

THE CONVENTION OF BAPTISTS.

Establishment of a Theological Seminary on Pacific Coast

The Theme of Discussion at the Meeting of the Educational Society.

The American Baptist Publication Society Opens the First Session of Its Seventy-fifth Anniversary With the Reading of the Report of the Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The meeting of the Baptist Educational Society was called to order at 9:30 o'clock this morning by Vice-President Brownson.

Addresses were given by Rev. Dr. Blackburn of Portland, who spoke eloquently of "The Need"; by Robert Whitaker of Oakland on the same line; by Rev. A. P. Brown, who spoke of the possibilities; by Rev. C. M. Hill, who presented "The Working Plan," and by Rev. C. H. Hobart, on "What Has Been Done."

Professor E. B. Hulbert of Chicago responded to a call and made a brief address. Also Dr. H. M. King, pastor of the oldest Baptist Church in this country, at Providence, R. I., and ex-President Kendrick of Shurtleff.

Much enthusiasm was manifested and the attendance was large. After a song, Rev. Dr. Hobart of Yonkers, N. Y., was introduced for the special address of the session on "Aims and Methods of Theological Education."

He made a strong plea for an education which shall prepare men to "hold up for Christ." He emphasized a suggestion already made that theological training should include the class for lay workers.

The doctor pleaded for a four years course of instruction, but quite revolutionary in his ideas. He suggested that some things be left out. He would leave out the Hebrew—relegate it to the university. He would leave out much of church history; also systematic theology, or a systematizing of "the things we don't know."

"But what have we left? First, what left to study the Bible; to stand in its parlor for introduction to grand characters there; into its drawing-room to look on the pictures of the saints of the past; passed into its dining-room, to feed on the bread of life; to the tower to get the grand outlook of faith, and then if the young man does not want to live in this house then show him to the front door."

The address was followed by the election of officers, as follows: President, A. H. Strong, D.D., LL.D., New York; Vice-Presidents—A. P. Montague, Ph.D., South Carolina; J. F. Forbes, Ph.D., Florida; Recording Secretary, E. M. Poter, D.D., Pennsylvania; Corresponding Secretary, H. L. Moorehouse, D.D., New York; Treasurer, E. V. Cary, Montclair, N. J.; Auditor, G. W. Murray, New York; Colonies, J. A. Hoyt, Greenville, S. C.; E. W. Stephens, Columbia, Mo.; Henry McDonald, D.D., Atlanta, Ga.; J. B. Gambrell, D.D., Waco, Texas.

To fill vacancy in the class expiring 1901, occasioned by the death of H. C. Woods, D.D., Rev. Robert McDonald, Brooklyn, N. Y.

PUBLICATION SOCIETY.

The American Baptist Publication Society opened the first session of its seventy-fifth anniversary this afternoon. The report of the board was read by J. Rowland, D.D., and presented the following statements and facts:

"In the publishing department we have sought to meet the needs of the denomination and age by the issue of books, tracts and periodicals fitted not only to the needs of the present, but also to give young and old uplifting views of truth.

"The force of workers in the Missionary Department has been considerably increased. The aggregate of sales for the year is $645,496.26; merchandise, $338,830.37; periodicals, $284,568.89."

The publishing department shows the following facts: The publications of the year, including tracts, have been eighty-one in number. Of these 1,108,250 copies have been printed. The entire number of books, pamphlets, periodicals, etc., new and old, printed during the year is 46,522,104 copies, an increase of 1,499,335 copies over previous year. The total number of pages printed during the year, reduced to 10-mo size, is 1,438,107,808, being an increase of 1,121,331,631 pages. The total amount received during the year is 46,522,104 copies, an increase of 1,499,335 copies over previous year. The total number of pages printed during the year, reduced to 10-mo size, is 1,438,107,808, being an increase of 1,121,331,631 pages.

The total issues since the organization of the society are 767,339,534 copies of books, periodicals, pamphlets, tracts, etc., equal to 17,271,629,148 10-mo pages and equivalent to 57,572,667 books of 300 pages each.

The report further shows the enormous quantity of over 44,000,000 copies of periodicals as the output of the year. The missionary department shows 120 missionaries and workers in the field.

Financially the net assets of the society show $864,169.48. A review of three-quarters of a century was presented by A. J. Rowland, D.D., General Secretary. The receipts in the publishing department for the first fifty years were $3,062,038.85. For the last twenty-five years they have been $11,291,331.63. The total amount received through the publishing department from the beginning is, therefore, $14,353,370.54.

Three thousand seven hundred and ninety agents, colporters, Sunday-school missionaries and chapel car workers have been engaged in the service of the society. These workers have sold 770,275 books and given away 175,592 more, besides 45,657,006 pages of tracts. They have visited 1,474,106 families, held 142,263 prayer meetings and 10,492 Sunday-school institutes. They have organized 11,215 Sunday-schools, baptized 27,231 persons and conducted 1,300 churches. Never, apparently, was there more need for the distinctive missionary work of the society than today.

Rev. E. A. Woods, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, San Francisco, welcomed the officers and delegates to the different societies in a speech reviewing the past fifty years of the history of the denomination in San Francisco and the country at large.

Rev. L. C. Barnes of Pennsylvania responded to the address of welcome. Following him the Hon. Mr. Shellenberger, Second Assistant Postmaster General, spoke of public life and Christian character, incidentally commending President McKinley as a model of the Christian man in public life.

The second session of the American Baptist Publication Society this evening was devoted to the work of chapel cars. Boston W. Smith, General Manager of this work, presided.

President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University spoke words of welcome on behalf of the universities of the State, commended the service, the working of which was explained in detail by Rev. B. B. Jacques.

Addresses were also delivered by C. H. Ruest, S. G. Neal and B. W. Smith, Superintendent of the chapel car system.

PACIFIC COAST BAPTIST CONFERENCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—A special meeting of the Pacific Coast Baptist conference was called to order this morning by President Brownson, the Rev. A. Grant leading in prayer. Rev. J. H. Garnett resigned as Recording Secretary, and E. E. Rosburg of Tacoma was elected to the position. The committee to whom was referred the educational policy made its report. The first feature of the establishing of one theological seminary for the coast. This was unanimously adopted. The second feature, two colleges at the most, to be fairly equipped before attempting to establish others, was adopted. A third feature was with reference to the establishment of affiliated academies. A resolution favoring this was adopted.
