Mall of Woodland: Very few of our Demopop exchanges even refer to the settlement of the Central Pacific Railroad question. How strange!

THE GOVERNOR.

Red Bluff People's Cause: Whatever members of the Legislature and those who talk them into passing bills may think of the Governor's action, we can unhesitatingly say that so far the Executive, in interfering with legislation, is meeting with the fond expectations of the people. The other day Governor Gage vetoed a bill which authorized an increase in the force and the salaries of the office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court. He holds that the office is now well managed and needs no additional assistance, thus establishing the principle he will not favor an unnecessary increase in office-holders. He also vetoed a bill fastening a Harbor Commission upon the city of San Diego—a tax-eating measure of vast proportions. Nearly every appropriation bill which has been presented to the Governor so far has met with hearty disapproval. Of course, there is great consternation in legislative circles, and probably great pressure is being exerted upon the Governor to induce him to abandon his legislative prerogatives. But we hope he will stand in striking attitude against these extravagant measures. The people of California are supporting a sufficient number of office-holders already, and times are hard and taxes should come down. If Governor Gage continues in the lines he has marked out for himself, he will get a monument.

THAT OUTRAGEOUS CARTOON.

Pasadena News: The anti-newspaper legislation will not be near so severe as at first anticipated. The legislators who were aiming their poisoned shafts at the yellow journals have come to realize that they were going to injure journalism generally, and they have stayed their hands and relieved the tension of the bow. That outrageous cartoon of the "Call," which went back thirty-five years and dragged out an indirection of Assemblyman Johnson, produced such an uprising that it cleared the atmosphere.

THE CARTOON.

Alameda Enigma: Opponents of the anti-cartoon bill still continue to have spasms over it. Their latest ache is the alleged fact that under it it will be impossible to make pictures of men accused of crime and hence their detection and arrest will be greatly hindered. We have failed to note that any larger proportion of criminals have been detected since the papers commenced to publish illustrations than was the case years ago before they did in fact some of the worst criminals of the century have escaped scot free, though every yellow paper in the land gave their alleged portraits. Of course there will be an end to the arrest of "suspects," as for example in the Dunham case, where men supposed to be that murderer have been arrested and after fifty times because of likeness to the published portraits, yet the real offender has so far escaped. And this is only one case out of many. It is safe to say that more innocent men have been arrested because of supposed resemblance to the portraits of criminals, than real criminals have been caught through the hatchet and broad-ax illustrations of most of the papers.

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE?

Truckee Republican: We can hardly think of anything any more that would be unpardonable than the attacks that have been made upon President McKinley by anti-expansionists recently. To him is imputed all kinds of sinister motives in his course in dealing with the questions that have necessarily confronted him as the result of the war on a certain occasion, and conscientiously and wisely during the late war no one will dispute, and if some of our erratic statesmen would hold their peace and reserve their premature judgment, they will find that he is acting wisely now in the way of our support of the Philippines in order to maintain discipline in the islands, when they themselves by their opposition to the policy of the Government have doubtless been one of the greatest factors in producing the recent troubles with the Philippines.

THE ROAD TO PEACE.

Stockton Mail: The latest test of canned roast beef the court of inquiry is amusing the world with at present will hardly cut much of a figure in the popular verdict, however much it may please the court to be impressed with it. It certain meat nautically is the fact that on a certain occasion, and certain meat does not nauseate now, the fair inference is that the meat then and the meat now are different kinds of meat. The meat served out to the troops during the war was considered bad, because it was less than the taste and made those who ate it vomit. If the meat served before the court of inquiry witnesses does not smell or taste vilely and does not make them vomit, then we know it is not the same kind of meat, and though the Chicago combine might swear on a stack of Bibles that it was, we would know that the combine had made a mistake.

THE DEADLOCK.

Pomona Progress: The Legislature draws speedily toward the close of its session and still there is no break in the deadlock. Can it be possible that the Legislature will leave California with only half the representation to which the State is entitled in the upper house of Congress? Mr. Bulla went before a caucus of his followers and magnanimously offered to release them from any obligations they might feel to vote for leaving the Bibles to vote for whomsoever they chose; but they resolved unanimously to stand by him. Why should not all of the candidates follow the example set by Mr. Bulla, that the members of the Legislature may get together and elect some one? Not until there is a general breaking up of the forces, can a Senator be elected.

THE CAUCUS.

Napa Register: In that caucus let every Republican in the Legislature be present, and when a vote is wanted let the roll be called and let the understanding that the legislator shall answer to his name and speak his choice distinctly enough for every man, woman and child in the State to hear. To open an honest work and the majority rule so applied, few if any will object.

Overdue Steamers Arriving.

NEW YORK, March 6.—There were eight ocean steamers in quarantine this morning, of which seven had arrived during the night and the others had come in with the sunrise. Among them were several other overdue steamers. Those whose long voyages had begun to cause most anxiety were the British steamer Albatross from Hamburg, via Sunderland, which had been out twenty-eight days from the latter port; steamers Hero, from Hamburg, and Langbank, from Calcutta, both of which had called at St. Michaels, Azores, and left there at the same time, fifteen days ago.

Costly Residence Burned. OMAHA (Neb.), March 6.—The residence of Dr. George L. Miller, at Seymour Park, a suburb, burned last night, the house and contents are a total loss. In addition to the value of the buildings, a large number of valuable documents collected during the doctor's long career as editor of the "Herald" in this city were destroyed. Among the most cherished were letters from the late Governors Seymour and Tilden of New York, with both of whom Dr. Miller enjoyed years of acquaintance. The money loss will amount to $30,000.

COMMERCIAL. LOWER PRICES FOR WHEAT ON CALL. Spot Easier, With Buyers and Sellers Widely Apart—Barley Weaker.

San Francisco, Mar. 6th. A weaker tone to the Chicago and foreign markets offset the weather conditions in this country, and the prices for Wheat on call this morning. A large increase in the quantity of wheat afloat was reported. The weather throughout the month has been unfavorable for the growing crops, it being very cold for this time of year and following a thaw. Spot Wheat in this market was easier with buyers and sellers widely apart. Barley was weaker on and off call, with more liberal receipts than usual. Oats were quiet, but very firm and will probably advance as stocks are low in sale at consignments. Corn was dull. There were no receipts.
