

QUAY'S LETTERS BEFORE THE COURTS.

Writings Introduced by the Prosecution in the Trial

Instituted by the District Attorney's Office at Philadelphia.

Efforts to Prove That the Pennsylvania Senator Made Improper Use of State Funds Deposited in the Now Defunct People's Bank.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 6.—Among the letters introduced by the prosecution against Senator Quay and his son was this one from Haywood to Cashier Hopkins:

"Nov. 29, 1898." "Yours of the 19th inst., with inclosure, received, which I herewith return signed. Purchase an additional 100 shares of the same stock at 110, 100 shares at 109, 100 shares at 107, 100 shares at 106. Of course, purchase all for less if you can, so that the average will be maintained. My information is that this stock will go higher in the near future. Your friend, Mr. Elkin, is a partner in this transaction, as you will see by the signature on the note. Mr. M. is to have the use of 50 from November 1, 1896. You and he can arrange when he can use it."

"The first Quay letter was to Hopkins under date of January 13, 1897, saying: 'Dear John: Give George Huhn $25,000 for me. It is for a margin in some stocks. Send me a note for $25,000 and I will sign and return.'"

"The next, dated September 21, 1897, is as follows: 'I have at Huhn's 900 shares of Metropolitan I wish you to take it out for me. It stands $110, $112.50, August 31st, and with your $61,625 will make $172,457.50 I will owe your bank. I have 100 New Jersey bonds, 1,500 shares of New Jersey stock, which I will change into Metropolitan as soon as the top note in Jersey is reached. That is, I say, I will sell the Jersey securities and pay off the indebtedness. The Jersey bonds ought to go to par within sixty days. When they are at par the stock will be at least 50. It will pay a small dividend next year. Please write me on receipt of this.'"

"P. S.—I suppose there is some circulating what will be done at the meeting. If there is, please send me one."

"The next, dated September 22, 1897, asks permission to make an overdraft of $1,000 to be carried until November. It reads further: 'You can carry it as an overdraft or send me a due bill here.'"

"The next, dated September 27, 1897, is as follows: 'Your letter is to hand. The arrangement about the stock is satisfactory.'"

"Also, the following, all signed by Quay: 'October 28, 1897.—Inclosed I send you a power of attorney to transfer a thousand shares of Consolidated Jersey stock. Please wire me on receipt.'"

"October 28, 1897.—My Dear Hopkins: I inclose certificate No. 2, 1,818, for the thousand shares of Consolidated Traction Company of New Jersey, according to promise. Please wire me at Sewickley, Pa., on receipt. I will be at Sewickley over to-morrow (Friday), going there in the afternoon. I see 200 shares of Jersey stock yesterday at 87. I suppose it was mine. I think you can get better than that for all of it."

"November 27, 1897.—Dear Hopkins: I enclose note and $62,852.25, at your request. I presume it is for the 500 of Metropolitan. If so, I think Monte must have forgotten to collect the cash dividend of $1.25 per share. I have your telegram saying that bonds are low again. How much of the stock have you sold? We will leave here on Monday. I think you will be home by then."

"December 14, 1897.—Dear John: Yours to hand. I will let you know before drawing on you. Please write me and give me state of my account. What did you hear about Metropolitan? I thought when I bought the stock it would go very much higher than it is, but I am commencing to feel like letting it go, to take it on again at lower figures. There are no war notes at present, and the action in the Spanish Government and the President's message will be quieting and pacifying."

"December 17, 1897.—Dear John: As to the Metropolitan scrip, the reason for its cheapness is that it bears no interest until next October, and that the company has the option to pay in cash or stock. The option is with the company, not with the holder of the stock. Should it go to the bad, it will be continued. If the stock goes above par and remains so, the company will pay the money. Mr. Huhn tells me it seems to me that under the circumstances that 92 or 93 is a very full price for it."

"Dec. 10, 1897.—Dear John: I have a thousand shares of sugar that Huhn bought at 142, which I wish to pay for and take over to the People's. I have bought it for keep, but don't wish the stock to be placed in the name of Huhn as I will sell it if I find I can get it any lower. Get rid of the Metropolitan scrip and Consolidated Jersey stock as rapidly as you can at the figures fixed."

"Here is offered a receipt dated December 14, 1897, as follows: 'Received by the People's Bank, $129,651.65 for a thousand shares of Sugar Trust Certificate Company, to be transferred to the name of John S. Hopkins, Esq.'"

"The next letter, dated Dec. 10, 1897, is as follows: 'Dear Hopkins: I forgot to say that the cost of the stock at Huhn's will be about $130,000, as he has about eleven thousand of my money there, and you will have one hundred and fifteen thousand proceeds of Consolidated Jersey securities, and the profits on the Metropolitan will about square my account when the sugar is paid for. I want to take $50,000 of Dick's bonds. See you about it. There are 300 more shares of Consolidated Jersey lying with Montgomery, which you will sell in addition to your present holding. I see the bonds have advanced two or three dollars and the stock ought to go up.'"

"The next, Dec. 17, 1897: 'Dear John: The understanding is that Monte shall sell 100 Consolidated Traction of Pittsburgh at 42 1/2 against that 847,100, and if sold at this price, is a margin of $22,900. This will be sent to you. With the proceeds of the 300 shares will leave credit to me on your book of about $10,000.'"

"The next, dated the 18th, was as follows: 'I go to Florida to-morrow, to be absent two or three weeks. My Postoffice address will be San Luis, my telegraph, Fort Pierce. I have 166 shares of Beaver Consolidated preferred by Montgomery. Out of the proceeds will pay a note of $47,000. The balance will come to you. With the proceeds of the 300 Jersey stock you will have $10,000 to my credit. Look for lower prices, and, on any decided break wait you to take again a thousand Metropolitan and 1,000 Sugar. I heard McCane has met with an accident and hope he is getting along all right. Remember me kindly to him.'"

"Dec. 18, 1897.—I inclose check on Carson & McCartney, Washington, for $15,000, to be credited to my account. I want to take to Montgomery 200 shares of the proceeds of contract preferred, some twenty-one thousand dollars, which will leave my account in pretty good shape. The dividend on Sugar comes in on the 5th proximo, $3,194. Dick will need your help. If so, see him through, even if you have to sell some of the Sugar certificates, but don't do that unless absolutely necessary. I will be at the bank next week some day."

"Jan. 31, 1898.—According to my account, I ought to have about $85,000 to my credit. I am buying 100 Morgan-thaler at about 143 and will check on you for amount when purchase completed, say about $14,000. Also, I wish you to buy and carry for me on margin about 1,000 shares U. G. I. I want this for a sport, say two weeks."

"Feb. 18, 1898.—I mailed you check for $4,100, balance of loss on Metropolitan, at your request. I close my account and send statement and cancelled checks with cashier's check for balance. I feared I had bitten into my $45,000. I never tried to do a generous thing that I did not get into trouble."

"M. S. QUAY." "The next was a telegram dated Feb. 11, 1898, as follows: 'San Luis, Fla.—John S. Hopkins: If you buy and carry a thousand Metropolitan for me, I will shake the plum tree.'"

"M. S. QUAY." "Charged With Embezzlement. CINCINNATI (O.), Oct. 6.—A warrant was sworn out this afternoon for the arrest of William Schmidt, a prominent real estate dealer and member of the Board of Education, on the charge of embezzling $28,000 from the Third Ward Building Association. At Schmidt's office it was announced that he was in Chicago. The officers, however, state that he was last seen in Wisconsin, and they think he is no longer in this country. Turn late this afternoon.

CHINA'S EMPEROR. Stories That He is Dead Discredited at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Such information as has reached the State Department respecting the reported death and assassination of the Emperor of China goes to entirely discredit the stories that he has been poisoned or that he is dead. It is impossible to say positively just what sources of information are available, but it is known they are regarded as entirely reliable by the State Department. The Boston, one of the American warships ordered to get as near as possible to the disturbance, will go as far as the Taku forts, at the mouth of the Pang Ho River, where the Emperor is expected to be draughted. The little patrol, however, is expected to go eighty miles up the river to Tien Tsin, and her steam launch might proceed from that point to Peking, if necessary.
