BAD JOURNALISTIC METHODS. Criticism of legislators is right, commendable and beneficial when it is confined within legitimate lines.

As England learned to rule herself better from ruling India well, so we, from ruling our dependencies in the light of our own best knowledge, may find our achievements there an example and an inspiration to us in our work of government at home.

The bill of Mr. Johnson providing for the purchase of a site and the erection thereon of a Governor's residence building ought to pass. The State will be following, in so doing, the example of many States.

The method places it within the power of unscrupulous newspaper agencies to cow the timid, drive those who abhor newspaper contention into repression of their honest sentiments, and to thwart worthy legislation as well as to defeat the unworthy.

The proposition to revive imprisonment for debt is receiving from all the press the condemnation such a disreputable scheme deserves.

GOOD ADVICE FROM ABROAD. A good many critics of America in foreign lands are very generous and kindly in advising us concerning our new possessions.

England has learned that lesson to her cost, but it was well learned, and she did not make the mistake the second time. We cannot Americanize the people of the new acquisitions at once, nor in a long time.

But we can, say these critical advisers, and with comparatively little trouble, manage the new peoples by refraining from all attempt to force our system upon them.

The Fresno "Republican" predicts a boom at hand for California. Let us hope not. Booms never helped any people or any one, save conscienceless speculators. We believe the growth of prosperity in California is gaining momentum, and that times are to grow better steadily—but a boom, heaven forefend!

to learn the lesson from those they originally taught. All we want America to do is to start her empire on true lines. If she does that all will be well, and she will be able to make any modifications in our colonial system that a difference of circumstances may require.

We are told also that we must from the outset set our faces against anything at all resembling the spoils system. Spain never could free herself from the leeches that sucked the life blood not only of the colonies and dependencies, but of the mother land.

This thought as conservative a journal as the Portland "Oregonian" heartily approves and enlarges upon, saying in conclusion that the magnitude of the responsibilities we are assuming, ought to and will enforce such administration abroad as will react for purification at home.

An inadvertent mistake has been made in Assembly Bill No. 71. It is, as it stands, intended to repeal an Act, approved March, 1895, creating a Bureau of Highways.

BLOODSHED IN SAMOA.

MAILOTOA FOLLOWS AND A NUMBER KILLED AND WOUNDED. The Consuls of the United States and Great Britain and the Captains of the German warship Falke and the British warship Porpoise met the German Consul, who refused to recognize Malletoa Tanu, and declined to co-operate in the disposal of the Samoans, who thereupon assembled in large numbers at Malietoa's house and forced their way into the municipality.

At the opera-house last evening there was played by the orchestra for the first time a new composition, a sprightly and pleasing production, "The Twentieth Century March," composed by Professor J. S. Becker of the orchestra, and arranged by Professor George B. Franz, the orchestral leader. It is dedicated to the Treasurer of the opera-house, Miss Edna I. Ficks.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Clunie Opera-house this evening Sig. Abramoff, the accomplished basso, long-time alternate with Edward Reszke, the greatest living basso, will give a concert and operatic entertainment, supported by Sig. Michelen, the tenor widely and popularly known, and Miss Valera of San Francisco, a well known operatic soprano.

On Monday, the 23d, at 11:30 a. m., W. H. Sherburn will sell at auction at 506 J street, a lot of jewelry belonging to the estate of Manuel Dubois.

MRS. PINKHAM TALKS ABOUT "CHANGE OF LIFE."

Women are Urged to Prepare for this Wonderful Revolution in the Economy of Their Life Blood—Mrs. Watson Tells How She Was Helped. At no time is woman more liable to physical and mental dangers with hours of suffering than at the "Turn of Life."

At the Congregational Church next Tuesday evening Miss Helen Sumner will give a concert, supported by Mrs. Adra Lane Sunderland of San Francisco, mezzo soprano; Rhys Thomas of San Francisco, tenor; Franklin Griffin, Sacramento, alto; Miss Caroline and Miss Edith Estelle Howe, instructors at Mills' Seminary, as elocutionists. Miss Howe has excelled by her ability for some time the lively interest of music lovers, and for this occasion the following named well known women of Sacramento are promoting the announced event and giving it all possible aid.

Mayo, son of the lamented author of the play and creator of the title role was billed in the part, but Mr Mayo was taken sick with a gripe a few days ago and was unable to appear. Manager Ficks was not aware of that fact until yesterday forenoon. He gave notice in the evening press at once that Mr Mayo's understudy would assume the part, that no one might be misled or disappointed. Just before the curtain went up Mr Ficks addressed the audience, saying that in assuming the management of the opera-house he had resolved that the theater-going public should not be deceived or cheated in any representations made through bill or advertisement of his. Mr Mayo had been billed to appear. He was sick with gripe and unable to do so.

RAILWAY MEN'S CLUB.

The Railway Employes' Political Club met last evening with a very large attendance, and all manifested considerable interest in the various matters that came up for discussion. It is evident that the railway men intend to make their organization a potent factor in public matters.

JEWELRY AT AUCTION.

BACON OPPOSES EXPANSION POLICY.

Morgan then moved to fix the Caffery substitute on the table. The motion was carried—32 to 22—as follows: Ayes—Aldrich, Allison, Bacon, Berry, Chilton, Clay, Davis, Deboe, Foraker, Gallinger, Gorman, Gray, Harris, Hawley, Heitfeld, Jones of Arkansas, Kenney, Kyle, McEldric, Morgan, Nelson, Perkins, Pettus, Platt of Connecticut, Platt of New York, Pritchard, Ross Shoup, Simon, Sullivan, Turner, White—32.

The amendment was discussed by Bacon, Chilton and Teller. It was defeated—37 to 12. Gorman proposed the following substitute for Section 12 of the Morgan bill, the substitute being accepted and agreed to:

"That the President of the United States is authorized to arrange by agreement with the Republics of Nicaragua, Costa Rica, or both of them, or with the grantees holding concessions from either of those States, to acquire all rights and privileges that may be necessary, and to secure any change or modification in the terms of the concessions granted by said States, which he deems just and for the best interests of all who are interested in the Nicaragua Canal and he is also authorized to submit to arbitration in the manner provided for in said concessions or otherwise any matter or controversy that may arise in reference to said canal or that relates to any claim or right under said concessions or any of them."

The amendment was defeated—32 to 15. Allison (R.) of Iowa offered the following as a new section: "The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to borrow on the credit of the United States from time to time when necessary, such sum or sums as may be required to provide for the payment of the treasury warrants authorized to be issued under the provisions of this Act and shall issue bonds of the United States for such purpose at a rate of interest not exceeding 3 per cent, per annum, payable quarterly, principal and interest to be paid in coin of the present standard value at the pleasure of the United States after twenty years from their date, and said bonds shall be sold at not less than the par and shall first be offered to the people of the United States under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury."

At no time is woman more liable to physical and mental dangers with hours of suffering than at the "Turn of Life." The great want in woman's system is ability to properly adjust itself to the new conditions. The outlet, monthly, of blood is now being diminished and carried into the body for the supply food of its later years.

Daughters, you can now to some extent repay your mother's early care. She must be spared every possible exertion. You must help her bear her burdens and anxieties. This critical time safely over, she will return to renewed health and happiness. That so many women fail to anticipate this change thus happily, is owing not merely to lack of care, but to ignorance. There is, however, no excuse for ignorance when experienced advice can be yours free of all cost. Write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., she has helped great numbers of women successfully through the Change of Life, and she will help you.

Read this letter from Mrs. DELLA WATSON, 524 West 5th St., Cincinnati, Ohio. "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I have been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time during the change of life, and it has been a savior of life unto me. I can cheerfully recommend your medicine to all women, and I know it will give permanent relief. I would be glad to relate my experience to any sufferer."

GOVERNOR OF OREGON Uses Pe-ru-na in His Family and Grip

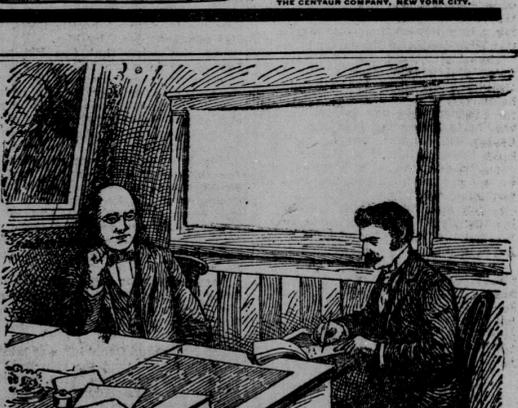

CAPITOL BUILDING, SALEM, OREGON.

A Letter From the Executive Office of Oregon. Pe-ru-na is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Letters of congratulation and commendation testifying to the merits of Pe-ru-na as a catarrh remedy are pouring in from every State in the Union. Dr. Hartman is receiving hundreds of such letters daily. All classes write these letters, from the highest to the lowest. The outdoor laborer, the indoor artisan, the clerk, the editor, the statesman, the preacher—all agree that Pe-ru-na is the catarrh remedy of the age. The stage and rostrum, recognizing catarrh as their greatest enemy, are especially enthusiastic in their praise and testimony.

ANY man who wishes perfect health must be entirely free from catarrh. Catarrh is well-nigh universal; almost omnipresent. Pe-ru-na is the only absolute safeguard known. A cold is the beginning of catarrh. To prevent cures, to cure colds, is to cheat catarrh out of its victims. Pe-ru-na not only cures catarrh, but prevents. Every household should be supplied with this great remedy for coughs, colds and so forth.

Unsollicited testimonials to the value and excellence of Ripans Tablets comes from one of the best known stenographers in Philadelphia, a gentleman who for a number of years has been connected with one of the largest brokerage firms in that city. "Stenography," he says, "has been my life study. To it I have given all my time and attention. I occupy a position of trust and in order to merit the confidence reposed in me I have to give close attention to my duties. I would be unable to do this were it not for the use of Ripans Tablets, which I consider the only successful remedy for ills of the stomach and liver, and furthermore the nerves. About a year ago I became a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia and indigestion to such a degree that I was in constant dread of falling behind in my work. It was a friend who first told me of Ripans Tablets and advised me to make trial of them. I did so and the relief was absolute and immediate, and in a month I was practically as free from the trouble as I was before it began. I have continued to take the Tablets, as usually, ever since, because I find them not only excellent for keeping the general system in tone, but for the purpose of occasional slight stimulation. I can sincerely recommend Ripans Tablets. The duties incumbent upon an expert stenographer and practiced typist are severe and exacting. To be able to take dictation at a rapid rate and from men who are entirely different in their methods requires a steady hand and a clear head. The ordinary stenographer will tell you that he cannot do his work properly unless his physical condition is good."
