

MARTIN HELD TO ANSWER.

Identified by the Two Japanese in Justice Henry's Court.

Joe Martin, alias John Burns, alias the "Curly Kid," was examined in Justice W. A. Henry's court yesterday afternoon on a charge of robbery and held to answer.

T. Yokota and M. Tsuda, two Japanese, positively identified the prisoner as being one of the four young men who held them up at the point of pistols and robbed them of $44.00 in coin. Yokota testified that the defendant carried a small valise and one of the others lead a small dog. The defendant, Yokota stated, held a knife to his head while another of the robbers, whom the Jap described as being a man who had no thumb on his left hand, had a pistol and fired a shot at witness' head, the bullet glancing off and witness fell down on the railroad track; that then defendant Martin took a purse from witness' pocket, containing $22.60. The other Jap corroborated Yokota.

The next witness was Charles Hopkins, a bartender in a downtown saloon, who testified that the defendant Martin, together with three other young men, had frequented his establishment during the last week of August, and the last he saw of them was on the morning of the day of the robbery, when all four men left the saloon together. Witness said that they made a valise with them and upon being shown a valise, he identified it as the one Martin had in the saloon.

He described one of Martin's partners as a man who had lost the thumb and one finger on his left hand.

A dealer in second-hand goods next identified Martin as the man who had sold him a small valise containing two sets of boxing gloves on the morning after the robbery, and identified a valise as the one in question. The valise had a plate on it on which the initials "J. B." were inscribed, and witness further stated that defendant signed his name as John Burns on the book.

Joseph Michael Halloran, the Section Foreman at Brighton Junction, testified that about 10 p. m. on August 28th four suspicious looking young men, one carrying a small valise and one leading a small pug dog, came to his section house and asked if they could have supper. Not liking their appearance, they were told by Mr. Halloran that they were too late for supper. The witness said that the four men remained near his place for over a half-hour and that two of them got over the fence and picked strawberries. When asked if he thought that he could tell any of the four men, Mr. Halloran said:

"Yes, sir, I can tell this man here," pointing to Martin, "is one of the men, and furthermore he is the tallest one of the two who picked the strawberries."

Witness then stated that the four men walked up the railroad track towards the station house and that about an hour later he heard some shots. Mr. Halloran also testified that at the time he heard the shots, the moon shown very bright, that it was an exceedingly bright moonlight night.

Conductor William Kellenberg testified that one of the men on the 28th of August boarded the blind end of the baggage car near Brighton Junction and that he ejected them. One of the quartet, Mr. Kellenberg said, was minus the left thumb and left middle finger, that one of the men had a small valise and another had a pug dog in his arms. The witness said that the prisoner answered the description of the second man who got off his train, but he could not swear to his identity.

County Detective Max P. Fisher testified that he had seen the defendant on or about August 24th in company with Taylor and Roof. All three were walking towards Chinatown. That he saw Burke, Martin and the other two on Saturday night, the evening preceding the robbery at the station. The defendant after his arrest denied knowing either of the other three men and also said that he had not been in Sacramento for three years. Defendant admitted afterwards, however, that he knew them in San Quentin Prison.

This closed the case for the prosecution and Justice Henry held Martin to answer before the Superior Court with bail fixed at $2,000. It is believed that the prisoner will plead guilty when arraigned in the Superior Court.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES' CLUB.

It is Manifesting Much Interest and Enthusiasm.

As the decisive day of election draws nearer, the railroad employes manifest greater interest and enthusiasm in their political club meetings, and last night's meeting was one of the largest that has been held since the club's inception.

President Regan presided, with Secretary Heffron at his customary place. The proceedings of the General Advisory Board were read in detail and unanimously adopted.

The President appointed an Organization Committee, consisting of ten, to canvass the district allotted to the club.

Flowers are the poetry of the earth; babies the conquests of humanity. Banish the smiles, the dimples that on the cheeks of childhood and the world would become a barren wilderness. Woman's ultimate mission, duty and joy is to be a mother.

Woman's ultimate mission, duty and joy is to be a mother. The program will consist of: 1. "Appassionata Sonata," Beethoven; allegro assai, andante con moto, allegro ma non accopio; 2. (a) "Pavillon," Schumann; (b) "Staccato," Vogrich; 3. (a) "Allegro Patetico," Raff; (b) prelude on B. Bachmannoff; (c) "The Music Box," Lidloff; 4. "Hungarian Fantasy," Liszt.

Miss Heyman ought to be greeted by a crowded house, because she is a Sacramento woman, who by her genius and accomplishments, has won new honors for her native city, because she is pronounced by the highest and severest authorities, American and European, to be a genius, and because her recitals are pronounced by all who have attended them to be out of the usual, to sustain the interest constantly, to be remarkable for their brilliancy and power to awaken enthusiasm. An eminent critic has said of Miss Heyman: "She is of the virile type of pianists, much on the Zeisler style, of whom she reminds one."

She is a musician who is not crank, a genius without being erratic. The San Francisco "News Letter" of last Saturday, criticizing her last recital in that city, gave her praise that is exceeding rare, pronouncing her to be of the few great artists among women. Over eight years ago, just before she left for Europe to pursue her studies in a broader field, the "Record-Union" said of her: "It is entirely within reasonable limits to predict for this young lady a musical future that will win her recognition from the most critical and exacting of our musical communities at home and abroad." That forecast has been more than fulfilled—she has won recognition.

STATEMENT OF CONTROLLER COLGAN REGARDING OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION.

Shows the Assessed Value of Each Class of Property, the Assessed Value of Mortgages, Funded and Floating Debt of Each County, Assessed Value of Railroads and the Rate of Taxation.

Controller Colgan yesterday completed his annual statement showing the financial condition of each county in the State, for the year 1898. The report shows the classification of the several counties, the value of real estate, value of improvements on real estate, value of personal property, money and solvent credits, total value of property as returned by Auditors, value of railroads assessed by the State Board of Equalization, grand total value of all property, original assessed value of mortgages, University and other State mortgages, funded debt, floating debt with estimated interest, total State and county rate of taxation for each $100. The report is particularly interesting to business men, inasmuch as, owing to the action of the Governor in vetoing the appropriation for the State Printing Office, copies cannot be had from the State.

Table with columns: Counties, Classification, Value of Real Estate, Value of Improvements on Real Estate, Value of Personal Property, Money and Solvent Credits, Total Value of Property as Returned by Auditors, Value of Railroads, Value of Mortgages, Grand Total Value of All Property, Original Assessed Value of Mortgages, Total State and County Rate of Taxation for Each $100, Funded Debt, Floating Debt with Estimated Interest, Total County Debt, Total State Debt, Total State and County Debt.

Note.—Where two rates of taxation are given, the lesser rate is that levied upon property situated within the limits of incorporated cities and towns, such property being exempt from road tax.

SACRAMENTO CLUB BY THE ADVISORY BOARD.

It was decided by the club to give a high jinks at its next meeting, and to secure talent for an entertainment program.

The Secretary was instructed to extend an invitation to all the associated clubs of California to attend. A good time is anticipated, and all who attend will no doubt have one.

Considerable debate was indulged in as to the candidates for the presidency, and whether it would take any action in regard to the county candidates. It was decided that the matter of endorsing candidates, upon which the club intends to take action, be left to the Committee on Indorsement.

SIXTH WARD CLUB.

Bore a Prominent Part in the Big Tuesday Night Meeting.

Owing to an inadvertence, the Sixth Ward Republican Club, which marched 126 strong in the great street pageant Tuesday night, was not mentioned in the "Record-Union's" report.

As a matter of fact the Sixth Ward Club bore a prominent part in the evening's proceedings, and besides turning out in the parade, fired the salutes at Sixth and M streets. The Sixth Ward Club is one of the most wide-awake political organizations in the city.

In the list of names mentioned as the committee to meet the Sixth Ward Club, these were inadvertently omitted: General J. G. Martine, Elwood Bruner, Charles Perkins, S. Luke Howe and John Gesslin.
