

TWO OF NIPPON MARIU'S SAILORS.

Fishermen Found Them Drowned in the Bay.

Bodies Sent to a Crematory for Incineration.

Supposed That They Were Afraid of the Plague and Putting on Life Preservers, Tried to Swim to the Shore—Maru Will Be Kept in Quarantine for Some Time as a Precautionary Measure.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The bodies of two of the Japanese sailors of the plague ship Nippon Maru were found in the bay to-day and towed to a point off shore by fishermen, who were afraid to touch the bodies more than was necessary to attach a rope to them for towing purposes.

It is believed that the men were afraid to stay on the steamer and after attaching life preservers to their bodies jumped overboard and were drowned. On the trip of the Maru from Honolulu to this city a young Japanese girl died of some mysterious disease and was buried at sea an hour after death.

Later in the day portions of the bodies of the two men were sent to a bacteriologist for examination and the bodies were sent to a crematory for incineration.

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS.

Supreme Court Grants It in the Case of Joseph Clark.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The Supreme Court in an opinion rendered by Chief Justice Beatty and concurred in by five of his associate Justices, has granted a stay of proceedings in the case of the people of California vs. Joseph Clark, convicted of murder and sentenced to a term of imprisonment in the State Prison.

JUDGE SMITH'S ORDER.

Supreme Court Affirms It and Says He Had Jurisdiction.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Justice Temple of the Supreme Court has affirmed the order issued by Judge Smith of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County in a mortgage foreclosure suit brought by the Santa Cruz Bank of Savings against Arthur A. Taylor et al. in 1895.

Sorg Must Pay $4,500 to Save Her Wounded Heart.

SAN JOSE, June 28.—The $30,000 damages breach of promise suit of Mrs. Bertha Leibbrandt against Jean Sorg, which has been on trial here this week, came to an end this afternoon when the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $4,500.

CHINESE WILL NOT GO.

They Will Stay in the Stockton Parade on the Fourth.

STOCKTON, June 28.—The Stockton Fourth of July Committee at a meeting to-night sustained the action of the Parade Committee, which means that the Chinese feature of the parade will not be cut out to please a few kickers. It has been said the Veteran Firemen will not parade if the Chinese are permitted in the procession, but the committee looked upon the feature as a novelty and will not give way.

VALE AND HARVARD RACES FOR TO-DAY.

Unanimity of Feeling as to the Outcome.

Both Crews Agree Yale Has the Better Chance in Varsity Race.

Harvard Has the Preference in the Freshman Race—Police Arrangements Better and There Will Not be Crowding of Boats at the Finish, as in the Past—A Close Contest is Expected.

A PECULIAR FIRE.

Haywards Church Burned in Trying to Prevent a Conflagration.

HAYWARDS, June 28.—The Methodist Church here was burned to-day, only a portion of the furniture being saved. The origin of the fire was peculiar. It is supposed to have a big celebration on the Fourth of July in this city, and in order to prevent a possible conflagration a number of young men were to-day engaged in burning the dry grass in vacant lots. The flames communicated to the church and despite the efforts of the Fire Department it was destroyed.

Contending Heirs.

STOCKTON, June 28.—A second answer has been filed in the suit to determine heirship in the estate of Peter Christensen, who left about $300,000 without a known relative. The complainants in the suit asserted that Christensen was an illegitimate child and was born in 1820. Those who answered to-day assert that deceased was born in lawful wedlock, had one brother and two sisters, whose children they are. Other answers to the suit are expected.

Oil in the Well.

SAN MIGUEL, June 28.—While boring a well to get water for domestic purposes in the yard of Supervisor J. E. Redmond at Parkfield, a considerable quantity of oil and gas was struck at a depth of less than ten feet. There is, in fact, so much oil in the well that the water is unfit for use. The well is in the vicinity of the recent oil discoveries in that section, and it further encourages the belief that oil in paying quantities will eventually be found.

Aquire Makes Appointments.

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, June 28.—Warden Aguirre announced to-day the appointments of H. C. McClure of Los Angeles as turnkey and Charles Barnhill of Los Angeles as keeper of the upper gate. Both men served under Aguirre when he was Sheriff of Los Angeles County. Aguirre stated that the Captain of the Yard Edgar would remain indefinitely in charge of the yard.

The Rumor Correct.

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—The rumor started yesterday to the effect that the Oxford brothers had purchased the Patterson ranch of 5,000 acres in Ventura County proves to-day to be correct. The price paid was upwards of $800,000. The Oxonards now have over 12,000 acres of land in the vicinity of their sugar beet factory and are in a position to raise their own beets should the necessity arise.

Reported Combination Denied.

SEATTLE, June 28.—Articles incorporating the North American Fish and Fertilizing Company were filed here today. The capital stock is $1,500,000. The statement that the incorporation is a prelude to the formation of a combination by the five fish and fertilizing factories on Puget Sound with a capital of $2,500,000 is denied by the incorporators.

Wants to Match Jeffords.

STOCKTON, June 28.—"Biddy" Bishop, the well known sporting man who is managing Jim Jeffords, the Sonora heavyweight fighter, is in Stockton and seeks to arrange for a fight before the Stockton Athletic Association between Jeffords and the winner of the Meyer-Jones fight to-morrow night in San Francisco.

An Experimental Bank.

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—An attempt is to be made here by several prominent citizens to incorporate a savings bank to be called the Equity Savings Bank, without any capital stock. It is to be in the nature of an experiment. The directors are to be J. A. Muir, Frank Flint, C. S. Bradford, J. O. Koppfl, W. D. Woolwine and Donald Barker.

Indicted for Embezzlement.

SAN JOSE, June 28.—This afternoon the Grand Jury found an indictment for embezzlement of funds of the Faul estate against S. B. Terrill, the lawyer. Four other indictments for forgery and embezzlement had previously been returned, and he is now in jail awaiting trial.

Denver "Ed" Smith to Fight.

SEATTLE, June 28.—"Denver" Ed Smith has accepted the challenge of Costello, a gunner on the battleship Iowa, to fight a limited number of rounds for a purse in the latter part of July. The fight will probably be pulled off in this city.

The Valencia Sails.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The United States transport steamer Valencia sailed to-night for Manila, bearing the headquarters band and Troops B and M of the Fourth Cavalry, and Companies H and E of the Twenty-fifth Infantry.

Threatened His Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Miss Catherine Whittle had a warrant issued for the arrest of her father to-day. She says he threatened to kill her because she refused to give up William Goodwin, her sweetheart.

Twenty Horses Burned.

STOCKTON, June 28.—A fire on Victoria Island this morning destroyed a large barn on the Woodward ranch together with about fifteen tons of hay and twenty head of horses. The animal was destroyed to Chinese who were farming the land.

THE LAPINER KIDNAPING.

Little Gerald's Mother Tells the Story of the Theft of Her Boy.

CHICAGO, June 28.—Mrs. Lapiner took the stand to-day in the case of Mrs. Ingersoll and John Collins of Greenville, Ohio, charged with kidnaping little Gerald Lapiner, and told the story of the theft of her boy and the circumstances under which she found him after a ten-months' fruitless search. The surroundings and the physical condition of the child when found tended to substantiate the claims of ill-treatment of Gerald. Mrs. Lapiner first found the child sitting on the bed in the upper part of the house in Painesville. "The bed was black with filth," she said, "and had not been made up for a year, I should judge."

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Fair To-day, With Continued Warm Weather in the Interior.

C. P. HUNTINGTON'S PURCHASE.

Will Build a Reformatory for Juvenile Negro Offenders.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Collis P. Huntington has bought a tract of land of 1,370 acres in Hanover County, Virginia, where, at his expense, a well equipped building with the latest modern improvements is to be erected for the confinement of juvenile offenders of the negro race.

Situation Well in Hand.

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.), June 28.—The deputies have the situation in hand at Cardiff and Blossburg, where the bloody race riots occurred yesterday afternoon. Although the negro miners refuse to work and continue to carry arms, Sheriff O'Brien says that he has no right to disarm them, but that he is prepared for any sort of trouble. An additional force of men has been placed on duty for fear of an outbreak during the night.

Peppers Exonerated.

CHICAGO, June 28.—A Coroner's jury to-day exonerated Harry Peppers, the antagonist of Neel, the prize fighter who died Saturday in St. Luke's Hospital.

Parliamentary Commission Meets.

LONDON, June 28.—The Parliamentary commission for the promotion of the Anglo-American movement met to-day in one of the committee rooms of the House of Commons. Right Hon. James Bryce, Liberal member of Parliament from Aberdeen, presided.

MENAGE RETURNS.

Pleads Not Guilty to Three Indictments Against Him.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 28.—After six years' absence in Guatemala and Mexico, Louis F. Menage returned to Minneapolis, pleaded not guilty to the three remaining indictments against him and has been released on $10,000 bail. He surrendered himself to the authorities this morning and was immediately arraigned before Judge Elbertson on three charges which have now stood against him for nearly six years. He pleaded not guilty to each charge, was bound over for trial at the September term of court under $10,000 bonds and then retired with his attorney.

Hight of Mount McKinley.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Numerous queries are being received by the scientific bureau as to the measurement of Mount McKinley, Alaska. The elevation of this mountain as determined by the Geological Survey parties during the last fiscal season is 20,460 feet above the mean sea level.

They Shoot and Severely Wound a Deputy Sheriff.

SAN JOSE, June 29.—In a battle with highbinders in Chinatown about midnight Deputy Sheriff Bache was shot in the left side and severely wounded. Late last evening word came to the Sheriff's office that a party of highbinders had come down from San Francisco for the purpose of killing Lee On Poon, the President of the Hip Sing Tong.

Shot Her Husband.

He Refused to Leave Another Woman and Said He Loved Her. SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Mrs. Charles Kopp shot and killed her husband in the parlor of their residence, No. 18 Lewis street, to-night. The only witness of the tragedy was the fourteen-year-old daughter of the couple, who had lived unhappily for some time. Leaving her dead husband in a pool of his own blood, Mrs. Kopp looked up the house, and going to the home of her sister and brother-in-law informed them of what she had done. Then they all returned to the scene of the crime. The brother-in-law blew a police whistle, and on the arrival of an officer Mrs. Kopp surrendered herself, saying: "I killed him because I wanted him all for myself."

THE NONPAREIL PURE

WOMEN'S TAILOR-MADE SUITS REDUCED TO $9.75

THAT SOLD FROM $17.50 TO $25.00.

To-day we place on sale 30 suits, which have been reduced as indicated by the figures above. This should prove an interesting item for those who are in quest of a new costume for the Fourth and to do service the balance of the season, and we really think it would tempt one to buy who had no immediate need in this line, were they to view this array of high class, stylish and perfectly tailored garments, and contemplate the saving in price. They're of whip-cord, coverts, canvas, serges, etc., in colors gray, green, tans, brown, blues and black. The jackets are silk lined and are of the Eton and fly-front style; the skirts are correct in every particular; some are of the plain, severely tailored sort, others attractively, yet neatly trimmed, with braid and ruffled ribbon.

That Shirt Waist for the Fourth.

Time is too short ere the Fourth for you to think of making a shirt waist—and you want one for that occasion. We can supply the deficit, save you time and money, too, and you can have as becoming and well-made a garment as if you'd chosen, and made it at home. You can select to-day, from all of our better class of waists, all pretty shades for all complexions; new designs, for all tastes; all trim, stylish, bright and cool, and values that brought readily from $1 up to $2.75 regular.

THEY ARE REDUCED NOW TO 83c AND $1.45.

At 83c. At $1.45.

You can select from them that were $1.50 and $1.75; they are principally of percale, of the very best quality, and made by a factory whose garments are known as the best; stripes predominate in pattern, some plain alternating, some in various shades of pink, red, blue, lavender, green, etc.

You can choose from those that were $2, $2.50, $2.75. A most inviting lot there'll be, too, for first choosers. Some handsome welt piques, with neat, small patterns and stripes, others of well, corded zephyr cloths, pretty percales and madras; all in dainty, desirable colorings, and some insertion trimmed.
