

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION AT LOS ANGELES.

A Four Days' Session in July—What the Local Committees Are Doing.

The organization of the Local Committees of the National Educational Association for the entertainment of the delegates to the National Educational Convention to be held in Los Angeles from July 11th to 14th, has been completed with but one exception—the appointment of a Local Press Committee.

The rapid growth of Los Angeles has made it necessary for the members of the Hotel Committee, H. P. Anderson, Chairman, to cause a special pass to be made so that the exact rooming capacity of the city could be brought to date.

The first material action of this committee was the selection of the Westminster Hotel, Fourth and Main streets, as the National headquarters for the N. E. A. This hotel, which is centrally located, has 275 rooms, supplied with every convenience for the care of visitors, and is in all respects well adapted for the purpose for which it is to be used.

Through the Railway and Excursion Committee (C. B. Booth, Chairman), the association has been able to obtain a one-day round trip rate, plus $2 (N. E. A. membership) from all points in California.

General John R. Matthews, Chairman of the Committee on Halls, reports there are 118 halls in the city, each with a seating capacity of not less than 150 and that Hazard's Pavilion has been selected as the principal convention hall.

The Committee on Printing and Badges, headed by J. A. Foshay, has had the best design for the association's official stationery and buttons. Bids are being asked for an official guide of which 20,000 are to be printed and distributed.

J. A. Foshay of the Membership Committee, who has been in communication with the leading educators of the country, expects one of the largest conventions ever held by the association. At the last meeting of the Local Executive Committee he reported a membership of 2,000.

Charles Silent, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reports he has received assurances from leading citizens and others, offering their financial support.

E. T. Pierce, Chairman of the Committee on Schoolbooks and Appliances, and W. H. Housh, Chairman of the Committee on Exhibits, both report their work well in hand.

Arrangements are under way for the establishing of California State headquarters, which will be centrally located, and will be maintained principally through the support of teachers.

At present the headquarters of the Bureau of Information is located in room 5 of the Chamber of Commerce. For information regarding various departments, address Local Executive Committee, or Chairman of the various committees.

"GRANDMA" DE PUY. Illness of an Aged and Esteemed Pioneer Resident.

Mrs. James Stone, wife of Rev. James Stone of Anaheim, Orange County, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary De Puy, who is lying quite sick with the grip at the residence of her son, E. S. De Puy.

Mrs. De Puy is one of the early settlers. She came to Sacramento in the early fifties, and has been a constant resident of this city ever since. She has many friends among the old residents, who will be pained to hear of her illness. "Grandma" De Puy, by which name she is better known, is now in her eighty-fifth year, and has quite a California history. Her father and three brothers, as well as a sister, Mrs. Samuel Kyburg, whose husband was General Sutter's agent and Secretary from 1846 to 1853, and an intimate friend and companion of Marshall, the discoverer of gold in this State—are all well known.

Mrs. Stone will visit her parents, Dr.

Millinery Opening Friday and Saturday, February 24 and 25.

MRS. M. A. PEALER, 621-623 J Street.

EVERYBODY'S COLUMN.

Under this heading the "Record-Union" will publish short letters from correspondents on topics of interest to the general public. The matter in these communications will be understood to represent only the views of the writers. All communications must be accompanied by the name of the writer, not for publication unless so desired, but as a guarantee of good faith.—Eds.

A Political Critique. Eds. "Record-Union": Isn't the failure of the majority of our California legislators to elect a United States Senator a political crime against the Republic?

Should the present Legislature fail to elect a United States Senator—which election was made the paramount issue of the last campaign,—and upon which the Republican party of this State, and a watchful and inexcusable disregard of the wishes of their constituents, regardless of party affiliations?

The people of this State are beginning to seriously doubt the honesty of motive on the part of legislators who stand in the way of breaking the Senatorial deadlock, which they believe is so overshadowing other duties of legislation that the best interests of the State are suffering injury thereby.

While each and all of these views may be an injustice to those who stubbornly refuse to make honorable concessions for the purpose of breaking the deadlock and settling on a party choice whose election would be certain and without delay, yet the fact that these views are growing in popularity ought to cause our representatives to consider the matter as reasonable men, and as patriotic and loyal members of the party which they should honorably represent.

The question for Republicans in the Legislature is to decide—either to decide without further delay—is to do, or not to do. If they intend to elect a United States Senator they ought to do so at once, and not subject themselves to the criticism of "bleeding" candidates and befooling legislation in the interest of "hooding" and "cinch" bills. If they do not wish to choose a Senator, and thereby make Republican success in the future an impossibility, all they have to do is to continue just as they have since the balloting for Senator first began.

If the latter course is pursued the entire Republican party will be held responsible for the criminal neglect of duty. It behooves the party in every part of this State to demand of its legislators action on their part, which is of vital importance to the party—absolutely necessary to its future supremacy in California—and of the greatest moment to the State and nation.

It is time to warn those Republican members who will not act within reason and for the salvation of their party that they will be held personally responsible for the consequences so far as future party consideration is concerned. I have not heard how a caucus can be held in the interest of any individual candidate or scheme. When the trusted Republican legislators, representing the party from every county in the State, meet in caucus, I believe they can be trusted. I know they can if they are honest, and there is no reason for believing that the friends of any one Senatorial candidate is any more or less honest than the friends of other candidates. If the caucus seems fit to elect Mr. Grant, let it do so; if it chooses Mr. Burns, well and good; if Mr. Barnes or Senator Bulla is chosen, the people cannot complain. If any other man is the choice, the legislators will have done their duty, and that duty will not be done until a United States Senator shall be elected by the present Legislature.

The people appreciate the patriotic, unselfish motives of the "Record-Union" in its earnest, dignified efforts to get the present Legislature to do its simple duty, and nothing more.

A telegram was received in this city yesterday announcing the death in St. Louis, Mo., of Miss Estelle, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Biggs of that city, and sister of Mrs. James Paris, Jr., of Sacramento.

Her many friends here, who were visited about three years ago, will hear of her death with sincere regret, as she was of a most lovable disposition, and once known was not easily forgotten. Her death was quite sudden, as letters had been received from her only a few days ago, in which no reference was made to her illness.

NOT BADLY LOST. Daly, the Stockton Evangelist, is Hereabouts.

Some days ago a telegram was sent out from Stockton to the effect that W. R. Daly, an evangelist, who had been holding forth there, had mysteriously and suddenly disappeared, and it was feared that something had happened to him.

And so there had. John Steen, who conducted a saloon at Oak Park, telephoned to the "Record-Union" yesterday that the wanderer from Stockton had just visited his place in quest of a cooling draught of the extract of hops.

The Bitters act at once upon the stomach, and relieve all gastric, biliousness and liver complaint. They induce a sound, refreshing sleep. The trial of a bottle will afford convincing proof.
