Napoleon, at St. Helena, said to Antonomarchi, his nephew, "Believe me, we had better leave the island, for the medicines, life is a fortress which neither you nor I know anything about."

Why throw obstacles in the way of its defence? Its own means are superior to all the apparatus of the laboratory. It is a collection of innumerable prescriptions, the results of which, taken collectively, have been helpful to mankind. Water, air and cleanliness are my chief medicines."

At the time when Napoleon said this he was largely right. Physicians in those days dealt out obnoxious and drastic drugs that did violence to every fiber in the body. Since that date medical science has made wonderful strides. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine composed of native medicinal roots that do no violence to nature. Its action is gentle and natural. It simply promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It restores the lost appetite, corrects all disorders of the digestive tract, the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood, builds new and healthy flesh tissue, tones the nerves and gives sweet and refreshing sleep. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent of all cases of all diseases of the air passages that lead up to consumption. It is a wonderful medicine for all diseases due to insufficient or improper nourishment of body or nerves. Do not deal with unscrupulous dealers who urge you to take worthless substitutes for the sake of a few pennies added profit.

I have been using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and I have saved my life. I was three years and I have saved my life. This winter Mrs. Sophia Fraser, of Oakland, Rockbridge Co., Va., "I know keep the medicine in my house all the time and use them every time I feel the least of a cold. It is a wonderful medicine for all diseases due to insufficient or improper nourishment of body or nerves. Do not deal with unscrupulous dealers who urge you to take worthless substitutes for the sake of a few pennies added profit."

Every sick man or woman should send in one-cent stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a copy of his great 100-page Common Sense Medical Adviser; or get stamps for a heavy cloth-bound copy.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

A message from the Governor, relating to claims of several newspapers, was received and read. The message will be found in full in another column. The message was referred to the Committee on Executive Communications.

WIDE TIRES.

Laird called up his notice of a motion to reconsider the vote whereby S. B. 476, commonly known as the wide-tires bill, was passed, and a motion to reconsider the vote was passed, and on motion of Dickinson the further consideration of the matter was made a special order for Tuesday morning after the reading of the journal.

Subsequently Laird introduced a new "wide-tires" bill the third of the session, excluding the committee substitute. The new measure provides that the present law shall go into effect March 1, 1903.

THIRD READING FILE.

The third reading file taken up, and S. B. 59, by Dickinson, to provide for inspection of dairies, factories of dairy products as to their sanitary condition and the products of milk drawn from diseased animals to the people of the State; amended by special committee and ordered printed.

PUBLISHING AMENDMENTS.

S. B. 421, by Davis, relating to the publication of proposed constitutional amendments, called for much debate, and succeeded in materially extending the length of the session.

The bill was read, and Davis, by special committee, offered a resolution making it conform to Wade's Assembly bill on a like proposition. The amendment provided that the Secretary of State should cause to be printed at the State Printing Office one and one-half times as many copies of the proposed amendment as there were voters in the State, and that the County Clerk of each county should be furnished with one and one-half times as many copies as there were voters in his county, and should cause the same to be distributed to said voters thirty days before the election at which they were to be voted upon.

Shortridge said he felt that the bill was a cheap way of hitting the newspapers. He hoped the matter would not be rushed through without due consideration.

Cutter said the adoption of the proposed amendment would save about $90,000 annually for the State.

Davis said he held the newspapers in the State to highly to think that they would crucify the bill, when it had been introduced in the interest of the meeting, and in the cause of good government. He said it was not in any sense a fling at the newspapers, but was intended to give them a better system of advertising than they now enjoy.

Shortridge said he could see no objection to the bill, if in addition to advertising the amendments, he thought it would be better to offer something that would help the newspapers instead of taking away what little patronage they had. He submitted that if $50,000 had been paid to the newspapers it was because they had earned it, and it was better to keep with the law and not with the newspapers.

Davis said again that no filing at the newspapers was intended. The bill was along the line of Governor Gage's inaugural address, referred to the Committee on Attachments, Contingent Expenses and Mileage.

SMITH SAID DAVIS WAS A WELL-MEANING MAN, BUT WAS NEVER FARTHER FROM HIS BEARING IN HIS LIFE.

The measure, even with Wade's amendment, would not materially reduce the expense of advertising. He said that in 1894 Governor Markham had looked kindly upon the county press and gave them good fat slices, and ever since that time they had been trying to get more, but as a matter of fact, there was little use of advertising the amendments at all inasmuch as the newspapers promulgated the constitutional amendments before they were advertised, and for the further reason that most people were willing to take the word of the newspaper, and vote accordingly. He said he noticed that a State officer could hang around the Senate for two weeks and get any extra number of deputies he wanted, and he had also noticed that the same State officer got $11,000 to furnish his office, and he could not help but notice also that when the question came up allowing a little patronage to country newspapers that virtue overlook many Senators and they became extremely economical. Such spasmodic departures from and return to economy seemed just a little strange.

Bulla favored the amendment, holding that if copies of the amendments were sent to individual voters the amendments would be much more intelligently voted upon than by inserting them in a newspaper, down in one corner in small type. Few people, he said, read advertisements, anyway. He did not see a fig for the newspapers, he said, and he submitted that they should not have injected themselves into the consideration of the bill. The only thing he thought of was to better the interests of the people, by giving them better service.

A motion to make the further consideration of the matter a special order for Tuesday next, after the reading of the journal, was lost by a vote of 18 to 14. A motion to adjourn was lost. Smith offered a substitute for the amendments, presented by the special committee of one, which was ruled out of order.

The question being on the amendment, Shortridge spoke to it. He was followed by Smith, after which an amendment was adopted and the bill ordered printed.

At 5:15 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

GREAT SPORT.

Dogs and Hares in Grand Fettle for the Fun To-Morrow.

Considerable interest is being manifested among dog men in the outcome of the puppy stake to be run off at Agricultural Park to-morrow. No less than fourteen of the fleetest youngsters in this part of the country are entered for this event, and judging by past performances, it would be difficult to pick the winner. Indeed, the owner of the puppy that takes the large end of the purse will certainly have a dog whose company will be fast enough for any on the coast.

Geyer, the white and black pride of Pearl & Bennett's kennel, although only twelve months old, has shown wonderful speed so far this season, but will no doubt have to increase it to keep pace with Pride of Clare, Rebe, of which very little is known, may prove to be a "dark" dog before the finals are reached and ordered printed.

A puppy stake is composed of dogs eighteen months of age or under, and when they have had very little experience their efforts at catching the foot-footed jackrabbit often afford the greatest amusement to the spectators. With the rabbits running as they did last Sunday, the course are liable to extend all over the field.

In the open stake Electricity and White Midget will be seen here for the first time. The former is a handsome brindie bitch, the property of R. Hall Pleasant Grove, of which great things are expected. The latter is a white bitch, the latest acquisition of Alvord & Devine's kennels, and although extremely small is said to be a wonder.

Mercury, whose running surprised even his most ardent admirers last Sunday, will also be on hand, together with his kennel mate, Promise Me, and these, with Playwright, Gratify and the old stand-by, Defender, go to make up one of the best programs yet arranged by the local club.

There are about 150 good, strong hares at the park and it is said they sit up on the fences and boast of what they are going to do to the dogs when the latter enter the ring.

GALLAHORN AND BOYD.

These Evangelists Will Bombard Satan on Sunday.

Messrs. Gallahorn and Boyd will open their evangelistic meetings to-morrow at the First Baptist Church at 11 a. m. Mr. Gallahorn has a national reputation, having held revival meetings from the Atlantic to the Pacific. He has had marked success in preaching and singing the gospel. Mr. Boyd has had ten years' experience as a pastor and singing evangelist.

These gentlemen have been called "The Moody and Sankey of the West." Their success in other places leads to the expectation of a great meeting in this city.

The workers are organized. A large chorus choir is being formed, and the singing will be a feature of the meetings.

Thorough preparations have been made to accommodate the crowds that will attend. The meetings will be held at 2:30 and 7:30 every day except Saturdays.

FLAG-RAISING.

Held Yesterday in Honor of Lincoln's Birthday.

The pupils of Washington Primary School, at Thirteenth and G streets, had quite an event yesterday—a flag raising in honor of Lincoln day.

The City Board of Education had provided the school with a new flag, and the Principal, Miss Mary Woods, had the pupils of each class formed into a platoon, and all marched out into the yard in front of the building. As the flag went up the children saluted it and joined in singing "America" as its graceful folds caught the breeze.

Sacramento, Saturday 11 February, 1899. Store closes today at six o'clock.

TIME! Last call for the $10 bedroom sets.

We've given everybody plenty of time to secure one of these sets. The sale positively closes today at six o'clock. We said at the beginning of this week that we doubted if a more interesting furniture offering had ever been made in Sacramento—and now as the sale is closing we are convinced that we were not exaggerating the event a particle. Considering the fact that the manufacturers have raised the price of furniture from five to fifteen per cent, these bedroom sets are remarkably cheap at the regular price—$14.50. At this week's special figure—ten dollars—they are really "gits."

The picture above shows the grain and ornamentation of this set very well. The wood is ash, finished antique. The bedstead is 5 feet 11 inches high and 4 feet 8 inches wide. The bureau is 3 feet 4 inches wide and 19 inches deep and has a German bevel plate mirror 18 by 24 inches. The washstand is 32 inches wide and 18 inches deep.
