

SIGHTS FOR EVERYBODY.

Interest in the State Fair Increasing.

There was a larger attendance at the Pavilion than usual last night, and a greater appreciation than heretofore, apparently, of the artistic arrangements in evidence at the booths.

The musical program was elaborate, the applause was generous and the specialty performance a success. Greater completion of the art department was also a pleasant feature of the exposition, though it is to be regretted that the catalogue of pictures has been long delayed.

It was at hand last night, however, and a detailed criticism will appear in these columns later. The stage show drew a large audience last night, and those who attended were well repaid.

Miss Beth Hamilton executed the beautiful Delearte waltz, showing with much grace the fine points of cultured movements. Miss Ideline O'Malley was pleasing in a new serpentine dance.

It was evident last night that there were many visitors interested in the exhibits at the various booths. They studied in detail the many objects of use and beauty, viewing the ponderous machinery, the delicate fabrics and the varied assortment of food products with interest and profit.

A more detailed account of what is to be seen at the exhibition may be of some interest. One of the most interesting little exhibits to be seen is Caswell's brooding cell of bees, so arranged that the public can see them through a glass case.

Truly, they illustrate the old saw, "Busy as bees," as they work unceasingly, though with definite aim and method. Hard by this exhibit is the fruit preserving display of Mrs. G. Kane of 516 K street.

Barton's candy, ice cream and soda water exhibit comes in two sections, and is a pleasing example of the confectioner's art. There are many fine exhibits of box candles and bonbons.

Not far away is H. A. Hill's jelly palace, a fine display of neatly put up glasses, showing the pleasing varieties of color presented by up-to-date preserving processes.

The exhibit of the Empire Milling Company is unique and interesting. It shows many of their manufactures. The St. Helena Sanitarium Health Food Company has a fine booth of displays, such as health foods, crackers, biscuits, wafers and health drinks.

The Tesla Coal Company's exhibit is well worth inspection. L. L. Lewis & Co. have a pleasing display of stoves, ranges and household wares. This firm is so well known that the very name conveys the idea of fair dealing in up-to-date goods, yet they have a most interesting exhibit.

Weinstock & Lubin's booth might be pronounced a mosaic of beautiful things, inlaid upon a general scheme of splendor. The entire exhibit of fashions, figures and women's wear is but a sample of the many things for sale in their great store.

The Cof-Farin Company, with Miss Genevieve Johnson in charge for Feilhusen & Co., has a varied assortment of products, the substitute for coffee being served free and hot. An attractive feature about the booth is the decorations, which are by Mrs. Clara Neill.

The Buffalo Brewing Company has an exposing collection of beer delicately labeled, arranged in the form of a high pinnacle of varied sized bottles. This is near the stage and has been beautifully arranged.

Hall, Luhrs & Co. have an exhibit of Shasta water that is pleasing to the eye and suggestive of longings for something to quench thirst. Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson's exhibit is one of the most attractive on the floor. It is arranged around a great dynamo, illuminated in a pleasing manner. Their hardware display is varied and extensive.

Of stoves and ranges Steiger, Kerr & Co. of San Francisco have an extensive exhibit. In spite of the fact that the American Cash Store carries a little of everything, their exhibit is confined exclusively to an exhibition of coffee, which is served hot.

Wilson, Hall & Co. have a high pyramid of extracts and spices, suggestive of enough of this product to flavor and give spice to a city. There is a good exhibit by the amateur photographers. Arthur Atkinson has some fine examples of trees, seashore, cloud effects, houses and groups.

W. E. Cogswell has some very good photographs of a similar character, also, some portraits. In W. B. Geiger's display of shoes all styles are shown and there is much taste in the display. Egan Brothers have an interesting exhibit of Pasteur filters, which show how muddy and impure water may speedily be cleaned and purified.

Kirk, Geary & Co., adjacent to the art exhibit, have a splendid collection of photographic supplies, some shown beautifully by means of easels and framed pictures. F. C. Chin's stock of scientific optical instruments and glasses is pleasing to behold by those whose eyes are weary.

Lee Hays displays some of the products of modern plumbing, the gas ducts of modern plumbing, and modern windmills. His wares are neatly arranged. J. K. Cooper, the scientific chicken raiser and egg-food man, has a very extensive booth, arranged so as to show some of the main features of modern poultry farming.

Edward Hauk, a Sacramento inventor, has an interesting automatic scale for weighing powders, coffee, and all

2-14 pacers were Floradio 20 to 1, Beachwood 4 to 1, Little Thorne 8 to 1, Rex Alto 8 to 5, and Much Better 2 to 5. This was a very hotly-contested and exciting race most of the way, but toward the last there was but one horse in it, Rex Alto, which won handily in 2:12 1/2, by two open lengths from Floradio. Much Better finished in third place after losing much ground by two or three bad breaks. Little Thorne was fourth and Beachwood last. There was warm betting on Much Better on the strength of her heat in 2:12 made on Wednesday.

Rex Alto was the favorite in the 2:17 pace at 7 to 10, Diawood second choice at 7 to 5. The others were Gaff Top-sall 20 to 1, Dave Ryan 20 to 1, Mun-yon 15, Billy Baker 10, Dictatress 4, and Nutway 10.

Rex Alto went back on his supporters in this race and finished sixth. Diawood, the speedy three-year-old son of Diablo, repeated his performance of the other day by going out in the lead and winning with a couple of lengths to spare in 2:14 1/2, Billy Baker second, and Dave Ryan third.

AT THE PARK. A Delightful Day With the Harness Brigade. A good track, a large crowd, an excellent card, fast time, record-breaking weather, spirited betting, inspiring music, and a grand stand beaming with feminine loveliness, were the chief features of the fifth day of the State Fair—at least of that portion of it to be seen at the Park. There was not very much more that could decently be desired, not even the occasional accident was lacking.

The latter occurred while the horses were scoring for the 2:20 trot, and it was right in front of the grand stand. The bike of Harry Marvin collided with that of another horse, breaking one of the wheels of the former and throwing Carlo, Marvin's driver, to the ground, but without injuring him. Marvin ran away and did a two-mile act in great shape, demolishing the bike and cutting his legs more or less. Marshal Stud-arus tried to catch the runaway and furnished a very pretty race for a half-mile, when his ranch horse ran up the usual signal of distress and quit.

The 2:10 trotting class opened the afternoon's sport, the starters being Toggles, Zombro, Monterey and Galette. For the first heat the books offered 1 to 2 on Toggles, 5 to 1 Zombro, even money on Monterey, and 8 to 1 on Galette.

After scoring several times the horses got the word with Monterey off his feet. Toggles led Zombro a couple of lengths at the quarter, but up the backstretch Monterey moved up and passed Zombro, and was closing rapidly on Toggles at the three-quarters. He struck his gait soon again and passed Zombro. Toggles won in a jog in 2:13, three lengths from Monterey, Zombro third and Galette last.

For the second heat 2 to 3 was offered on Toggles, 10 to 1 Zombro, even money on Monterey and 20 to 1 Galette. Toggles would not have had such an easy thing of it had Monterey been able to keep his feet. He broke on the first turn and fell to the rear, but at the half was second, and was closing rapidly on Toggles at the three-quarters when he went up again. Toggles won in a jog by thirty yards, Monterey second, Zombro third and Galette fourth.

A field of ten showed up for the second race, the 2:40 trot, mile dash—Aggregate 6 to 1, Joe Selby 10, Bertha R. 6, Harry Marvin 10, Shelby 2, Home-way 8, Nuretta 3, Bonsaline 2, Mamie Riley even money, Phoebe Childers 4. Marvin's sulky broke down by a collision with Selby, and after a two-mile runaway the horse was drawn. Joe Selby led all the way into the last stretch, where Mamie Riley came up from third place and won in a drive by a half length from Phoebe Childers in 2:15 1/2. Joe Selby third.

The third race was for the 2:16 trotting class, in which the line-up was Our Jack 5 to 1, Lou 2, Silver Ring 4, Mojave 6, and Prince Gift 2 to 5. Prince Gift had a cake-walk from start to finish. Silver Ring was second to the far turn, where Lou took the place and finished two open lengths from Gift in 2:16 1/2. Silver Ring third, Our Jack fourth and Mojave fifth.

The starters in the fourth race, for

AMUSEMENTS. The exceedingly high merit of the vaudeville performance at the Orpheum justifies a crowded house nightly—there are to be but two more evening performances. This afternoon there will be a matinee performance and it should fill the theater. We know of no varied entertainment we have had here for years that is merrier, cleaner, more witty or so charged with sentiment and humor.

PERSONAL MENTION. J. G. Eagleson is up from San Francisco. E. Hoffner of Orangevale was in the city Thursday. Lawyer F. C. Lusk of Chico is taking in the State Fair. William Beckman has returned from a trip to Tehama County. J. H. Liggett has returned from a trip to Woodland and Willows.
