with the positive testimony of an eye-witness?"

"Yes," because I have known Bill Potts for fifteen years and never know him to tell the truth yet."—Atlanta Journal.

Where a Horse Beats a Motor Car.

A Devonshire farmer has found out a serious drawback to motor cars—they can't find their way home at night. A horse will find its way, even though its rider is not quite in a condition to direct its movements with unerring precision; but there is no incentive in a motor car which will enable it to run its engine home, safe and sound. Even now this would prevent the motor-car being universally adopted in Devonshire or anywhere else, but this reliance on his horse is typical more of the farmer of thirty or fifty years ago than it is of the farmer of to-day. There were many towns then in which the easier thing was to count the number of the farmers who went home sober. Nowadays it would be an infinitely smaller calculation to do the other thing. May be the motor car will some time be endowed with the same sort of adaptability to circumstances that H. G. Wells gives to his "handing" machines. But if not, perhaps fifty years hence a farmer who rides home on a horse will thereby proclaim himself unwilling (or unfit) to trust his neck to the tender mercies of a motor-car.—Westminster Gazette.

She Had a Character.

Here is a "character" given to a servant on leaving her last situation: "The bearer has been in my house a year, less eleven months. During this time she has shown herself diligent at the house door, frugal in her expenses, and herself, prompt in excuses, friendly to ward men, faithful to her lovers, and honest when everything was out of the way."—Tit Bits.

Origin of Hurrail.

W. J. Spratley thinks there can be no doubt that the Egyptian soldiers in ancient times went into the battle to the inspiring cheer of the "Hoo Ra! Hoo Ra! Hoo Ra!" And if the average questioning man asks why, he replies with this: "Because Hoo Ra (in the tongue of the Thotmes and the Rameses) means 'the King! the King! the King!'"

Bright Answer. The Boston "Herald" reports what it calls a "specimen of clever wit" on the part of a waitress in a Boston restaurant. A middle aged woman entered the place, and taking a seat at the counter, carefully scrutinized the bill of fare. She concluded to try an order of ice cream pudding, at 5 cents the plate. After it had been served she looked it over carefully, and calling the waitress back, said: "Do you call this ice cream pudding?" "Yessum, and it's very nice, too." "But where is the ice-cream?" "Oh, that's only the name given that peculiar make of pudding. We are making a specialty of it. I'm sure you will like it when you taste it." "It seems to me that if you ought to give ice cream with it, as long as you say it is ice cream pudding."

"We don't give cottages with cottage pudding," quickly retorted the witty waitress. The retort threw the middle aged woman into a convulsion of laughter, and she ordered a scotch plate.
