

CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

MISS MORTON ELECTED SUBSTITUTEE AT HIGH SCHOOL.

Misses Winn, Anderson, Chambers and Cronkite Are Elected Substitutes.

The City Board of Education met last night in special session, Directors Driver, Sherburn, Stack, Johnson, Panabaker, Perkins, Elliott, Ranson and Atkinson being present.

Director Johnson reported salaries for the month at $9,760.90, other claims $1,590.65; High School salaries, $1,150; claims, $91.55. They were all allowed.

Director Atkinson, for the Building and Repairs Committee, reported several articles for the kindergarten needed, also a blackboard with lines at twenty-fourth and L.

Director Stack reported that the drains at Fourth and Q streets had overflowed and suggested that they be fixed. The report was adopted and work ordered done.

Director Sherburn, for the Furniture and Supply Committee, reported a clock needed at Sixteenth and N streets, an oil stove for the Principals' office at Tenth and Q and a flag at Fourth and Q and one at Thirteenth and G. The Tesla coal was cheaper than the hard coal, with equal heating properties, but he did not favor coal in the school room and thought wood healthier. He would make no recommendation in regard to the filter at Tenth and Q, but the one at Twenty-fourth and L was working all right.

The articles needed were ordered supplied. The filter at Twenty-fourth and L streets was accepted and action on the one at Fourth and Q deferred.

Director Ranson offered a resolution that after January 1st the salaries of the Principals of the kindergarten schools be fixed at $90 a month, instead of $50, as heretofore.

Director Sherburn objected to changing the salaries before the end of the term.

Director Elliott said the Principals do as much work as the primary teachers and ought to receive as much.

The motion was carried. Superintendent Erlwine announced the resignations of Misses McManus, Little and Hersum. He recommended that four substitutes be elected, as they are needed, the last one to take effect on February 1st. The resignations were accepted.

Superintendent Erlwine also announced that Professor Pond wished a substitute for the High School, as one was badly needed. He had one in mind who would fill the bill, Miss Mollie Morton, who has until recently been employed as Principal of the Dixon High School. He considered her a very competent person and that the board was fortunate in being able to secure her for the remainder of the year.

Substitutes Elected. Miss Morton was elected unanimously as High School substitute.

Miss Chapelle, the first substitute, was placed in charge of the fourth grade at Thirteenth and G.

Miss Turner was transferred from Thirteenth and G to the fifth grade at Sixteenth and N streets.

Miss Vina Woods was transferred to Miss Turner's former class.

Miss Rose Ingles was placed in charge of Miss McManus' former class at Seventh and G streets.

The various applicants for teachers' positions were nominated and Miss Winn was elected unanimously, Miss Anderson next, and Miss Chambers and Miss Cronkite the two others.

Frank E. Savage was elected janitor of the Sutter Grammar School and the board adjourned.

NEW CHIEF DEPUTY.

B. H. Gallup to Succeed Mr. Wachhorst in the Clerk's Office.

B. H. Gallup, who has been for a long time a deputy in the County Clerk's office, has been promoted by Mr. Hamilton to the Chief Deputyship, vice Eugene Wachhorst, who will become Assistant District Attorney on the 1st of January.

Mr. Gallup is well qualified for the position of Chief Deputy, in fact, Mr. Hamilton could not have made any mistake, as he had excellent material in his office from which to select a successor to Mr. Wachhorst, who has filled the position with marked ability and credit to that department of the county service.

Mr. Gallup possesses the qualities required in a Chief Deputy. He is an excellent clerk, is thoroughly familiar with the business of the office and is patient, affable and obliging. One has many peculiar people to deal with in the County Clerk's office, and he who can preserve his equanimity and treat all with uniform courtesy is happily constituted.

CHICO VS. SACRAMENTO.

Contest on the Oak Park Gridiron on Monday Next.

Lovers of outdoor sport will have an opportunity to witness one of the favorite national games on next Monday at the Oak Park athletic grounds. These grounds will be opened for outdoor sports and pastimes by the Comus Football Team in a contest with the Chico Normal School Team, which holds the championship of Northern California.

The Comus team has achieved an enviable reputation by their remarkable game played on Thanksgiving Day in Woodland, when they upheld their end against a team of overwhelming weight, the score being 11 to 11.

The team has been in constant training for six weeks, and whereas before it was rather weak in defensive play, it is now exceedingly strong. There is probably not one of the many teams in this State which plays a better offensive game, and Chico will have a hard time resisting the aggressive plays made by the home team.

From Chico comes the report that the lads are in the best of condition, having trained faithfully and having every confidence of winning the match. They play a good, fast game and expect to outwind the Sacramentans, but the home boys look wise and smile, as they are not so slow themselves.

There will doubtless be a large crowd present and a lively tussle.

BARRETT'S SUCCESSOR.

Colonel Peeler Will be Adjutant General for a While.

It will be the proper thing henceforth for Colonel R. I. Peeler's friends to address him as "General," as he is to succeed A. W. Barrett as Adjutant General until such time as Governor Gage selects his own Adjutant. A dispatch from San Francisco last night says:

"Colonel Robert I. Peeler will succeed Adjutant General Barrett, who has just been appointed Bank Commissioner. Governor Budd announced today that Colonel Peeler's appointment had been decided on, and that his commission would probably be issued tomorrow.

"Colonel Peeler is at present Assistant Adjutant General of the State, and is well acquainted with the military affairs."

THE GIRL RECANTS.

Lizzie Wrenz Has Concluded Not to Testify Against Espinosa.

Some time ago Philip Espinosa, an elderly man, was held to answer on a charge of criminally assaulting a little girl named Lizzie Wrenz (or Raines). The child's mother took the part of the accused, at that time, though the girl gave strong testimony against Espinosa at the preliminary examination.

Now she has, for some reason, gone back on her story, and, realizing that no conviction could be had under the circumstances, District Attorney Ryan yesterday moved for the dismissal of the case. Judge Johnson, who heard the motion, took the matter under advisement till to-day.

THAT TOUHEY LOT.

The Supervisors Will This Morning Consider Its Purchase.

The Board of Supervisors will meet at 10 o'clock this forenoon to take action in the matter of the proposed purchase of a lot 80x100 feet in the rear of the County Jail for storage purposes. The lot is owned by James Touhey and he rents it to the county at $10 per month, but prefers to sell it outright for $1000.

The report that Mr. Touhey considered it a sort of Christmas gift to the county at that price, is, doubtless, a canard. It looks more like he prefers to be at the receiving end of the gift-making affair. Even though the county may need a lot for the storage of rock wood, etc., it seems unlikely the board would give any such price for one.

ANTELOPE'S LOSS.

Death of Mrs. Jane H. DeKay From Brain Paralysis.

The death is announced of Mrs. Jane H. DeKay of Antelope, who passed away yesterday after a brief illness. Deceased was 69 years of age, a native of England, and widow of the late Seely DeKay. Mr. and Mrs. DeKay took up their residence near Antelope some thirty years ago.

Deceased leaves two sons and two daughters—H. H. Pletcher of Livermore, Guy R. DeKay of Antelope, Mrs. A. P. Cecil of San Francisco and Mrs. Rose D. Dewey of Placerville.

The interment will take place in Roseville Cemetery at 12:30 o'clock today.

Beautiful Oranges.

W. I. Sears of Orangevale yesterday brought to the city some beautiful specimens of oranges—the thin skinned navel variety. They were clean and bright—like all oranges raised in this part of the State—and of immense size. Sacramento produces about the earliest oranges in the State.

MEANEST KIND OF A THIEF.

HE ROBBED THE CHILDREN OF HIS BENEFACTORS.

A Small Safe Stolen From the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kunz.

Emil Kunz, the electrician, notified District Attorney Ryan and Sheriff Johnson yesterday that on the 11th of this month someone stole from his premises, near Sixth and N streets, a small safe containing $100.10.

Mr. Kunz is a man of family, and ever since the advent of his first-born child he and his wife have daily deposited a 10-cent piece in the safe.

When an increase in the family occurred, about a year ago, two times more daily through the center slot of the money receptacle, until the register showed $100.10 on deposit in "Kunz's Sixth-street Bank."

Mr. Kunz, who is a skilled mechanic, constructed the safe himself. It was of drum shape, and made of boiler iron, with a bar through the center so that it could be fastened to the floor. It stood about eighteen inches high, weighed in the neighborhood of fifty pounds, and was painted red.

In order to clean the carpets the safe was temporarily moved from its moorings, and Mr. Kunz, who has been returning from a visit to some friends, were about to make their usual daily deposit in the bank when to their dismay they found that the bank and money were missing.

A large sack was also missed, and a young boy, who had been called at the Kunz domicile for several weeks, was seen no more about the premises after the disappearance of the safe. His effects, however, which are of no value, are still there.

Sheriff Johnson thinks the thief took the bank, or safe, to the river bank broke it open, took the contents and departed.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Boy Wanted" was played at the Clunie last night to a full house. It does not proceed upon the plan of putting the best foot forward first. It reserved its best for the last act, and that is not saying very much. Even among the poorest of variety shows it is trash.

The two redeeming features in it are Louis Martinetti, a clever acrobat, not even he had but one new turn, a forward throw somersault with back landing and hands secured; and the musical number of Fred Waltz and Jeanne Ardelle, the former clever in piano tricks, and the latter good in burlesque of Anna Held, and the only one in the troupe who can sing a "little bit"—the others screech. Perhaps Miss Busch, who has seen service in comic opera, may be excepted, but she was little heard. Wilson's concertina solo and playing on the saxophone was good, but not novel and better far has been heard here.

The Sisters Laurence, acrobatic dancers, are lithe contortionists and tumblers, but plenty as good and better have been seen here. The piece itself is silly and tiresome in its absurdity, witless and without genuine humor, coarse and without the apology of originality. Any single act of "Gayest Manhattan" is worth the whole show, and even "Hogan's Alley," miserable trash as it is, might justly refuse to be ranked on the level of the wallow of "A Boy Wanted." It is little short of obtaining money on false pretenses to claim that the outfit gives value received. And yet this combination played a full week at the California Theater, San Francisco, and was commended by the press of the metropolis. The same piece to-night.

Friday evening at the Clunie Callahan's "A Romance of Coon Hollow," from a season at the Fourteenth-street Theater, New York. Special scenery, colored serenaders and dancers, electrical effects, two quartets, a vigorous, connected plot and well portrayed characters, are claimed for this piece and company. It is represented as a Southern "Old Homestead" comedy. It brings about romances attaching to the Tennessee Mountains. The claim is made that it is the equal of, if not superior to "In Old Kentucky" and "Blue Jeans," and in some respects resembles them.

It is in its fourth season and New York, Philadelphia and Cincinnati papers are quoted as warmly commending it. The claim is made for the burglary scene, the "Twilight River Scene," the scene of the steamboat race, the "Cotton Press Scene" and "A View of Coon Hollow by Moonlight," that these effects are original and very realistic, and that the tale of the drama is not over colored, but a genuine and touching "heart story." Seats are now on sale.

At the Clunie Saturday and Sunday nights Edison's latest farce comedy, "Two Married Men." The play is the story of a man who has a forgiving young wife and an unforgiving mother-in-law. His gallantry to a strange woman in distress leads him into all sorts of ludicrous trouble, which is straightened out when the strange woman is found to be the merry mischief making wife of a sympathizing bosom friend of the victim. Schelling, the well-known minstrel specialist, is a member of the company, the leading man being J. Rush Bronson, a popular low comedian who appeared here a dozen of years ago. The Tacoma "News" and Seattle "Post-Intelligencer" pronounce the comedy clean, funny from start to finish, and full of ludicrous situations, and the company as equal to its good production, with several clever specialists besides.

In the City Justice Court yesterday Frank Monca and Petruco Peguro, arrested by Special Officer Katzenstein, were arraigned on a charge of petty larceny, the specification setting forth that they stole lumber from the yard of the Friend & Terry Company, on Front street. They pleaded not guilty, and their cases were continued until Friday.
